M.'s subjects at Wa. shall find at all parliaments, knights, citizens, and burgesses, according to 27 H. 8. c. 26. s. 29. pl. 90. and shall be charged to all subsidies granted by the commons, and pay all other duties to H. M. as they have been accustomed, fines for redemption of sessions excepted, id. s. 110.

199. The town of Haverfordwest shall find one burgess at every parliament, the charges of the same burgess to be borne by the mayor, burgesses, and inhabitants, id. s. 111.

200. H. M. shall have all felons' goods, and goods of persons outlawed, waifs, strays, and other forfeitures and escheats, answered by the hands of the sheriffs, saving the right of his subjects, id. s. 112.

201. All errors and judgments before the justices at the great sessions, in pleas real, mixt [or personal, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 27. s. 4.] shall be redressed by writ of error out of the chancery, returnable before the K. B., and if the judgment be affirmed, then to make execution and other process as is used in K. B., id. s. 113. and 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 27. s. 4.

202. No execution shall be staid by writ of false judgment for reserving any judgment given in any county court in Wa., unless the prosecutor thereof be bound to the other party in recognizance with 2 sureties allowed by the sheriff, in 10l. (except where the sum adjudged for costs and damages exceeds 10l., and then in double the sum so adjudged), to prosecute with effect, and to pay, if the judgment is affirmed or writ non-prossed, all the damages and costs adjudged, as well as those awarded for delay of execution; the acknowledgment of which the sheriff shall take and file among the proceedings of such court, and may take 1s. of the prosecutor for such caption and filing; and in case of breach of condition of such recognizance, the cognizee may maintain an action of debt thereon in any of H. M.'s court of record in Wa., against the cognizers, or either of them, to recover the costs and damages mentioned in the recognizance, 33 G. 3. c. 68. s. 3.

203. All process for weighty causes shall be made into Wa. by the special command of the chancellor of Eng. or any of H. M.'s council in Eng., as heretofore, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 115.

204. The town of Bewdley, in the parish of Ribbesford, in the county of Wigorn, [Worcester] shall be united to the county of Wigorn, and be within the hundred of Dodingtre, id. s. 116.

205. The lordship of Llanstiffan, Usterloys, and Langham, shall be part of the county of Caermarthen, and parcel of the hundred of Derles, id. s. 117.

206. The county court of the county of Radnor shall be holden at New Radnor and Preston, alternis vicibus, and never at Rother Gowey, id. s. 118.

207. This act shall not prejudice any person or body politic concerning any lands, tenements, rents, services, tolls, or other hereditaments, id. s. 126.; nor concerning any office enjoyed by them under any patent now in force; nor concerning the fees used to be paid for exercise of such offices, but every person having the same, his substitutes and deputies, shall exercise them, as by this act limited, with the usual fees, 54 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 127.

208. All liberties, franchises, and privileges of the duchy of Lancaster shall remain as before this act was made, id. s. 130.

209. TO FILL UP JURIES, de circumstantibus, LACKING IN Wales, 5 El. c. 25. [The difference between this statute and 35 H. 8. c. 6. ss. 5—13. is very slight, and is fully noticed with that act, tit. JURY, pl. 37., &c.]

210. FOR TRANSLATING THE BIBLE AND DIVINE SERVICE into the Welsh tongue, 5 El. c. 28.

211. The bishops of Hereford, St. Davids, Asaph, Bangor, and Llandaff, shall take order, that the Bible, with the Book of Common Prayer, as now used in English, be translated into the British or Welsh tongue, and divine service shall be used throughout the said dioceses where the Welsh is commonly used in the British tongue, id. s. 1.

212. The Bible and Common Prayer, in the English tongue, shall be had in every church throughout Wales, in which the Bible and Common Prayer in Welsh are to be had by this act, and shall remain in convenient places within the churches, that all persons may resort, at convenient times, to read the same; and that such as do not understand the language may, by conferring both tongues together, the sooner attain a knowledge of English, id. s. 2.

213. FOR TAKING AWAY THE COURT HOLDEN BEFORE THE president and council of the marches of Wales, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 27. s. 2., and recital in s. 1. [See ss. 3, 4. supra, pl. 152. 201.]

214. The "court before the president and council of the marches of Wales," and all jurisdiction of any officers thereof, taken away, id. s. 2. [The 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 4. is also repealed, id. ibid.]

215. TO TAKE AWAY THE CUSTOM OF WALES WHICH HINDERS persons from disposing of their personal estates by their wills, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 38.

216. Any person residing or having any goods within Wa. or its marches, may, by their last wills, dispose of all their goods, chattels, debts, and other personal estate, to their executor, or such other persons as the testators shall think fit, in as ample a manner as any persons may within the province of Canterbury; and the widows, children, and other the kindred of such testators shall be barred to claim any part of such goods or personal estate, in any manner other than as by the said last wills appointed, id. s. 1.

217. Nothing in this act shall take away any right which any woman now married, or younger children now born, may have to the reasonable part of their husband's or father's estate by virtue of the custom, id. s. 2.

218. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING FRIVOLOUS and vexatious arrests, and for more easy recovery of debts and damages in the courts of great sessions in Wa., and in the court of assize in the county palatine of Chester, 6 G. 2. c. 14. ss. 1, 2. [See rest of this statute, JUDICIAL PROCEEDING.]

219. In all personal actions commenced in the above courts respectively, where the debt or damages do not amount to 10*l.*, and where the plaintiff shall sue out an original writ, and serve defendant with a true copy thereof by a literate person, at least 8 days before commencement of those courts respectively, and shall cause on every such copy to be written the notice in 5 G. 2. c. 27. (ARREST, pl. 32.) specified; defendant in such cases shall appear at the return of such original, or at or before the 3d court to be held in the same respective courts; and in case he shall not so appear, the plaintiff or his attorney, on affidavit made and filed in the proper court, of the personal service of such process (which affidavit shall be filed in the said court, and 1*s.* paid for the same to the proper officer, and no more), may enter an appearance for defendant, and proceed thereon as if defendant had entered the same to such action, id. s. 1.

220. No attorney, bail, or other person, shall charge or take more than 5*s.* for making and serving a copy of such original, issuing out of such courts of great sessions or assize, id. s. 2.

221. FOR PROVIDING PROPER ACCOMMODATION FOR H. M.'s justices of great sessions in Wa. during the time of holding them, 8 G. 3. c. 14.

222. The sheriffs of the counties of Wa. shall provide necessary lodging and other accommodations for H. M.'s justices of the great sessions, during the time of each session, in like manner as is usual with the sheriffs of the English counties for the justices of assize there; and H. M., by warrant under his sign-manual, countersigned by the high treasurer, or 3 commissioners of the treasury, may authorize, during the continuance of 1 G. 3. c. 1. [which is now Exp.] the auditor of the land revenues of the crown arising within Wa., to pass all such charges made by such sheriffs, in the accounts by them to be delivered into such auditor's office, of the expences by them incurred in providing such accommodations for such justices of Wa., and to direct certificates to be delivered by such auditor to such sheriffs, of the sums allowed and passed in their accounts; and also to authorize, during the above term, the receivers-general of such revenues to pay the sums so certified, on production and delivery of such certificates, without any fee, 8 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1.

223. But no larger sum shall be allowed, passed, certified, and paid, than 10*l.*, for accommodations in any one county for any one such session, id. s. 2.

224. AGAINST COMMENCING FRIVOLOUS AND VEXATIOUS SUITS in H. M.'s courts at Westminster, in causes of action arising within Wa., and for further regulating the proceedings in the courts of great sessions there, 13 G. 3. c. 51. ss. 1, 2. 6—17. (See ss. 3—5. ante, pl. 107, 108.) [AMD. as to executions out of great sessions where the person or effects are not found within their jurisdiction, 33 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1.]

225. In case the plaintiff in any action on the case for words, or of debt, trespass on the case, assault and battery, or other personal action, where the cause of such act [semb. action] shall arise within the dominion of Wa., and which shall be tried at the assizes, at the English county nearest to that part of Wa. in which the cause of action is laid to arise, shall not recover by verdict a debt or damages to the amount of 10*l.*; then if the judge who tried the cause, on evidence appearing before him, shall certify on the back of the nisi prius record, that defendant was resident in Wa. at the service of the mesne process on him in such action, (on such fact being suggested on the record or judgment roll), a judgment of nonsuit shall be entered, and defendant shall have like judgment and remedy thereon to recover costs against the plaintiff, as if a verdict had been given for him by the jury; unless the judge who tried the cause shall certify on the back of the record that the freehold or title of the land mentioned in the plaintiff's declaration was chiefly in question, or that such cause was proper to be tried in such English county, id. s. 1.

226. "In order to prevent transitory actions where the cause of action does not amount to 10*l.*, arising within Wa., from being brought in any of H. M.'s courts out of the principality:" In all transitory actions arising within Wa. which are brought in any of H. M.'s courts of record out of Wa., with the venue laid in any county or place out of Wa., and the debt or damages found by the jury do not amount to 10*l.*, and it appears in evidence given on the trial that the cause of action arose and that defendant was resident in Wa. at the time of service of mesne process upon him, and it is so certified under the hand of the judge who tried the cause, on the back of the nisi prius record, (on such facts being suggested on the record or judgment roll), a judgment or [semble of] nonsuit shall be entered thereon against plaintiff, who shall pay defendant his costs in the action; and defendant shall have like remedy to recover the same as if a verdict had been given for him; and in the taxation of all costs allowed to defendant by this act, the proper officer shall allow plaintiff out of the same the full sum given by the verdict for his debt or damages; and though no judgment is entered for plaintiff on such verdict, it shall nevertheless bar any action commenced by him for the same, id. s. 2.

227. The justices of great sessions in Wa., on motion made on behalf of H. M., his heirs or successors, or on motion of any prosecutor or defendant, in any indictment or information of any misdemeanor, or on motion of any plaintiff or defendant in any action soever, in any such court, shall and may, if they think fit, order a jury to be struck before the proper officer of such courts, for trial of any issue joined in any such case in the manner in which special juries have been usually struck in the courts of law at Westminster, on trials at bar had therein; which jury, so struck, shall be the jury returned for trial of the issue, id. s. 6.

228. The party applying for such special jury under this act, shall not only pay the fees of striking the same, but also the expences occasioned by trial of the cause by such jury, and shall have no other allowance for the same on taxation of costs, than he would have been entitled to if the cause had been tried by a common jury, unless the justices or justice before whom the cause is tried shall, immediately after the trial, certify in open court under his or their hands on the back of the record, that the same was a cause proper to be tried by a special jury, id. s. 7.

229. No person who shall serve upon any jury, appointed by authority of this act, shall take for serving, more than the sum which the justices or justice who tries the issue shall think just, not exceeding 1*l.* 1*s.* except in causes where a view is directed, id. s. 8.

230. The justices of the courts of great sessions shall, by one or more commissioners, under the seal of the said courts, empower so many persons as they think fit, in all the shires within their circuits in Wa., to take all such affidavits as any person shall be desirous to make before any of the persons so empowered in any cause pending, or in any wise concerning any of the proceedings in their circuits, as the justices of K. B. or C. P., or treasurer, chancellor, and barons of the exchequer use to do; which affidavits shall be filed in the offices of the said courts of great sessions, and may be read in the said courts, as other affidavits taken therein now are; and all affidavits, taken as aforesaid, shall be of the same force as affidavits taken in the said courts; and all persons forswearing themselves, in such affidavits, shall be liable unto the same penalties, as if they had been made in open court; which commissions shall be made out by the prothonotary, upon a fiat from the justices; and he shall cause an entry to be made in a book to be kept for that purpose, of the names of the persons to whom such commissions are granted, and the times when issued; and the following fees shall be paid for each commission, and no more; viz. 2s. for the fiat, 4s. for making out the commission, besides the duty and value of the parchment, and 4s. for sealing the same; and every commissioner so empowered, shall take for swearing of every affidavit before him, 1s. and no more, 13 G.3. c.51. s.9.

231. No person appointed a commissioner shall take any affidavit during the time of holding the great sessions, or assizes, for the county in which such cause is pending, id. s.10.

232. Such officers of the said courts of great sessions, as have heretofore taken or sworn affidavits, may continue so to do, id. s.11.

233. The justices of the courts of great sessions may, by commission, or under the seal of the said courts, empower such persons (other than common attorneys or solicitors) as they think fit, in the several shires within their circuits in Wa., to take recognizances of bail in any action depending in the said courts, in such manner, and by such bail-piece, as the justices of the courts of great sessions have used to take the same; which recognizances, or bail-pieces, together with an affidavit made of the due taking of such bail, by some credible person present at the taking thereof, shall be transmitted to the prothonotary's office, there to be filed of record, paying such fees as have usually been received for taking of special bails by the justices clerks, and other officers of the courts, which recognizance of bail or bail-piece shall be of the like effect, as if the same were taken before any of the justices; for taking which recognizance of bail or bail-piece, the person so empowered shall receive only 2s., id. s.12.

234. The justices of great sessions, in their courts, shall make such rules for justifying of bails, and making the same absolute, as to them shall seem meet, so as the cognizor of such bail be not compelled to appear in person in any of the said courts to justify; but the same may be determined by affidavit taken before the commissioners, touching the value of their estates, id. s.13.

235. The attorney for the defendant shall give notice to the plaintiff's attorney of the taking of such bail within 8 days after caption thereof, and the plaintiff may, within 8 days after such notice, take exception to such bail, and enter the same in the prothonotary's office; which exception having been taken, the bail shall be justified before the justices, before the rising of the second court at the ensuing sessions; and the bail bond taken by the sheriff, under-sheriff, or other officer, for the defendant's appearance, shall remain in force till such special bail have been finally justified; but the plaintiff, nevertheless, may file his declaration conditionally in the prothonotary's office; and defendant, in case such declaration has been delivered 7 days before the first day of the session next ensuing the return of such writs, shall plead thereto, before the rising of the second court of such great sessions, unless further time shall be given him by the court, id. s.14.

236. All original writs, bills, and all mesne process whatsoever, by which any action shall be commenced in the courts of great session for North and South Wa., shall be made returnable before H. M.'s justices respectively of the several counties of North and South Wa., on the first Wednesday in any month in each of the two vacations, annually, betwixt the two sessions, or on the first day of the next sessions, at the election of the plaintiff or the attorney, who shall sue out the same; and [QU. to] all such writs or process which shall issue out of the said courts, returnable in the vacations, and whereon the defendant shall be arrested or served with a copy, defendant shall appear and file special bail, or enter a common appearance on the day of such return, or within 14 days next after; and in case of neglect in bailable actions, the sheriff or officer shall, at the request and costs of the plaintiff or attorney, assign the bail bond, by indorsement and attestation under his hand, in the presence of two witnesses; and the plaintiff, after such assignment, may bring an action upon such bail bond in his own name; and the said courts may, by rule, give such relief to the plaintiff and defendant, in the original action, and to the bail sued upon the bail bond, as is agreeable to justice; and in case on service of the copy of any writ (having notice thereunder written, purporting the intent of such service) returnable in the vacation time as aforesaid, the defendant so served, shall not appear at the return, or within 14 days after, the plaintiff, on affidavit made, and filed with the prothonotary of the said courts, or his deputy, of the personal service of such writ as aforesaid, may enter a common appearance for the defendant, and proceed thereon as if such defendant had entered his appearance; and special bail having been filed, or a common appearance entered, as the case shall require, the plaintiff may proceed to file his declaration; and the defendant, in case such declaration shall have been delivered 7 days before the 1st day of the session next ensuing the return of such writ, shall be bound to plead thereto, before the rising of the 2d court of such great sessions, to be holden for the county in which such action shall have been brought, unless the court think proper to allow further time, 13 G.3. c.51. s.15.

237. Every officer or clerk belonging to the courts of great sessions in Wa., who shall sign any original writ or bill, relating to actions depending in the said courts, shall, at the signing thereof, set down thereon the day and year of his signing the same, which shall be entered on the remembrance, or in the book where the abstracts of such original writ or bill shall be entered, on pain to forfeit 5l. for every neglect; to be recovered by any person who shall sue by action of debt or information, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s.16.

238. Where any penalty is given by any statute, and the same is directed to be recovered in the courts of Westminster, excepting such as may by the laws now in being be sued for only in the exchequer, and the offence for which such penalty hath or shall be given is done in any of the counties of Wa., and the defendant liable to the same is resident within the jurisdiction of the great session, the plaintiff, or prosecutor, or other person to whom such penalty is given, may, in such case, sue for and recover the same in the courts of great session, in such manner as he might have done in the courts at Westminster; and the courts of great session shall have jurisdiction as fully as if they had been named in those statutes, id. s.17.

239. FOR REGULATING PROCEEDINGS IN THE COURTS OF GREAT SESSIONS of Wa., 33 G.3. c.68. [See part of title and of s.1., COUNTIES PALATINE, pl.6, 7.]

240. Where final judgment is obtained in any of the courts of great sessions in Wa., any court of record at Westminster, on affidavit made before a judge or commissioner in such court, and filed therein, of such judgment being obtained; and diligent search and inquiry having been made after the person or his effects, and of execution having issued against either, and that the person or effects are not to be found within the jurisdiction of such court, may cause a transcript of the record of the judgment to be removed into such court at Westminster, and may issue writs of execution thereupon to the sheriff of any county or place, against the person or effects, as upon judgments obtained in the courts at Westminster; and the sheriff shall detain the person against whom such execution shall be issued till 40s. be paid to him, or shall levy that sum out of the effects according to the nature of the execution, for the extraordinary costs in such court subsequent to the said judgment, and of the execution in the court at Westminster over and above the money for which it shall be issued, id. s.1.

WARRANTY.

1. WHAT DAY SHALL BE GIVEN TO HIM that is vouched to warranty, 52 (or 54) H.3. c.26.

2. None being vouched to warranty before justices in eyre, in plea of land or tenements, shall be amerced for not being present when so vouched, except the first day of the coming of the justices: but if the party vouched be within the shire, the sheriff shall be commanded to cause him to come within the 3d or 4th day, according to the distance of the place, as it was wont to be done in the circuit of the justices; and if he dwell without the shire, then he shall have reasonable summons of 15 days at least after the discretion of the justices and the common law, id. ibid.

3. VOUCHER TO WARRANTY AND COUNTER-PLEADING of voucher, 13 E.1. c.40. The statute of vouchers, 20 E.1. S.1.

4. In writs of possession, especially in writs of mort d'auncester, of cosinage, of aiel, nuper obiit, of intrusion, and other like writs, whereby lands and tenements are demanded, which ought to descend, revert, remain, or escheat by the death of any ancestor or otherwise, if the tenant vouch to warranty, and the demandant counterpleadeth him, and will aver by assize, the country, or as the court will award, that the tenant or his ancestor (whose heir he is) was the first who entered after the death of him of whose seisin he demandeth, such averment shall be received if the tenant will abide thereon; and if not, he shall answer over, if he have not his warrantor present that will warrant him freely, and incontinent enter into answer; saving unto the demandant his exceptions against him, if he will vouch over as he had before against the first tenant, 3 E.1. c.40. s.1.

5. In writs of entry, which make mention of degrees, none shall vouch out of the line, and in other writs of entry, where no degrees are mentioned, (which are only maintained, where the other writs of degrees cannot lie,) in a writ of right, it is provided, that if the tenant vouch to warranty, and the demandant will counterplead him, and be ready to aver by the country, that the vouchee nor his ancestors had never seisin of the land or tenement demanded, nor fee, nor service, by the hands of the tenant or his ancestor, since the time of him on whose seisin the demandant declareth, until the time when the writ was purchased and the plea moved, whereby he might have infeoffed the tenant or his ancestors, then let such averment be received if the tenant will abide thereon, or if not, the tenant shall answer over, if he have not his warrantor present that will warrant him freely, and incontinent enter into answer; saving to the demandant his exceptions against him as he had before against the first tenant. And such exception shall have place in the writs before named, as well as in writs that concern right. And if the tenant have a charter of warranty of another man, which is bound in none of the cases aforesaid to the warranty of an elder degree, his recovery by a writ of warranty of charters out of the chancery shall be saved him at what time he will purchase, howbeit the plea be not delayed therefore, 3 Ed. 1. c. 40. s. 2.

6. That when any tenant doth vouch any to warranty, and the demandant will aver, as in 3 E. 1. c. 40. is contained, his averment shall be admitted, whether the party vouched be absent or present, 20 E. 1. St. 1.

7. BY WHAT WORDS IN A FEOFFMENT A FEOFFER shall be bound to warranty, 4 E. 1. St. 3. c. 6.

8. In deeds where are contained the words dedi et concessi tale tenementum, without homage or a clause of warranty, and to be holden of the givers and their heirs by a certain service, such givers and heirs shall be bound to warranty; and where it is dedi et concessi, &c., to be holden of the chief lord of the fee, or of other than the feoffers and their heirs, reserving no service without homage or without such clause, their heirs shall not be bound to warranty, but the feoffer himself shall, during his own life, by force of his own gift, id. ibid.

9. PENALTY ON A VOCHEE DENYING HIS WARRANTY, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 6.

10. When any demands land against another, and the party impleaded voucheth to warranty, and the warrantor denieth his warranty and the plea dependeth long, and it is proved that the vouchee is bound to warranty, then like as the tenant would lose the land in demand, in case where he vouched to warranty, and the vouchee could discharge himself of the warranty, in the same wise shall the warrantor lose in case he denies his warranty and it be proved against him; and if the tenant and warrantor be at issue, and the demandant will require a writ to cause a jury to come, it shall be granted to him, id. ibid.

11. IF THE TENANT VOUCH TO WARRANTY a dead man, and the demandant will aver that the vouchee is dead, or that there is none such, his averment shall be received without further delay, 14 E. 3. St. 1. c. 18.

12. ALL WARRANTIES HEREAFTER TO BE MADE by any tenant for life, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, the same descending or coming to any person in reversion or remainder, shall be void; and likewise all collateral warranties hereafter to be made of any lands, &c. by any ancestor, who has no estate of inheritance in possession in the same, shall be void against his heir, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 21.

WARRENS.

1. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PRESERVATION OF CONIES in warrens, and for preventing the damage done to sea-banks in Lincolnshire, by breeding conies therein, 5 G. 3. c. 14. ss. 6—9. [See ss. 1—5., GAME, pl. 149.]

2. If any person shall wilfully, in the night-time, enter into any warren or grounds kept for breeding or keeping of conies, though not inclosed, and there kill in the night-time any conies against the will of the owner or occupier, or shall be aiding therein, and convicted thereof before any justices of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery for the county where such offence is committed, shall be transported for 7 years, or suffer punishment by whipping, fine, or imprisonment, as the court shall in discretion award, id. s. 6.

3. No person convicted of any offence against this shall be liable to conviction under any former act, id. s. 7.

4. Nothing in this act shall prevent any person from killing, or from taking and carrying away in the day-time any conies found on any sea or river banks erected for preservation of the adjoining lands from being overflowed by the sea or river waters, so far as the flux or reflux of the tide extends, or on any land within one furlong thereof: and any person may enter on such banks or land in the county of Lincoln, and kill and carry away in the day-time, to his own use, any conies found thereon, doing as little damage as may be to the owner, id. s. 8. And no person shall be obliged to make satisfaction for any such damage, unless it exceed 1*s.*, id. s. 9.

WASTE.

1. THE KEEPER OF LAND OF AN HEIR WITHIN AGE, shall not take of the lands of the heir, but reasonable issues, customs and services, and that without waste. And if H. M. commit the custody of any such land to the sheriff, or other who is answerable to him for the issues, and he make waste, H. M. will take of him amends; and the land shall be committed to 2 lawful men, who shall answer for the issues unto H. M.; and if H. M. give or sell to any man the custody of such lands, and he make waste, the like shall be done, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 4. [See 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1. TENURES.]

2. ALSO FERMORS DURING THEIR TERMS SHALL NOT make waste, sale or exile of houses, woods and men, nor of any thing belonging to the tenements they have to ferm, without special licence by writing of covenant, mentioning that they may do it; which if they do they shall yield full damage, and be amerced grievously, 52 (or 54) H. 3. c. 23. s. 2.

3. NO WASTE SHALL BE MADE IN WARD'S LANDS, nor in bishops, during the vacation, 3 E. 1. c. 21.

4. Guardians shall keep, and sustain the land without making destruction of any thing, as in 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 5. [BENEFICE, pl. 1.] contained. And in the same manner shall archbishoprics, bishoprics, &c., and all spiritual dignities be kept in time of vacation, id. ibid.

5. SEVERAL TENANTS AGAINST WHOM AN ACTION of waste is maintainable, 6 E. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 5.

6. A man may have a writ of waste in the chancery against tenants by the law of Eng., or otherwise, for term of life or years, or a woman that holdeth a dower; and he that is attainted of waste, shall leese the thing wasted, and recompense thrice as much as the waste is taxed at; For waste made in the time of wardship it shall be done as in the great charter, c. 4. pl. 1. And where in the great charter it is contained, that he which did waste during the wardship shall leese it, it is agreed, that he shall recompense the heir his damages for the waste, if so be that the wardship lost do not amount to the value of the damages before the age of the heir of the same wardship, 6 E. 1. c. 5.

7. NO WASTE SHALL BE MADE PENDING A SUIT for land, 6 E. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 13.

8. When a plea is moved in the city of London by writ, the tenant shall not make any waste or estrepement of the tenement in demand pending the plea, and if he do, the mayor and bailiff shall cause it to be kept at the suit of the demandant. And this statute shall be observed in cities, boroughs, and throughout the realm, id. ibid.

9. THE PROCESS IN AN ACTION OF WASTE ALTERED, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 14.

10. Of all waste done to the damage of any person, there shall be no writ of prohibition awarded, but a writ of summons, so that he of whom complaint is shall answer for waste done at any time; and if he come not after summons, he shall be attached, and after attachment distrained, and if he come not after distress, the sheriff shall be commanded, that a proper person taking with him 12., &c., he go to the place wasted, and enquire of the waste done, and return the inquisition, and after inquisition they shall pass judgment, as in 6 E. 1. (Stat. Glouc.) c. 5. pl. 6. contained, id. ibid.

11. OF WASTE BETWEEN TENANTS IN COMMON, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 22.

12. When 2 or more do hold a wood, a turbary, fishery, or other such thing in common, wherein none knoweth his several, and one does waste against the will of the other, an action may be maintained by a writ of waste, and when it is come to judgment, the defendant shall have his election, either to take his part in a place certain by the sheriff, and by the view, oath, and assignment of his neighbours chosen and sworn for that intent; or else he shall grant not to take any thing from such wood, &c., but as his partners will allow. And if he will take his part, he shall have the part wasted assigned him, and there is in such case a writ, viz. (Cum A. et B., &c.) id. ibid.

13. EVERY HEIR (IN WHOSE WARD SOEVER HE BE, as well within as of full age) shall have his recovery by a writ of waste committed in the time of his ancestor, and in other cases where the same writ holds; as well for waste and destruction made in lands and tenements of his inheritance, in the times of his ancestors, as from time when the fee and inheritance descended unto him, and shall be answered unto therefore; and he shall recover the tenements wasted, and damages as ordained by 13 E. 1. (West Sec.) c. 14. pl. 10., if the tenant be convict of waste, 20 E. 1. St. 2.

14. FOR REMEDY IN CASES OF WASTE, WHERE TENANTS assign their estate, but take the profits, 11 H. 6. c. 5.

15. If a tenant for life, or years, assign his estate, the lessor or reversioner may have a writ of waste against such tenants for life, or years, and so recover against them the place wasted and treble damages for the waste so done, as they might have done before such grant or lease of their estate; and also when after such grant or lease the first tenants of the lands, &c. take the profits to their own use at the time of waste done id. ibid.

WATCH AND WARD.

1. OF WATCHING AND KEEPING THE PEACE in cities, boroughs and towns, 13 E. 1., (Stat. Wynt.) c. 4.

2. In great towns walled, the gates shall be closed from sun setting to sun rising, and no man shall lodge in the suburbs without his host will answer for him; and the bailiffs of towns shall enquire of all persons so lodged weekly, and do right therein; and all towns shall be kept as hath been usual, and in every city 6 men shall keep at each gate; and in every borough 12; and in every town 6 or 4, and shall watch the town continually all night, and strangers shall be arrested until morning; and if no suspicion be found he shall go quit, but if otherwise, shall be delivered to the sheriff to be kept till duly delivered; and if he will not obey the arrest, hue and cry shall be raised, and those that keep the town shall follow with the towns near till he be taken, and none shall be punished for the arrest of such stranger, 13 E. 1. (Stat. Wynt.) c. 4.

3. THE CONSTABLES SHALL PRESENT BEFORE JUSTICES assigned, such defaults as they shall have found of pursuits, and of watches and highways, and also shall present all such as lodge strangers in uplandish towns, for whom they will not answer; and the justices assigned shall present the same at every parliament to H. M., who shall provide remedy, 13 E. 1. (Stat. Wynt.) c. 6.

4. The statute in last pl. shall be read 4 times by the year, as well as the 2 great charters, and to the keeping the same the 3 knights shall be charged, who are assigned through the counties to redress things done against the great charters, 28 E. 1. c. 17. Art. sup. Chart.

5. NIGHT WALKERS AND SUSPECTED PERSONS shall be safely kept, 5 E. 3. c. 14. [See 3 Inst. 197.]

6. If any have evil suspicion of any roberdesmen, wastors and drawlatches, be it by day or night, they shall be arrested by the constables of the towns, and, if within franchises, delivered to the bailiffs thereof, and if in guildable, to the sheriffs, and kept in custody till the next coming of the justices of gaol delivery; and, in the mean time, the bailiffs and sheriffs of the franchises shall make enquiry concerning such persons arrested, and at their coming shall return their inquests before the justices of gaol delivery, with what they found, and the causes of the takings, with the bodies, and the justices shall proceed to their deliverance according to law; and if such sheriffs, &c. fail so to enquire, they shall be amerced, but nevertheless the justices shall proceed as above, id. ibid.

7. THE WATCHES ON THE SEA-COAST SHALL BE MADE by the number of people in the places, and in manner as they were wont; and 13 E. 1. c. 4. pl. 1. shall be kept herein; and this article shall be put in the commissions of the peace, that the justices have power thereof to make inquisition in their sessions, and punish those found in default, 5 H. 4. c. 3.

8. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PRESERVATION OF THE PEACE, by enforcing the duties of watching and warding in places where disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, 52 G. 3. c. 17. [CON. 54 G. 3. c. 22., 57 G. 3. c. 38., 58 G. 3. c. 52. and till 20th June, 1824., 1 G. 4. c. 24. ss. 1. 4. and AMD. id. ss. 2, 3.]

9. The custos rotulorum, or, in his absence, the sheriff or 5 justices acting for any county in Eng. may, from time to time, in case any prevailing or apprehended disturbances or offences against the peace, within the county, shall, in their opinion, render the execution of this act necessary by order under his or their hands and seals, direct the clerk of the peace of the county, or his deputy, to assemble a special general sessions of the justices of the county by notice in some newspaper circulating therein, and put up on the church doors and conspicuous places of the market-places of any of the several parishes and places in which such disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, 2 days at least before the meeting, to consider and determine the expediency of executing all or any of the provisions hereof; which justices may adjourn such sessions as occasion may require, id. s. 1.

10. If it appears to such sessions that disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, in the county within any parish, township, or place, situate within the jurisdiction, and that the ordinary peace officers are not sufficient to protect the inhabitants, and secure the property therein, 5 justices may declare such insufficiency; and that every man residing therein, above 17 years old, and assessed to the poor-rate, shall be subject to watch by night, and ward by day, according to this act; and may thereupon order this act to be carried into execution within every such parish, &c. and forthwith give notice of such adjudication and orders to the home-secretary, and publish the same in some one or more county newspapers, id. s. 2.

11. Any justice, acting for such county, may, by summons, under his hand and seal, cause any person to come to give evidence before such sessions, who shall order the county treasurer to pay, out of the county rates, to every person so summoned to give evidence, such sums as by them may be adjudged a proper compensation for his loss of time and expences; and if any person so summoned shall not appear at the time fixed, without just excuse assigned, or shall refuse to be examined on oath, the justices present at such sessions may, by warrant of 2 of them, commit him to the county gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 3.

12. The justices in special general sessions shall order notice of their adjudication to be given by the chief constables to the constables of every parish, &c. or place in which this act is required to be enforced by any such adjudication, and to special constables, if any are appointed under this act; and shall issue precepts, requiring from them, (within the time required by the justices, and not exceeding 3 days' notice,) a true list of the names, occupations, and ages of all the men above 17 years of age, usually and then dwelling within their respective parishes and places, and assessed to poor-rates therein, and to return the same to the justices, or 2 of them, assembled in such special or petty sessions, appointed for receiving it, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 4.

13. Every constable required to return or assist in making out any such list, may demand, from the overseers of each parish, &c. a true copy of the assessment made for relief of the poor therein, or the inspection and use thereof to copy or make extracts thereof, and if not delivered within 24 hours, or if inspection is refused, the overseer shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 5.

14. Every such constable shall, within the time prescribed by the justices, make out a true list of every such man within the parish, &c. so rated, and deliver to him a notice as in Sch. (A.) specifying that his name is contained therein, and the time and place for hearing appeals of persons claiming exemption, id. s. 6.

Schedule (A.)

Watching and Warding. (see 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 6.)

'Take notice, that your name is inserted in the list, and appeals will be heard on the — day of — at —.

'A. B. constable.'

15. Any two justices may, from time, issue their order under their hands and seals, requiring the attendance of any constable or other officer of such parish at such time and place within the county as is in such order expressed, who, on neglect to appear or return such list, or on wilful partiality or neglect therein, shall forfeit not more than 20*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, id. s. 7.

16. If any such list is lost or destroyed, any 2 justices for the county may, at any special or petty sessions, order a new list to be made and returned as above, id. s. 8.

17. The constables who have made such lists shall severally attend and verify the returns on oath, on an appointed day and place; and any 2 or more justices, at any special or petty sessions, for executing this act, shall, after hearing appeals of exemption, direct such lists to be amended, and the names of all persons omitted to be inserted; and after amending such lists, shall appoint such number of inhabitants, so liable to undertake the duties of watch and ward, as they shall think necessary, to keep watch in such parish, &c. or places, from sunset to sunrise, and ward in the day-time, if needful, having reasonable regard to the extent and population of such parish, &c., id. s. 9.

18. The justices, at any such special or petty sessions, may direct the constables or special constables of any parish, &c. to settle the order, rotation, and time, in which every person, liable to such duty, shall perform the same, and to regulate the manner of such performance, and the same penalties shall be incurred by neglect of such direction as if the justices had regulated such performance under 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 9.; but persons aggrieved, by any regulation of such constable, may apply for redress to the first special or petty sessions, held under this act, who shall make order therein as is proper, 1 G. 4. c. 24. s. 2.

19. Where it appears to the justices that the number of persons, paying poor-rates, is not sufficient for the duty of watch and ward under this act, they may require any other lists, and appoint such number of other persons, as appear to them necessary, to perform that duty and subject to this act, as if returned in the lists of persons rated to the poor, and may allow them reasonable compensation to be paid as in s. 26. pl. 34., 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 10.

20. Every person aggrieved by insertion of his, or omission of any other names in any such list, or claiming exemption from service, may appeal to the special or petty sessions, appointed for hearing appeals, where any 2 justices may determine the same, or may adjourn the hearing to any other day, id. s. 11.

21. The justices at such sessions may appoint such number and of such persons, whether rated or resident in the parish, &c. or not, as appears proper, to be denominated special constables, who, (either with or without the other constables,) or one or more of them, according to the justice's order, shall direct all persons employed in keeping watch or ward, but shall be subject to the general control of the chief constable for the hundred or division; but no person not resident in the parish or place, for which he is appointed special constable, shall serve as such against his consent, id. s. 12. [See also 1 G. 4. c. 37. JUSTICE OF PEACE, pl. 143.]

22. Where the custos rotulorum, &c. (as in s. 1. pl. 9.) think that the circumstances under which they convene such sessions, make it advisable to enforce watch and ward as soon as possible, if the special sessions should deem the execution of this act necessary, the custos rotulorum, &c. may give notice to the constables, and appoint other special constables, require lists, hear appeals, and do every thing for more speedy execution of this act, if such sessions, on assembling, shall deem it necessary to put it in force; and all the penalties and regulations of the act shall apply to such interim proceedings of the custos, &c.; and any 2 justices may appoint special constables and other persons willing to watch and ward until the determination of the session is known, and may direct payment of compensation, as in s. 26. pl. 34. as if this act was enforced by such sessions, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 13.

23. The chief constable of every hundred or division shall, once in the week, or as often as the justices shall direct, visit every parish or place in which watch and ward is carried on under this act, and shall diligently enquire respecting the manner of carrying it into effect, and shall report the same, with all other matters, for preservation of peace, in writing, to the special or petty sessions, id. s. 14.

24. Every person so appointed to watch or ward, who shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place appointed by the constable or special constable, &c. of the parish or place, for the performance of either duty, or who shall not proceed according to their directions in the regular performance thereof, shall, (unless he prove the satisfaction of the magistrate, that he was prevented by illness or unavoidable accident,) forfeit not more than 10*l.* nor less than 40*s.* for each neglect, &c.; provided that any two such justices, at such special or petty sessions, may exempt from such duty any man exceeding 50 years old, and not occupying tenements of 20*l.* yearly value, id. s. 15.

25. No person having found a sufficient substitute, approved by the justices in special or petty sessions, or by the chief constable, and having enrolled his name, age, occupation, and place of abode, in the book of the constable or his deputy, shall be liable to such forfeiture; but every such substitute shall be personally liable under this act, in his stead, unless he give notice, in writing, of his intention, to withdraw his service as such, both to the constable and employer, at least 2 days before his services become necessary, according to the rotation established in such parish, &c. id. s. 16.

26. Every quaker, appointed to watch or ward, who shall not appear at the fixed time or place, or perform his duties under directions of the constable, shall not be liable to the fine imposed by 52 G. 3. c. 17. for non-attendance or non-observance of such directions; but any 2 justices may forthwith hire, on as reasonable terms as may be, a fit substitute, who shall be enrolled, and perform the duties of watching and warding, and be subject to the same regulations as if he was personally liable to keep the same; and any 2 justices may, by warrant, levy by distress and sale of the goods, of such quaker, the money necessary to defray the expences of hiring such substitute, and if no sufficient goods be found, and it appear to the justices that such quaker can pay 10*l.* he may be committed to gaol (but not confined among felons) for one month, or till he have paid the sum agreed to be paid to such substitute, 1 G. 4. c. 24. s. 3.

27. The constables of parishes, townships or places shall, at the expence of the same, provide rattles, staves, lanthorns, and such arms and accoutrements as the special or petty sessions shall direct for the use of every person so keeping watch and ward, such arms or articles to be delivered to every person undertaking such duty, and to be returned by him to the special or other constable of the watch, as soon as he shall cease to be engaged therein, and shall also provide, at like expence, such watch-houses, or other conveniences, as the justices adjudge expedient, all which expences shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish, &c. and shall be contributed in proportions settled by the special or petty sessions, subject to alteration by the next special sessions, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 17.

28. Every person so appointed to watch or ward, shall, during his time of duty, to his utmost power, endeavour to prevent all felonies, affrays, outrages and disorders, and shall arrest and apprehend all night-walkers, rogues and vagabonds, and other idle and suspicious persons found within such parish, &c. and shall deliver them to the constable, or to a special constable of the parish, at the watch-house, or other place of reception appointed by him, until they can be carried before a justice of the county, id. s. 18.

29. Where persons so keeping watch or ward, shall want assistance therein, any other persons on like duty, having knowledge thereof, by the rattle, signal, outcry, or otherwise, shall repair to, and assist by all means in their power; but no person, during his time of duty, shall absent himself from his particular stand or walk, without consent either of the constable or special constable of the night, unless on the above occasion; or for suppressing some disorder of which he is eye or ear witness on some adjoining stand, &c. in absence of the persons keeping watch, &c. therein, nor then longer than necessary, s. 19.

30. Every constable or special constable, so intrusted with the direction and management of persons required to perform the above duties, shall, respectively on every night of watching, and day of warding, diligently observe the behaviour of every person so employed under him in watching and warding, and shall enter in a book his name and hours of attendance, with remarks on his conduct, whether diligent or remiss, and shall weekly or oftener, deliver such book, with other observations arising in discharge of his duty, to the chief constable of the hundred, or to the person appointed by the special or petty sessions to receive it, id. s. 20.

31. The magistrates of any city, borough, town, or place, having exclusive jurisdiction, as justices of peace, for its preservation therein, may carry this act into execution therein, and any 2 magistrates may make any adjudication or order, or do any thing for which any greater number of justices is hereby required as to any county, and the town clerk or other person appointed by the magistrates, may give any notice required to be given, by the clerk of the peace, for assembling any special general sessions; and all the provisions of this act, as to any counties, and justices acting therein, and as to executing this act therein, shall extend to all places, the magistrates whereof have exclusive jurisdiction as justices, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 21.

32. Where the expences, attending the police or preservation of peace, in any city, &c. as in s. 21., or place, within any county, are paid out of any rate made therein, distinct from any county rate, though the magistrates in such city, &c. have no exclusive jurisdiction as justices, yet they may carry this act into execution within such city, &c. and regulate the payment of expences arising therefrom separate from the county; and no such city, &c. where any such rate has been levied for executing this act, or where the expences thereof have been paid from the poor-rates, shall be liable to the rates for the county; nor shall any such rates be levied in any parish or part of such city, &c. beyond the local limits wherein watch and ward is performed under this act, id. s. 22.

33. All provisions herein relating to constables, extend to headboroughs, &c. or other officers performing the duty of constable, id. s. 23.

34. All provisions herein relating to any county, extend to any riding or division within or for which separate general or quarter sessions are held, and the justices in any county, city, &c. or place, may add any extra-parochial place to any parish for the purposes of this act; and all provisions herein relating to parishes extend to all townships or divisions thereof, and to all extra-parochial places added to any parishes for this act; and all constables and special constables, and persons having their authority, shall have full authority in any such extra-parochial place; and where no rates are levied in the latter, either for paying any expences of police, or preservation of peace, or relief of poor, out of which the expences of executing this act can be paid, the justices may cause rates to be made therein adequate to its fair proportion of expence, with the parish to which it is added; and all constables required to collect such rates, shall have the powers vested in overseers for levying poor rates, id. s. 24.

35. Any constable or special constable, where an offender against this act shall, on pursuit, escape out of his jurisdiction, may apprehend him at any place, though out of his jurisdiction, and may act in all other respects as if he had been taken within his jurisdiction, id. s. 25.

36. Every person watching or warding as such special constable, shall, for every night and day, be entitled to such compensation as the special general sessions shall direct; and every other person engaged in so watching, &c. shall (if his behaviour has been satisfactory to the constable of the watch) be entitled to the sum in like manner appointed for every night and day for which he is so employed, to be paid forthwith by the parish constable, and repaid to him by the overseer of the parish, on entry in a book by the constable, and delivered to such overseer after verification on oath before any justice for the county, and certified in writing by him as having been so verified and allowed by him; and every person from whom such compensation is withheld by any constable, may appeal to such justice, whose decision shall be conclusive, id. s. 26.

37. The justices in any county, city, &c. as in s. 21. pl. 29. or place, in which any disturbances prevail, or are apprehended, and in which any number of persons shall (with approbation of the majority of the magistrates in special general session) have voluntarily assembled for the purpose of watching and warding, and shall watch, &c. under regulations approved as above, may allow to the persons so watching, &c. (though such watch, &c. be not carried on according to this act) such compensation for their time as the magistrates think proper out of any rate levied in such county, city or place for police, poor, &c. in such proportions as seem to them proper; and the persons authorized to assess and levy such rates, may raise any sum necessary for paying such compensation by an additional rate under all the laws in force for levying the first mentioned rates, id. s. 27.

38. Every person who shall assault or resist any person watching or warding whilst in execution of his office, or who shall promote or encourage the same, shall, on conviction before a magistrate, forfeit any sum not exceeding 20*l.*, and shall be also liable to the other punishment on indictment, &c. for assaulting a constable in execution of his office, id. s. 28.

39. Every victualler or keeper of a public house who shall knowingly harbour or entertain, or permit any person so engaged in watching or warding to remain in his house tippling during his hours of duty, shall, for the 1st offence, forfeit 40*s.*; for the 2d 5*l.*; and for the 3d and every subsequent offence, 10*l.*, id. s. 29.

40. Any two justices, on information on oath by any constable or other credible witness, that any person, not a householder, nor legally settled in the place, or a native thereof, is in his belief upon his oath dangerous to the peace of the place where he is resorting, or that he is endeavouring to seduce others to abet disturbances therein, or in other places, may issue a warrant to apprehend and cause such person to come before them, and examine him on oath as to his last legal settlement and residence, means of livelihood, occupation, mode of living, and reason for resorting to the place where he is found; the substance of which examination shall be reduced to writing and signed by such justices and person so examined, and shall be transmitted to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, there to be filed of record: and if such person shall not give a satisfactory account of himself, and his way of living, and reasons for resorting to such place, &c. and it appears to the satisfaction of the justices on examination of such constable, or credible witness on oath that there is just ground to believe that the person so apprehended is engaged in practices dangerous to public peace, such justices may order him to return, or (if he refuse to obey the order) may remove him to his last legal settlement, or if it cannot be ascertained, to his last place of residence, as vagrants may by law be removed; and if such person afterwards return without shewing sufficient cause, approved by the justices, or refuse to answer on examination, or if his account of himself is proved to be false, any 2 justices may adjudge him a rogue and vagabond, within 17 G. 2. c. 5., 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 50.

41. Any 2 justices may require the constables in any parish or place to make out and deliver to them within the time required by such justices, and as often as deemed necessary by them, true lists of all persons usually residing, or being within their parish above 14, for which purpose any constable may demand from each householder within such parish, a true list or account of the christian and surname of every such person above 14 then in his house, and for refusal to give, or for giving a false account shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*; and every constable who shall not make out and deliver such list to the justices demanding it shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*, id. s. 31.

42. Every person aggrieved by the judgment of such justices may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county or place wherein the cause of complaint has arisen, on entering into a recognizance at the time of such judgment, personally to appear there to try such appeal, and abide further judgment of the sessions; but such appeal shall not prevent in the mean time the execution of the justices' judgment, unless the appellant produce 2 sufficient sureties, (householders of the parish where he was apprehended,) who shall enter into a recognizance in a sum fixed by a magistrate to prosecute such appeal and for good behaviour of appellant till its hearing, id. s. 32.

43. Every person guilty of any offence for which a pecuniary penalty shall be incurred by this act, may be convicted thereof by information on oath of one credible witness by any one or more justices of the county in which such offence was committed, and the penalties may be levied by distress, under hand and seal of any justice or justices for the county in which such offence was committed or penalty incurred, and when levied shall be paid in moieties to the informer and poor of the parish in which the offence was committed, and in case of no sufficient distress, the convicting justice, &c. may commit the offender to gaol or house of correction to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 33.

44. Such justice, &c. shall cause every such conviction to be drawn up in form or to the effect specified in Sch. (B.) and to be fairly written on parchment, and transmitted to the next general quarter sessions, to be kept among the records of the court, and persons aggrieved by such conviction may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the respective counties, giving the convicting justice notice in writing within 8 days after such conviction, of his intention to appeal, and the quarter sessions may proceed to the hearing and final determination thereof, and may make such order therein, and award such costs not exceeding 40*s.* to either party at discretion: which appeal, or its subject matter, and any order therein shall not be removed by certiorari, id. s. 34.

Schedule (B.) (see id. s. 34. pl. 44.)

'Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of the reign of His present Majesty, A. B. of — is duly convicted before me [or us] one of the justices, [or 2 of the justices] of the peace for the — under an act passed in the 52d year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, an act, [insert title hereof] for that the said A. B. on — at — did — contrary to the said act, wherefore I, [or, we] the said — do adjudge that —. Given under —.'

45. The justices of peace at the adjournment of any special general sessions, convened as above, may suspend the powers hereof in any parish, township, or place within their jurisdictions whenever it appears to them on sufficient evidence that the disturbance of the peace therein shall have effectually subsided or been suppressed, and that the officers ordinarily appointed for preserving the peace are sufficient for that purpose, as well as for the protection of the inhabitants, and security of property therein, and shall thereupon give notice thereof to the home secretary, id. s. 35.

46. No person employed as a special constable or watchman for the purposes of this act shall gain a legal settlement thereby, id. s. 36.

47. Nothing herein shall affect any jurisdiction or rights of Oxford, or Cambridge, 52 G. 3. c. 17. s. 37.

48. Every action brought for any thing done in pursuance hereof shall be commenced within 3 months next after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county where the cause of action accrued, and the defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence on any trial thereupon, and that the same was done under this act; and if it appear so done, or if the action is brought after the time above limited, or laid in another county, the jury shall find for defendant, and on such verdict, or if plaintiff is nonsuit, discontinues, or has verdict or judgment against him, on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 38.

WATERMEN.

1. CONCERNING WATERMEN ON THE Thames, 6 H. 8. c. 7. [NOTE. This act settled the amount of fares to watermen, and was superseded by 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. pl. 2. and see now by 34 G. 3. c. 63. pl. 65.]

2. TOUCHING WATERMEN AND BARGEMEN on the river Thames, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. and recital in ss. 1, 2. [AMD. as to mariners licensed by the Trinity House, 8 El. c. 4. s. 5., 1 J. 1. c. 16. s. 3., 4 & 5 A. c. 19. s. 18.] [All penalties by these acts inflicted to go to the watermen's company, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 7. pl. 40.]

3. There shall be yearly appointed and elected by the mayor and court of aldermen of the city of London, 8 watermen being householders and occupying as watermen on the river Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, which election shall be yearly at the first court of aldermen holden next after the 1st March; and such 8 watermen shall be called "The overseers and rulers of all wherry-men and watermen that occupy any rowing on the river between Gravesend and Windsor," and they shall keep good order amongst such watermen, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 3. [But see the companies of watermen and lightermen united, and a new order of electing rulers, &c., 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. ss. 1, 3. pl. 33, 35.]

4. No person, where 2 watermen and no more row together in one boat or wherry, in any place betwixt Gravesend and Windsor, shall take any person into his boat, &c. to carry him therein, unless one of them has been for the most part used in rowing on the Thames for 2 years before, and one of them also admitted by such 8 overseers, as in s. 3. pl. 3. by writing under their known seal to be a sufficient waterman, on pain to be, by such 8 overseers, committed to one of the compters of London, for one month or less, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 4.

5. No single man not keeping household and not retained, shall use or exercise to row between Gravesend and Windsor, unless they be apprentices retained with the master for one year, upon pain of like imprisonment as in s. 4., pl. 4., id. s. 5. [See s. 12., pl. 14.]

6. The mayor of London and aldermen of the same city, and the justices within the shires next adjoining the Thames, within their respective jurisdictions, shall, on complaint made by such overseers, as in s. 3. pl. 3. or 2 of them, or the master of any such servant, not only examine and determine all complaints or offences committed against this act, and set at large persons imprisoned by such overseers if just cause appear so to do, but also punish such overseers who shall unjustly and without good cause punish any person under this act, id. s. 6.

7. Every person making any wherries or boats for carrying people on the Thames, which shall not be 22½ feet long, and 4½ feet broad in the midships, or which shall not be substantially and well able to carry 2 persons on one side tight, shall forfeit such boats, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing, in any court of record, by action of detinue, &c. on information or otherwise, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 7.

8. Every person exercising the occupation of rowing between Gravesend and Windsor, who shall voluntarily withdraw themselves into secret places in the time of execution of any commission of pressing, and when the same is over, to return to row on the Thames again, shall, on proof thereof, by 2 witnesses before such mayor and court of aldermen, or justices, as in s. 6. pl. 6., and 2 such rulers, be imprisoned for 2 weeks, and be unable to row on the Thames for one year and a day, id. s. 8.

9. In case such number of watermen and lightermen as the admiralty shall give notice in writing to the company of watermen there shall be occasion for, to serve H. M., (being duly summoned by leaving notice in writing at their usual places of abode, by the company,) within 10 days after such summons, shall not appear before the rulers of such company, to be sent on board H. M.'s fleet, such persons so summoned and being duly convicted before the mayor and aldermen of the city of London, or 2 justices for such city, and 2 of such rulers, shall be imprisoned for one month, and be disabled from rowing or working on the Thames and of enjoying any of the advantages of such company for 2 years, 4 & 5 A. c. 19. s. 18.

10, 11. Such 8 rulers, as in s. 3. pl. 3., and their successors, may call before them all persons who occupy to row betwixt Gravesend and Windsor, and shall register the names of all allowed by them for watermen, in a book, and take such further order, as such rulers deem fit; and they may survey all boats and wherries before the same are launched out of the builder's yard into the Thames, in order that they may be prepared according to s. 7. pl. 7. of this act, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 9. [See further as to registering lightermen, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 6., post, pl. 39.]

12. Every person who shall be elected such overseer or ruler, as in s. 3. pl. 3., who shall negligently use his place, or refuse to take the same on him, shall forfeit 5*l.*, to be applied and recovered as in s. 7. pl. 7. directed, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 10.

13. Assessment of fares for rowing between Gravesend and Windsor, id. s. 11. [REP. 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1., which see pl. 66.]

14. No person occupying any western barge, shall take into his service any single person not keeping household, but only such as are retained by him for the whole year, and no householder but such as will answer for his good behaviour, on pain to forfeit 40*s.* to be applied and recovered as in s. 7. pl. 7. directed, id. s. 12. [QU. REP. see 5 El. c. 4. s. 2. LABOURER, pl. 4.]

15. All mariners and seafaring men dwelling about the Thames, being thereto licensed by the master, wardens, and assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, and having certificate of such licence from such master and wardens, shall and may, at all times, freely exercise and row in their own wherries, as well as other men's hired by them or wherein they are hired to work up and down such river to carry persons as other watermen without let, and shall not thereby be drawn under any other government than that of such master, wardens, &c. 8 El. c. 13. s. 5.

16. The 8 overseers and rulers of the society or company of wherry-men or watermen, shall twice in each year, viz. on 1st Sept. and 1st March, cause to be read and published in the hall of their common assembly, all the constitutions and orders already made, or to be made by such overseers, &c., on pain in case of neglect, to forfeit 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, 1 J. 1. c. 16. s. 3.

17. CONCERNING THE TAKING OF APPRENTICES BY wherry-men and watermen, 1 J. 1. c. 16. [AMD. and EXT. to lightermen, 4 & 5 A. c. 13., 2 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 1, 2., 10 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 1—7.]

18. No wherryman or waterman who shall row on the Thames, and transport or carry passengers or goods in wherries, tilt boats, or barges, (other than western barges, millboats, and other vessels ordinarily serving for other uses than carrying passengers) shall retain any servant or apprentice to serve him as a waterman on such river, unless he himself has been an apprentice to a wherryman, &c. for 5 years before such retaining; and no wherryman, &c. shall retain in his service as his apprentice, any person who is not of the age of 18 years or more, and who shall be bound for 7 years, on pain to forfeit 10*l.*; to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing, in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., 1 J. 1. c. 16. s. 1.

19. This act shall not extend to the sons of wherry-men or watermen being of the age of 16, that shall be trained up in rowing, and have used to transport passengers from place to place, but all such sons may serve as apprentices on such river as heretofore, id. s. 2.

20. The clause of 1 J. 1. c. 16. ss. 1, 2. which restrains the taking of apprentices till they arrive at a certain age, and every rule, &c. made under 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 4. for the like purposes shall be REPEALED, 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 1.

21. The court of mayor and aldermen of London, may at all times review or examine, alter or amend, or such rules and by-laws which relate to apprentices of watermen and lightermen, and all other orders, &c. made for governing the company of watermen, &c. which alterations and amendments shall be subject to the approbation of chief justice of K. B., and all such rules, &c. so altered, &c. shall be approved of as aforesaid, and duly observed, id. s. 2.

22. General saving for the Duke of Richmond, and the mayor and jurats of Gravesend and Milton, id. ss. 3, 4. [See the sections at length, 34 G. 3. c. 65. ss. 19, 20. pl. 84, 85.]

23. No person who shall keep, use, hire, or work any wherry, boat, barge, or other vessel for carrying passengers or goods for hire on the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall bind, take, or employ any apprentice or servant, unless he shall be an housekeeper, or have some known lodging where he may entertain such apprentice, &c. [see 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 5. pl. 29.] and shall register with the clerk of the watermen's company, the lodging, &c. where he shall reside, or whereto he shall remove, on pain that any master or person doing contrary hereto shall, on conviction before the mayor of London, or one justice for such city, or for the county or place where the offender is found, by the oaths of 2 witnesses, forfeit 10*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of such mayor or justice, and for want of distress, shall by like warrant be committed to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, or less than 14 days; and the clerk of such company shall, on application made to him, register the such habitation or lodging of every such waterman, wherryman, or lighterman, and every such removal in a book without fee; and if such clerk shall neglect so to do, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be recovered, levied and applied as any other penalty under s. 9. pl. 52. of this act may be, and if any such waterman, &c. shall neglect to register his abode, and such removal, any apprentice bound to him, may on application made to the rulers and overseers of such company, or the major part of them, at any of their public courts or assemblies, be turned over to another master or mistress, any indenture, &c. notwithstanding, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1.

24. No apprentice shall have the sole care of any boat within the liberties aforesaid, till such apprentice has attained the age of 16 years, if he be the son of a waterman, or 17 years if of a landsman, and unless such apprentice has worked on the river with some waterman, &c. for 2 years before attaining such ages, and if any apprentice under such years shall offend contrary hereto, and be convicted thereof, then the master or mistress so offending, shall forfeit 10*s.* to be levied, recovered and applied as in s. 9. pl. 52. directed, id. s. 2. Recovering of penalties, id. s. 9. Limitation of actions. General issue, and Public act, id. s. 10. [See the sections at length, pl. 52, 53.]

25. No person, although free of the watermen's company, who shall keep, use, hire, or work any wherry, boat, tilt boat, barge, or other vessel, for carrying passengers or goods for hire on the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall bind, take, retain, or employ to serve him, or to work on such river, any person as an apprentice, until such person so taken is 14 years old, and shall not exceed 20, which shall appear by the certificate of the minister or churchwardens of the parish where he was born, or by oath or affirmation of 2 witnesses, 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 1.

26. Such apprentice shall be bound by indentures as usual, and be enrolled in the book of such company, to serve his master or mistress as an apprentice on such river for 7 years, on pain that every person doing the contrary shall, on conviction before the mayor of London, or one justice for the county, city, or place where the offender was found, or the offence committed on oath of one witness, forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 2.

27. Every apprentice bound contrary to this act, shall not hereby obtain any freedom, or be entitled to any of the privileges or advantages by such apprenticeship, which watermen, wherry-men, and lightermen, free of such company are entitled to, but shall be liable to pay 10*l.* for every time he shall work any boat or other vessel, on conviction, as in s. 2. pl. 26., id. s. 3.

28. No freemen of such company, nor his widow shall at one time take or retain more than 2 apprentices, nor shall take a second until the first has served four years of his apprenticeship, under penalty of 10*l.*, id. s. 4.

29. No waterman, wherryman, or lighterman, though free of such company, or his widow, shall take or retain any apprentice, unless such waterman, &c. or his widow shall be occupier of some house or tenement, and shall keep his apprentices to lodge in the same house with him, on pain to forfeit 10*l.* on conviction, as in s. 2. pl. 26., id. s. 5. [See 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1. pl. 23.]

30. If any person shall knowingly and wilfully produce any forged or false certificate, and shall be thereof convicted before the lord mayor, or any justice of peace for the city, by the oath of one witness, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 6.

31. Any waterman, &c. being owner of 12 lighters, barges, or flat-bottomed boats, in his own right, may take 2 apprentices at one time; and the owner of 20 lighters, &c. may take 4 apprentices; provided such owner first take an oath before the lord mayor, or one justice of peace for London, Westminster, Middlesex, Essex, Surrey, Kent, Bucks, or Berks, that he is bona fide the real owner of the number of lighters, &c. aforesaid, and produce such oath in writing under the hand and seal of the lord mayor, &c. to the rulers of the company at any of their public courts, id. s. 7. Recovery of penalties, ss. 15, 16. General issue, treble costs, s. 18. [See pl. 61—64.]

32. FOR THE EXPLANATION AND BETTER EXECUTION OF former acts touching watermen and wherry-men serving on the Thames, and for the better ordering of such watermen, &c. and lightermen on such river between Gravesend and Windsor, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. PUBLIC clause, s. 11. [AMD. 2 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 3—10. PUBLIC clause, s. 10. which is AMD. 4 G. 2. c. 24. PUBLIC clause, s. 2. 10 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 8—18. PUBLIC clause, s. 19.]

33. All laws now in force concerning watermen, not hereby altered, shall be put in execution, and every person being a lighterman or owner of any lighter, or keeping any lighter or other large craft, or working in the same, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall be of the same company with the wherry-men and watermen; and such wherry-men, watermen, and lightermen, are hereby made one society and company, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 1.

34. Every person who shall keep or work, or shall be employed in navigating any lighter or other great craft on the Thames (Trinity men, fishermen, ballast men, western barges and mill-boats, chalk hoys, faggot and wood lighters, and other craft carrying the same, excepted) shall be registered in books to be kept by such company, and shall be liable to the orders, rules, &c. for the government of the company, and to the pains for enforcing the same, id. s. 2.

35. There shall be yearly chosen by the court of lord mayor and aldermen of London, 8 of the best sort of watermen, and 3 out of 12 persons to be yearly nominated by the lightermen, of the best sort of lightermen, being householders, having 2 lighters or flat boats upon such river between such limits; which elections shall be yearly at the first court of aldermen, after the 1st June, and such 11 persons so elected shall be called "The overseers and rulers of all the wherry-men, watermen, and lightermen, that shall use any rowing upon the river of Thames, betwixt Gravesend and Windsor;" which rulers, &c. shall keep good order amongst the watermen and lightermen; and the major part of them may call before them, at the hall of the company in London, every person which shall keep or use in rowing or navigating any lighter or other great craft (except as in s. 2. pl. 34. excepted) betwixt Gravesend and Windsor, and shall register the names of them for lightermen to row on the river, and take such order therein as to such rulers shall seem meet for the common benefit of H. M.'s subjects, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 3.

36. Such rulers and assistants for the time being shall, on the first court day after 1st June yearly, by their order appoint the watermen of the principal towns, stairs, and places of plying, or the major part of them, between Gravesend and Windsor; and such watermen shall choose one free waterman, being an householder, to be of their assistants, so as they exceed not 60, or be less than 40; and on the 1st June yearly, the lightermen which meet at the hall of such company between 8 and 12 a. m. or the major part of them then present, shall choose 9 lightermen, who, together with such watermen, shall be "The assistants" of such company, to advise the rulers in the discovery and regulation of miscarriages from time to time done on such river, and for putting the laws in execution; and such rulers and assistants, or the major part of of them shall yearly, on 1st July present to the court of mayor and aldermen for their approbation 5 watermen and 2 lightermen, to be auditors of such society, who, or the major part of whom shall audit the accounts of such rulers, and on stating such accounts, the same shall be entered in a book signed by the auditors, and set in some public place in the company's hall, to be inspected by all persons concerned; and if any person duly elected a ruler, assistant, or auditor, do after notice given him, obstinately refuse to take on him the place for which elected, or shall negligently exercise the same, such offender shall forfeit 5*l.*; and such rulers, assistants, and auditors, or the major part of them present, being duly summoned by summons in writing, left at their usual places of abode, shall keep good order and obedience in such company, and provide such lawful rules, &c. as they think fit, with reasonable penalties annexed; which rules, &c. shall be laid before such court of mayor and aldermen, to be examined, altered, or approved, and afterwards confirmed by the chief justice of either bench, and such rules, &c. so approved and confirmed, shall be put in execution, id. s. 4, [And see as to watermen's apprentices, 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 2. pl. 21., and as to making rules, &c. 34 G. 3. c. 65. ss. 2—4. pl. 67.]

37. The number of assistants of such company at their future elections, shall be reduced to 30, but each shall be elected as before was usual, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5.

38. The lord mayor of London, and the aldermen and the justices of peace within the shires adjoining the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, within their several jurisdictions, shall have power upon complaint made by such rulers, or 2 of them, to examine and determine by oath of one witness, or on confession, all offences done by any such persons contrary to this act, or any rule to be made pursuant to the authority hereby given; and by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under hand and seal of the lord mayor and aldermen, or one of the aldermen or justices, to cause to be levied all penalties touching watermen or lightermen, by this or any other act, or such rules, &c. inflicted, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 5.

39. All persons now owning, keeping, or working any lighter or flat boats used for the lading or unlading goods to or from ships, who shall register the names of themselves and their servants, with their places of abode, on or before the 29th Sept. 1700, in the book of such company, next, shall be deemed lightermen; and such persons, and no other (free watermen, who are not at present lightermen, that shall be registered as lightermen at any time hereafter, and such persons who shall have been retained and served his apprenticeship with a lighterman excepted) may use, keep, and work, or be employed in the working of or in any lighters or other great craft; upon pain that every person doing the contrary shall forfeit 5*l.* for every week he shall have, use, or work in any lighter or other large craft, id. s. 6. [Qu. Exp.]

40. No persons (except Trinity men) shall be allowed to work or ply on the river betwixt Gravesend and Windsor, in any boats or barges ordinarily serving for carrying passengers for profit, except such as shall have served apprenticeship to a waterman, or is a servant or apprentice to a waterman, and qualified as by former statutes and this act directed; and all penalties in former laws and this act shall be paid to the rulers of such watermen, &c. for the use of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed persons of their company, id. s. 7.

41. The [lessees 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 8. only] owners or occupiers of any keys between Hermitage Bridge, and London Bridge, may use their own lighters or large craft as heretofore, for carrying goods and merchandize to and from their keys and wharfs, and to and from ships loading or unloading, and may employ any waterman or lighterman duly qualified as by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. directed, to row and work such lighters or craft, [and do other things as heretofore lawfully accustomed, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 8. only] [and any wood monger who keeps wharfs for retailing of fuel, may keep and row by themselves or servants, any lighters or other large craft for carrying of their own goods, and none others; provided such servants be watermen or lightermen, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 8. only] 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 8., 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 8. [Persons keeping wharfs, and dealing in coals, may use their own lighters, 32 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1. Local act.]

42. This act shall not prohibit any proprietors of laystals to carry off soil from such laystals in such lighters or vessels, and by such persons as have been accustomed, nor any gardener from bringing to the markets of London and Westminster, and places adjacent, their own fruit and other products of their gardens, or soil and dung in their boats, and by their own servants as formerly, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 4. s. 9.

43. No person shall be punished for any offence against this act, unless such offender be prosecuted within 30 days after the offence, id. s. 10.

44. In actions against any person for any thing done under this act, the person sued may plead the general issue, or that which was done by him was done by virtue of this act, without saying more, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; this act declared a public act; and if a verdict passes against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, or discontinues, the defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 11.

45. Where any offender shall be punished by force of this act, he shall not incur the penalty of any other law, id. s. 12.

46. Such rulers, auditors, and assistants, as in s. 4. pl. 36., or the major part of them, on their court days, may appoint any number of watermen, not exceeding 40, to ply and work on every Lord's day, between Vauxhall above London-bridge and Limehouse below bridge, at places by them to be appointed, for the carrying passengers across the river at 1*d.* each; and watermen so appointed, shall on Monday morning pay unto the order of such rulers, auditors, and assistants, all money by them received on the Lord's day as aforesaid; and such rulers, &c. shall pay to each waterman for his day's labour so much as they shall agree for; and the overplus shall be applied to the use of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed watermen and lightermen of such company and their widows; and if any person appointed to work shall neglect to pay on Monday to the order aforesaid the money that he shall have earned on the day before, he shall forfeit to the order of such rulers, &c. 40*s.* to be recovered as in s. 5. pl. 38., id. s. 13.

47. This act shall not hinder the watermen of the parish of St. Margaret, Westminster, from working cross the river from Westminster-bridge to Stangate, and from the Horse-ferry to Lambeth bridge, on every Lord's day in their turns, as they have lately used to do; and the monies earned by them on that day are to be employed for the use of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed, watermen and their widows of the parish of St. Margaret, Westminster; and any 2 justices of peace of such parish may call the watermen so working to account for the monies earned, and cause the same to be applied as aforesaid; and the watermen of such parish shall choose 2 stewards and a clerk on the 23d April yearly, and such watermen of such parish, or major part of them, which shall be present at a meeting of their society, shall appoint such watermen of the parish as shall in their turns work on the Lord's day as aforesaid, id. s. 16.

48. General saving for the Duke of Richmond and the mayor and jurats of Gravesend and Milton, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. ss. 14, 15., 2 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 6, 7. [See the sections at length, 34 G. 3. c. 65. ss. 19, 20. pl. 84, 85.]

49. In all cases where distress cannot be found to satisfy the penalties inflicted by any rulers, &c. of the company, oath being made of such want of distress before the lord mayor, or any justice of peace for the place where the offender shall be found, such lord mayor, &c. may commit such offender to the workhouse or house of correction, there to be kept at hard labour for not exceeding one month, nor less than 14 days, such offender being convicted according to 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21., or this act, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 3.

50. If any person not having served 7 years to any waterman, &c. (except Trinity men, fishermen, ballastmen, and persons employed in navigating western barges, mill-boats, chalk-hoys, faggot and wood-lighters, dung-boats, and gardener's boats, in such manner as hath been accustomed, and is allowed by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. ss. 2. 9. pl. 34. 42.) shall row any boat, vessel, or craft upon the river for hire between Gravesend and Windsor, every such offender being convicted in manner aforesaid shall forfeit 10*l.* to be levied, &c. as in s. 9. pl. 52.; and for want of distress, the lord mayor, or any justice of peace for the place where the offence was committed, shall by warrant under his hand and seal commit such offender to the next public workhouse or house of correction for not exceeding one month or less than 14 days, id. s. 4.

51. Ferry-boats worked at or between Kingston and Windsor, on the Thames, shall not be deemed large craft; and all flat-bottomed boats and barges navigated from such towns, or places between them, to any other place on the Thames, and thence to Kingston or Windsor, or places between them, shall be deemed western barges, and may navigate the Thames as far as London-bridge; and no person so working such ferry boats or such flat-bottomed boats or barges on such river shall be subject to any penalties by 2 G. 2. c. 26. imposed, 4 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1.

52. All penalties incurred under this act shall be sued for by the rulers and overseers of the watermen's company, or two of them, in the manner by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 5. pl. 38. directed, and shall go to such rulers, &c., to be distributed for the use of the poor of such company as they deem fit; and all prosecutions for such offences shall be commenced within one month after, 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 9.

53. All constables and headboroughs shall aid and assist in the execution of this act; and actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act or any former act relating to the water-service on such river, or the regulating or governing such company, and persons, shall be brought within 30 days after the fact committed, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and such former acts and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance of such acts; and if it so appear, or if such action is brought after the time limited, the jury shall find for the defendant; and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs. This act deemed a public act, id. s. 10. [See 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 17. pl. 82.]

54. No person who shall work or navigate any tilt-boat, row-barge, or other boat, for gain, shall carry in any such tilt-boat or row-barge more than 37 passengers, and 3 more passengers only, if brought on board by the way; nor shall carry in any other boat or wherry more than 8 passengers, and 2 more only if called in by the way; nor shall carry in any ferry-boat or wherry allowed to work on Sundays, more than 8 passengers at one time, on pain on being convicted by oath of one witness, or by confession, before the lord mayor of London, or one justice of peace for the place where the offence was committed, or the offender found, or on view of any such justice for the first offence, to forfeit 5*l.*, and for the second offence, 10*l.*: one moiety to the informer, and the other to such uses as the other penalties imposed by this act; and every person who shall offend in the premises a third time, shall be disfranchised for 12 months, from working any boat, &c., and from enjoying any privileges the members of such company are entitled to; and in case any greater number of persons shall be carried in tilt-boats, &c. than allowed, and any passenger shall be drowned, every person who shall work such boats offending therein, and being convicted, shall be guilty of felony, and transported as felons, 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 8.

55. No person shall work any tilt-boat which shall not be of the burden of 15 tons, nor any boat which shall not be of the burden of 3 tons, in the long ferry between London-bridge and Gravesend, except such boat as shall be hired by any person for his own use, upon pain to forfeit 10*l.*, to go one moiety to the informer and the other to such uses as other penalties under this act, id. s. 9.

56. No person shall row or navigate any boat or wherry with a close deck, commonly called Gravesend Wherries, or with rails nailed to them, which are not moveable for carrying of passengers for hire between London-bridge and Gravesend, tilt-boats only excepted, on pain that every person offending herein shall forfeit 10*l.*, to go one moiety to the informer and the other to such uses as other penalties under this act, id. s. 10.

57. When any waterman rowing or belonging to such boats shall wilfully or negligently lose his tide either from Billingsgate to Gravesend or vice versa, by putting on shore to take in other passengers, except as herein is directed, or by waiting or loitering by the way, whereby such passengers shall be landed short by 2 miles, such passengers shall be discharged from paying for their passages, id. s. 11.

58. The rulers and overseers of the company of watermen, &c., or the major part of them, shall appoint 2 or more officers who shall give their constant attendance day and night at every time of high water at London-bridge and first flood at Gravesend, viz. one at Billingsgate and one at Gravesend, who, at the times of high water and first flood, shall ring a bell for 15 minutes, as a notice for all boats passing between London and Gravesend to put off on their voyages; and if, after ringing, any such boat does not immediately depart and proceed on without lying by in the river or putting again on shore within 2 miles of the ports of Billingsgate and Gravesend, as the case may be, for taking in any goods or passengers, or be not navigated by 2 sufficient men, the younger of whom shall be 18 years old, at least, then the owners shall forfeit 5*l.*, on conviction on oath of one witness before a justice for the county, city, or place where offence is committed, or the offender found, to be levied and recovered upon such boats, wherries, sails, tilts, and tackle thereof, and on the goods of the owner, in such manner as other penalties incurred by this act are to be levied, and to go in moieties to such rulers and overseers, and the informer, id. s. 12.

59. In case such overseers and rulers neglect to set up such bells at such places, or from time to time hereafter to appoint officers to ring the same, they shall forfeit 50*l.*, to go one moiety to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s. 13.

60. If such officers neglect to ring such bell at the times appointed they shall forfeit 40*s.*, to be levied, recovered, and applied as other penalties under this act may be, 10 G. 2. c. 31. s. 14.

61. All penalties incurred under this act, except such as are hereby otherwise directed to be levied and recovered, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of the mayor of London, or one justice for the county or place where the offence was committed, or the offender found, and for want of distress, such mayor or justice may, by like warrant, commit the offender to the next public workhouse or house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not less than 14 days, or more than one month, and such penalties, when levied, except such as are herein otherwise directed, shall be paid to the rulers and overseers of such company, and be by them distributed to their poor and decayed freemen and their widows; and all prosecutions for such penalties shall be commenced within one month after the offence was committed, id. s. 15.

62. Such penalties may be sued for by the rulers and overseers of such company, or any 2 of them, id. s. 16.

63. This act shall not hinder any persons from working any flat-bottomed boats or barges, who are entitled so to do under 4 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1. pl. 51., in the manner there directed, nor subject them to any penalties by this act imposed, id. s. 17.

64. Actions against persons for things done under this act, shall be commenced within 6 months after fact committed, and shall be laid and tried in London, Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, Kent, Bucks, or Berks, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof, and if it appears to have been so done, the jury shall find for the defendants, and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after defendant has appeared, or if upon demurrer, judgment is given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 18.

65. FOR BETTER REGULATING AND GOVERNING THE WATERMEN, wherry-men, and lightermen on the river Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, 34 G. 3. c. 65. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 24.

66. So much of 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 16. s. 11. pl. 13., as subjects any person taking for his fare above the prices therein assessed to fine or imprisonment shall be REPEALED; and the court of lord mayor and aldermen of the city of London shall make such rules, orders, and constitution for the better government and regulation of watermen, wherry-men, and lightermen, rowing or using any boat, barge, or lighter, or other vessel upon the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, as they think fit, and may alter and repeal the same in manner, and with the approbation in s. 2. pl. 67. mentioned; and the mayor, recorder, and one alderman of such city within such city, and the justices of peace for the counties and places next adjoining the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, shall severally have power to enforce the laws and statutes, and also such rules, &c. so to be made, or those made by the rulers, auditors, and assistants of the waterman's company, and approved by such court of mayor and aldermen, pursuant to 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21. s. 4. pl. 36., against watermen, &c. and other persons offending against them, 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1.

67. Such court of mayor and aldermen may alter or repeal any of the rules, &c. now in force, or hereafter to be made, and may frame and set down in writing such others for governing such watermen, &c. owning, rowing, or working boats or other craft on the Thames, between the limits in s. 1. pl. 66. mentioned, and annex penalties to a breach of them, not exceeding 3*l.* for any one offence; and such rules, &c. may alter, repeal, or amend, as they deem fit, so as afterwards the same shall be approved by the chancellor of G. B., the lord keeper of the great seal, the chief justices of K. B. and C. P., and the chief baron of the exchequer, or one of them, who, on request of such court of mayor and aldermen, shall examine the same, and allow or alter the same as they deem fit, without fee, id. s. 2.

68. When any alteration in such rules, &c. or any new or other rules, &c. shall be made by such court of mayor and aldermen, a copy of such intended alterations, and of such new or other rules, &c. shall be left at Watermen's Hall, for the perusal of the rulers, auditors, and assistants of the watermen's company, 30 days before the same be allowed, as in s. 2. pl. 67. directed, in order that such rulers, &c. may submit to such court their objections, if any, and in case such rulers, &c. are not satisfied with the determination of such court of mayor and aldermen on such objections, they may submit the same to such chancellor, lord keeper, &c. or one of them, before such alterations, or such new or other rules, &c. are allowed, id. s. 3.

69. Such rules, &c. so to be made, altered, or amended by such court, shall, within 30 days after allowed and approved of, be printed and sent to the police offices lately established by act of parliament in Middlesex and Surrey, [see POLICE,] and also to the clerks of the peace for the counties and places adjoining the Thames, to be published as the quarter sessions thereof, and also as such court of mayor and aldermen shall direct, id. s. 4.

70. In case any waterman, wherryman, lighterman, or other person shall offend against the laws, statutes, rules, &c. now in force, or which shall be made by such court in pursuance of this act, or by such rulers or auditors, as in s. 1. pl. 66., and approved by such court pursuant to other acts in that case provided, such mayor, recorder, or one alderman of such city, and any justice for the respective counties and places adjoining the Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor, within their several jurisdictions, may, on complaint made within 6 days after the commission of any such offence, summon the offender personally, or by leaving such summons at his usual place of abode, to appear and answer the complaint; and if any waterman, &c. being duly summoned shall not appear, such mayor, &c. within their respective jurisdictions, may issue his warrant to apprehend him, on oath made of due service of such summons, and cause such offender to be brought before him; and the accused being before such mayor, &c. either by means of such summons or of such warrant, he shall examine the complainant on oath, or any witness touching such offence, and if the party accused be convicted, either by confession or by oath of complainant, or one witness, such mayor, &c. may impose a fine upon him not exceeding the penalties inflicted by this act, or such other laws, statutes, rules, &c., and if such penalty is not forthwith paid, such mayor, &c. may commit the person convicted to some prison within such city, counties, and places respectively, for not exceeding one calendar month, unless the penalty be sooner paid, 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 5.

71. No constable or other officer shall, by virtue of such warrant, take any waterman, &c. out of any boat or craft, until the same be safely moored, or unless there are sufficient hands on board to navigate the same, and notice of this provision shall be inserted in every such warrant, id. s. 6.

72. Every person who shall refuse to pay any waterman, &c. the money justly due for carrying such person in his boat, according to the established rules, such mayor, recorder, aldermen, or justices of peace within whose jurisdiction such refusal is made, may summon such person to answer the complaint, by causing a summons to be served personally, or by leaving it at his usual abode; and if such person neglects to appear and answer such complaint, such mayor, &c. may issue his warrant to apprehend and bring such person before him, on oath made of the service of such summons and of such refusal to pay, and the cause being before such mayor, &c. either by such summons or warrant, such mayor, &c. on proof made of such refusal, on oath or confession, may order payment of such sum as such waterman, &c. may appear entitled to, and also award satisfaction for loss of time and costs, at his discretion; and in case of non-payment of such sums so awarded, such mayor, &c. may commit such offender to some prison within his jurisdiction, for not exceeding one calendar month, unless such sum be sooner paid, id. s. 7.

73. Every person refusing to pay any such waterman, &c. the money demanded by him for carrying him in his boat, and likewise refusing to give his name and place of abode, or giving any false name or abode, shall forfeit for each offence not exceeding 5l.; and such offender may be summoned, and otherwise proceeded against, not only for the recovery of the money due to such waterman, &c., and satisfaction for loss of time, and costs, but also for such 5l. penalty, in the same manner as in s. 7. pl. 72. directed, id. s. 8.

74. In case any waterman, &c. or widow of any waterman, &c. has cause of complaint against any other waterman, &c. or widow of any other waterman, &c. whether master, apprentice, or servant, for any offence against this act, or such other laws, statutes, rules, &c. whereby the complainant shall deem himself or herself injured, damaged, or ill-treated, the overseers and rulers of the company of watermen, or 2 of them, (as well as such mayor, recorder, aldermen, and justices,) may determine the same, and convict the offender as here mentioned; (viz.) Two such overseers or rulers, on complaint made by such waterman or widow, within 6 days after the commission of any such offence, may summon the offender to appear and answer the same, by serving such summons personally upon him or her, or by leaving it at his last or usual place of abode, and the accused being before them, may examine the complainant or any witness touching such offence, and determine the same; and if the offender is convicted, such overseers or rulers may impose a fine on him, not exceeding the penalty inflicted by this act, or said other laws, statutes, rules, &c. and in case the same is not paid forthwith, such mayor, &c. within whose jurisdiction the offence was committed, shall, on production of the conviction drawn up as set forth below, issue his warrant to apprehend and bring such offender before him, and if on being so brought the penalty is not then paid, such mayor, &c. may commit him to some prison within such city, counties, or places for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless the penalty is sooner paid, id. s. 9.

Form of Conviction.

— } Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of H. M.'s to wit. } reign, A. B. is convicted before us — 2 of the rulers of the society or company of watermen, wherry-men, and lightermen, for [here set forth the offence], and we do adjudge him to pay and forfeit for the same the sum of —
Given under hands and seals the day and year aforesaid.

75. The authority here given to such overseers and rulers shall not extend to the conviction of any offender who is not a waterman, &c. or the apprentice or servant to a waterman, &c. nor to any case in which the party damaged, or the complainant, is not a waterman, &c. or the apprentice or servant of a waterman, &c. duly authorized to act as such 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 10.

76. Every apprentice to a waterman, &c. imprisoned for offences against this act, or against such other laws, statutes, rules, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 66., shall serve his master or mistress, his or her executors, administrators, and assigns, not only till the expiration of the term for which such apprentice ought to serve by law, or by any agreement, but also for such further space of time, to be computed from the end of such term, as shall be equal in extent to the time for which he was imprisoned; and no such apprentice shall be considered as having served a legal apprenticeship, unless, and until, he has actually and bonâ fide served such further time, according to the intent of this act, id. s. 11.

77. In every case where any oath is directed by this act to be taken, such mayor, recorder, alderman, and justices respectively before whom such oath is directed to be taken, shall have power to administer the same, or instead thereof, in case of a quaker, a solemn affirmation; and the mayor, recorder, &c. before whom any person is convicted under this act, shall draw up conviction in form following; (viz.)

— } Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of H. M.'s to wit. } reign, A. B. is convicted before me — one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the city, county, or place, [as the case is], for [here set forth offence], and I adjudge him to pay and forfeit for the same the sum of —, being the penalty by him forfeited; and also the sum of — for loss of time and costs, [if any awarded]. Given under my hand and seal, [or our hands and seals,] the day and year aforesaid, id. s. 12.

78. All penalties levied and received under this act shall be paid to the rulers and overseers of such company, or the major part of them, within one calendar month after levied, to be by them distributed to the poor, aged, and decayed freemen of such company and their widows; saving that the convicting magistrate may reward the informer out of the same, according to his discretion, so as such reward shall not exceed one half, id. s. 13.

79. Persons aggrieved by order or judgment of any such mayor, &c. or of such overseers or rulers, on account of any offence against this act, or such rules, &c. may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions holden for the place where the conviction was had, they, at the time of conviction, entering into recognizance, with one surety in 20l., to prosecute such appeal with effect, and abide the order made thereon; and the justices at such sessions shall determine such appeal, and make such order thereon, and award such costs as to them appear just, and may cause such costs, together with the penalty adjudged, to be levied under an order of sessions by distress and sale of the goods of the party refusing to pay, or of his surety, id. s. 14.

80. No orders or proceedings of such mayor, &c. overseers, or rulers respectively, under this act, shall be quashed for want of form, and the order of sessions shall be final; and no proceedings of such mayor, &c. out of or in sessions, shall be removable by certiorari or otherwise, id. s. 15.

81. No person shall be punished for any offence against act, unless such person is prosecuted within 6 days after the offence committed, id. s. 16.

82. Actions against any person for any thing done under this act shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the cause accrued, and shall be laid and tried in the county, &c. where they arose; and the defendants may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that same was done in pursuance hereof, and if it so appear, or if such action was brought after the time limited, or laid in the wrong county, &c. the jury shall find for the defendants, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or if judgment is given for the defendant therein, then the defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 17. [See 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 10. pl. 53.]

83. The 24 G. 2. c. 44., so far as same relates to rendering justices more safe in execution of their offices, shall extend to such mayor, recorder, aldermen, and justices acting under this act; and no action shall be commenced against any peace officers for any thing done in execution of this act, until notice in writing given or left at his usual place of abode by the attorney for the plaintiff, which notice shall contain the name and place of abode of the plaintiff, together with the cause of action, and the name and place of abode of the attorney shall be underwrote or indorsed thereon; and any peace officer may, within 14 days after such notice, tender any sum as amends to the plaintiff or his attorney, and if not accepted the defendant may plead such tender in bar, together with the general issue, and any other plea with leave of the court; and if on issue joined the jury find the amends tendered sufficient, they shall find a verdict for the defendant, and in such case, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have his costs, but if the jury shall find that no tender was made, or that the amends tendered were not sufficient, and against the defendant on such other plea, they shall give a verdict for the plaintiff, with such damages as they deem fit, together with full costs, id. s. 18.

84. This act shall not in any way impeach any right of the late Duke of Richmond, lord of the manor of Gravesend, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for the holding of a court in such manor, called "The Court of the Water Course," for the better government of barges, boats, and vessels using the passage from Gravesend to London, and of the persons owning or working the same, or any other rights, &c. of such duke, his heirs, &c. relating to such passage, or to the barges, &c. using the same, or plying at the bridge of Gravesend, or persons owning or working the same, 11 & 12 W.3. c. 21. s. 14., 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 3., 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 6., 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 19.

85. This act shall not in any way impeach the grants, liberties, franchises, customs, privileges, or usages now lawfully enjoyed by the mayor, jurats, and capital inhabitants of Gravesend, and Milton, in Kent, relating to the passage upon the Thames, from such places to London, or the gubernation thereof, but such mayor, &c. may enjoy the same as if this act had not been passed, 11 & 12 W.3. c. 21. s. 15., 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 4., 2 G. 2. c. 26. s. 7., 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 20.

86. This act shall not alter or abridge the powers vested in the master, wardens, and assistants of the Trinity House, Deptford Strond, by 8 El. c. 13., nor shall any mariner, licensed, or to be licensed by such master, &c. to row or use any boat or wherry upon the Thames, or any men employed by such master, &c. in rowing or using any ballast lighters, or boats, on such river, be subject to such rules, &c. of such mayor and aldermen, 4 & 5 A. c. 13. s. 4., 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 21.

87. All clauses and exceptions in former laws now in force for regulating watermen, &c., not hereby expressly altered or repealed, shall be in force, 34 G. 3. c. 65. s. 22.

88. Persons convicted and punished for any offences against this act, shall not suffer for such offence by virtue of such other laws or any statutes, of this realm, or of such rules, &c.; and no offender against such laws, statutes, rules, &c., shall be twice punished for one offence, id. s. 23.

WAX.

(STATUTE repealed.)

CONCERNING WAX-CHANDLERS, THE PRICE OF CANDLES, and other things wrought of wax (as figures, &c.), 11 H. 6. c. 12. [REP. by 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

(STATUTE in force.)

1. FOR TRUE MELTING, MAKING, AND WORKING OF WAX, 23 El. c. 8.

2. Every person who shall, in making and melting wax use any deceit, by mixing it with rosin, tallow, turpentine, or other deceitful thing, to the intent to sell, or to offer to sell, the same for wax, shall forfeit the corrupted wax; and if the same is sold before such fault is found, the melter or procurer thereof shall forfeit 2s. per lb., one-half to H. M., the other to the party deceived, if he will sue, or else to any person suing for the same in any court of record, id. s. 1.

3. Every melter and maker-up of unwrought wax shall have a stamp of the breadth of 6d., whereon shall be graven two letters, signifying his name, and shall stamp every piece of wax triangle, in 3 places, on the outside of the upper part thereof, on pain to forfeit the value of every piece offered to be sold and not marked, id. s. 2.

4. No person shall melt, mix, work, or sell, any wrought wax, or wares wrought with wax, as lights, staff torches, red wax or sealing-wax, book candle, searing candle, searing of dead corps, links, green or red wax, or any other wax-work for sale, but with good stuff, in convenient quantity; and every person who shall work or sell such stuff, shall have a mark to set on his work; and such as shall work, sell, or to sale put any such false wax, or wares wrought with wax, shall forfeit the same, to be divided as in s. 1. id. s. 3.

5. Every person who shall offer to sale any corrupted or false mingled wax, shall forfeit the same, to be divided as in s. 1. And all barrels, kilderkins, and firkins, filled with honey by the maker and seller, shall be marked with two letters for his name, each being one inch and a half long at least, burnt on the head of a cask with an iron, on pain to forfeit 6s. 8d. for every cask offered to be sold, and not marked; and any person who shall fill and sell, or cause to be filled or offered for sale, any barrel, &c. with honey, for a barrel, &c. containing less than 32 wine gallons the barrel, 16 gallons the kilderkin, and 8 gallons the firkin, shall forfeit, for every $\frac{1}{2}$ gallon lacking, 5s.; and every person corrupting the honey sold, or to be sold, with any deceitful mixture, shall forfeit the vessel and honey, to be divided as in s. 1., id. s. 4.

6. This act, as touching the making of wax, shall not extend to any person selling the wax of their own bees, in open markets, in small pieces, nor to any servants mingling, &c. wax at command of their master, so as they confess the same, id. s. 5.

7. Every person who shall counterfeit any of the above marks, or shall set the mark of any other person, without consent, shall forfeit 5l. to be divided as in s. 1., and for non-payment shall be set on the pillory in the next market town, and suffer 3 months' imprisonment, id. s. 6. [See pillory abolished, 56 G. 3. c. 138. PILLORY.]

WEARS.

(STATUTE repealed.)

TO CONFIRM ALL FORMER STATUTES AGAINST UNLAWFUL WEARS, 21 R. 2. c. 19. [REP. 1 H. 4. c. 3., but re-enacted 1 H. 4. c. 12.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR PUTTING DOWN AND REMOVING OF WEARS, &c. 9 H. 3. M.C. c. 23., 25 Ed. 3. St. 4. c. 4., 45 Ed. 3. c. 2., 1 H. 4. c. 12., 4 H. 4. c. 11. [All these acts CONF. 1 H. 5. c. 2. AMD. and ENFORCED, 12 Ed. 4. c. 7.]

2. All wears shall be put down through the Thames and Medway, and through all Eng., except by the sea-coast, 9 H. 3. M.C. c. 23. [CONF. in order to free passage of rivers, and safety of fish, 12 E. 4. c. 7. s. 1.]

3. All mills, wears, stanks, stakes, and kiddles, set up in the time of King Edward I., and after, whereby ships and boats are disturbed, shall be pulled down, without being renewed; and thereupon writs shall be sent to the sheriffs, and justices shall be thereupon assigned, at all times needful, 25 Ed. 3. S. 4. c. 4.

4. If any such annoyance, as in 25 Ed. 3. c. 4., shall be done, it shall be pulled down, by the process contained in that statute; and he that shall repair such annoyance, and be thereof attainted, shall incur the penalty of 100 marks to H. M., to be levied by estreats to the exchequer; and such law shall hold of annoyance made by enhancing such wears, &c. as by new levying them, 45 Ed. 3. c. 2.

5. Commissions shall be made to justices in every county of Eng. where necessary, to survey and keep the waters and great rivers, and to amend defaults, and make due execution of the said statutes, as well by their survey, advice, and discretion, as by inquest, to be taken, and to hear and determine the things aforesaid, and to survey the wears, mills, stanks, stakes, and kiddles, made before Ed. 1.'s time, and to pull down and amend those which they find too much enhanced and straitened; and if any such nuisances of wears, &c. in old time made, be judged to be pulled down and amended, he that has the freehold shall make thereof execution at his own costs, within half a year after notice, on pain of 100 marks, to be paid to H. M. by estreats in exchequer; and he that causes them to be repaired, enhanced, or straitened, against the said judgment, and is thereof convict, shall incur 100 marks penalty; and in case any person is grieved by execution, or otherwise, in this behalf, against right and reason, he may pursue and shall have remedy, 1 H. 4. c. 12.

6. "Recital that the passage of ships was disturbed, and fry of fish destroyed, and given to swine to eat, by reason of wears in the rivers." Commissions shall be issued to justices and others in every county where needful, to inquire of all things contained in the above statutes, and to punish offenders by fine; saving to H. M. the penalties thereon; and the estreats of such fines shall be delivered by the justices to the sheriff, by indenture, who shall pay of the issues of such estreats to such justice 4s. for every day that he shall travel to exercise his commission, and shall have allowance thereof in exchequer, 4 H. 4. c. 11.

7. If by award of the commissioners assigned according to 1 H. 4. c. 12., it is found that any wears, fish-garths, mills, mill-dams, or stanks, locks, ebbing-wears, stakes, kedels, hecks or flood-gates, are made, enhanced, straitened, or enlarged, against that statute, and the offenders being duly warned by the sheriff, by scire facias, do not, within 3 months, amend and break down the same, they shall forfeit 100 marks, to be paid by estreats into exchequer, 12 E. 4. c. 7. s. 1.

8. Every offender, his heirs or assigns, continuing such default, shall forfeit 100 marks, in moieties to H. M. and party suing for same in debt, by original writ, without fine in chancery, no protection or essoin in H. M.'s service being allowed, id. s. 2.

9. Every person, other than such against whom such judgment was made, being heir or assignee to them, and continuing such wears, &c. shall forfeit for every month 100 marks, to be divided as in s. 2., id. s. 3.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

(STATUTE repealed.)

ALL MEASURES SHALL BE ACCORDING TO H. M.'s STANDARD, &c., 34 Ed. 3. c. 6. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

III.*

7. THE TREASURER shall cause to be made standards of bushels, gallons, and weights of brass, and send the same into every county; and there shall be assigned 2 or more persons in every county, to survey that the measures and weights be according to the standard, who have power to enquire, hear, and determine, and to punish all that shall be found guilty; and the sheriffs at their command shall retain them in prison till they have made fine to H. M.; and every person that will complain of such as offend in buying or selling, shall be heard as well for H. M. as for themselves, 14 E. 3. St. 1. c. 12. s. 1.

8. The said assignees shall deliver their estreats every year in the morrow of St. Michael at the exchequer, and take for their expences the fourth part of that they may levy, and answer to H. M. of the three parts, but the clerk of the market shall do his office as in times past; lords of franchises shall not be put out of their franchises by this ordinance, id. s. 2.

9. COMMISSIONS to assay measures, ells, and weights, shall not issue, 18 E. 3. c. 4. [But see 25 Ed. 3. St. 5. c. 10. pl. 11.]

10. THE WEIGHT called ausel shall be taken away, and every sale and buying shall be by the balance, so that the balance be even; and the sack of wool shall weigh but 26 stone, every stone 14 pound; and if any buyer do the contrary, he shall be grievously punished, as well at the suit of the party as at H. M.'s suit, 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 9. [CONF. 34 Ed. 3. c. 5.]

11. ALL MEASURES, viz. bushels, half bushels, peck, gallon, pottel, and quart, shall be according to H. M.'s standard; and the quarter shall contain 8 bushels; and every measure of corn shall be striked without heap; saving the rents and farms of lords, which shall be measured as in times past; and at all times needful H. M. shall assign justices in every county to enquire, &c. upon the points aforesaid, as well at the party's suit as at H. M.'s, so that all franchises be saved to the lords, 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 10.

12. ONE WEIGHT, ONE MEASURE, and one yard, shall be through all the land; and wools and all goods of weights shall be weighed by the balance, so that it be even; and he that doth against this, to the damage of the seller, shall forfeit to H. M. the value of the merchandize, and the party that will complain shall have the quadruple of his damage, and the trespasser shall have one year's imprisonment, and be ransomed at H. M.'s will; and justices shall be assigned to enquire of such trespasses at all times needful, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 10.

13. ONE MEASURE AND ONE WEIGHT shall be through Eng.; and every man that shall be convict that he hath any other measure or weight, shall have imprisonment of half a year, and recompence the party grieved to the double of his loss, except in the county of Lancaster, because in that county it hath always been used to have greater measure; and none shall buy or sell wool at more weight than 14 lbs. the stone, on pain to pay the double to him that is grieved, and make fine and ransom to H. M.; and none shall make other refuse of wool but cot, gare, and villein; and none shall buy wool by the words good packing, or the like, upon pain the broker to have imprisonment half a year, and the buyer to make fine, and the party grieved to have double damages, 13 R. 2. c. 9.

14. THE SAID STATUTES SHALL be firmly kept, as well in London as in any other place, as well by water as by land; and none shall buy corn nor malt but at 8 bushels the quarter, according to the said statutes, upon pain of forfeiture of the corn or malt so bought; saving to H. M. the forfeiture, except franchises royal, to whom H. M. hath granted the same forfeit: and as well the mayor and sheriffs of London as the mayors and bailiffs of other cities, boroughs, towns, and markets (if they do not thereof due execution) shall incur like pain, as well at the suit of H. M. as of the party or any other that will sue for him, 15 R. 2. c. 4.

15. NONE SHALL BUY CORN by other measure but 8 bushels striked for the quarter, at 8 gallons to the bushel [this is Winchester measure, see 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. pl. 40. 13 & 14 W. 3. c. 5. s. 29. pl. 52.]; and if any buy corn otherwise, or by other measure, and thereof be attainted, he shall have one year's imprisonment, and pay to H. M. 100*s.*, and to the party grieved other 100*s.*, and the party which will sue shall have an action upon the case; and the justices of peace have power to enquire and hold plea of these things, as well at the suit of H. M. as of the party; and nothing shall be taken for measuring of corn, 1 H. 5. c. 10. s. 2.

16. NO MAN SHALL BRING into, nor make within the realm, a tun of wine, except it contain of English measure 252 gallons, the pipe 126 gallons, and so after the rate the tertian and the hogshead of Gascoin wine, upon pain of forfeiture of the wine, [and see as to measures of wine and oil, 1 R. 3. c. 13.]; nor barrel of herring, nor of eels, unless they contain 30 gallons; nor butt of salmon, unless it contain 84 gallons; nor kilderkins, tertians, and firkins, of herring; nor of eels, nor of salmon, but after the rate, fully packed, on pain of forfeiture of the herring, eels, and salmon, to the lord of the town, and he that will sue shall have the 4th of the forfeiture: and the justices of peace, and mayors and bailiffs, having power to enquire of the peace, shall enquire, hear, and determine the same defaults; and this shall extend as well within the county of Chester as elsewhere, 2 H. 6. c. 11.

17. IN EVERY CITY, borough, and town, common balance shall be with common weights sealed, according to the standard of the exchequer, at the common costs of the city, &c. in the keeping of the mayor or constable, at which balance all the inhabitants may freely weigh, without paying; taking nevertheless of foreigners for every draught within the weight of 40*lb.* a farthing; and for every draught betwixt 40*lb.* and 100, an halfpenny; and for every draught betwixt 100*lb.* and 1000*lb.*, 1*d.*; whereof the weights shall be maintained, and the officers rewarded, 8 H. 6. c. 5. s. 1.

18. And no man shall use weight or measure, nor other thing in the place of weight or measure, that is not sealed according to the standard, nor put any thing to the same that may increase the measure or weight, upon pain of 2 years' imprisonment, and fine and ransom. And the justices of peace, mayors, bailiffs, and stewards of franchises, shall have power to examine the trespassers, and enquire of offenders against this ordinance, id. s. 2.

19. And every city, on pain of 10*l.*, every borough, on pain of 100*s.*, and every town where a constable is, on pain of 40*s.* shall have a common balance with weights, id. s. 3. [But not if it be not a city, &c., 11 H. 7. c. 4. s. 6. pl. 26.]

20. IN EVERY CITY, BOROUGH, and town, there shall be a common bushel sealed according to the standard in the exchequer, upon the same pain as in 8 H. 6. c. 5. is specified of a common balance; and the mayor of London, and all other mayors and bailiffs, and all justices in every county shall have power to put the statutes concerning weights and measures in execution, and hear and determine all offences against the same, as well at the suit of H. M. as of the party grieved, and of any other of H. M.'s people which will sue for H. M., and that as well by examination of the parties as by issues tried, and other process; and he that is attainted of any default against 1 H. 5. c. 10. shall pay to him at whose suit he is attainted, 100s. and his costs, and to H. M. another 100s.; and as well the mayor of London, at his first coming to the exchequer before the treasurer and barons of the exchequer, as every of the other mayors and bailiffs, in their oaths of their offices, shall be sworn to keep the above statutes; and all the mayors and bailiffs of cities and boroughs, accountable in the exchequer, shall yearly account of the forfeitures that may pertain to H. M. by the said statutes, saving to the lords, cities, and boroughs, their liberties, 11 H. 6. c. 8.

21. TO THE KNIGHTS AND CITIZENS in this present parliament, barons of the five ports, and certain burgesses, shall be delivered one of every weight and measure of brass according to the standard in the exchequer [new ones sent, 12 H. 7. c. 5. s. 2.] and the said knights, &c. shall convey the same by the citizens to their cities, and by the knights to such borough or town corporate, or market town within the shire, as is specified in a schedule unto this bill annexed, there to remain in the keeping of the mayor, bailiff, or other head officer, as H. M.'s standard, 11 H. 7. c. 4. s. 1.

22. And the inhabitants of all cities, boroughs, and market towns, shall cause to be made common measures and weights, according to the weights and measures abovesaid, to remain with the same cities, &c., the same to be examined and marked by the mayor, &c. or other head officer, in whose possession the standard shall remain; and every mayor, bailiff, or other head officer, having the said weights and measures signed with a letter H crowned, shall sign like weights and measures unto every the subjects requiring the same, taking for marking of every bushel 1d.; and no person within any city, borough, or market town, shall buy or sell with any weight or measure, except it be marked in manner aforesaid, nor any other person out of the said cities, &c. except it be equal with the standard, and every person shall buy and sell with a bushel sealed, id. s. 2.

23. And all mayors and other head officers of every city, borough, or market town, shall cause twice in the year, or oftener, all weights and measures to be brought afore them, and such as they shall find defective to be broken and burnt, and the parties which have offended shall forfeit for the first time 6s. 8d. to the said mayor, and the second time 13s. 4d., and the third time 20s., and be set upon the pillory; and 2 justices of peace, whereof one of the quorum, shall have authority, as well by examination as by enquiry, to hear and determine the defaults of the mayors and other head officers, and also of all buyers and sellers doing contrary to this act, and to set fine and amercement upon the offenders, id. s. 3.

24. There shall be but 8 bushels stricken to the quarter of corn; and 14 lb. to the stone of wool, and 26 stone to the sack, id. s. 4.

25. The justices of peace shall make like process against all persons found as abovesaid defective, as if they were indicted for breaking the peace, id. s. 5.

26. And where by other statutes [8 H. 6. c. 5., 11 H. 6. c. 8.] it is ordained that every city, borough, and town that hath a constable, should have common weights and measures sealed, on penalty in the same limited, those penalties shall not extend to any town which is no city, borough, or market town, id. s. 6.

27. Provided that this act shall not extend unto any person selling or buying by water measure within ship-board; and the said water measure shall only contain 5 pecks after the said standard stricken, id. s. 7.

28. The examination of the faults abovesaid within the five ports shall be by the lord warden, or his lieutenant, id. s. 8.

29. This act shall not extend to the prince within the duchy of Cornwall, for any weights belonging to the coinage of tin within Cornwall and Devonshire, id. s. 9.

30. The names of towns limited for the custody of weights and measures, viz. Appleby, Newcastle, Carlisle, Lancaster, York, Lincoln, Derby, Nottingham, Leicester, Coventry, Uppingham, Northampton, Bedford, Buckingham, Cambridge, Huntingdon, Norwich, Bury, Chelmsford, Hertford, Westminster, Maidstone, Guildford, Lewes, Oxford, Reading, Shrewsbury, Stafford, Hereford, Gloucester, Worcester, Salisbury, Winchester, Ilchester, Dorchester, Exeter, Lestwithiel, London, Bristol, Dover, Southampton, Chester, id. ibid.

31. THE MEASURE of the bushel shall contain eight gallons of wheat, and every gallon 8 lb. troy, and every pound 12 oz., and every ounce 20 sterlings, and every sterling 32 corns of wheat in the midst of the ear, according to the old laws, 12 H. 7. c. 5.

32. And new bushels and gallons shall be made, and remain in the treasury; and every city, borough, and town, which have any bushel or gallon, shall carry a bushel and gallon to be made as aforesaid at the costs of the same city, &c. there to remain, id. s. 2.

33. The act 11 H. 7. c. 4. to stand in strength with his penalties upon the said bushel and gallons new to be made, upon pain of 20l. upon every city, borough, town, or other place, having the keeping of the common measures, that keep any other bushel or gallon than is ordained by this act, 12 H. 7. c. 5. s. 2.

34. SOAP MAKERS shall make their vessels, for soap for sale, to contain as follows:

			gall.		lbs.
When empty	{ the barrel half do. firkin	{ shall con- tain	{ 32 16 8	{ and weigh not above	{ 26 13 6½

good measure, on pain to forfeit every barrel, &c. made contrary hereto, and 3s., 23 H. 8. c. 4. s. 6. [See as to gauging such vessels and other regulations, COOPER, pl. 1.]

35. THE ASSIZE OF 32 GALLONS WINE MEASURE which is about 28 gallons old standard, well packed, and containing usually 1000 full herrings at least, shall be good assize of herring barrels, 13 El. c. 11. s. 5.

36. FOR REFORMATION OF FALSE WEIGHTS and measures, 16 C. 1. c. 19. and recital in s. 1. [REP. as to s. 7. as to water measures of corn ground or unground, and salt, by 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. See rest of this title, MARKETS AND FAIRS, pl. 6.]

37. There shall be but one weight, measure, and yard, according to the standard of exchequer throughout the realm, as well within as without privileged places, and every measure of corn shall be stricked without heap: and whoever shall sell, buy, or keep any other weight, measure, or yard, whereby any article is bought or sold, shall (if lawfully convicted by the oath of one witness before a justice or head officer of the county, city, or town, or corporation where the offence is committed) forfeit for each offence 5s., to be levied by distress and sale of their goods and chattels, by the churchwardens and overseers, to the use of the poor of the parish; and in default of distress any justices or head officer respectively may commit the party to gaol till the penalty be paid, 16 C. 1. c. 19. s. 2.

38. The act shall not extend to the rents of farms or lands, or to corn rents payable to any lords, colleges, or societies, by lease, covenant, or agreement; but the same shall be paid as before, and water measure shall continue in ports, maritime towns, and other places as formerly, id. s. 7. [REP. as in pl. 36.] General issue, id. s. 8. And treble costs to defendant, id. s. 9. [See the sections at length, MARKET, pl. 11.]

39. FOR ASCERTAINING THE MEASURES OF CORN AND SALT, 22 C. 2. c. 8., and recital in s. 1. [an additional act 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 12.]

40. If any person shall sell any corn or salt usually sold by the bushel by any other measure than that which is agreeable to the standard in H. M.'s exchequer, called the Winchester measure, containing 8 gallons to the bushel, struck even by the brim by the seller, and sealed, he shall forfeit 40s. to be levied as in pl. 37., by warrant of any justice of peace, 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. [Penalty enlarged 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 12. s. 2. pl. 47.]

41. If any head officer of any city, borough, or liberty, shall knowingly and wilfully suffer any person to sell or buy corn or salt by any other measure, or shall suffer any other measure to be used, or on complaint of the breach of this statute shall not duly punish the same, then upon conviction thereof by presentment or indictment before the general sessions of the county, he shall forfeit 5l., one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish, to be levied by distress and sale of goods; and for default of distress, by imprisonment by warrant of the justices, 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 3.

42. If the clerk of the market within the verge, or the head officer, lord of liberty, or other person authorized to seal measures, shall neglect, being required, to seal any bushel, half bushel, or peck, duly gauged, he shall forfeit for the first offence 5l. and for every other offence 10l., to be levied as in pl. 40.; or if the clerk of the market within the verge takes more than the lawful fees, or if any other person exacts more than 1d. for sealing a bushel, or one halfpenny for a half bushel or peck, or one farthing for sealing any measure containing one gallon, pottle, quart, pint, or half pint, he shall incur the penalties in 16 C. 1. c. 19. s. 2. pl. 37. (viz. 5l.) to be levied as in s. 2. of that act, id. s. 4.

43. At the charge of the persons who have the profit of the market in any city, corporation or market town, there shall be one measure of brass provided and chained in the public market place, on pain to forfeit for every person so neglecting 5l., to be recovered and applied as in s. 3. pl. 41., id. s. 5.

44. All constables shall search if any persons use any other measure, or strike the same in other manner than herein directed, or sell or buy by a measure, unsealed; and in case they find any such unsealed measure shall break the same; and for every offence against this act, shall present such offender at the next private or quarter sessions, id. s. 6.

45. No person punished for any offence by virtue of this act, shall be questioned for the same offence by virtue of any other act, id. s. 7.

46. No person shall take any toll, but according to such proportion as the measures in this act appointed bear to the measures whereby the same have been usually taken, id. s. 8.

47. Every person who shall sell or buy any corn ground or underground, or salt by the bag, or without measuring, being thereto required, or in any other manner than as is by 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. pl. 37. directed, and that without shaking the measure by the buyer, shall forfeit, beside the penalty of the former act, all corn or salt bought or sold contrary to this act, or the value thereof, to the person complaining, 22 & 25 C. 3. c. 12. s. 2.

48. On complaint made to any justice, that any corn or salt hath been sold contrary to this act, the proof shall lie upon the defendant; wherein if such person fail, he shall forfeit as by this act, to be levied by distress and sale of goods by warrant of one justice before whom he shall be convicted, which penalties shall be distributed by the latter as by 22 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. pl. 40. directed, id. s. 3.

49. Where in markets there is not a clerk of the market to seal measures, the head officer or other person who has the benefit of such market shall seal all measures duly gauged that shall be brought to him, taking fee as in 16 C. 1. c. 19. s. 4. pl. 42., appointed, id. s. 4.

50. Every person to whom any salt, rent, or tithe-corn is due by lease or custom, may take the same, or its value, according to the proportion and by the like measures as were due before this parliament, id. s. 5.

51. THE CAPACITY OF THE WINCHESTER BUSHEL, 13 & 14 W. 3. c. 5. s. 29. [The rest of this act is EXP.]

52. Every round bushel with a plain bottom 18½ inches wide throughout, and 8 inches deep shall be a legal Winchester bushel, according to the standard in H. M.'s exchequer, id. ibid.

53. TO ASCERTAIN THE WATER MEASURE OF FRUIT, 1 A. St. 1. c. 15.

54. The water measure shall be round, and in diameter 18½ inches within the hoop, and 8 inches deep, and so in proportion; and every water measure by which apples and pears are sold shall be heaped as usual, and whosoever shall buy or sell them by other measure shall forfeit 10s., one half to the informer and the other half to the poor of the parish, being thereof convicted by oath of one witness before any justice or head officer of the county or corporation, where the offence is committed; such sum to be levied by the petty constable of the parish, under warrant from such justice, &c. of the offender's goods by distress and sale, id. s. 1.

55. This act shall not extend to any measures sealed by the masters wardens, assistants, and commonalty of the freemen of the London Fruiterers Company, to be used in measuring fruit sold by them in the city, or within 3 miles distance thereof, id. s. 2.

56. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTION OF THE USE OF FALSE and deficient measures, 35 G. 3. c. 102., 37 G. 3. c. 143. (PUBLIC clause both acts, s. 9.) 55 G. 3. c. 43. [The 55 G. 3. c. 43., seems in a great measure a re-enactment of 35 G. 3. c. 102. and 37 G. 3. c. 143., and they are therefore incorporated together.]

57. The justices of peace of Eng. and Wa. may, at their respective petty sessions, appoint one or more persons who shall have power to examine the measures within their several divisions, districts, and limits, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 1., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 1.

58. The persons so appointed (having been first sworn faithfully to execute their offices) shall, as often as such justices shall direct, enter in the day time into the shop, house, outhouses, and other places near such shop or house, and into the stall or standing place of any person within their respective divisions or limits, who shall sell by retail, and by any measure of capacity, any liquid or dry goods, or other article soever, and then and there shall search for, view, and examine all measures of capacity in such shop, &c., and seize any of them not being according to the standard in exchequer, which on such search shall be found therein, and detain the same to be produced before the petty sessions, on the hearing of the information which shall be preferred against the person in whose shop, &c. any such deficient measure is found; which person, on conviction in petty sessions, on view, confession, or oath of one witness, shall forfeit the same, to be broken or disposed of as the justices shall direct; and shall also forfeit for every such false and deficient measure not less than 5s. nor more than 20s., at the justices' discretion, which forfeiture, with costs of conviction, shall be levied by warrant under the hands and seals of the justices, or under that of one of them, by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, [with the expences of distress and sale, 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 2.] [and if no sufficient distress is found, and such penalties with the said costs are not forthwith paid, such justices, or either of them shall, by like warrant, commit the offender to the gaol or house of correction of the limit where the offence is committed, for not more than one month, unless the penalty and costs are sooner paid, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 2.] 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 2., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 2.

59. Every person who shall wilfully abstract or in any wise oppose any of the persons so authorized to examine such measures, and every person selling or retailing by measure, who shall refuse to produce his measures in order to their examination shall, for every such offence, on due conviction on oath before any justice, forfeit not more than [40s.

nor less than 5s., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 3.] 5l. nor less than 40s. at his discretion, to be levied and recovered as in 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 2. directed, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 3., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 3.

60. The convicting justice or justices shall cause the amount of every such forfeiture to be applied towards the expences of executing these statutes, the residue if any, being paid to the treasurer of the county, city, &c. to the public stock thereof, and shall also prepare and sign returns of the forfeitures levied by them in pursuance hereof, and transmit them to the clerk of the peace at every quarter session, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 4., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 3., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 2.

61. The quarter sessions shall allow to such examiners of measures, a reasonable recompence for their trouble, to be paid out of the general stock of the county, division, city, or town, &c., 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 5., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 4.

62. The quarter sessions shall purchase for the use of their respective counties or other limits, proper measures duly marked according to the exchequer standard, which shall be deposited either with the clerk of the peace or other proper person in a proper place within their limits, directed by the justices, and shall be produced by the persons having them in custody, on reasonable notice at such time and place as any person shall by writing under his hand appoint, the latter paying the reasonable costs of producing the same, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 6., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 7.

63. If the majority of inhabitants of any parish, township, or place, are desirous specially to appoint some person to examine the measures therein, they may (at a vestry duly holden for that purpose) nominate 5 or more substantial householders to be approved and appointed by such petty sessions for the division, &c. wherein such parish, &c. shall lie, with all the powers in s. 1., 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 7., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 4.

64. No appointment for such parish, &c. shall be made, until the inhabitants have procured the proper measures duly marked according to the exchequer standard, for use of such parish, &c., to be deposited in custody of the persons appointed as in s. 7.; and the petty sessions may direct the costs of procuring such measures, and the examiner's salary to be paid out of the poor rate for such parish, &c., 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 8., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 5.

65. No proceedings touching convictions under these acts shall be removed by certiorari or other process, into any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 9., 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7.

66. The conviction of offenders against 55 G. 3. c. 43. shall be in this form:

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, A. B., at a petty session holden at — before us A. B. and C. D. justices of the peace, acting in and for the said —, E. F. of — in the said — was duly convicted before us the said justices, for that he, the said E. F., on the — day of — now last past, at —, in the said —, contrary to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, [here state the offence]; and we the said justices do declare and adjudge that the said E. F. hath, for such offences, forfeited the said [several] measures [—], and hath also forfeited the sum of —l. of lawful money of G. B., to be applied as the law directs; and the further sum of —l. of like lawful money for the reasonable costs and charges attending this conviction. Given under our hands and seals on the day, and in the year first mentioned.' 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 10.; [The form of conviction given by 37 G. 3. c. 143. s. 8. is not given, as it seems practically superseded by 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 10.]

67. Every person convicted and punished for an offence against either of these acts, shall not be otherwise punished for the same offence, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 11., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 5.

68. Nothing in this act shall lessen the authority which any person, body politic or corporate, or person appointed at any court leet, may have for examining or destroying measures within their jurisdictions, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 12., 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 6.

69. No prosecution shall take place under this act unless information thereof is given on oath to some justice within [one month, 35 G. 3. c. 102. s. 8. altered to] 6 weeks after the offence, 55 G. 3. c. 43. s. 13.

WEST INDIES.

1. TO ENCOURAGE SUBJECTS OF FOREIGN STATES TO LEND MONEY on security of free or leasehold estates in any of H. M.'s colonies in the West Indies, and to render the securities granted to such aliens effectual for recovering payment of the money so to be lent, by sale thereof, 13 G. 3. c. 14. [Six pounds per cent. between British subjects, 14 G. 3. c. 79., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 51. s. 1., MORTGAGE, pl. 10.]

2. All persons, foreigners or aliens, may lend money at not exceeding 5l. per cent. per ann., on security of any free or leasehold estate in any of H. M.'s colonies in the West Indies and hold the same as an effectual security for the money lent, and prosecute any suit for recovering it as in this act, whether the foreign state of which such alien is a natural born subject be at war with this kingdom or not, 13 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1.

3. In case of non-payment of the money lent on such security at the time agreed upon, such foreigners may bring and prosecute, by themselves or attorneys, any suit at common law, on any bond or other collateral security, or on any covenant on the part of the borrower contained in any such mortgage deeds; and also bills in the court of chancery of the colony where the estate lies, praying a decree of sale of the mortgaged premises for payment of the debt due thereon, in which suit the plaintiff shall be entitled to like remedies, for recovery of his debt and costs as any British subject can have, except the being entitled to obtain, directly or indirectly, the actual possession of such mortgaged premises by any process of execution at common law, or to foreclose the equity of redemption by decree or order of any court of equity soever, 13 G. 3. c. 14. s. 2.

4. The court of chancery where such bills shall be brought, may order the sale of such mortgaged premises in the same manner as where the mortgagor had consented to a sale, id. s. 3.

5. In such cases, service of any writ or process of such court on the known attorney or agent of such foreigners residing within the jurisdiction thereof, shall be deemed good service; and in case the defendant is absent, and has no such agent residing within such jurisdiction, then, on affidavit thereof by the person seeking such relief, or his attorney duly constituted to the satisfaction of the court, (in which affidavit shall be expressed the residence of such foreigner, according to the best of the deponent's information and belief,) the court may issue a commission under seal to commissioners authorizing them to take affidavit of the service of such writ or process, on the defendant personally or at his usual residence, and to certify the same; which affidavit, returned with such commission into the court, shall be competent evidence of service of such writ or process; and if defendant shall not, within 6 months, after service on the attorney, or agent in the colony or on himself abroad, appear to the said bill, either in person or by attorney appointed under hand and seal, or according to the usage of the county to which he belongs, then the court of chancery in which such suit is brought, shall take the bill pro confesso, and decree an account to be taken by one of the masters of the court of what is due to defendant for principal, interest and costs; in taking which account, complainant shall be obliged to shew before the master vouchers for all credits that he shall claim; and the court, on the coming in of the master's report, shall make a final decree, appointing a time and place for payment of the sum, which, by such report, shall appear due to defendant, together with interest, till tendered as in s. 5., and adjudging a redemption of the mortgaged premises on payment of principal, interest and costs, either to defendant, his attorney, or into bank of Eng., as in s. 5., id. s. 4.

6. After a time and place for redemption of such mortgage, and the money to be paid for such redemption are ascertained by the court, according to the usual course, if the money is then and there tendered, and if such mortgagee or his representative, or attorney refuse to receive it, or shall not attend for that purpose, then the mortgagor, his representative, or attorney, may pay such money into the bank of Eng., in the name and with privity of the accountant-general of the court of chancery in Eng., to be placed to his account there ex parte the mortgagor or his representative, pursuant to 12 G. 1. c. 32.; there to remain for the benefit of the mortgagee, and to be laid out on government or parliamentary securities as after mentioned, until he shall, on petition to chancery, in a summary way, at his expence, obtain an order for payment thereof, and of all interest arising therefrom, id. s. 5.

7. A certificate under the hand of the accountant-general, (which he is to give without fee as well to the mortgagor as mortgagee on application,) that the mortgagor or his heirs or representatives, or attorney, have paid such sum into the bank of Eng., shall discharge him and his heirs; and after such certificate is given, the mortgagor, his heirs, or assigns, and all persons who may be surety for payment of the sum originally lent, or its interest, shall be discharged thereof, and the legal estate of the mortgagee shall, after granting such certificate, be re-vested in the mortgagor, id. s. 6.

8. In the mean time, and until the mortgagee or his representatives apply by petition to chancery for an order to receive the sum, the accountant-general shall place it out on government or parliamentary securities, and pay the interest to the person entitled to the sum paid into the bank, id. s. 7.

9. The high court of chancery shall make an order for payment of the sum paid into the bank, and of all dividends therefrom to the person entitled thereto, on application to the court by petition in a summary way by the mortgagee; on the hearing whereof, it shall be sufficient for the petitioner to prove to satisfaction of the court, that he is the person for whose use the money was paid into the bank, or the legal representative of such person, without requiring any of the proceedings in the court of chancery of the colony to be transmitted hither; and on producing such order to the accountant-general, the money shall be paid to the person specified therein, or to his attorney without fee, id. s. 8.

WILLS. (See EXECUTORS, &c.)

1. WIDOWS MAY BEQUEATH THE CROP OF THEIR GROUND as well of their dowers as of other their lands and tenements; saving to the lords of the fee all the customs and services due for their dowers and other tenements, 20 H. 3. (St. Merton). c. 2.

2. HOW LANDS MAY BE WILLED BY TESTAMENT, 32 H. 8. c. 1. ss. 1—2. and s. 14. (commonly called The Statute of Wills) [virtually REP. as to ss. 3—13. and 15—17. by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.; AMD. 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 5. s. 4. and s. 14., which is virtually REP. as to ss. 1—3. 5—13. and 15—19. by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.]

3. Every person having any manors, lands, or hereditaments, holden in socage, shall have power to give and devise, as well by his last will and testament in writing, or otherwise by any act lawfully executed in his lifetime, all his said hereditaments or any of them, 32 H. 8. c. 1. s. 1. From 20th July 1540, id. s. 2.

4. But [suing of liveries, REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.] reliefs and heriots shall be paid as usual, id. s. 14.

5. Every person having a sole estate in fee simple, or seised in fee simple in coparcenery, or in common of lands or other hereditaments in possession, reversion or remainder, may at pleasure give or devise to any person (except bodies corporate), by his last will and testament in writing, or otherwise by act lawfully executed in his lifetime, by himself solely, or by himself and other jointly or severally, his interest in such hereditaments, or in any rents, commons, or other profits thereof, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 5. s. 4.

6. Wills made of lands or hereditaments by any feme covert or infant within 21 years, idiot or person de non sane memory, shall not be good in law, id. s. 14.

7. TO ENABLE THE INHABITANTS OF THE PROVINCE OF York to dispose of their personal estates by their wills, notwithstanding the custom of that province, 4 W. & M. c. 2. [REP. from 26th March 1704 as to the proviso in s. 3., which excepts the citizens of York from the operation of the rest of the statute, (see pl. 9.), 2 & 3 A. c. 5. s. 1. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 2.]

8. "Recital, that by custom within the province of York, the widows and younger children of persons dying inhabitants of that province are entitled to a part of the goods of their late husbands and fathers, (called their Reasonable Part), notwithstanding any disposition by will and jointures made in their lifetime of such husbands, &c." Persons inhabiting or having any goods within that province, may, by their last wills and testaments, give and dispose of all their goods and personal estate to their executors, or to such other person as they shall think fit, in as ample a manner as within the province of Canterbury; and the widows, children, and other the kindred of such testators, shall be barred to claim any part in any other manner than as by such wills appointed, 4 W. & M. c. 2. s. 2. [EXT. to the citizens of York city by 2 & 3 A. c. 5. s. 1., notwithstanding the proviso in 4 W. & M. c. 2. s. 3.]

9. Nothing in this act shall extend to the citizens of [York, REP. 2 & 3 A. c. 5. s. 1.] and Chester, being freemen of that city, inhabiting therein at the time of their deaths; but every such citizen's widow and children shall have such reasonable part of the testator's personal estate as they ought by the above recited custom, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 2. s. 3.

10. TO REGULATE WILLS AND DEVISES OF REAL PROPERTY, (This title is framed) 29 C. 2. c. 3. ss. 5, 6. 12. 19—24. [AMD. as to nuncupative wills, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 14., and the wages due to workmen in H. M.'s dock yards declared not to be bonâ notabilia, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 26. And further AMD. as to the distribution of estates pur autre vie in cases where there is no devise, and no special occupant thereof, 14 G. 2. c. 20. s. 9. and further AMD. as to the attestation of wills and codicils of real estates in Eng. and the American colonies, 25 G. 3. c. 6. RECOGNIZANCE, pl. 15.; s. 25. EXECUTORS, &c., pl. 38.]

11. All devises and bequests of any lands or tenements, devisable either by force of the statute of wills, 32 H. 8. c. 1. or by this statute, or by force of the custom of Kent, or of any borough, or any other particular custom, shall be in writing, and signed by the devisor, or by some other person in his presence, and by his express directions, and shall be attested and subscribed in his presence by 3 or 4 credible witnesses, or shall be utterly void, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5.

12. After recital of 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5. as in last pl., IT IS ENACTED, that, if any person shall attest the execution of any will or codicil, to whom any beneficial devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, or appointment of, or affecting any real or personal estate, other than and except charges on lands, tenements, or hereditaments, for payment of any debt or debts, shall be thereby given or made, such devise, &c. shall so far only as concerns the person so attesting, be utterly void, and such persons shall be admitted as a witness to such execution within the intent of 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5., 25 G. 2. c. 6. s. 1.

13. In case by any will or codicil any lands, &c. (as in last pl.) are charged with any debt or debts, and any creditor, whose debt is so charged, attests the execution of such will, &c. he shall, notwithstanding such charge, be admitted to prove the execution within the intent of 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5. as in pl. 13., id. s. 2.

14. The credit of every such witness, so attesting the execution of any will or codicil, in any of the cases in this act before-mentioned, and all circumstances relating thereto, shall be subject to the consideration and determination of the court and jury, before whom any such witness is examined, or his testimony or attestation used, or of the court of equity, in which his testimony or attestation is used in like manner, to all intents and purposes, as the credit of witnesses ought, in all other cases, to be considered of and determined, id. s. 6.

15. No person to whom any beneficial estate, interest, gift, or appointment is given or made, which is by s. 1. pl. 13. of this act enacted to be void, or who has refused to receive any legacy on tender thereof made, shall, after he has been so examined, demand or take possession of, or receive any profits or benefit of, or from any such estate, interest, &c. so given or made to him by any such will or codicil, or demand or accept from any person soever, any such legacy or bequest, or any satisfaction or compensation for the same, in any manner, or under any pretence soever, id. s. 7. [Saving for the validity of wills executed and attested according to 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 5. where the devisee has been in quiet possession for 2 years next before 6th May 1751;] And the competency of witnesses where the will, &c. has been contested between the heir at law and devisee, in any prior will, for recovering the lands mentioned in the latter, or for obtaining any other judgment relative thereto, before 6th May 1751, id. s. 8. [EXP.] But no possession of any heir at law or devisee in such prior will, or of any claimant under them, which is consistent with, or may be warranted by any will or codicil, attested according to this act, or where the estate descended to such heir at law till a future or executory devise, under any will, &c. attested according to this act, shall be deemed a possession within s. 8., id. s. 9.

16. This act shall extend to such of the British colonies and plantations in America, where 29 C. 2. c. 3. is by act of assembly made or by usage received as law, or where, by act of assembly or usage, the attestation and subscription of a witness or witnesses are made necessary to devises of lands, &c. and shall have the same force in the construction of, or for avoiding doubts on the said acts of assembly and laws of the said colonies, as on 29 C. 2. c. 23. in Eng. id. s. 10.

17. As to cases arising in any of the above colonies, no such devise, legacy, or bequest, shall be avoided by this act, unless the will or codicil, whereby it is given, is made after 1st March 1753, id. s. 11.

18. No devise, in writing, of lands, &c. as in pl. 12. nor any clause thereof, shall be revocable otherwise than by some other will or codicil in writing, or other writing, declaring the same, or by burning, cancelling, tearing, or obliterating the same, by the testator himself, or in his presence, and by his directions and consent; but all devises and bequests of lands and tenements shall remain in force till burnt, cancelled, torn, or obliterated by the testator, or his directions, in manner afore-said, or unless the same be altered by some other will or codicil, in writing, or other writing of the devisor, signed in presence of 3 or 4 witnesses, declaring the same, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 6.

19. Any estate pur autre vie shall be devisable by will in writing, signed by the devisor, or by some other person in his presence, and by his express directions attested and subscribed in his presence by 3 or more witnesses; and if no such devise of them is made, such estates shall be chargeable in the hands of the heir, if it comes to him by reason of a special occupancy, as assets by descent, as in case of lands in fee-simple, and if there is no special occupant they shall be assets in hands of the executors of party having the estate thereof by virtue of the grant, id. s. 12.

20. Such estates, pur autre vie, in case there is no special occupant thereof, of which no devise has been made according to 29 C. 2. c. 3. (viz. ss. 5, 6.) or so much thereof as have not been so devised, shall be distributed as the personal estate of the testator or intestate, 14 G. 2. c. 20. s. 9.

21. No nuncupative will shall be good where the estate thereby bequeathed exceeds 30*l.* value, that is not proved by the oaths of 3 witnesses at least that were present at the making thereof; nor unless it be proved that the testator, at the time of pronouncing the same, did bid the persons present, or some of them, bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect; nor unless it was made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased, and in the house of his habitation where he had been resident for 10 days or more, except where such person was surprized or taken sick, being from his own home, and died before he returned to the place of his dwelling, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 19.

22. All such witnesses as are and ought to be allowed to be good witnesses on trials at law, by the laws and customs of this realm, shall be deemed good witnesses to prove any nuncupative will, or any thing relating thereto, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 14

23. After 6 months passed after the speaking of the pretended testamentary words, no testimony shall be received to prove any will nuncupative, except the said testimony or the substance thereof were committed to writing within 6 days after making the same, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 20.

24. No letters testamentary, or probate of any nuncupative will, shall pass the seal of any court till 14 days at least after the decease of the testator are fully expired; nor shall any nuncupative will be at any time received to be proved, unless process has first issued to call in the widow or next of kindred to the deceased, that they may contest the same if they please, id. s. 21.

25. No will in writing concerning any goods, or chattels, or personal estate, shall be repealed; nor any clause, devise, or bequest therein altered or changed by any words, or will by word of mouth only, except the same be committed to writing in the life of the testator, and after the writing thereof read to and allowed by the testator, and proved to be so done by 3 witnesses at least, id. s. 22.

26. Notwithstanding this act, any soldier being in actual military service, or any mariner and seaman being at sea, may dispose of his moveables, wages, and personal estate, as he might have done before making this act, id. s. 23.

27. Nothing in this act shall alter or change the jurisdiction, or right of probate of wills concerning personal estates; but the prerogative court of the archbishop of Canterbury, and other ecclesiastical courts, and other courts having right to the probate of such wills, shall retain the same right and power as they had before, subject to this act, id. s. 24.

28. The power of granting probates of the wills and letters of administration of the goods and chattels of workmen in H. M.'s yards and docks, is in the ordinary of the diocese, or in such other person to whom the ordinary power of probate or granting such letters belongs where such persons die; and the salary or wages due to them for work done in H. M. yards or docks, shall not be deemed bona notabilia, whereby to found the jurisdiction of the prerogative court, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 26.

WINES.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. OF THE ASSIZE OF WINE, Stat. Incert. Temp. c. 5. Stats. at Large, 8vo. ed. i. 387. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

2. CONCERNING SALE OF WINES, 24 H. 8. c. 6. [REP. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

3. TO AUTHORIZE CERTAIN of H. M.'s council to set prices on wines to be sold by retail, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 7. [CON. 37 H. 8. c. 23. BOTH EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO REGULATE THE ASSAY AND PRICE OF WINES, 6 Ed. 1. c. 13., 4 Ed. 3. c. 12.

2. THE MAYOR AND BAILIFFS OF London, before the annual coming of the two barons of exchequer into the city, as in c. 14., shall inquire of wines sold against the assize, and present the same before them at their coming, when the parties shall be amerced, where before they used to tarry, till the coming of the justices in eyre, 6 Ed. 1. c. 15.

3. Proclamation shall be made, that none be so hardy to sell wines but at reasonable rates, regarding the price at the port and the carriage therefrom: and assay thereof shall be made at Easter and Michaelmas every year, and oftener, if necessary, by the lords or head-officers of the towns, and all the wines found spoiled or corrupt shall be poured out and the vessels broken; and the chancellor, treasurer, justices of K. B., C. P., and of assize, shall have power to inquire on the conduct of officers of towns herein, and to punish them reasonably, 4 Ed. 3. c. 12.

4. PROCLAMATION SHALL BE MADE, that no English merchant shall engross nor forestal wines in Gascony, nor take them by way of buying from any Gascon or other, to pay in Eng. for any greater sum than wines are commonly sold in Gascony, by pretext of earnest, or peril of sea, or other colour, on pain of [life and member, REP. 37 Ed. 3. c. 16.] and forfeiture of such wines, and of all their other goods to H. M., and of their lands and tenements to the chief lords, who shall have a writ of escheat in such case, 27 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 5. [CONF. 38 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 10.]

5. ALL MERCHANTS, Gascons, and other strangers, may safely bring their wines into Eng., to whatever part they please, and make profit thereof, [but H. M.'s butler may make purveyance thereof, &c., REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12.] id. c. 6.

6. NO ENGLISH MERCHANT, or his servant, or agent, shall go to Gascony there to abide, nor shall have any other, there dwelling, to make bargain, or buying of wines, by any colour before the time of vintage, viz. before common passage is made to seek wines there, id. c. 7. [The rest of this act seems EXP.]

7. ALL MERCHANTS, ALIENS, DENIZENS, and others, who bring wines and other merchandize of any sort, to the staples, cities, boroughs, and good towns, or to the sea-ports within the realm, may safely and without impeachment of any, sell them in gross or retail to any purchasers; and no persons soever shall go by land or water to meet such wines, &c. coming to the realm on sea nor elsewhere, to forestal or buy them, or in other manner to give earnest on them before they come to the staple, or the port where they are discharged, nor enter the ships for that purpose, till the merchandizes are set on land to be sold, on the penalties in pl. 3., 27 Ed. 3. St. 2. c. 11.

8. ALL MERCHANTS AND DENIZENS which are not artificers, may pass into Gascony, to fetch wines there, so that by this general licence greater plenty may come, and greater market be had of wines within the realm: and that all aliens may come therein with their wines, and freely sell them without disturbance: saving that it shall be always lawful to H. M., on advice to him or his council to ordain on this article as best seems to him, for the profit of him and his commons, 38 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 11.

9. TO LIMIT THE PRICES OF WINES, 28 H. 8. c. 14. ss. 2—4. [CONF. 13 C. 2. St. 1. c. 7. See rest of statute, GAUGING, pl. 11. AMD. 5 El. c. 5. s. 25. REP. as to s. 1. only, by 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11., and 12 C. 2. c. 25. ss. 12—13.

10. The lords chancellor, treasurer, president of the council, privy-seal, and two chief justices of K. B. or 5, 4, or 3 of them, may, at discretion, set the prices of all kinds of wine, per butt, ton, pipe, hogshead, puncheon, tierce, barrel, or runlet, when sold in gross, so that they cause such prices to be written, and open proclamation thereof to be made in chancery in term time, or else in the city, borough, or town, where such wines are sold in gross, 28 H. 8. c. 14. s. 2. and if persons refuse to sell wines at the price fixed, the chief officers of corporate towns may enter their houses, cellars, &c., and take the same at such prices, 28 H. 8. c. 14. s. 3. [Such prices shall be yearly set between 20th Nov. and 31st Dec., 37 H. 8. c. 23. s. 2.]

11. All persons authorized to sell wines by retail in the several places wherein they are authorized, may sell the wines at such prices as shall be limited by H. M.'s proclamation in that place, made by assent of such lords, as by 28 H. 8. c. 14. were authorized to set prices on wines, 5 El. c. 5. s. 25.

12. Any person, who after such prices so set and proclaimed as above, shall sell any wines in gross by fraud contrary to the same, shall forfeit for every vessel by them sold in gross contrary hereto 40s., one half to H. M., and the other half to the head officer of the city or town corporate, if within such, but if without, then to the party suing by original writ of debt, &c. or information, 28 H. 8. c. 14. s. 3.

13. The justices of every shire, and all head-officers of cities and towns corporate, in their respective jurisdictions, as well within franchise as without, may hear and determine the default of such as shall attempt to sell wine in gross or retail contrary to this act, at their discretion, id. s. 4.

14. TO AVOID THE GREAT PRICES and excess of wines, 7 Ed. 6. c. 5. [REP. as to ss. 1—2. by 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 43.]

15. No person shall keep any tavern, or sell or utter by retail, by the gallon, or less or greater measure, any French wines, except in cities, towns corporate, boroughs, port towns, or market-towns, or in Gravesend, Sittingborn, Tuxford, or Bagshot, on pain of forfeiting for every day 10*l.*, nor shall any person keep any tavern, or sell by retail in any city, borough, or town corporate, any wines, but only persons appointed by the head officers, and the common council, aldermen, burgesses, jurats, or commonalty of such city, &c., by writing under the common seal of such city, &c. [QU. wine retail licences may be granted to any person, at discretion of commissioners of stamps, 30 G. 2. c. 19. s. 3., now changed to excise licences, 30 G. 3. c. 38. s. 6.] which appointment shall continue at the pleasure of the head officers, &c.; nor shall any person keep any tavern, or sell wine by retail, in any city, borough, port, or market-town, not corporate, or in Gravesend, Sittingborn, or Bagshot, but only those assigned by the justices of peace of such county at the general sessions, by writing under seal of the justices, and to be continued or changed by like authority; upon pain of forfeiting for every day 5*l.* Nor shall any persons, having authority to appoint what persons shall sell wine by retail, appoint more taverns at one time in any one city, &c. (every town hereafter named except) than 2 wine cellars or taverns; And no person, having authority to appoint taverns, shall appoint in London above 40 taverns, and in York 8, in Norwich 4, in Westminster and in Bristol 6, in Lincoln 3, in Kingston-upon-Hull 4, in Shrewsbury 3, in Exeter 4, in Salisbury 3, in Gloucester 4, in Westchester 4, in Hereford East 3, in Worcester 3, in Southampton 3, in Canterbury 4, in Ipswich 3, in Winchester 3, in Oxford 3, in Cambridge 4, in Colchester 3, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne 4, on pain to forfeit for every appointment contrary to this act, 5*l.*, 7 Ed. 6. c. 5. s. 3.

16. No person shall sell by retail any wines to be drank in his house, or other place in his occupation, on pain to forfeit 10*l.*; the one half to

H. M., and the other half to him that will sue for the same, in any of H. M.'s courts of record, id. s. 4.

17. Merchants adventuring for the same, may keep to spend in their houses such wines as they shall transport into this realm, not taking any money for the same; and every high sheriff and mayor, and other person dwelling in H. M.'s forts or towns fortified, may have wine to spend in their houses, without taking recompence for the same, id. s. 5.

18. The justices of peace in their sessions, and the steward in every leet, and the sheriff in his turn, and every escheator, shall have power to inquire by the oaths of 12 men, of offences contrary to this act; and every presentment taken as aforesaid shall be of such effect, as if the same were taken before K. B.; and the penalties for any offence contrary to this act, found by presentment before the justices of peace, escheators, sheriff, or steward, or by verdict as aforesaid, and by action or information thereof commenced, shall be divided into two parts, whereof the one shall be to H. M., and the other to the poor of the place, id. s. 6.

19. This act shall not charge any person, unless he be sued, indicted, or presented for the same, within one year after the offence, id. s. 7.; And shall not be hurtful to any inhabitants of Oxford and Cambridge, or to the chancellors or scholars of the same, so that there be not any more taverns within Oxford or Cambridge, than may be lawfully kept by this statute, id. s. 8.

20. FOR PREVENTING ABUSES IN THE MINGLING, corrupting, and vitiating of wines, 12 C. 2. c. 25. ss. 7—11. [CONF. 13 C. 2. St. 1. c. 7., but ss. 1—6. REP., 30 G. 2. c. 19. ss. 7—8. Saving for the privileges of the universities, 12 C. 2. c. 25. s. 7.; for the London vintners' company, id. s. 8.; for the borough of St. Albans, id. s. 9.]

21. No person selling wine shall mingle or utter any Spanish mingled with French, or Rhenish wine, or with cyder, perry, honey, sugar, syrups, or molasses, nor put in any isinglass, brimstone, lime, raisins, juice of raisins, water, nor any other ingredients, nor any clary or other herb, nor any flesh; and no person selling wine, shall mingle or utter any French mingled with any Rhenish or Spanish wines, cyder, stummed wine, vitriol, water, or other ingredients, nor any clary or other herb, nor any flesh; and no person selling wine shall mingle or utter any Rhenish mingled with any French or Spanish wines, cyder, or other ingredients, &c.; and every person committing any of the offences aforesaid, shall incur the penalties herein mentioned, viz., every person selling wines in gross, mingled as aforesaid, shall forfeit 100*l.*; and every person selling wine by retail, mingled as aforesaid, shall forfeit 40*l.*; one moiety to H. M., the other to the informer, to be recovered in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, without essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 11.

22. NO VINTNER OR RETAILER of wines shall sell or utter them by retail, except in measures made of pewter, sealed according to statute, under 5*l.* penalty for every offence to the informer, to be levied and recovered in any such courts, and in such manner as above, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 34. s. 19. [ss. 1—18. are EXP.]

23. Every merchant, vintner, wine-cooper, or other person selling wine, by wholesale or retail, who shall corrupt or adulterate the same, or utter, or sell any wine so adulterated, &c. shall forfeit 300*l.* for every offence; one moiety to H. M., and the other to the person who shall sue by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, (wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed) and shall be imprisoned 3 months, id. s. 20.

24. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL SELL OR UTTER BY RETAIL in or by any glass, bottle, or in or by any retail measure not made of pewter, and duly sealed, any kind of wine, or any liquor exposed to sale for wine, or shall sell the same for a greater price than in 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 34. is appointed, and is convicted thereof by confession or oath of two witnesses, before one or more justices for the county, &c. where the offence was committed, such person, being prosecuted for such offence within 30 days after, shall forfeit 50s., which, if not paid on demand, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under hand and seal of the convicting justice, which warrant he shall grant to the constable, headborough or tythingman of the parish or place where the offence was committed, who shall levy the same accordingly; such penalty and money so levied to go to the informer; and for want of distress, the offender shall be committed to the common gaol until he has paid the same and all costs, such costs to be ascertained by the convicting justice, 2 W. & M. S. 2. c. 14. s. 3.

25. Provided any offender punished under this act, shall not be punished under any other for the same offence; and no certiorari shall be granted to remove such conviction or proceedings, but execution shall be had thereof, id. s. 4.

26. When any officer or other person by this act, or 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 34., is by any person obstructed in the execution of his duty under these acts, the person so resisting, abusing, &c. such officer, &c. shall, by the next justice of peace, be committed to prison till the next quarter sessions; and such sessions shall fine the offender not exceeding 5*l.*, and and he shall remain in prison till discharged of the fine and imprisonment by order of two justices, 2 W. & M. S. 2. c. 14. s. 5.

27. FOR ASCERTAINING THE WINE MEASURE, 5 & 6 A. c. 27. s. 17.

28. Any cylinder having an even bottom, and being 7 inches diameter throughout, and 6 inches deep, or any vessel containing 231 cubical inches, shall be a lawful wine gallon; and 252 gallons shall be a ton, 126 gallons a butt or pipe, and 63 gallons an hogshead of wine, id. ibid.

29. TO AMEND SO MUCH OF 9 G. 2. c. 23. (reciting s. 21.) as may affect the privileges of the universities, as to licensing taverns and public houses within the precincts thereof, 10 G. 2. c. 19. ss. 2. 5. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 6. and see recital in s. 1.]

30. Nothing in 9 G. 2. c. 23. (reciting s. 1.) shall prejudice the right which the chancellor, masters, and scholars of the universities of Cambridge or Oxford claim of licensing taverns and other public houses within the precincts of the universities, 10 G. 2. c. 19. s. 2. And nothing in this act shall prejudice or confirm any liberties belonging to the mayor, bailiffs, and commonalty of the city of Oxford, id. s. 5.

31. TO PREVENT RETAILING OF WINE within either of the universities in Eng. without licence, 17 G. 2. c. 40. ss. 11, 12.

32. No person shall sell wine by retail, within either of the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or their precincts, unless he be duly licensed by the chancellor or vice-chancellor of Oxford, and by the chancellor, masters, and scholars of Cambridge, on pain of forfeiting for every offence 5*l.*; one moiety to the use of H. M., and the other to the informer; and all offenders against this act, may be prosecuted for the said forfeitures, in the courts of the chancellors or vice-chancellors of the said universities in a summary way, by summoning the accused to appear in the said courts respectively; and on appearance, (or contempt by not appearing, being duly summoned and oath thereof made), such courts may examine the matter, and on confession of the accused, or oath of one witness, may give sentence against such party, and issue their warrant for levying the forfeitures by distress and sale of goods; and for want of such distress, may commit the offender for one month to the house of correction; and no certiorari or other process shall issue to remove any such sentence from the said courts, or any order or other proceedings made on any such sentence into any court of record at Westminster, till the party against whom such sentence is given before allowance of such certiorari, &c., find 2 sureties, to be bound to the prosecutor in the sum of 50*l.*, conditioned to prosecute the same within 12 months, and to pay to the prosecutor his costs, in case such sentence is affirmed, 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 11. [Same proviso for privileges of mayor, &c. of Oxford, as in pl. ., id. s. 12.]

33. NOTHING IN THIS ACT shall prejudice the ancient duties of butlerage and prisage of wines, 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 14. [Prisage and butlerage abolished, 49 G. 3. c. 98. ss. 33, 35.]

WITCHCRAFT. (See PROPHECY.)

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. AGAINST CONJURATIONS, WITCHCRAFTS, SORCERY and enchantments, 33 H. 8. c. 8. [REP. 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 4. and 1 M. St. 1. c. 1. s. 1.]

3. AGAINST CONJURATION, WITCHCRAFT, AND DEALING with evil and wicked spirits, 1 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 2—5. [REP. 9 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO REPEAL SEVERAL STATUTES AGAINST CONJURATION, enchantment and witchcraft, and for punishing such persons as pretend to exercise or use any kind of sorcery, witchcraft, &c., 9 G. 2. c. 5. [See for Ire. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 18. repealing 28 EL. c. 2. (Ire.) "Against witchcraft and sorcery."]

2. The 1 J. 1. c. 12., shall be repealed, except as far as it repeals 5 EL. c. 16. id. s. 1. The 9 M. (Sc.) Anent witchcraft, is repealed, id. s. 2.

3. No prosecution shall lie against any person for witchcraft, sorcery, enchantment or conjuration, or for charging another with such offence, id. s. 3.

4. Every person who shall pretend to use witchcraft, &c., or undertake to tell fortunes, or from skill in any occult or crafty science to discover where lost or stolen goods may be found, shall, when convicted on indictment or information in Eng., or on indictment or libel in Scot. suffer imprisonment for one year, and once in every quarter thereof, in some market town, on the market day, stand on the pillory one hour, and shall, if the court think fit, be obliged to give sureties for his good behaviour, id. s. 4.

WITNESSES. (See EVIDENCE.)

1. ALL PERSONS WHO SHALL APPEAR AS WITNESSES on behalf of the prisoner on any trial for treason or felony, before admitted to give evidence, shall take an oath to depose the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, in such manner as witnesses for the crown are obliged to do; and if convicted of any wilful perjury in such evidence, shall suffer the pains, forfeitures, &c. inflicted on persons convicted of wilful perjury, 1 A. St. 2. c. 9. s. 3. [See the rest of this act, FELONY, pl. 49. SHIPS, pl. 13.]

2. FOR OBVIATING OBJECTIONS TO THE COMPETENCY of witnesses in certain cases, 27 G. 3. c. 29.

3. From 1st Aug. 1787, the inhabitants of every parish, township and place shall be competent witnesses for the purpose of proving the commission of any offence within the limits of such parish, &c., notwithstanding the penalty incurred by such offence, or any part thereof, is or may be given, or applicable to the poor of such parish, &c. or otherwise for the benefit or use, or in aid or exoneration of such parish, &c., id. s. 1.

4. Nothing in this act shall extend to any action or proceeding in which the penalty or penalties to be recovered exceed 20*l.*, id. s. 2.

5. TO RENDER PERSONS CONVICTED OF PETTY LARCENY competent witnesses: No person shall be an incompetent witness by reason of a conviction for petty larceny, 31 G. 3. c. 35.

6. TO DECLARE THE LAW AS TO WITNESSES refusing to answer: A witness cannot by law refuse to answer a question relevant to the matter in issue, the answering of which has no tendency to accuse himself, or to expose him to penalty or forfeiture of any nature, on the sole ground that his answer may establish, or tend to establish, that he owes a debt, or is otherwise subject to a civil suit, either at instance of H. M. or of any other person, 46 G. 3. c. 37.

7. TO AUTHORIZE THE JUDGES TO WHOM petitions for certain bills are referred, to examine witnesses on oath, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 105.

8. Any one or more of the judges of Scot. or Ire. to whom any petition for any bill concerning lands, hereditaments in Ire. and Scot., or other heritable subjects in Scot., shall be referred by the house of lords, may examine on oath all witnesses produced before him or them, touching the matter of such petition and reference: and for that purpose may administer an oath accordingly; and every person taking such oath shall be punishable for any false evidence given under it, as if it had been administered to him at the bar of the house of lords, id. ibid.

9. FOR BETTER EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES in the courts of equity in Ire., and for empowering the courts of law and equity there to grant commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of G. B., 55 G. 3. c. 157.

10. The lord chancellor of Ire., or persons having custody of the great seal there, shall appoint one or more fit persons to swear and examine in Eng. and Scot. witnesses produced before him or them, there to be sworn and examined in suits depending in the court of chancery of Ire. as a court of equity, and to take in Eng. or Scot. answers, pleas, and demurrers of defendants, and affidavits of parties and others, in such suits, in the same manner as the masters in ordinary of the said court of chancery may swear; and the examiner of the court may examine such witnesses, and as the said masters may take such answers, pleas, demurrers and affidavits, according to the practice of the court, id. s. 1.

11. The lord-treasurer, chancellor and barons of exchequer in Ire., or any 2 or more of them, whereof the lord-treasurer, chancellor, or lord chief baron shall be one, shall appoint one or more fit persons for the same purposes as to suits in law or equity in the exchequer with all the powers of the said barons therein, id. s. 2.

12. The lord-chancellor, &c., the master of the rolls and judges of K. B. and C. P., the barons of exchequer, or 5 or more of them in Ire., of whom the chancellor and C. J.s of K. B. and C. P. or C. B. of exchequer shall be one, shall from time to time direct the fees to be taken by the several commissioners appointed under this act, exclusive of travelling expences, when required to leave home for any of the purposes of this act, and shall also from time to time direct the rates to be taken for such travelling expences, id. s. 3.

13. The persons so to be appointed by the courts of chancery and exchequer in Ire., shall hold such offices at pleasure of the court appointing them, and shall be deemed officers of the court, and called extraordinary commissioners for the above purposes; and may summon persons to attend them respectively at such times and places as they shall respectively appoint, to be sworn and examined as witnesses in suits depending in the courts appointing them, in the same manner as commissioners appointed by special commission by such courts respectively, may examine such witnesses, id. s. 4.

14. Every person appointed an extraordinary commissioner under this act, shall, previous to entering on the duties of his office, take an oath for the faithful execution thereof: (see the form next pl.) which oath shall be taken by every such officer appointed by the court of chancery of Ire. to such duty in Eng. before a master in chancery, or commissioner of affidavits appointed by the court of chancery of Eng., who are hereby required to administer the same: and by every officer appointed by the court of chancery of Ire., to such duty in Scot. before one of the lords of session in Scot. or other commissioner lawfully authorized to take affidavits there, who are also hereby required to administer the same: by every officer appointed by the court of exchequer in Ire. to such duty in Eng., before a baron of exchequer of Eng., or other person in Eng. by that court appointed to take affidavits therein, who are also hereby required to administer the same: by every officer appointed by the Irish exchequer to such duty in Scot. before any baron of Scotch exchequer, or commissioner of affidavits in that court, who are also hereby required to administer the same: and every oath so taken, shall, immediately after it hath been taken, be transmitted by the officer so taking it to the proper officer for filing affidavits in the court by which such person has been appointed extraordinary commissioner, who shall file and preserve the same, 55 G. 3. c. 157. s. 5.

The form of oath is as follows:—

'I—do solemnly and sincerely swear, that I will duly and faithfully, and to the best of my skill and power, execute the office of an extraordinary commissioner of the court of — of — in —, for the purposes mentioned in an act passed in the — year of the reign of His Majesty king Geo. 3. intituled An act for the better examination of witnesses in the courts of equity in Ire., and for empowering the courts of law and equity in Ire. to grant commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of G. B.; and shall, in every respect, to the best of my knowledge, conform to the rules and orders of the said court, and provisions of the said act. So help me God.'

15. The courts of chancery and exchequer in Ire. shall make such orders touching the conduct of such officers, the examination of such witnesses, and the taking such answers, pleas, demurrers and affidavits in their said courts; and the transmitting the same to the said courts respectively, as to the said courts seems proper, id. s. 7.

16. Every person in Eng. or Scot. sworn or deposed and examined as a witness, or sworn or deposed to the truth of any answer or plea, or affidavits before any officer appointed under this act for taking the same, and who shall in his answer, plea, or affidavit, wilfully swear or depone falsely, shall be deemed guilty and incur the penalties of perjury in the open court wherein the suit in which such oath was so taken then depended, id. s. 8.

17. The courts of K. B. and C. P. in Ire. shall have the same powers of granting commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of G. B. as they now respectively have in Ire., and every person wilfully swearing falsely in any affidavit to be made before any person empowered to take affidavits under the above authority, shall be deemed guilty of, and incur the punishment of perjury, as in last pl. id. s. 9.

18. TO ENABLE THE EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES to be taken in India, in support of bills of divorce on account of adultery committed in India, 1 G. 4. c. 101.

19. Whensoever either house of parliament on petition of any party praying a bill for dissolution of any marriage, and stating that the witnesses necessary to substantiate its allegations are resident in India, shall see cause to direct their examinations to be taken there, the speaker shall thereupon issue his warrant or warrants to the judges of the supreme courts of Calcutta, Madras and Ceylon, and recorder of Bombay, respectively, accordingly as the witnesses proposed to be examined are resident within any one such presidency or island, for examination on oath of all witnesses produced before them touching the allegations of such bill, and any notices or matters specified in such warrant; and where warrants are so issued, duplicates thereof with copies of such bill shall be transmitted by different ships at desire of the agent of the parties soliciting the bill to the persons to whom the warrants are directed, id. s. 1.

20. Immediately on receipt of such warrants, the judges or recorder to whom they are directed, shall appoint some time with all convenient speed for examination of witnesses, and receiving other proofs touching and in opposition to its allegations, and touching the matters specified in such warrant: and in the interim shall give such public notice of the examination, and issue such process for attendance of agents, counsel, or witnesses, and may adjourn from time to time as may be requisite: which examinations shall be then and there openly and publicly taken vivâ voce on the oaths of witnesses, and of skilful interpreters administered according to the forms of their respective religions, and shall by some sworn officer of the court be reduced into writing, and 2 copies made: and the judges or recorder shall certify the same under official seal of their several courts, with a declaration by them that the examinations have in their judgment been fairly conducted, and that all fit witnesses have been produced for ascertaining the whole truth, as far as their attendance could be reasonably obtained: and shall transmit the same by different ships to the speaker who issued the warrant: and every such examination so returned shall be good evidence, and shall be allowed and read in either or both houses as required, id. s. 2.

21. Such judges or recorder may ask any questions of any witness so produced, and require any further witnesses resident within their jurisdiction to be produced, as appears fit for due investigation of the matter specified in the warrant: and shall allow such attendance by counsel, and such cross examination of witnesses as they deem fit for that purpose, and if necessary, may name some proper person to attend as counsel and agent in opposition to such bill, and procure any evidence necessary for that purpose, in order to full disclosure of the facts and circumstances of the case, id. s. 3.

22. "After recital that by usage of parliament no proceedings by bill therein have continuance from one session to another," IT IS ENACTED, That no proceedings touching any bill for dissolution of marriage, wherein such warrant has been issued, shall be discontinued by prorogation or dissolution of parliament until the examination has been returned: and such proceedings may be resumed and proceeded on in a subsequent session of parliament, 1 G. 4. c. 101. s. 4.

WOMEN.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR TAKING AWAY CLERGY FROM OFFENDERS AGAINST 3 H. 7. c. 2. pl. 5. concerning taking away women against their wills unlawfully, 39 E. 1. c. 9. [REP. 1 G. 4. c. 116. s. 1.]

2. TO ABOLISH THE PUNISHMENT OF PUBLIC WHIPPING ON female offenders, 57 G. 3. c. 75. [REP. 1 G. 4. c. 57. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. WHERE ANY DOTH ALIENE THE RIGHT OF HIS WIFE, the suit of the woman, or her heir after the death of the husband, shall not be delayed by non-age of the heir, who ought to warrantize: but the purchaser shall tarry for his warranty till the full age of the warrantor, 15 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 40.

2. A WOMAN BEING 14 YEARS OLD AT THE DEATH OF HER ancestor, shall have livery of her land, for the law of the land wills it, 39 H. 6. c. 2.

3. FOR PROVIDING A REMEDY FOR WOMEN INFORCED to be bound by obligation, 31 H. 6. c. 9.

4. "Whereas powerful persons have invented means, by force or deceitful promises, to get women sole into their possession, in the places where they have most power, after which they will not suffer them to be at liberty, till they bind them to such offenders, or other persons, to their use, in great sums, by obligations or statutes merchant: and also often compel them to be married contrary to their liking, or otherwise they will levy the same sums of their lands and goods, and endanger their persons," IT IS ENACTED, That in all such cases the party bound may have a writ out of chancery, containing the matter of their unreasonable treatment directed to the sheriff of the county, where such offences were done, commanding him to make proclamation in the next county court, that the persons contained in the writ, appear at a certain day or place before the lord-chancellor, or otherwise before the justices of assize in the same county, or other notable person assigned by the chancellor, at which day, if they appear, the chancellor, justice, or other person, shall duly examine the parties on the premises, and the obligations which are found made as aforesaid, and all process thereon shall be void; but if made for a true duty, and not by such means, shall stand good: and if the persons named in the writs make default at the day, the obligation, with all process thereon, shall be void, and the sheriffs shall execute the writs, on penalty of 300*l.*, whereof one half shall be to H. M., and the other half to the party suing the writ of proclamation: and the party grieved shall have an action of debt for the latter half, with process of outlawry: and no protection or foreign plea shall be pleaded, id. ibid.

5. AGAINST TAKING AWAY OF WOMEN AGAINST THEIR WILLS, 3 H. 7. c. 2.

6. "Whereas maids, widows, and wives, having substance, or being heirs apparent to their ancestors, have on that account been often taken by misdoers contrary to their will, and afterwards married to them, or to other by their assent or defiled," IT IS ENACTED, that the taking, or procuring, or abetting the taking any woman so against her will unlawfully, and also receiving her willingly, and knowing her to be so taken, is felony, and such takers, procurers, and receivers shall be deemed principal felons, id. s. 1. [Clergy taken away from principals or accessories before the fact, 39 E. 1. c. 9. ss. 1—2., which is REP. 1 G. 4. c. 116. s. 1.]

7. FOR PUNISHING SUCH AS SHALL TAKE AWAY, OR MARRY maiden heiresses, being within the age of 16 years, without consent of their parents, 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 8. (and recital in s. 1.)

8. It shall not be lawful to take, or convey away any maid, or woman, child, unmarried, being within the age of 16 years, from the custody, and against the will of the father, or of such persons to whom he by his will or other act shall appoint, or bequeath, the keeping or education of such maid, &c. except such taking be had by or for her master, or mistress, or guardian, in socage, without fraud, id. s. 2.

9. Every person above the age of 14 years, who shall unlawfully take, or convey any maid, or woman child, unmarried, and within the age of 16 years, from the custody, and against the will of the father, mother, or persons who then happen to have by lawful means the education or governance of such child, shall, on conviction, suffer 2 years imprisonment, or pay such fine as is imposed by the star-chamber, id. s. 3. [Star-chamber dissolved, 16 C. 1. c. 10. s. 3.]

10. Every person who shall so take away, or cause to be taken away, and deflower any such maid, or woman child, or shall against the will, or without the knowledge of her father, if her father is alive, or of her mother, having the custody of such child, if the father be dead, by secret letters, messages, or otherwise contract matrimony with such maiden, or woman child, shall being convicted suffer 5 years imprisonment, or pay such fine as is assessed by the star-chamber, to go in moieties to H. M., and the parties grieved, 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 8. s. 4.

11. The star-chamber, justices of assize by inquisition or indictment, shall hear and determine the said offences, and the same process shall lie in such indictment, as on an indictment of trespass at common law, id. s. 5.

12. If any woman child, or maiden, being above the age of 12 years, and under that of 16, consents to such person, that shall so make any contract of matrimony against this act, her next of kin to whom the inheritance should descend after her death, shall have all such lands and hereditaments as she had in possession, reversion, or remainder, at the time of such consent, during the life of the person so contracting matrimony: and after his decease, shall descend to such persons as they should have done, if this act had never been other than to him who shall so contract matrimony, id. s. 6.

13. This act shall not affect any custom or authority, touching orphans, within London, or any other city, borough, or town, id. s. 7.

14. CONCERNING WOMEN CONVICTED OF SMALL FELONIES, 21 J. 1. c. 6. [CON. indefinitely, 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22. 16 C. 1. c. 4.; and see 3 W. & M. c. 9. s. 6. BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 30.; and 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 13., id. pl. 31., which are MADE PERP. 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 14. s. 1., id. pl. 26.]

15. Every woman lawfully convicted by her confession, or by verdict of 12 men, of or for the felonious taking of any money, goods, or chattels, above the value of 12*d.* and under that of 10*s.*: or as accessory to any such offence, the same being no burglary nor robbery in or near the highway, nor the felonious taking of any money, goods, or chattels, from the person of any man or woman, privily, without his or their knowledge, but being only such an offence as in the like case a man might have his clergy, shall for the first offence be branded, and marked in the hand, on the brawn of the left thumb, with a hot burning iron, with a roman T thereon, the said mark to be made by the gaoler, openly in the court before the judge, [see as to commutation of this punishment, tit. BURNING IN THE HAND, pl. 2.] and also to be further punished by imprisonment, [whipping, REP. 1 G. 4. c. 57. s. 2.] stocking, or sending to the house of correction, in such manner and form, and for so long, (not exceeding the space of one whole year,) as the judge, or other justices before whom she is so convicted, or having authority in the cause, shall in their discretion think meet, according to the quality of the offence, and then to be delivered out of prison for the same, 21 J. 1. c. 6.

16. TO ABOLISH THE PUNISHMENT OF PUBLIC WHIPPING ON female offenders, 1 G. 4. c. 57.

17. The 57 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1. shall be repealed, id. s. 1. Judgment or sentence shall, in no case, be given against any female offender, that she shall suffer public or private whipping, 1 G. 4. c. 57. s. 2.

18. Where the punishment of whipping female offenders, either publicly or privately, hath hitherto formed the whole or part of the judgment or sentence pronounced against them, or has in any other case been inflicted, it shall and may be lawful for the court, or justice before whom conviction takes place, to pass sentence of confinement to hard labour, in the common gaol, or house of correction, for not exceeding 6 months, nor less than one month, or of solitary confinement, for not exceeding 7 days at one time, id. s. 3.

WOODS. (See FORESTS; TREES.)

(STATUTE repealed.)

FOR ESTABLISHING REGULATIONS IN THE OFFICE of surveyor or general of H. M.'s woods, forests, parks, and chaces, 43 G. 3. c. 31. [REP. 46 G. 3. c. 142. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR THE PRESERVATION OF WOODS, 35 H. 8. c. 17. [MADE PERP. and AMD. 13 EL. c. 25. ss. 3. 18. As to inclosing woods, &c. 22 E. 4. c. 7. FORESTS, pl. 52.]

2. In all coppice-woods, or underwoods, which shall be felled at 24 years growing or under, there shall be left standing for every acre of wood felled, 12 standils or storers of oaks; if there be not so many of oak, there shall be left so many of other kind, viz. of elm, ash, aspe, or beech, as shall make up the number, likely to be timber trees, the same standils to be of such standils or stores as have been left there at any selling of the same underwoods in times past; and the stores so left shall be preserved till they be 10 inches square within 3 foot of the ground, upon pain that every owner, having an estate in the ground, causing any such underwoods to be felled, and not leaving such stores, to forfeit for every standil not so left, 3*s.* 4*d.* the one half to H. M., and the other to the party that will sue for same in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., 35 H. 8. c. 17. s. 1.

3. All underwoods which shall be cut down at the age of 14 years, or under, from 20th April next, after the felling thereof during 4 years, shall be inclosed, or the springs thereof otherwise preserved from cattle, by them which shall have possession in the woods, upon pain to forfeit for every rood, 3*s.* 4*d.* for every month; and all underwoods which shall be so felled, being above 14 years growth, and not above 24 years, after the felling during 6 years, shall be inclosed, or the springs thereof otherwise preserved from cattle, at the costs of such which shall have interest in the woods, upon pain to forfeit for every rood 3*s.* 4*d.* for every month, id. s. 2.

4. No person shall convert into pasture or tillage any such underwoods, containing 2 acres or above, which now be wood, and reserved to the use of increase of wood or underwood, and being 2 furlongs distant from the house of the owner, or from the house whereunto such wood doth lie, upon pain to forfeit for every acre 40*s.*, id. s. 3.

5. All persons and bodies politic and corporate, which shall have any several woods growing with great trees above 24 years growth, shall at the felling or weeding thereof leave standing in such wood, for every acre 12 trees of oak of the same great trees, if there be so many there, and for lack of oaks, as many other trees of elm, ash, beech or aspe, as shall make the full number, the same to be preserved during 20 years next after such felling of such woods; and also from the 20th April next after the felling thereof, during 7 years sufficiently inclose them, or the springs thereof otherwise preserve from cattle, upon pain to forfeit for every such great tree lacking 6*s.* 8*d.*, and upon pain that owner of the soil causing such great trees to be cut down, shall forfeit 6*s.* 8*d.*, and upon pain to forfeit for every rood not inclosed or preserved, for every month 3*s.* 4*d.*, id. s. 5.

6. Every owner of such woods, &c. may sell the same for building, repairing, and inclosing of houses, orchards, and gardens, and for inclosing of parks, forests, chaces, or other grounds, and for making or repairing of waterworks, bridges, floodgates, making or amending of ships, and other vessels, and for all other things concerning their own affairs, as they might have done before this act, id. s. 6.

7. No person which shall have any woods or underwoods, wherein any other persons have used time out of remembrance to have common of pasture, shall fell such woods, (except it be to his own use) until the fourth part of such woods, or as much as the fourth part shall amount unto, be set out and inclosed, as herein provided, viz. the owner of the soil shall call together the commoners, or the more part of them, and by the assent of the more part of them shall set out such fourth part; and if the lord and commoners do not agree, then 2 justices of peace, not being of the alliance, council, or fee of the owner, being thereunto appointed by the justices in quarter sessions, upon request made by the owner, shall have power to call before them, upon such penalties as the justices shall appoint, 12 of the commoners and inhabitants; and upon the appearance of the owners, &c. or the more part of them, the justices shall declare the cause of their appearance, and shall by their assent proceed to the severing of such fourth part; and if the justices, owners, commoners, and inhabitants cannot agree, such justices shall set out by mete and bound the fourth part, or so much under the fourth part of such woods as shall by the justices be thought necessary; and within 3 months after such severance, the owner of the woods shall inclose the same, and after such inclosure, such owner may fell the woods, id. s. 7.

8. There shall be left standing upon the part so severed, like number of standils or storers of young oaks, or other young trees of elm, ash, aspe, or beech, if it be underwoods that be so felled; and if the woods felled shall be great trees, then such number shall be left standing of great trees, upon like penalties, as in s. 5. pl. 5. limited; and the part so severed shall be immediately inclosed, and kept inclosed for 7 years, in like manner, and upon the like penalties as in s. 5. limited; and the standils, storers, and great trees, appointed to be left standing, shall be so preserved, as in s. 5.; and no beasts, during 7 years after the felling of the woods, shall be put in or suffered to feed in any parcel of such part so set forth, upon pain of 4*d.* for every beast, id. s. 8.

9. If any owner of such woods in any waste ground, cut down any trees contrary to the form aforesaid, every person so offending shall forfeit for every tree 6*s.* 8*d.*; one half of all such forfeitures to be to H. M., and the other moiety to such person that will sue, as in s. 1. id. s. 9.

10. The commoners may use their common for their cattle within the residue of the woods not inclosed, as if this act had never been: and the owner of the soil shall be excluded to put any cattle in the same residue, or to take any profit of the pasture upon the same, during the 7 years, after the felling of the underwood growing in such part so severed and inclosed; and after the 7 years expired, until the next cutting down of the woods upon the part severed, as well the same part as the residue shall be used in common, as well by the lord as by the commoners, 35 H. 8. c. 17. s. 10.

11. Any person may fell and inclose all woods and underwoods in waste grounds, which have been used to be inclosed for the maintenance of wood, id. s. 11.

12. If the part of wood so inclosed be not felled within 4 months after the inclosing, the commoners may put their cattle into the ground so inclosed, as long as the wood shall be unfelled, and the owner shall leave places of entrance and exit for their beasts, id. s. 12.

13. This act shall not extend to any owner of woods within the wilds of Kent, Surry, and Sussex, other than to the common woods within such wilds, id. s. 13.

14. This act shall not charge any person with any penalty, for any timber trees growing within 2 miles of the sea, in Cornwall, or any other timber tree, being sear and dead in the tops, or any other timber trees to be taken by H. M.'s commission, or for any offence, unless the person offending be sued within one year after the offence committed, id. s. 15.

15. If any person break or destroy any fences made for the saving of the same woods, he shall forfeit 10s., id. s. 16.

16. If any person suffer his swine, of the age of 10 weeks, during such years as the woods be appointed to be inclosed, to go in any ground or woods, unless the swine be ringed or pegged, the owners of such swine shall forfeit for every swine 4d., the one half, if it be in H. M.'s woods, to be to his highness, and the other to the finder; and if it be within any other person's grounds, the one half to be to the owners of the soil, and the other part to him that will sue, as in s. 1., id. s. 17.

17. Where any woods shall be felled in any park, or ground inclosed, wherein deer shall be kept, the owners of such parks, &c. shall be chargeable for the inclosure and preservation of the same but for 4 years after such felling, id. s. 18.

18. If the inclosures of any of such woods be broken down against the will of the owner, whereby cattle escape and hurt the spring, or if the woods be by any means destroyed or hindered, without the assent of such owners, the penalties shall be extended upon the persons by whose default the wood shall be so destroyed, &c. and not upon the owner, id. s. 19.

19. Every owner of such woods, underwoods, grounds, and coppice, after the same have been fenced, or the spring otherwise preserved, 2 years, may put colts and calves, under the age of one year, into such woods, &c., id. s. 20.

20. All woods or coppices, intended by 35 H. 8. c. 17. to be inclosed, and the springs thereof preserved, shall be sufficiently inclosed, or the springs thereof otherwise saved, 2 full years more than by such act limited, according to age of woods felled, upon like pains as are contained in such act; and no cattle shall be put into any coppice woods inclosed, from the time of the sale, until the end of 5 years, nor from the end of 5 years any other cattle but calves and yearling colts, until the end of 6 years, if the wood was under the age of 14 years, at the last fall; or until 8 years, if the wood was above the age of 14 at the last fall, 15 El. c. 25. s. 18.

21. TIMBER SHALL NOT BE FELLED TO MAKE COALS for the making of iron, 1 El. c. 15.

22. No person shall convert to coal or fuel for the making of iron, any timber trees of oak, beech, or ash, or any part thereof, of the breadth of one foot square at the stub, and growing within 14 miles of the sea, or of the rivers of Thames, Severne, Wye, Humber, Dee, Tine, Teese, Trent, or any other river, &c. by the which carriage is used by boat to the sea, upon pain of forfeiture for every tree or part thereof so employed, 40s., one half to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for same by original writ, bill, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 1.

23. This act shall not extend to the county of Sussex, nor to the wild of Kent, nor to the parishes of Charewood, Newdigate, and Leigh, in the wild of Surry, id. s. 2.

24. TOUCHING IRON MILLS NEAR London, on the river Thames, 25 El. c. 5.

25. No person shall convert to coal or fuel, for the making of iron in any iron mills, furnace, or hammer, any wood or underwood, which shall grow within 22 miles from London, or within 22 miles of the Thames, from Dorchester, in the county of Oxford, downwards; or within 4 miles of the foot of the hills called the Downs, betwixt Arundel and Pemsey, in Sussex, nor within 4 miles of Winchelsey and Rye, nor within 2 miles of the town of Pemsey, nor within 3 miles of Hastings; upon pain to forfeit for every load 40s., one half to H. M., and the other to him that will sue, by original writ, bill, &c. wherein no essoin, &c., id. s. 1.

26. This act shall not extend to any woods in any such part of the wilds of Surry, Sussex, or Kent, as is distant above 18 miles from London, and 8 miles from the Thames, id. s. 2.

27. No new iron works shall be erected within 22 miles of London, nor within 14 miles of the Thames, nor within 4 miles of the Downs, or of the towns of Pemsey, Winchelsey, Hastings, or Rye, upon pain of 100l., to be recovered and applied as aforesaid, 23 El. c. 5. s. 3.

28. This act shall not extend to any woods upon any lands of Christopher Darrel, in the parish of Newdigate, within the wild of Surry, which have been coppiced for the use of his iron works, id. s. 4.

29. FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE TIMBER IN THE wilds of the counties of Sussex, Surry, and Kent, and for the amending of highways decayed by carriages to and from iron mills there, 27 El. c. 19. [REP. as to highways, 39 El. c. 19. which is REP. 7 G. 3. c. 42. s. 57.]

30. No person shall set up within the counties of Sussex, Surry, or Kent, any iron mills, furnace, finery, or blomary, for the making or working of iron, other than upon such former bays or pens whereupon hath been, or shall be standing, some iron mills, furnace, or hammer, or else upon such lands as the party shall furnish the same, with sufficient supply of his own woods, being to him in fee, or for life, without impeachment of waste; nor shall convert to coals or fuel for the making or working of iron in any iron mills, &c. the bodies of any sound timber trees, apt for the making of cleftwares, or sawing timber of oak, ash, or elm, of the bigness of one foot square at the stub, or any part of the same; upon pain of forfeiture for every iron mill, &c. 300l., and for every body of such timber tree, so converted, 40s.; one half of which forfeitures to be to H. M., and the other half to him that will sue, by original writ, bill, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. 27 El. c. 19. s. 1.

31. The owners of such trees, the bodies whereof shall be employed for timber or cleft ware, within the wilds of Sussex, Surry, or Kent, the same not being within 18 miles of London, or 8 miles of the Thames, or 4 miles of the towns of Rye, and Winchelsey, or 3 miles of Hastings, or 4 miles of the foot of the Downes, between Arundel, and Pemsey, in Sussex, may employ the tops and offals of such trees for fuel for iron works, id. s. 2.

32. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF UNLAWFUL CUTTING, or stealing, or spoiling of wood or underwood, and destroyers of young timber trees, 15 C. 2. c. 2. (and recital in s. 1.) See further, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 48. 6 G. 1. c. 16. TREES, pl. 1.]

33. Every constable, or other person, shall have power to apprehend all persons they suspect having or carrying any burden of wood, underwood, poles, young trees, bark, or bast, of any trees, or any gates, stiles, posts, poles, rails, or hedge wood, broom, or furze; and by warrant under hand and seal of one justice of peace, any officer may search the houses or other places of all persons they suspect to have any wood, &c. and where they shall find any such, to apprehend all persons suspected for taking the same, and them carry before a justice; and if they do not give a good account how they came by such wood, &c. or shall not within some convenient time to be set by the justice, produce the party of whom they bought the same, or some witness to depose on oath for sale of the wood, &c. they shall be convicted of the offence of cutting and spoiling of the same woods, &c. within the statute, 43 El. c. 7. [TRESPASS, pl. 8.] and liable to the pains thereby and by this act inflicted, 15 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2.

34. Every person so convicted shall, for the first offence, give the owner such damages, and within such time, as the justice shall appoint, and pay down to the overseers of the poor, such sum not exceeding 10s. as the justices shall think meet: and if such offender do not make satisfaction to the owner, and pay to the poor the justice shall commit him to the house of correction for not exceeding one month, or to be whipped by the constable. And if such person shall again commit the said offence, and be convicted, he shall be sent to the house of correction for one month, and kept to hard labour. And if such person shall again commit such offence, and be convicted, the third time he shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue, id. s. 3.

35. Whosoever shall buy any burdens of wood, poles, or sticks, which may be justly suspected to have been unlawfully come by, one justice, upon complaint, may examine the matter upon oath; and if they find that the same was bought of a person who might justly be suspected to have unlawfully come by the same, and that the same was unlawfully come by, such justice shall award the party to pay treble the value to the party from whom the same was unlawfully taken, and in default of present payment, may issue warrants to levy same by distress and sale of offender's goods, and in default of distress may commit the party to gaol, there to remain one month, id. s. 4.

36. No person shall be questioned for any offence upon this law, that hath been punished for the same by any former law; nor unless he be questioned within 6 weeks after the offence, id. s. 5.

37. IF ANY PERSON SHALL MALICIOUSLY SET FIRE, OR BURN, or cause to be burnt any wood, underwood, or coppice, such setting on fire, or burning, or causing to be burnt shall be declared felony, and the offender shall suffer as a felon; and where such offences are committed in Scot., such offenders shall suffer as wilful fire raisers, according to 7 A. c. 21. s. 7. relating to SCOTLAND (Treason), 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 48. s. 4. [See the rest of this act, TREES, pl. 1.]

38. IF ANY PERSON, NOT HAVING A RIGHT OR LEGAL LICENCE to do the same, shall set fire to, burn, or destroy, or shall abet, aid, or assist in or at the burning or destroying of any grass, furze, or fern, growing, or being in or upon any forest or chase within Eng. without the consent of the owner or person entrusted with the care of such forest, &c. and being brought before a justice for the county, riding, division, or place, where the forest, &c. is, and is convicted by confession or oath of one witness, or on view of such justice, such person so convicted shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* or less than 40*s.*, to go one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, to be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice; and in case no distress is found, such justice may commit such offender to the common gaol of the county or place for not exceeding 3 months or less than one, 28 G. 2. c. 19.

39. EVERY SURVEYOR OF H. M.'S WOODS AND HIS DEPUTY, AND officers, and keepers of any forest or chase, may seize and take away for their own use any saw, axe, or other instrument used by persons whom they find unlawfully stocking up, sawing, cutting down, topping and destroying any timber tree, or other tree, underwood, or covert within such chase, 4 G. 3. c. 31. s. 4.

40. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF THE OFFICE OF THE SURVEYOR-general of woods and forests, 46 G. 3. c. 142.

41. Any officer appointed to every office under the surveyor-general [now the commissioners of woods, forests, and land-revenues,] of woods and forests, parks, and chases, shall take the oath herein set down to be administered by such surveyor or by any justice of peace, if such surveyor shall direct such officer to be sworn before one, id. s. 2.

42. All returns and estimates of the quantity, quality, and value of timber, trees, coppice, and underwood, and of inclosures, buildings, repairs, plantations, and other works to be done under authority of such surveyor, and all accounts of money received or expended for sale of any such timber, trees, &c. and for such inclosures, &c. or for any other matter rendered by any officers under such surveyor, shall be subscribed with the name, and in the hand-writing, and verified by oath of such officer, such oath to be certified in writing upon such report, &c. either by some justice or such surveyor, and which oath either of them may administer, id. s. 3.

43. All such estimates, returns, and accounts, shall be transmitted by party making the same so subscribed to such surveyor, previous to such verification thereof, to require the party making the same to attend before him, and be examined on oath, touching all or any of the particulars and items contained in such estimates, &c. and the conduct of any such officers in execution of their duty; which examination such surveyor shall reduce to writing, and cause it to be signed by such party; and if any unintentional error has been made in such estimates, &c. the same may be corrected previous to its verification by oath, and such correction certified by such surveyor on the estimate, &c. id. s. 4.

44. If any such officer or other person in such examination or verification, shall be guilty of wilful perjury, he shall be liable to all the pains by law provided in case of wilful perjury, id. s. 5.

45. Such surveyor may send and receive letters and packets, postage free, in such manner and under such restrictions as other officers in 4 G. 3. c. 44. and 42 G. 3. c. 63. named, are thereby permitted so to do, id. s. 6.

46. All money, bills, and drafts received by such surveyor on account of the revenue under his management, shall, the day after received, or the day after any bill has been accepted, be paid into the bank of Eng. for which receipt the cashier shall give a good discharge, and the same shall there be placed to the account intitled "The account of the public monies of the surveyor-general of the woods and forests," inserting the name of such surveyor-general for the time being, id. s. 7.

47. Such surveyor may reserve for casual and ordinary payments in his own, or his banker's hands, a sum not exceeding 3000*l.*, or any larger sum the treasury may direct; and when the money so reserved is under such sum, such surveyor may make up the same by drafts upon such fund in the bank of Eng., id. s. 8.

48. The payments into the exchequer of any such revenue shall be made by an order of such surveyor to the bank, to write the sum required from his account; and the bank on receipt of such order shall deliver a cancelled note for the amount to such surveyor, who shall pay same into the exchequer, where it shall be received as so much cash, id. s. 9.

49. Such surveyor shall make all other payments required out of the money in the bank by drafts on the bank, and shall specify the particular service, salary, or other charge for which given; and such draft shall have marked in the margin a figure corresponding to the page in the book kept by such surveyor, wherein is entered the service for which such draft was given, id. s. 10.

50. All drafts drawn pursuant to this act, shall be a sufficient authority to the bank to pay the same to the bearer, id. s. 11.

51. On death, resignation, or removal of any such surveyor, the balance of cash then in the bank shall vest in his successor in trust for the public service, and shall be forthwith transferred and placed to his accounts; and such successor may issue his drafts for all demands unpaid which accrued in the time of the former surveyor, id. s. 12.

52. Such surveyor shall keep such account with the bank; and if he observe the rules hereby prescribed, he shall not be answerable for any money paid into the bank, and the bank shall answer for all money received from such surveyor, id. s. 13.

53. If any person shall knowingly forge or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in forging, &c. the name or hand-writing of such surveyor, or his deputy, to any draft, instrument, or writing, in order to receive or obtain any money from the bank of Eng., on account of such surveyor, or any draft, instrument, or writing in form of a draft made by such surveyor or his deputy, or shall utter or publish any such, knowing same to be forged, or counterfeited with intent to defraud any person whatever, such person shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony without clergy, id. s. 14.

54. TO ABOLISH THE OFFICES OF THE WARDENS, CHIEF JUSTICES, and justices in eyre, north and south of Trent, 57 G. 3. c. 61.

55. The offices of wardens, chief justices and justices in eyre of H. M.'s forests, chases, parks, and warrens, north and south of Trent, shall upon determination of the present interests, be wholly abolished, and the duties thereof performed by the first commissioner of the woods and forests and land revenues; and the powers of the offices hereby abolished shall for that purpose be vested in him, and the same shall be exercised by him in like manner, and as fully as they have been by such wardens, &c.; provided such commissioner shall have no fee, salary, &c. in respect thereof, id. s. 1.

56. The salaries of such officers so abolished shall make part of the consolidated fund of the U. K., and a sum equal to such salaries shall be retained in the exchequer as part of such fund, and not issued to the civil list, id. s. 2.

6. The justices at any general quarter sessions in G. B. or at any adjournment thereof may administer to every person desirous to become a sworn winder of wool, producing a certificate of his qualification from 2 growers of wool, to the satisfaction of the justices, an oath as follows:

'I, A. B. do swear, that I will truly and justly, without deceit wind and fold all and singular the wool which I shall take on me to wind and fold, without leaving or putting any clay, lead, stones, sand-tails, deceitful locks, lambs wool, or any other thing whereby the fleece may be made more weighty, to the deceit and loss of the buyer, and that I will not use any other deceit, craft, guile, or fraud in the winding or folding of any such aforesaid wool.

'So help me God.'

An entry of which oath shall be made in the records of the sessions, and a certificate thereof delivered by the clerk of the peace, &c. to the person who has taken it, 28 G.3. c.38. s.85. But persons not so sworn may be employed in winding or folding wool, 28 G.3. c.38. s.86.

7. "Whereas in 27 E.3. S.2. c.3. s.1. it is declared felony, with forfeiture of life, member, lands and goods for an Englishman to pass the sea with wools, leather, or woofels." That forfeiture of life and member is repealed, 38 E.3. S.1. c.6. That of lands and goods is repealed, 46 E.3. Rot. Parl. No. 46.

8. FOR REGULATING THE PRICE AND WEIGHT OF WOOLS, 31 E.3. c.2.

9. The price of wools shall not be abated by covin, and certain balances and weights of the sack, half-sack, and quarter, pound, half-pound, and quarter, according to the exchequer standard shall be sent to all sheriffs of Eng., that men may make their own balances and weights according to that standard, and none shall sell or buy by any other weight, id. ibid.

10. THE CANVAS IN WHICH WOOL IS PACKED, WITH THE CANVAS, shall be free of customs, 34 E.3. c.19.

11. NOTHING SHALL BE DEMANDED OF THE COMMONS, BUT THE ancient subsidy of half a mark, and no subsidy or charge shall be set on wools, [or leather, 45 E.3. c.4., 11 R.2. c.9.] by the merchants or other without assent of parliament, 36 E.3. c.11., 45 E.3. c.4., 11 R.2. c.9.

12. MERCHANTS OF London SHALL BE AS FREE FROM warranty of packing their cloths, according to 27 E.3. S.2. c.3. [REP. 28 E.3. c.13.] as other merchants are, 1 H.4. c.16.

13. NO STRANGER SHALL CAUSE TO BE FORCED, CLACKED NOR barded, any wools to carry them out of the realm, upon pain of forfeiture, with double value thereof and imprisonment: wool packers shall make good packing, and if any man shall put in the fleece at the winding thereof any locks, peltwool, tar, sand, earth, glass, nor dirt, an action of trespass and deceit will lie for so doing, 8 H.6. c.22.

14. CLOTHIERS SHALL PAY THE WAGES OF THEIR CARDERS, spinners, and other work people in ready money, and not in goods, [and see 12 G.1. c.34. infra. pl. 47.] and shall deliver wools to be wrought according to their due weight, on pain of forfeiture to the labourer of treble the wages in such manner unpaid, and 6d. for every delivery of wool to him of over weight, 4 Ed.4. c.1. s.5.

15. EVERY CARDER, SPINNER, WEAVER, FULLER, SHEARMAN, and dyer shall do his duty, on penalty of double damages to party grieved, and fullers shall use teazles, and not cards deceitfully impairing the cloth on like penalty: justices of peace in counties, and chief magistrates in towns, hundreds, &c. shall inquire of, and punish offenders with a fine of 5s. 4d. to H. M. with process for their appearance, (without fee,) as in case of surety for the peace: no cloths made in any other realm, except Wa. and Ire. and prize cloth taken at sea shall be brought into this realm to be sold on pain of forfeiture to H. M., 4 Ed. 4. c. 1.

16. No WOOLLEN-YARN OR CLOTH UNFULLED SHALL BE exported under penalty of the value thereof, 7 Ed. 4. c. 3.

17. No STRANGER NOR DENIZEN SHALL CARRY OUT OF THIS realm any woollen cloths, before they be barbed, rowed and shorn, within this realm, upon pain of the forfeiture in 7 Ed. 4. c. 3. mentioned, 3 H. 7. c. 11. s. 1. But vesses, rays, sail, and other cloths, sold at or under 40s. are not comprised herein, id. s. 2. [Both 3 H. 7. c. 11. and 7 Ed. 4. c. 3. are CONF. and penalties recoverable by action of debt, bill, or information in any court of record, without essoin or wager of law allowed, 3 H. 8. c. 7. s. 1.]

18. CLOTHS CALLED VESSES, RAYS, SAILING-CLOTHS, AND other cloths commonly sold at 4 marks or under, shall not be comprised in any of the acts, but may be carried out of this realm, not barbed, rowed nor shorn, 3 H. 8. c. 7. s. 2. [EXT. to 5 marks, 5 H. 8. c. 3.: further EXT. 27 H. 8. c. 13., 33 H. 8. c. 19. all REP. 50 G. 3. c. 83.]

19. FOR AVOIDING DECEITS IN WORSTEDS, 5 H. 8. c. 4. [MADE PERP. 25 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1. AMD. id. s. 2.]

20. No person shall dry calender any worsted, upon pain to forfeit for every worsted 100s.: no person shall wet calender any worsteds, but such as have been bound apprentices to persons of the same craft 7 years, or approved and admitted by the mayor of Norwich, and the two masters of the craft in that city, or in the county of Norfolk, upon penalty for every piece so calendered 100s. one moiety to H. M. and the other to the masters of the said occupation; and the masters may sue for the one moiety by writ at the common law, or by bill, or plaint, after the custom of such city, port, or town where forfeiture happens, or by information in the exchequer, 5 H. 8. c. 4. s. 2.

21. No DYER OF WORSTEDS, STAINERS, OR SAYS, SHALL calender the same, or any other goods made of worsted yarn, on penalty of 40s. each piece, to be divided into three parts, to H. M., mayor, and party suing, 25 H. 8. c. 5. s. 2.

22. CLOTHS CALLED VESSES OR SET CLOTHS, NOT BEING above 40s. a cloth value, shall not be forfeited for lacking in length and breadth when wet after sale, 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 11.

23. CONCERNING THE DRESSING OF WORSTEDS, SAYS, AND stainers in Yarmouth, 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 3. [CON. 21 H. 8. c. 21. MADE PERP. and semble EXT. to Norwich and Lynn, 26 H. 8. c. 16.] FOR WORSTED YARN IN Norfolk, 33 H. 8. c. 16. [AMD. 1 Ed. 6. c. 6. These statutes being of a local nature are not given at length.]

24. FOR THE TRUE WINDING OF WOOLS, 23 H. 8. c. 17. [CON. 28 H. 8. c. 8., 31 H. 8. c. 7., 33 H. 8. c. 17., 37 H. 8. c. 23. MADE PERP. 13 El. c. 25. AMD. 28 G. 3. c. 38. ss. 79—84.]

25. No person shall wind any piece of wool not sufficiently warped, nor wind within any fleece, clay, lead, lambs' wool, or other things, whereby the fleece may be more weighty, to the deceit of the buyer, on penalty of forfeiting 2s. to the finder and prover of such deceit, on summary determination of any justice residing at or near the place, who shall, on information laid, summon the offender to appear at a fixed time and place, and on their appearance or default shall examine and give judgment on the premises, 23 H. 8. c. 17. s. 1., 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 79.

26. This act concerning washing of wool shall not extend to any shire the inhabitants whereof have not used to wash their sheep before shearing, or to persons using to sell their wool by tale, and not by weight, 23 H. 8. c. 17. s. 2.

27. If it appear to the satisfaction of the justice that any such act was not done with intent to deceive the buyer, or that any clay or earth found in such fleece was not intentionally put there to give it weight, but became mixed with the same during the pasturing, &c. of the sheep subsequent to washing, he shall discharge the accused, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 80.

28. If the penalties hereby inflicted for false winding or selling of wool are not paid in 6 days after conviction, they may be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods under the justices warrant, id. s. 81.

29. The seller of wool, touching which any information has been made, and is pending, may immediately after his summons apply to the justice granting it, and require him on information given for that purpose, to summon the person who actually wound or folded the wool in question to appear at the time fixed in the original summons, or at any other time fixed by the justice, (of which notice shall be given by the seller to complainant), at which time the justice shall determine the complaint, whether the actual winder appear or not, (proof being made that he had been summoned), and if it appear to him that the offence was committed by such winder, &c. without privity of the seller, the former shall be liable to the penalties, and in default of payment, or if they cannot be recovered from him, he may be committed to gaol for not exceeding 3 calendar months, nor less than 21 days, (unless sooner paid), with costs, if any, the seller remaining liable to the penalties, if such a case is not proved, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 82.

30. Any person aggrieved by the determination of such justice, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, giving within 5 days after conviction notice in writing to the respondent in such appeal, and shall at the time of making such appeal enter with 2 sureties into a recognizance before such justice to appear and prosecute the same at the said sessions, and abide by the order of the court, and to pay costs if awarded against him (if any), and the sessions shall determine the appeal, and award costs to be paid by either party, id. s. 83.

31. No conviction shall be set aside in any court for want of form, or mis-stating any fact provided the material facts, alleged therein, and on which it is grounded, are proved to the satisfaction of the court, id. s. 84.

32. TOUCHING CLOTH-WORKERS, AND CLOTHS READY WROUGHT, to be shipped over the sea, 8 El. c. 6. (and recital in s. 1.)

33. For every nine cloths unwrought, exported contrary to any former statute by force of any licence, the party shall carry over also one woollen cloth of like quality and size ready wrought and dressed, viz. rowed, barbed, first coursed, and shorn, on pain of 10s. penalty for every such 9 cloths, 8 El. c. 6. s. 2.

34. Such tenth cloth shall not be accounted one of those permitted to be transported by such licence, id. s. 3.

35. No person shall ship or carry beyond seas contrary to any former statute in force any Kentish or Suffolk cloth unwrought and undressed, viz. not rowed, &c. within this realm, on pain of 10s. penalty for each cloth, id. s. 4.: No licence for transporting cloth shall extend to Kentish, or Suffolk cloth, id. s. 5.

36. All forfeitures under this statute shall go one moiety to H. M. the other to the master and wardens of the company of cloth-workers to the use of their poor, and be recoverable by action of debt, or information without essoin, &c. or wager of law, id. s. 6.

37. No PERSON SHALL IMPORT ANY WOOL-CARDS FOR SALE on pain of forfeiture of such cards, or their value, in moieties to H. M. and the party seizing or suing in any court of record, 39 El. c. 14. ss. 1—2. [CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22., and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4. ENF. 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 19.]

38. No foreign wool-cards, card-wire, or iron-wire for making wool-cards shall be imported on like penalty, and recoverable as in 39 El. c. 14., to or within the county, city, &c. where the offence committed, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 19. s. 1. But nothing herein shall hinder the amending or exportation of old overworn wool-cards, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 19. s. 2.

39. FOR PUNISHING FRAUDS COMMITTED BY SORTERS, kembers, and spinners of wool, and weavers of woollen yarn, 7 J. 1. c. 7.

40. Every person who shall deceitfully embezzle, sell, or detain any wool or yarn delivered by any clothier to any sorter, carder, kember, spinster, or weaver, as well the sorter, &c. so offending, as the buyers and receivers, knowing the same, being convicted by confession, or by one witness upon oath, before 2 justices of peace, or if within a town corporate, before the mayor or chief officer, and one of the aldermen or most substantial persons of the town shall make the party grieved such satisfaction, as by the justices, &c. shall be ordered: and if the offenders shall not be thought sufficient, or do not make satisfaction, they shall for the first offence be apprehended and whipped, or set in the stocks, in the place where the offence committed, or in some market town in the county; and for the second offence incur the like or further punishment, by whipping or stocks, id. s. 2.

41. Every receiver of wool or yarn embezzled or purloined contrary to this act, knowing it to be embezzled, &c. shall be subject to like punishment, id. s. 3.

42. Every spinner in Essex, receiving wool to be spun into yarn for any clothier, or maker of bays, says, or other stuffs, dwelling in Cogshal, Bocking, Braintree, Halsted, Wittam, or Colchester, who shall deliver back the yarn by any shorter reel than 2 yards about, shall be subject to like punishment, id. s. 4.

43. FOR ENCOURAGING THE WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES OF THIS kingdom, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 32. ss. 6, 12, 15. [CON. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 10., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 28. s. 3., and indefinitely 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. s. 1. AMD. 4 & 5 A. c. 7. CONF. by 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. which repeals the rest of the act.]

44. No wool shall be shipped from Ire. but from Dublin, Waterford, Youghall, Kinsale, Cork, and Drogheda, [now REP. 4 & 5 A. c. 7.] nor imported from Ire. into any ports but Liverpool, Chester, Bristol, Minehead, Barnstaple, Bideford, and Exeter, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 32. s. 6. and 4 & 5 A. c. 7.

45. Any person may buy any cloth, stuffs, stockings, or other manufacture of wool made in Eng., Wa., or Ber., and the same freely export into any parts beyond seas, paying usual customs, [which see, 59 G. 3. c. 52. Sch.], id. s. 12.

46. Nothing herein shall avoid the charters and grants made to the Levant, Eastland, Russia, or African companies, or their privileges, id. s. 13. [See as to African company, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 28., AFRICAN TRADE, pl. 2.]

47. TO PREVENT UNLAWFUL COMBINATIONS OF WORKMEN in the woollen manufactures, and for better payment of their wages, 12 G. 1. c. 34. [EXT. in toto to the manufactures enumerated in 22 G. 2. c. 27. MANUFACTURES, pl. 8.; also as to prohibiting payment of wages in goods, &c. (viz. ss. 3—6.) to the steel and iron manufacturers, 57 G. 3. c. 115. s. 1. same tit., and to labourers in the collieries, 57 G. 3. c. 122. s. 1. same tit. pl. 8.; and EXT. in toto to Scot. and Ire., 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 3. AMD. 13 G. 1. c. 23. ss. 16—17., 29 G. 2. c. 33., 58 G. 3. c. 51.]

48. This statute extends to combers of jersey and wool, to frame-work knitters, and makers of stockings, and to all persons concerned in any woollen manufactures, 12 G. 1. c. 34. s. 8.

49. All contracts, bye-laws or orders, in unlawful clubs and societies, made by or between wool combers or weavers, or journeymen of those trades, for regulating the same, or for settling the prices of goods, or for advancing their wages, or for lessening their usual hours of work, are declared illegal and void; and if any wool comber or weaver, &c. or other person concerned in the woollen manufactures, shall keep up, sign, or be knowingly concerned in any contract, bye-law or order of any club or combination by this act declared illegal, or shall attempt to put any such illegal agreement, &c. in execution, the offender, being convicted on the oath of one witness before 2 justices of peace, upon any prosecution within 3 calendar months after the offence, shall by order of such justices be committed either to the house of correction to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, or to the common gaol of the county, &c. there to remain for not exceeding 3 months, 12 G. 1. c. 34. s. 1.

50. If any person retained as a wool comber or weaver, or as a servant in either art, shall depart from his service before the end of the term, or shall quit or return his work before it is finished, unless for reasonable cause to be allowed by two justices, every such offender, being convicted before two justices as aforesaid, shall be committed to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months' hard labour; and if any person employed as a wool comber or weaver, shall wilfully damnify or destroy (without the owner's consent,) any goods or work committed to his care, he shall, being convicted as aforesaid, forfeit to the owner double the value, to be levied by distress and sale of goods by warrant of 2 justices, who, for want of distress, shall commit him to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction is made, id. s. 2.

51. Every clothier, serge-maker, or woollen or worsted stuff-maker, or person employed in making any woollen cloths, serges or stuffs, or concerned in employing wool-combers, weavers, or other labourers in the woollen manufacture, shall pay all persons by them employed the full wages agreed on in money, [or in notes of the bank of Eng., or any duly licensed banker where the workman consents to take the same, but not otherwise, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1. See MANUFACTURES, pl. 44.] and not in goods, or in any other manner, or make any deduction on account of any goods sold previous to such agreement; and any 2 justices of peace, on complaint made, may summon the offenders, and for non-payment of the wages in money, issue their warrant for levying the same by distress and sale of goods; and for want of distress, commit the offender to the common gaol for 6 months, or till he shall pay the wages, or give satisfaction to the party, id. s. 3. [And see ante 4 Ed. 4. s. 1. s. 5. 10 A. c. 16. s. 6. and 29 G. 2. c. 33. s. 3. &c.]

52. If any clothier, &c. shall pay any wages either in goods or by way of truck, or in any other manner than in money, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, (to be levied as in s. 3. one moiety to the informer, and the other to the party grieved, id. s. 4. [The distribution of the penalty REP. 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 2., and given to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or in Scot. to the kirk session of the parish in which the offence has been committed, for the use of the poor thereof, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 3.]

53. If the informer is called to give evidence the whole penalty shall then go to the poor of the parish, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 4. [Form of conviction is given, id. Sch. (A.) tit. MANUFACTURES, pl. 48.]

54. Every prosecution on 12 G. 1. c. 34., for paying any persons employed in the woollen manufactures in goods, or by way of truck, or in any other manner than in money, [except as in pl. 51.] shall be commenced in 3 months after the offence, 13 G. 1. c. 23. ss. 16, 17. [Form of conviction given as in last pl.]

55. If any clothier, serge, woollen, or stuff, worsted or woollen-yarn stocking maker, or person concerned in making the same, or any other person concerned for himself or another, in employing weavers, combers of jersey or wool, worsted combers, spinners, knitters or other labourers in the woollen manufactures, shall pay any person employed by him his wages in goods, or by truck, bill or note, or in any other manner than in money, [but see 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1. pl. 51., and before that enactment bank of Eng. notes seem to have been a good payment in cash if accepted as such, 37 G. 3. c. 45. s. 8., c. 91. s. 7.] shall forfeit 20*l.*, 29 G. 2. c. 33. s. 3.

56. The penalties made payable by this act may be recovered by action of debt, by any party suing for same, or, on conviction, [see the form of conviction referred to pl. 53.] before any 2 justices of the county or place where the offence is committed, either by confession of the party, or on oath of one witness, and if not paid, with costs of distress, &c., within 14 days after conviction, shall be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods, by warrant of such justices, who, for want of sufficient distress, shall commit the offender to the house of correction for not more than 3 months, or till satisfaction is made, 29 G. 2. c. 33. s. 4.

57. If any of the penalties be levied on conviction before the justices of peace, one moiety shall be paid to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and the other to the informer, id. s. 5. [See 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 3. pl. 52., (which is EXT. s. 1. to this act,) and gives the penalty half to the informer, and half to the churchwardens, &c. for the use of the poor; and s. 4. gives the whole penalty to the poor, if the informer gives evidence.]

58. In case any action of debt be brought for any of the penalties, the defendant shall not be liable to conviction before the justices of peace for the same offence; nor in case of information laid before the justices and conviction, shall the offender be liable to an action of debt on the same offence, id. s. 6.

59. Any person grieved by any order of such justices, may appeal to the next general or quarter-sessions for the county or division where such order is made; having first entered into a recognizance, with security before such justices, to prosecute and abide by their order thereon, and giving 8 days' notice in writing of such appeal to the respondent; and the justices in sessions shall determine such appeal, and make such order, and award such costs and damages by distress and sale of the goods of any person refusing to pay the same; and for want of sufficient distress, may commit the party to the common gaol of the said county or division, for not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction made; which order shall be final; and no proceedings of any such justices out of sessions, or of the justices in sessions, in pursuance of this act, shall be removed by certiorari, or other process of law, id. s. 7. [Treble costs may be awarded to be paid by appellant, if the cause of appeal is determined against him, 1 G. 4. c. 93. s. 3. MANUFACTURES, pl. 55.]

60. All prosecutions for offences against this act shall be commenced within 3 months after the offence committed, id. s. 8.

61. The 29 G. 2. c. 33. ss. 1—2. "which enacts that the justices at any general or quarter sessions next after Michaelmas, yearly, shall make rates for the payment of wages to weavers, and others employed in the woollen manufactures, according to the number of yards that the chains are laid upon the warping bars, and not otherwise," repealed, 30 G. 2. c. 12. s. 1.

62. All contracts or agreements made between any clothier or maker of mixed, medley, or white broad cloth, and the weavers employed by him, as to any wages, shall be valid, id. s. 2.

63. Such contracts shall extend only to the prices of workmanship or wages to be paid, and not to the payment thereof in any other manner than in money, id. s. 3. [But see pl. 51.]

64. If any clothier, &c. do not pay the weavers employed by him their wages, &c. in money, within 2 days next after the work performed and delivered to such employer, or some person on his behalf (the same being demanded) he shall forfeit 40*s.* for every such offence, to be recovered and disposed of as in 29 G. 2. c. 33., id. s. 4. [See pl. 52.]

65. Any person aggrieved by any order of the 2 justices, may appeal to the next quarter-sessions, giving notice of such appeal; and if it appears to the sessions that reasonable notice was not given, they shall adjourn the same to the next quarter-sessions, and there finally determine the same; and shall have power to award costs, 12 G. 1. c. 34. s. 5. [And see note to last pl. and note to next pl.]

66. If any person shall assault any master wool-comber, weaver, or other person concerned in the woollen manufactures, whereby such master, &c. shall receive any bodily hurt, for not complying with any such illegal bye-laws, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 49., or shall write or send any letter or message threatening hurt to any such master, &c., or to burn or destroy their houses, or to cut down his trees, or maim or kill his cattle, for not complying with any demands of his workmen, or for not submitting to any such illegal bye-laws, &c., every person wilfully offending in the premises, being convicted on indictment found within 12 calendar months after the offence committed, shall be guilty of felony, and shall be transported for 7 years, id. s. 6. [The ss. 5—6 are EXT. to persons employed in the manufactures enumerated in 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 12. MANUFACTURES, pl. 33.]

67. Breaking into a shop to cut serges or woollen goods in the loom, or tools used in making them, &c., punished with death, id. s. 7. [EXT. to silk manufactures 6 G. 3. c. 28. s. 15., but REP. 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 4.]

68. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING any cloth or woollen goods remaining on the rack or tenters, or any wollen yarn or wool left out to dry, from being stolen or taken away in the night time, 15 G. 2. c. 27.

69. If any cloth or woollen goods remaining on the rack or tenters, or any woollen yarn, or wool left out to dry, be stolen or taken away in the night time, any justice of peace of the same county or place, on complaint made within 10 days after such goods stolen, by the owner, may by warrant authorize any constable, headborough, or other peace-officer, in the day-time, to enter into and search the houses, out-houses, or other places of every person whom the owner of such goods, on his oath, declares he suspects to have stolen or received the same; and in case such constable, &c. find any cloth, woollen goods, or wool, which, from the information of the person making such oath, he has reason to suspect to be so stolen or received, he shall apprehend every person in whose custody such goods are found, and carry him before some justice of the peace of the same county, division, or town: and if such person suspected give not a satisfactory account how he acquired the property or possession of such goods, or within some convenient time set by the said justice, produce not the party of whom he received the same, or some other witness to depose on oath such property or right to the possession of the said goods, he shall be deemed convicted of the said offence of stealing or taking away the said cloth, woollen goods, woollen yarn, or wool; and shall for the first offence forfeit to the owner treble the value; and in default of payment in the time appointed by such justice, he shall issue forth his warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of the offender's goods; and in default of such distress, shall commit him to the common goal of the place where apprehended, for 3 months, or until he pay the same; and for any further offence, shall, on conviction, besides the forfeiture of treble the value to be levied as aforesaid, be committed to the common gaol for 6 months; and if convicted of such offence, the justice before whom he is so convicted shall commit the offender to the common gaol, to remain till the next assizes or great session for trial thereat, and if such offender shall not, by producing the party of whom he acquired the property or possession of such goods, or otherwise prove to the satisfaction of the jury, that he lawfully obtained the property or possession of the same, he shall be adjudged guilty of felony and suffer transportation for 7 years, and be liable to the same punishment for returning therefrom as other felons transported are liable to, 15 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1.

70. If any person so suspected and apprehended is aggrieved by the judgment of any justice, he may (unless twice before convicted) appeal unto the next general quarter sessions, who shall give such relief, and make such order therein, as seems meet; and such order shall be final, id. s. 2.

71. This act shall not alter or repeal any law for the punishment of persons stealing or receiving such cloth, woollen goods, woollen yarn, or wool, except in such cases where the proof is laid upon the offender, id. s. 3.

72. PERSONS INDICTED FOR FELONIOUS CUTTING AND STEALING any cloth or other woollen manufactures from the rack or tenter in the night time, and thereupon found guilty by 12 men, or by confession, or who will not answer to the same according to law, or shall wilfully stand mute, or challenge peremptorily above 20 jurymen, or shall upon such indictment be outlawed, shall be excluded from clergy, 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 3. [See the rest of this act, STORES (PUBLIC), pl. 4, 5.]

73. Judges may, at their discretion, reprieve the offender, and transport him for 7 years from the time of transportation, and during all that time there to be kept to labour; and if he refuse to be so transported, or shall afterwards return to Eng., Wa., or Ber., within the 7 years, he shall be put to execution on the judgment so pronounced against him, 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 4. [CONF. 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 25. s. 11.]

74. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF THE WOOLLEN MANUFACTURE, and for preventing disputes among the persons concerned therein, 13 G. 1. c. 23. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 19.

75. No maker of mixed medley or white cloth may use any warping bars, but only such as are of the measure following, viz. every long warping bar 3 yards 3 inches in length and no more; and every round warping bar 4 yards and 4 inches round, and no more; the 3 inches on the long bar, and the 4 inches on the round bar, being in lieu of the over-measure usually allowed in cloths; and the thrums at the end of the warping bars shall not exceed 8 inches in length; and if any maker of such cloth shall use any warping bar of other length, or with thrums exceeding 8 inches in length, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 1.

76. Every maker of such cloth or goods mixed with wool shall give out all wool, yarn, and other materials, at 16 oz. to the lb., and shall receive it back by the same weight, without fraud, on penalty of 5*l.* for every offence, id. s. 2.

77. All prosecutions for offences against this act, shall be heard by 2 justices, on information given on oath within three calendar months after offence; and they shall hear and determine the same, and on conviction issue their warrants to levy the penalties by distress and sale of goods; one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish; and for want of distress, may commit the offender to the county gaol for not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction made, id. s. 4.

78. All disputes relating to work, wages, or damages, between any clothier and weaver, or other person employed in such manufacture, shall be heard and determined by 2 justices; who, on complaint, shall summon the parties, hear and examine on oath, and adjudge satisfaction; and give costs and damages, and issue their warrants to levy such costs and damages, by distress and sale of goods of persons refusing for 10 days to pay the same; and for want of distress, to commit them to the county gaol, or house of correction, for not more than 3 months, or till satisfaction made, 13 G. 1. c. 23. s. 5.

79. Persons aggrieved by any order of the justices may appeal to the next quarter sessions, giving 6 days' notice, who shall make such order, and award such costs and damages as shall seem reasonable, and shall levy by their order or warrants the costs and damages by distress and sale of goods, and for want of distress may commit the party to the county gaol or house of correction, for any time not exceeding 3 months, or till satisfaction is made, which order of sessions shall be final, nor shall the proceedings of any justices in pursuance hereof, be removed by certiorari or other process, id. s. 6.

80. Any one justice of peace on information on oath that any persons are suspected to be guilty of any of the above ill practices, may issue his warrant to any constable or other peace officer, churchwarden, or overseer, directing him in the day-time to enter any house or other suspected place to search for all such bars and weights, as are used by any clothier or maker of woollen goods; and if such clothier, &c. shall interrupt such officer, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 7.

81. If any end-gatherers shall be found buying or carrying ends of yarn, wefts, thrums, short yarn, or other refuse of cloth, drugget, or other woollen goods, or goods mixed with wool (flocks and pinions only excepted), any constable or peace officer may, by warrant of one justice, search such person and his bags; and if he find any such ends of yarn, &c. shall carry him before any justice, which person, on conviction of any of the said offences on oath of one witness or by confession, shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue or vagrant, and shall be punished as by 12 A. St. 2. c. 23. s. 8. directed, id. s. 8. [And see 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 4. tit. VAGRANT, pl. 33.]

82. Every person sued for any thing done in pursuance hereof, may plead the general issue; and if plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or has verdict or judgment against him, defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 18.

83. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING FRAUDS and embezzlements by persons employed in the woollen manufactory, 14 G. 3. c. 25.

84. If any picker, scribbler, spinner, weaver, or other person, employed in manufacturing of woollen cloth, or in preparing materials for that purpose, shall not return all working tools, wool, yarn, chain, woof, or abb, delivered out to be manufactured, and all materials wherewith he is entrusted, or give a satisfactory account touching the same to his employer, or shall fraudulently steam, damp, or water the wool or yarn delivered to him to be worked up; or if any person shall take off, cut, or pick out, the list, sorrel, or other mark of any piece of cloth, and shall be convicted of any such offence before some justice, either by confession, or oath of one witness, such person shall be committed to the house of correction for one month, id. s. 1.

85. If any person so employed, and entrusted, shall not have delivered or accounted for such tools and materials, and shall abscond, or sell, or dispose of the same; or if any person shall fraudulently buy or receive such tools or materials; or if any person shall be charged on suspicion of having embezzled and kept back, by damping, steaming, or watering the wool and yarn delivered out to him; or with having sold, bought, or received the same, and oath shall be made thereof before one justice, such justice shall issue his warrant to any constable, or peace officer, to enter and search, in the day-time, the residence of offender, and also such other place of which the clothier, his clerk, or servant, shall make oath, that he have just cause to suspect, it appearing to the said justice to be reasonable suspicion that the said working tools, or materials, or part thereof, may be secreted and lodged: and if on search, any of the said working tools, &c. as in s. 1., shall be found, the said constable, &c. shall seize the same, and apprehend the person in whose possession the same shall be found, and bring him before the same, or some other justice; and unless he can give a good account how he came by the same, to the satisfaction of such justice, such person shall be thereof convicted, and suffer punishment as in s. 1., and all such tools, &c. as in s. 1. so seized, and not accounted for, shall, upon such conviction, be delivered over to the churchwardens or overseers, for sale; and applying the monies arising therefrom, after defraying the expences thereof to the use of the poor, id. s. 2.

86. In case the person accused shall request of such justice to appoint a reasonable time to produce the person from whom he bought or received the same, or some witness to prove the sale or delivery; such justice shall appoint such time, and issue a summons to the constable where such person or witness shall reside, requiring him to appear before him to be examined and give evidence, on oath, of the matters; but such person at the time of such request, shall enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, as such justice shall think proper, for his appearance at the time set, or for want of such recognizance, shall be committed until the time that shall be appointed for the appearance of such party or witnesses; and if afterwards convicted of any of the offences, he shall suffer such punishment as in s.1. directed, 14 G.3. c. 25. s. 3.

87. Any justice, on information on oath that there is just cause to suspect that any ends of yarn, wefts, thrumbs, short yarn, or other refuse of cloth, druggot, or of other woollen goods, or of goods mixed with wool (flocks and pinions only excepted), have been collected and received, and are lodged or concealed, in any place, by warrant under his hand and seal, shall cause such place to be searched in the day-time; and if such ends of yarn, &c. (flocks and pinions only excepted), above 3 pounds, shall be found therein, to seize the same; and also cause the person in whose house the same shall be found, to be brought before him, or some other justice, and on proof being made thereof upon oath before such justice, that such ends, &c. (flocks and pinions only excepted) were found in the dwelling-house, or other place of such person, such person not exculpating himself to the satisfaction of such justice, shall thereupon suffer such punishment as in s.1., and the materials found in his custody shall, by order of such justice, be burnt or destroyed, id. s. 4.

88. If on information on oath before any justice against any offender against this act, it shall appear to him, that such person hath been before convicted of any offence against this act; he shall not convict, but shall commit him to the house of correction until next general quarter-session, or until he enter into a recognizance, with sureties, to appear at, and abide the order of such sessions; and such justice shall bind over the informer to prosecute at the said sessions, which shall enquire into and determine the same in a summary way; and if such person be found guilty, they shall commit such offender to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 5.

89. If it appear to the sessions, that such person hath been convicted at some sessions of any offence against this act; they shall, on a like enquiry and conviction, in a summary way, direct the offender to be committed to the house of correction, for not exceeding 6 months, and to be once publicly whipped at such time and place as they shall direct, id. s. 6.

90. Any person aggrieved by the judgment of any justice may appeal; and the justice shall make known to such person, at the time of conviction, his right to appeal to the next quarter sessions, the person then giving to such justice notice in writing, signifying his intention to appeal, and also entering into a recognizance at the time of such notice, with sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of, and pay costs awarded by sessions; and the sessions shall on proof of such notice and recognizance, hear and determine the appeal in a summary way, and award costs to either party, if they think proper; but if on such hearing the judgment of the justice, before whom such appellant convicted, is affirmed, such appellant shall suffer such punishment, in consequence of such conviction, as in s.1., id. s. 7.

91. The justice before whom any offender shall be convicted, shall cause the conviction to be made out in form following, id. s. 8.

‘Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord—, A.B. is convicted before me [or us], — of H.M.’s justices of the peace in and for the county, division, liberty, or place [as the case may be], of having [here specify the offence, and the time and place where the same was committed]. Given under my hand and seal, or our hands and seals [as the case may be], the day and year aforesaid.’

And shall cause the said conviction to be fairly wrote over, upon parchment; and also to be returned to the next general quarter session, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and kept among the records of sessions, id. s. 9.

92. No person shall be proceeded against for any offence against this act, unless information be made on oath, before one justice, in 3 months; and no order, &c. shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari into any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 10.

92.(a) To AMEND 22 G.2. c. 27. [see MANUFACTURES, pl. 8. which act is AMD. 15 G.3. c. 14.]

93. So much of 22 G.2. c. 27. s. 1. [and semble of 1 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 1., 13 G.2. c. 8. s. 1.] as subjects persons to punishments for reeling short yarn, REP., 14 G.3. c. 44. s. 1.

94. Any person who shall reel false or short yarn, and be thereof convicted by the oath or affirmation of the owner, or of any other credible witness, or by the confession, before one justice, shall, for first offence, forfeit from 5s. to 20s.; for the second offence from 40s. to 5l.; and for every other offence, such justice may commit the person convicted to the house of correction to be kept to hard labour for one month, and also order him to be once publicly whipped at the nearest market-town upon a market-day; all which penalties shall go to the party grieved, 14 G.3. c. 44. s. 2.

95. The justice shall make the conviction as follows:

‘Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —, A.B. is convicted before me, [or us] — of H.M.’s justices of the peace for —,

[specifying the offence, and the time and place when and where the same was committed, and also specifying that it was the first, second, or third offence against this act, as the case shall be.] Given under my hand and seal, [or our hands and seals,] the day and year aforesaid.’

Which shall be fairly wrote on parchment, and returned to the next general quarter session to be filed by the clerk of the peace, among the records, 14 G.3. c. 44. s. 3.

96. Any clerk of the peace where such conviction is filed, upon application, shall cause a copy to be delivered to such person on payment of one shilling for every copy, id. s. 4.

97. Any person convicted may, at time of conviction, enter into a recognizance conditioned to try such appeal, abide the order of, and pay such costs as adjudged by the sessions; which shall take cognizance of such appeal, and may affirm such conviction, and award such costs as they think proper; and if not paid, according to the justices’ order, such costs may be recovered by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice; and if no goods found, sufficient to pay the costs and charges of distress, they may commit to the common gaol for 3 months; and the determination of the sessions shall be final; and no order or other proceedings shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari into any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 5.

98. The pecuniary penalties inflicted by 14 G.3. c. 44. on persons convicted of reeling false or short yarn, with the costs of prosecution, shall (if not paid according to the order of the justice) be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant, under the hand and seal of the justice, with the costs of distress and sale; and if no goods found sufficient to answer the penalties, with costs of distress, then such justice shall commit such offender to the common gaol for one month, unless such penalties and charges, &c. shall be sooner paid, 15 G.3. c. 14. s. 1.

99. Any person aggrieved may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions; and the sessions may hear and determine the appeal, and make order therein; which shall be conclusive, id. s. 2.

100. FOR PUNISHING PERSONS WILFULLY and maliciously destroying any woollen goods, or any implements prepared for or used in the manufacture thereof, 22 G.3. c. 40. (and recital in s. 1.); [See rest of this statute, LINEN MANUFACTURES, pl. 11. SILK MANUFACTURES, pl. 45. EXT. to Scot. 29 G.3. c. 46. s. 2.]

101. If any person shall by day or night break or enter by force into any house or shop, with intent to cut or destroy any serge or other woollen goods in the loom, or any tools employed in making thereof, or shall wilfully and maliciously cut or destroy the same in the loom, or on the rack, or shall burn, cut, or destroy any rack on which serges or woollen goods are hung to dry; or shall wilfully, &c. break or destroy any tools used in making the same; every such offender, being lawfully convicted, shall be guilty of felony without clergy [in Scot. being convicted before any justiciary or circuit court, shall suffer death as in other capital crimes, 29 G.3. c. 46. s. 2], 22 G.3. c. 40. s. 1.

102. TO EXPLAIN, AMEND AND REDUCE INTO ONE ACT of parliament several laws now in being for preventing the export of live sheep, rams, and lambs’ wool, woolfels, mortlings, shortlings, yarn, and worsted, cruels, coverlids, waddings, and other manufactures, or pretended manufactures, made of wool slightly wrought up, or otherwise put together, so as the same may be reduced to and made use of as wool again, mattresses or beds stuffed with combed wool, or wool fit for combing, fullers’ earth, fulling and tobacco-pipe clay from this kingdom and from Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, into foreign parts; and for making 25 H.8. c. 17. “For true winding of wool,” more effectual, 28 G.3. c. 38. [AMD. as to export of live sheep to Isle of Man by 38 G.3. c. 63. s. 9., 45 G.3. c. 99. s. 8., 51 G.3. c. 50.; of wools, &c. to Ire. by 48 G.3. c. 44.; of worsted yarn to Canada by 47 G.3. S. 1. c. 9., 52 G.3. c. 55.; as to export of tobacco, or pipe clay, or fullers’ earth, 47 G.3. S. 1. c. 49.; as to carrying wool, &c. coastwise, 57 G.3. c. 88.]

103. All and singular the statutes now in force, or so much thereof as relate in any manner to the carrying coastwise [see now 57 G.3. c. 88. pl. 180.], or to any of the isles of Jersey, &c., or to prevent the export of live sheep, rams, and lambs’ wool, woolfels, mortlings, shortlings, yarn, [worsted yarn, how exported to Canada, see 47 G.3. S. 1. c. 9.] or worsted made of wool, woolflocks, cruels, coverlids, waddings, or other manufactures, or pretended manufactures made of wool slightly wrought up or otherwise put together, so as the same may be reduced to, and used as wool again, or mattresses or beds stuffed with combed wool, or wool fit for combing or carding, or any fuller’s earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, except 9 & 10 W.3. c. 40. ss. 3—5. shall be REP., 28 G.3. c. 38. And this act shall, from the time of its passing, take effect as hereinafter mentioned viz. from 1 May 1788, up to which date all forfeitures incurred under former acts are remitted, 28 G.3. c. 38. ss. 87, 88. [See as to 9 & 10 W.3. c. 40., infra, pl. 119. 178.]

104. If any person shall bring, deliver, send, receive, or take, or cause, or procure to be brought, &c., or taken into any ship, vessel, or boat, any rams, sheep, or lambs, of any description soever, of the breed of G. B., or of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, being alive, to be conveyed out of G. B., or any of the said isles, the said rams, sheep, or lambs, and the vessel or boat on board which they are taken or received shall be forfeited, and liable to be seized and secured for benefit of the seizer or seizers; and every such offender, his or her aiders, procurers, &c. knowing thereof, and thereof convicted, shall, for every sheep or lamb brought, &c. (as above), or taken with any such intent into any ship, vessel, or boat, forfeit 3*l.* of lawful money of G. B., and also suffer solitary imprisonment in the common gaol for 6 months, and until such forfeitures shall be paid, so as the whole imprisonment for nonpayment of the forfeiture shall not exceed 2 years; which forfeitures shall be for the benefit of the person who shall sue; but nothing in this act shall subject any person or vessel to any of the pains or forfeitures for carrying any wether sheep, or of the wool growing upon them, to be carried alive in any ship, vessel, or boat, out of G. B., or out of any of the said isles, for the only necessary food of the master, mariners, passengers, or persons therein, and for no other purpose, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 2.

105. No live wether sheep shall be put on board any vessel for food until application has been made to the comptroller and collector of customs of such port where the same are to be shipped, and a licence obtained from them for the shipping thereof, which licence shall specify the number of wether sheep to be put on board, and they shall in no case exceed such number as in the judgment of the officers granting such licence shall be deemed sufficient for the use of such master, mariners, or passengers, during the voyage; nor shall the same be shipped but in the presence of proper officers appointed to attend the same, on pain that the sheep put on board shall become forfeited to the person seizing the same, and the person shipping or attempting to ship the same shall forfeit 20*s.* for every sheep to the person who shall inform, id. s. 3.

106. If there is no comptroller or collector of customs at the place, then such licence shall be obtained from, and the shipping of such live wether sheep shall be made in the presence of some officer of H. M.'s revenue nearest to such place, who is to grant such licence and attend to the shipping of such sheep, id. s. 4.

107. Nothing in this act with respect to any officer being present at the shipping of sheep, or granting a licence, shall extend to the shipping of live wether sheep on board any ship, &c. bound only to or from any port between the Mull of Cantire and Cape Wrath, for the food of the master, mariners, passengers, or persons on board, and for no other purpose, id. s. 5.

108. As in Scot. estates and farms often consist of mainland and small islands within the different firths or seas adjacent, on which islands sheep are fed, and which, for that and other purposes, must be removed on board boats or other vessels from one island to another, this act shall not hinder any landholder, proprietor, or tenant of such estate or farm, from carrying and exchanging from the mainland to any island in the firths adjacent, or from such island to another, or from thence to the mainland on board boats or vessels, any live sheep or lambs as occasion may require, id. s. 6. [The s. 7. requiring bond to be given against export of sheep before removing or exchanging them, and s. 8. for thereupon obtaining a licence from a justice for such removal, &c. is REP. 57 G. 3. c. 88.]

109. All persons who shall carry, export, transport, or otherwise convey, or cause to be carried, &c. out of G. B., or out of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or any of them, into any parts out of the kingdom or isles aforesaid, any wool soever of the growth of the said kingdom or isles, or any woolfels, mortlings, shortlings, yarn or worsted made of wool, woolflocks, cruels, coverlids, waddings, or other manufactures, or pretended manufactures made of wool slightly wrought up, or otherwise put together, so as the same made be reduced to, and made use of as wool again, or mattresses, or beds stuffed with combed wool, or wool fit for combing or carding, or any fullers' earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays [but see s. 10. next pl., and 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 49. pl. 110.] and also all owners of any ship or vessel, and all owners of every horse or other beast of burthen, waggon, cart, or carriage, upon which any articles before enumerated are exported, transported, carried or conveyed, packed or loaded, with an intent to be exported, knowing thereof, and being actually aiding, and also every master and mariner of or in such vessel, knowing thereof, and being actually aiding, and also every factor or servant, or other person soever, and every collector, customer, comptroller, waiter, searcher, surveyor, or other officer soever, knowing thereof, and actually aiding, and thereof convicted, shall forfeit for the first offence 3*s.* for every lb. weight of such wool or other articles, or 50*l.* in the whole, at election of the person suing, and shall also suffer solitary imprisonment in the common gaol for 3 months, and till the penalty is paid, so as the whole imprisonment for the nonpayment of such penalty shall not exceed 12 months; and in case of a further conviction for a second or subsequent offence of the same kind, the person so again offending shall forfeit 3*s.* for every lb. weight of such wool and articles prohibited from being exported, or 50*l.* at the election of the person who shall sue, and shall also suffer solitary imprisonment in the common gaol for 6 months, and till the penalty in which he shall be convicted shall be paid, so as the whole imprisonment for nonpayment of the penalty shall not exceed 2 years; all which forfeitures shall be for the benefit of the person who shall sue; and the said wool and articles, packed, loaded, removed, carried, conveyed, or shipped, with intent to export the same, shall, together with the ship, vessel, bottom, or boat, waggon, cart, and other carriage, horses or beasts, be liable to be seized, and shall become forfeited for the benefit of the person who shall seize, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 9.

110. Nothing in this act shall prohibit the exportation of tobacco-pipe clay from any port in this kingdom to any British sugar plantation in the West Indies, under 17 G. 3. c. 43., id. s. 10. [Nor of fulling earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, to any place in possession of H. M., as long as it is allowed to be exported to the sugar plantations, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 49.]

111. Every owner of wool, or any other enumerated woollen and worsted articles prohibited from being exported, or his agent, who shall carry, or cause to be carried, any wool or other last mentioned articles, to any port on the sea coast within G. B., with an intention to convey the same to any other port on the sea coast within the same kingdom, from whence the same may be shipped off or carried into foreign parts, shall first cause entry to be made of the said wool, &c. at the port, containing the exact weight, marks, and numbers of the same, before he presume to load or carry away any of the said wool, &c. within 5 miles of such port on the sea coasts, from whence the same is to be conveyed; and if any wool, &c. shall be carrying towards the sea, for the purpose aforesaid, without being first entered in manner aforesaid, and without being accompanied with a certificate of such entry, and which the officer is to give, the wool, &c. so found, and also the horses and carriages conveying the same, shall be forfeited for the benefit of the person who shall seize, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 11. [But see 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

112. The above clause is not to extend to the hindering any person from carrying his wool from the place of shearing, on horses, or by carts and waggons, to his own dwelling-house or outhouses, though within 5 miles or less of the sea, so as such person, within 10 days after shearing, and before he remove or dispose of the same, from the place where it was first carried after shearing, do under his hand certify to the officers of customs in the next port the true quantity of wool; (that is to say), the number of fleeces, and where the same is housed, and that such person do not remove, or dispose of the said wool to any other place, without first certifying to the officer, under his hand, his intention to remove the same, three days before such removal; and the officers shall receive and keep such certificates, and make a register of them; but in case such person shall neglect to make and send such certificates to the officer of the next port, or shall remove, or dispose of any of the said wool, before such certificate of his intention made and delivered, such person shall have no benefit by this proviso, but be liable to the penalties in the foregoing clause, id. s. 12. [But see 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

113. In case any sheep shall be shorn between 1st March and 1st July in each year, for the sole purpose of sending them to market; and in case the owner shall not remove or dispose of the wool shorn from such sheep, from the places where the same were first carried after shearing, without first certifying in 3 days in manner aforesaid, it shall not be necessary for such owner to certify the true quantity of the wool and number of fleeces, and where the same are housed, until such owner shall certify in manner before mentioned the quantity of wool and number of fleeces shorn from the whole of the flock belonging to him, after the general shearing for that season, id. s. 14.

114. Any person authorized as after mentioned, may seize for his own use all such wool, woolfels, mortlings, shortlings, and other woollen and worsted articles, fullers' earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, which he shall see or discover to be brought, carried, or laid on shore, at or near the sea, or any navigable river, to the intent to be exported contrary to this act; and the offender shall be subject to the like forfeiture, as persons are subject unto for exporting, &c. id. s. 15.

115. It shall be lawful to export the quantities of wool hereinafter mentioned out of Southampton only, unto Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, for the only use of any of the inhabitants of the said isles, but under the regulations in this act, respecting the removal and shipping of wool, and so as such wool shall be shipped on board some vessel then the property of some person residing within one of the isles, and so as the shipper do, before the shipping, deliver unto the collector, customer, comptroller, surveyor, or searcher of Southampton, a writing under the hand and seal of the governor of Jersey, or of his deputy, as to the wool which is to be exported to the said island; and under the seal of the governor of Guernsey, or of his deputy, as to the wool which is to be exported to Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, in which writing it shall be expressed that the party named therein is authorized to export so much wool, expressing the number of tods, to the same isles, or one of them, to be manufactured in one of the isles, and that such party authorized to export such wool, hath, before the making of the said writing, entered into sufficient bond to H. M. for the landing of the said wool in manner aforesaid, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 16.

116. The governor of Jersey, or his deputy, shall not make to any person any writing as above, to authorize him to transport out of Southampton unto Jersey, in one year, from 1 Jan. any greater quantity of wool than 4000 tods; and the governor of Guernsey to transport unto Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, in one year, accounting from 1 Jan. any greater quantity of wool than 2000 tods for Guernsey, 400 for Alderney, and 200 for Sark; and the customer of Southampton shall keep account of all the wool so by him permitted to be laden by this act, and shall not permit any greater quantity to be laden than prescribed, in one year, upon forfeiture of his place, and 500*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that will sue in any court of record. And if any of the governors, or their deputies, shall give any licence for exporting from Southampton into the said isles, any greater quantity of wool; then the governor shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.* for every tod licensed to be exported over the proportion by this act limited, one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that will sue in any court of record, id. s. 17. [See as to exportation to Canada, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 9., 52 G. 3. c. 55.]

117. The governors aforesaid, or their deputies, clerks, officers, or servants, for the granting such licence, and for entering a remembrance of the same into some book, shall have 1*s.*, id. s. 18.

118. No wool, or any of the enumerated woollen or worsted articles, fullers' earth, fulling or tobacco-pipe clays, shall be put on board any vessel, hulk, or boat, whereof any alien born or natural born subject, not inhabiting within G. B., shall be owner or part owner; and such vessel, hulk, or boat, wherein such wool, &c. shall be shipped, shall be forfeited to the seizer. Provided this act shall not extend to any lamb skins ready dressed and prepared, fit for fur or linings, id. s. 19.

119. Any buyer or manufacturer of wool within Kent and Sussex, residing within 15 miles of the sea, having given such bond, with sureties, as is mentioned in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40., may sell any wool to any buyer or manufacturer within the said counties, who has also given such bond, and to remove and lodge the same at the warehouse belonging to the person to whom the same shall be sold, as often as necessary, although the person purchasing shall live within 15 miles of the sea, such wool being removed, and such person giving such notice of the lodging and housing thereof, as is by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. required, id. s. 20. [But semb. REP. 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

120. Nothing in 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. [now REP. in toto, 54 G. 3. c. 78.] shall prevent any wool shorn or lodged within 10 miles of the sea, within Kent and Sussex, from being removed to any place, where a regular fair shall be held for the sale of wool; and in case the same is not sold, to bring back such wool to the place from whence taken; provided, previous to the removal, a permit be taken out containing the quantity to be removed, and to continue in force for such time as may be necessary for removal to the fair, and returning thereof to the place from whence taken, in case the same shall not be sold at such fair, and the proper officers shall grant such permits upon application from the grower of the wool, id. s. 21. [But semb. REP. as to permits, 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

121. Every permit shall accompany the wool for which the same has been granted, and shall, in case of such wool being sold at the fair, be produced by the purchaser to the officer, who shall then grant to such purchaser another permit for taking such wool from such fair, which permits shall specify the quantity to be moved, and the time during which it shall be in force, id. s. 22.

122. In case of the return of such wool unsold, the same shall become subject to the same rules, as in case the same had never been moved to any fair, id. s. 23.

123. If any person shall counterfeit, or in anywise alter any certificate in the recited act mentioned, or any license, or instrument hereby directed to be made or given, or shall cause the same to be counterfeited, &c. or shall knowingly make use of any counterfeited licence, he shall forfeit 20*l.* to any person who shall sue, id. s. 24. [Semb. superseded since 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

124. No wool, or other woollen or worsted articles, prohibited from being exported, shall be removed towards the sea, within 5 miles of the sea coast of any part of G. B., between sun-setting and sun-rising, upon pain of being forfeited, together with the horses, waggon, cart, or carriage, for the benefit of the seizer; and the driver, knowing thereof, shall be committed to the house of correction for one month, id. s. 25. [REP. 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.]

125. Nothing in the last clause shall prevent any farmer or grower of wool from removing, after sun-setting, such wool as shall have been shorn that day, from the place of shearing to the dwelling or storehouse of such farmer, although such removal be towards the sea, and within 5 miles of the coast, id. s. 26.

126. Nothing herein shall hinder any person from carrying any parcels of woollen or worsted yarn twisted, of 2 or more threads, and manufactured for knitting, so as each parcel be directed to, and carrying to some retailer of such yarn, and so as there be not more than 14 pounds weight directed to and carrying for one person at the same time, and so as such parcel be marked according to the acts requiring the marking thereof, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 27.

127. No wool, woolfels, mortlings, shortlings, woolflocks, worsted, bay, or woollen yarn, shall be packed up in any other package otherwise than in packs or trusses of leather or canvass, called pack cloths, or in linen or woollen; and all such packs or trusses shall be stamped on the outside with the word "wool," in not less than 3 inches in length, on forfeiture of all such wool, &c. to the seizer, and also upon forfeiture, by the person to whom such wool, &c. shall belong, not exceeding 1*s.* for every lb. weight of such wool, &c. seized, to the person seizing, as the court or justices before whom such wool, &c. shall be condemned, shall direct: but nothing herein shall prevent any person from packing any worsted or woollen yarn in paper, so that such paper is fairly directed to the person to whom the same is intended to be sent, and the word "worsted" or "yarn" be wrote or marked thereon, in letters not less than 1 inch in length, and that the quantity in one such paper contained do not exceed 14 lbs. in weight, id. s. 28.

128. The justices before whom any complaint or information respecting the word "wool" not being stamped on the outside of the package, shall be made, shall, if they think fit, order the wool, &c. seized to be returned to the owner; but in such case, the forfeiture incurred by such offence shall not be mitigated below 6*d.* per lb., id. s. 29.

129. All persons who shall pack any wool, or other woollen or worsted articles, in any package, otherwise than according to the above directions, or who shall press together, or cause to be pressed together, with screws, presses, or other engine, any wool soever, or any yarn made of wool, or other woollen or worsted articles prohibited from being exported, into any pack; or put, press, pack, or steam the same, or cause to be put, &c. into any butt, pipe, hogshead, chest, or other cask, upon any pretence whatsoever, shall forfeit all such wool, &c. with the package thereof, and 3*s.* per lb. weight of wool, &c. the whole of which penalties shall be paid by the owner or packer to the person who shall seize or sue, id. s. 30.

130. Every person who shall press together, or cause to be pressed together, with any screws, presses, or engine, any wool, or woollen or worsted articles prohibited from being exported, into any truss, sack, pack, bag, or other wrapper, or shall put, press, pack, or steam the same, or cause to be put, &c. into any butt, pipe, hogshead, chest, or any other cask or vessel, contrary to this act; and all persons aiding in such packing, shall, above the penalties before mentioned, be subject to the same pains and penalties as are inflicted upon exporters of wool; and the court and justices before whom such persons are tried and convicted, shall punish such offender accordingly: provided, in case any person who may have assisted in such illegal package shall, before apprehended, appear before any justice, and make discovery of the master packer, and other the persons concerned in such package, so that they may be prosecuted to conviction, then the person giving such information shall not be liable to the penalties, and, on conviction of such offender, shall be entitled to the wool, &c. packed: provided, in case the master packer, or person assisting in such package shall, before information taken against him, discover to any justice the name of the person by whom he was employed to pack the same, so that such person may be prosecuted to conviction, then such master packer, or person who shall give such information, shall not be liable to the penalties, and shall be entitled to the wool; and the person directing such wool, &c. so to be packed, shall, on conviction, be liable to the penalties before inflicted on exporters of wool, id. s. 31.

131. Every person who shall keep any wharf for the reception of wool in any port in G. B. shall, within one month after he begins to keep the same, enter into a bond to H. M. in 200*l.*, and which shall be deposited with the commissioners of customs at London, that no part of the wool deposited with him shall, with his privity, be illegally put on board any vessel; and such wharfinger shall also keep a regular entry and account of the quantity of bags or cloths of wool by him received and delivered, the time when, and the names and residence of the persons from whom such wool was received, and to whom such wool was delivered, with the marks and numbers upon the sheets, and the weight of such wool; a copy of which account shall be by him delivered to the principal officers of customs, at the port at which he shall reside, at the end of every 6 months, and oftener if required by such officer; and if any wharfinger refuse to enter into such bond, he shall forfeit 200*l.* to the person who shall sue; and in case he refuse to keep and deliver such account, or be convicted of keeping or delivering a false account, such wharfinger shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be paid to the person who shall sue; and if he shall knowingly permit such wool to be put on board any vessel, otherwise than according to this act, he and all persons aiding therein shall, on conviction, be subject to the pains before enacted against the exporters of wool; and any person giving information, so that such wharfinger and persons may be convicted, shall be entitled to 40*l.*, which shall be paid to such informer by the commissioners of customs immediately after conviction, id. s. 32.

132. Every person keeping a wharf at which any wool shall be lodged, shall, within 7 days after he shall receive any wool at such wharf by land carriage, or by inland navigation, transmit a note in writing, signed by the owner of such wharf, or his agent, which shall certify the quantity of wool received, and the number of sheets to the customer or comptroller at the port at which such wharf shall be kept, in case there shall be such officer, and for want thereof, to such other officer of customs as shall be stationed at such port, upon pain of forfeiting 10*l.* to any person who shall sue, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 33.

133. No wool, woolfells, mortlings, shortlings, combed wool, woolflocks, or woollen bay yarn, worsted yarn, cruels, or wool slightly manufactured, prohibited from being exported, shall be put on board any vessel or boat, to be carried coastwise, [see now 57 G. 3. c. 88. pl. 180.] unless notice be first given to the commissioners or chief managers of the customs, or to the customer, or collector and comptroller of customs at the port from which the same is to be sent, of the quantity, quality, and package, together with the marks, numbers, and weight, with the name of the ship, and master, together with the name of the owner of the goods, and his abode, and the place at which the same are to be landed, and the name of the person to whom the same are consigned; and also unless a bond be first entered into to H. M., by two persons, in treble the value of the goods intended to be carried coastwise, that the same shall (the danger of the seas excepted) be landed accordingly, which bond shall be executed by the owner of the goods, or some person by him appointed to execute the same, and which execution shall be deemed to be the act of such owner, or shipper; which shipper, if acting as agent, or having sold such goods to any person, shall recover from the proprietor of the goods shipped, all money such shipper shall expend, without wilful default, by reason of his entering into such bond; and in case such bond shall be entered into for any wool, or other last enumerated articles, being the property of different persons, then such owner, or persons for whose account such bond was entered into, shall be accountable for his share of the money expended, in proportion to the amount of such goods so shipped; and also unless a licence be first taken out under the hands of the commissioners or chief managers of customs, or any 3 of them, or from the customer, or collector and comptroller where such bond is given, for the lading, carrying, and landing thereof as aforesaid, which licence they are to grant without fee to the person demanding the same: and if any wool, &c. shall be carried on board any vessel, to be carried coastwise, before such bond shall be entered into, and such licence taken out, &c., then all such wool, &c. or the value thereof, shall be forfeited, together with the ship, vessel, bottom, or boat, and all the guns, ammunition, tackle, apparel, and furniture, for the benefit of the person first informing thereof, id. s. 34.

134. "As in Scotland, there are many lochs or inlets of the sea, to which it may be necessary to carry wool, &c. from one part of the coast of such lochs to another, on board vessels; and there are also, adjacent to the coasts of Scotland, a great many islands from whence wool, the produce of the said islands must be brought to the mainland of Scotland, or be carried from such mainland to the islands thereof, &c." therefore the carrying, shipping, or landing of wool, &c. to such intent only, shall not be deemed carrying, &c. for the purpose of carrying the same coastwise; nor shall the carrying, shipping, or landing of such wool, &c. to such lochs, or from such islands to the mainland of Scotland, or from such mainland to such islands, for such intent only, be subject to the restrictions respecting the carrying wool, &c. coastwise; provided nothing herein shall authorize the carrying such wool, to open sea, save as aforesaid, but under such restrictions as are herein expressed, id. s. 55. [And see s. 6. pl. 108.]

135. When any wool, woolfells, mortlings, shortlings, combed wool, woolflocks, woollen or bay yarn, worsted yarn, cruels, or wool slightly manufactured, shall be shipped to be carried coastwise under this act, the customer, or collector and comptroller of customs at the port from whence such goods shall have been shipped, shall, on the clearance of such ship, transmit a notice in writing, setting forth the quantity, quality, and package of such wool, &c., together with the marks and numbers thereof, with the name of the ship and of the master, to the customer of the port to which such wool, &c. are intended to be conveyed, under penalty of 10*l.*, to be paid by the officer neglecting to transmit such notice, which penalty shall be paid to the person who shall inform; and the bonds before directed to be entered into on the shipping of the said wool, &c. shall not be discharged until a certificate, under the hand and seal of the customer of the port in G. B. where the same were landed, expressing the quantity, quality, and package, marks, numbers, name of the ship and master, out of which such wool, &c. were landed, shall be produced to and left with the person in whose possession such bond shall be kept, at the custom-house of the port whence the said wool, &c. were shipped, and which certificate the customer, &c. of the port at which such wool, &c. shall be landed, is to transmit to the customer, &c. at the port from whence the same were shipped, within 7 days after the landing thereof, under the penalty of 10*l.*, to be paid by the officer neglecting to transmit such certificate to the person who shall inform; and the said customer, &c. at the port at which such wool, &c. shall be landed, shall also grant and deliver another certificate of such landing to the masters of the vessel from which the same shall be landed, without fee, when requested; and all such bonds as shall remain undischarged by such certificate for 6 months, shall be transmitted to the commissioners of customs at London, who are to put them in suit; and if the wool in such notices shall not be landed at the port to which the same were consigned within a reasonable time, then the customer, &c. at the port to which the same were licensed to be sent, shall transmit a notice thereof to the customer, &c. at the port from whence such wool, &c. were shipped, that inquiry may be made in what manner the same have been disposed of or delivered, and which inquiry the customer, &c. is to make without delay, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 36.

136. No wool or other woollen or worsted articles, fullers' earth, fulling clay, or tobacco-pipe clay, shall be put on board any vessel or boat, bound to parts beyond the seas, under the penalty of forfeiture, for the benefit of the person who shall inform, of all such goods, and also of such ship, vessel, bottom, or boat, on which such goods shall be laden, and all the guns, ammunition, tackle, apparel, and furniture belonging to such ship, &c. and moreover the master shall, in such case, be deemed the exporter thereof, and be subject to the penalties in such case provided, unless such master shall, upon being apprehended, discover the person who actually shipped such goods, and enter into a recognizance with 2 sureties, before some justice, to prosecute and give evidence against such shipper, so that he may be convicted, id. s. 37. [But see as to export of fullers' earth, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 49. pl. 110.]

137. Nothing in the above exception shall extend to the masters of vessels not regularly clearing out to foreign parts, but if any wool or other last-mentioned goods shall be discovered on board such vessel, and where no such clearance can be exhibited, then the master shall be deemed the shipper, and such master, and all persons on board such vessel, knowing of such illicit transaction, shall be liable to the pains before enacted against exporters of wool; provided, in case any person on board any ship not regularly cleared out to foreign parts, other than the master, shall, on being apprehended, give information, so that such master may be convicted, or the vessel condemned, such person informing shall not be liable to any penalties to which he might otherwise be liable, and shall also be entitled to 40*l.*, which shall be paid to such informer by the commissioners of customs, immediately after conviction, id. s. 38. [The s. 39. is REP. 57 G. 3. c. 88. see pl. 180.]

138. The wool, &c. prohibited from being exported, which shall be found on board such vessel, or within such carriage, or upon such horse or beast, shall be forfeited to the person who shall seize the same, id. s. 40. [The s. 41. is REP. 57 G. 3. c. 88. pl. 180.]

139. No master of any vessel, who shall ship any wool to be carried coastwise, shall unpack, or permit to be unpacked, any wool to him delivered (except through necessity, of which such master shall make oath in writing before one justice, on his arrival at the port to which such wool shall be consigned), upon pain of forfeiting, for every bag unpacked, 40*s.* to the owners of such wool, id. s. 42. [The s. 43. is REP. 57 G. 3. c. 88. pl. 180.]

140. All cocquets for carrying wool, or the said articles, from any port within the kingdom of G. B., or the said isles, shall be written on paper, and not parchment, and signed by 3 of the chief officers of such ports; and all certificates of landing, in any other of the ports, shall be written upon paper only, and signed in like manner; and all wool, &c. both at shipping and landing, shall be weighed in the presence of the said officers giving such cocquets, and the exact weight, marks, and numbers shall be expressed in the cocquets, and written therein, without any obliteration, erasure, or interlineation soever, id. s. 44.

141. All persons who, by insurance or otherwise, shall undertake that any sheep, wool, or other articles before enumerated, shall be carried to any parts beyond the seas, from this kingdom, contrary to this act, or who in pursuance of such insurance, &c. shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, any sheep, &c. in any parts beyond the seas, such person and their aiders, shall, on conviction, be liable to be punished as exporters of wool, id. s. 45.

142. All persons who shall pay or agree to pay any money for insuring, or exporting any sheep, &c. contrary to this act, shall, on conviction, be liable to be punished as exporters of sheep or wool; and moreover, such sheep, so insured, shall become forfeited to the person who shall sue, id. s. 46.

143. In case the insurer, conveyor, or manager of such fraud, or the person agreeing to insure, &c. do, within 6 months after such agreement, first give notice thereof to the commissioners of customs, so as the person concerned with him be convicted, he shall not only be discharged of such offence, but shall also have to his own use, such sheep, wool, and other articles enumerated, and which shall be insured, after the charges of prosecution are deducted, and shall likewise retain to his own use the insurance money; and in case the party insured shall, within the like space of 6 months, first make discovery thereof to the commissioners, so as the person concerned with him shall be convicted, he shall recover back such insurance money as he paid; and in case the insurance money is not at the time of discovery actually paid, then the person is indemnified from paying the same, and all agreements entered into for paying such monies are void; and the person first discovering shall also be discharged from the punishment to be inflicted upon him, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 47.

144. All policies of insurance made on goods laden or to be laden on any vessel bound from G. B. to foreign parts, which shall afterwards appear to be wool, woollen or worsted yarn, or any of the enumerated articles prohibited, shall be deemed void, notwithstanding any words soever which shall be inserted in such policy; and nothing shall be recovered by the assured from the insurer for loss or damage, or for the premium given as the consideration for insuring such wool, &c. id. s. 48.

145. The master or commander, or any other commissioned or deputed officer of any of H. M.'s ships or sloops, in any port, creek, or road, or in the open seas, within the limits of the station assigned to such ships, may enter, or cause to be entered and searched, any ship, vessel, or boat, and if upon search any sheep, wool, or other articles prohibited from being exported shall be found therein, and the master shall not immediately produce to the commander a coquet licensing such articles to be carried coastwise, &c. such commander shall seize such ship, &c. and carry the same, together with the crew and cargo, into some port in G. B., and there deliver the same into the custody of the collector and comptroller, id. s. 49.

146. All wool, and other articles prohibited from being exported, found on board any ship, vessel or boat, contrary to this act, and which shall have been seized by any of H. M.'s ships or sloops, shall be lodged in H. M.'s warehouse in such port where the same shall be seized or brought, until condemned, and being condemned, such wool, &c. shall be exposed publicly to sale, after 60 days public notice being given in writing at the custom-house of the port, and on the Royal Exchange of London, by inch of candle, to the last and best bidder; and all ships, &c. so seized, and hereby forfeited, and which shall be condemned, shall, together with all their guns, &c. be exposed to sale in like manner, and the produce of the wool, ships, &c. so sold, after deducting the expences of prosecution and condemnation, shall be divided, one-third to the commander, one-third to the officers of the ship that took the same, and the remaining third to the mariners belonging to such ships, to be equally divided amongst the mariners, by the collectors of the port, or such person as shall be authorized to pay the same; and if such seizure shall be made upon the information of any person not a mariner on board such ship so appointed to cruise, such informer shall not only be indemnified from the pains, &c. to which exporters, their aiders and abettors are liable, but shall also receive one-third part of the produce of such sale, after deducting the expences, and the residue thereof shall be divided as before directed, id. s. 50.

147. Every commander of such ship or sloop neglecting his duty, shall lose all pay due, and suffer 6 months imprisonment, and be forever incapable of serving H. M. in the navy, customs, excise, or salt duties; and any person giving information against such commander, shall, on conviction of such offender, be entitled to 40*l.*, to be paid to such informer immediately after conviction, by the commissioners of customs, excise, or salt duties, or other revenue as after-mentioned, with respect to forfeitures incurred by persons unable to pay, id. s. 51.

148. No person, except an officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, who shall suspect that any sheep, wool, or articles hereby prohibited, are carrying contrary to this act, may examine or seize such sheep, &c. other than in company with a constable, or officer of the peace, who are, on application made to them, immediately to attend the person applying for such assistance, id. s. 52.

149. If any constable or officer of the peace, or if any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, upon application to him, shall neglect or refuse to attend any person, or shall neglect his duty in the premises, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, one moiety, after deducting the charges of recovering, to the person suing, and the other moiety to the poor of the parish where the offence has been committed; provided nothing in this act shall take away the power hereby given to the commanders and officers of ships of war, to seize any ship, &c. the master whereof shall not produce such coquet as aforesaid, id. s. 53.

150. Every person who, by deputation, commission, or other instrument, under the hands and seals of the commissioners of customs, excise, or salt duties, shall be appointed to act as an officer under them for putting this act in execution, shall be esteemed an officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, id. s. 54.

151. If any officer of revenue, or other person, &c. shall make any collusive seizure, information, or agreement soever, whereby the owner, his agent or servants, or any offender against this act, may avoid the forfeitures, &c. he shall, upon conviction, be subject to the like penalties as are incurred by exporters of wool; and such information and seizure, and all proceedings thereupon, shall be for the benefit only of the person (not an accomplice) who shall first discover such collusive information and seizure; provided any person concerned in such collusive seizure or agreement, who shall first discover such offence to the commissioners, shall be discharged thereof, provided he makes such discovery within 3 months after offence committed, and so as one or more of his accomplices be convicted thereof; and if such person first making such discovery, be not an officer of revenue, or owner of the goods, he shall, as a farther encouragement, have 40*l.*, the same to be paid by the commissioners of customs on the conviction of such offender, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 55.

152. If any person putting this act in execution, shall be opposed, wounded, or beaten, in seizing or attempting to seize any sheep, or any other goods before enumerated, by any person, either in the day or night, by land or water, which were intended to be exported, or which were carrying on board any vessel, the person who shall so oppose, &c. and all other persons whatsoever, being armed with offensive weapons, or wearing any disguise, who shall rescue, or attempt to rescue any sheep, &c. seized, such person being convicted of any of the said offences shall, by order of the court, be transported for not exceeding 7 years; and if such offender shall return into G. B. before the expiration of the time for which he shall be transported, he shall suffer as felons without benefit of clergy, id. s. 56.

153. If any person shall offer or promise to give any bribe, or reward soever, to any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, or to any person soever, to permit the exportation or concealment of any sheep, &c. prohibited from being exported, or the removing thereof, contrary to this act, or to conceal or connive at any other act whereby any of the provisions hereby made may be evaded, such offender shall (whether the offer be accepted or not) forfeit 300*l.*, to be recovered and applied to the use of him who shall inform, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 57.

154. Every officer of excise, customs, or salt duties, neglecting the duty by this act required, or compounding for any ship, sheep, wool, or articles before mentioned, and by this act forfeited, shall be deemed aiders in the exportation, and suffer the punishment against exporters thereof, id. s. 58.

155. All bonds in pursuance of this act shall not be chargeable with any of the duties upon stamped vellum, &c. id. s. 59.

156. In all questions, prosecutions, suits, and informations, it shall not be necessary for the prosecutor, upon any hearing or trial, to prove that such sheep were of the breed, or such wool of the growth of this kingdom; but without such proof, upon such hearing and trial, it shall be deemed, that such sheep were of the breed, and such wool of the growth of this kingdom, unless the contrary shall be proved by the defendant, id. s. 60.

157. All actions, suits, prosecutions, and informations, to be commenced upon this, or 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. [now REP. 54 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 178.] for any offence done against this or the said act, or for any penalty, may be prosecuted (except where in this act otherwise directed) in any court of record at Westminster, or in the exchequer in Scot., or in any court of oyer and terminer, great session, or gaol delivery, or at the quarter sessions of the peace, or before 2 justices of the peace, in a summary way, at the election of the seizer or informer, id. s. 61.

158. No prosecution or information shall be proceeded upon, before 2 justices in a summary way, where the seizure, penalty, or forfeiture then claimed, shall exceed in the whole 200*l.*, id. s. 62.

159. The said quarter sessions, and also such 2 justices, shall direct all such ships, vessels, goods, carriages, and cattle, as shall be by them declared to be forfeited, and which shall have been seized by this or the said act, to be publicly sold to the highest bidder, at such time and place as they think proper; and also, by their order or warrant, shall levy all penalties incurred by any offender against this or the said act, and also all costs awarded upon any appeal touching the same, by distress and sale of the goods of such offender, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner, after deducting the charges of distress and sale, id. s. 63.

160. One clear moiety of the seizures, penalties, and forfeitures (except the penalties of the bonds, and except as by this act otherwise directed), shall, when recovered, be paid to such person who shall give such information to any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, and after deducting the expences of recovering such penalties, the remainder of the other moiety shall be paid to the officer assisting in making such seizures; but in case any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties shall make any of the seizures before directed, without information, then, after deducting the expences of recovery, the remainder of such produce shall be paid to the officer seizing, id. s. 64.

161. Any officer of customs, excise, or salt duties, constables, and other officers of the peace, and all persons acting in their assistance, may detain all persons found actually exporting, or attempting to export, any sheep, wool, or other enumerated articles, or who shall be aiding in the exporting, or attempting to export the same, and them may carry before one or more justices near, who shall, if he or they see cause, commit the person brought to the county gaol till the next general quarter sessions, there to be tried and dealt with as by this act is directed; which sessions shall examine, hear, try, and determine all such offences, and, upon conviction of the offenders, punish them, in manner before in s. 63. pl. 159. mentioned, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 65.

162. The persons who shall convey any offender arrested by the authority of this act before any justice, shall, in case such offender shall be committed to prison, enter into recognizance to H. M., before such justice, in 40*l.*, conditioned to appear at such general quarter sessions, and to prosecute the person committed, id. s. 66.

163. If it appear to the satisfaction of the justices before whom any offender shall be convicted of any of the offences before mentioned, for which only a pecuniary penalty is imposed, either by the confession of the party convicted, or by the testimony of a witness, that such offender hath not goods sufficient to answer to penalty, then without giving any warrant for the purpose, or if such penalty cannot be wholly levied by the warrant issued, the justices who have convicted such offender, or any other 2 justices of the same county, upon proof thereof, may commit such offender to the common gaol for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 67.

164. If any offender ordered to be committed to prison under this act, for any offence for which a pecuniary penalty alone is imposed, shall, before commitment to prison, procure security to be given by 2 sureties, to the satisfaction of the justices, for payment of the penalty, with charges, within 14 days, exclusive of the day of conviction, then such justices may accept such security, and upon non-payment thereof at the time stipulated, the same justices, or any other 2 justices for the same county may cause the party convicted, and his sureties, to be apprehended by warrant under their hands and seals, and every of them may commit to the common gaol for such time as the party convicted was subject to have been imprisoned, in case no security had been given, id. s. 68.

165. Any person aggrieved by the judgment of such justices may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, giving, within 14 days after such conviction, notice in writing to the informer of such appeal, and at the time of making such appeal, with 2 sufficient sureties, entering into recognizances before the same justices, to appear and prosecute such appeal at the said sessions, and abide by the order of the same court, and to pay the costs thereby awarded against such persons; and such appeal shall, by the said sessions, be examined, and the case fully inquired into, and the matter heard and determined; and in case such judgment so appealed against is affirmed, the party appealing shall pay to the informer double costs, id. s. 69.

166. In case the person appealing shall pay the penalty under such conviction into the hands of the justices by way of deposit, or shall be committed to prison, such person may appeal to the general quarter sessions, on entering (without sureties) into such recognizances, and remaining in prison in the mean time, or depositing such penalty in the hands of the justices, there to remain till the appeal is determined, id. s. 70.

167. Every information shall be made on oath; and the justices before whom any complaint or information is made may summon before them, at the instance of either party, any witness to appear before them, at the time and place specified in the summons; and the person summoned shall appear, and submit to be examined, id. s. 71.

168. In any case any person shall take any greater fees for any sufferance, licence, or certificate, or other matter, than the fee herein limited, the offender shall forfeit to the party aggrieved 5*s.* for every 1*d.* taken over the fee allowed, id. s. 72.

169. In case any person shall be prosecuted in any court of record at Westminster, for any penalty incurred, a capias may issue on the first process, specifying the penalty sued for, and the person sued shall be obliged to give good bail, &c., id. s. 73.

170. Actions and informations shall be tried in any court of record, by a jury of freeholders, to be summoned out of any other county than that wherein the facts shall be committed, id. s. 74.

171. If any person is in prison for want of sufficient bail for any of the penalties, and refuses to appear or plead to a declaration or information to be delivered to such person, or to the gaoler at the said prison, for the space of one term, judgment shall be entered against him by default, id. s. 75.

172. If any person shall be convicted for any of the offences specified in this act, and there happens to have been no seizure whereby the informer or prosecutor can be rewarded, then the commissioners of customs, excise, or salt duties, or other revenue, may cause 1*s.* per lb. weight for all such of the articles for which such offender shall be convicted, or 40*l.*, in case the quantity cannot be known, to be paid by the receiver-general, out of any public money in his hands; and the money paid by any officer shall be allowed in his account as so much money paid to H. M., and such officer shall be discharged thereof, 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 76.

173. No person shall be liable to be prosecuted for any offence, unless such prosecution shall be commenced within 5 years, id. s. 77.

174. To encourage persons to discover the exporters of sheep, &c., prohibited from being exported, the first 3 persons who have been aiding in exporting of sheep, &c. who shall give information thereof to any justice within this kingdom, whereby the punishment and penalties appointed by this act may be inflicted and recovered, the party so discovering (not being owner or part owner of the said sheep, &c.) shall not suffer any of the penalties or punishments; provided, if any owner of any vessel, or any master or mariner, or person aiding in loading any vessel, or boat, knowing of such exportation, shall, within 3 months after the knowledge thereof, or after his return into G. B., give the first information thereof before any of the barons of the exchequer, or before the head officer of any port where he shall first arrive, or before any justice of the peace, upon his oath, of the number and quantity of the articles so transported, and by whom, where, and in what ship, and shall enter into recognizance to H. M., with 2 sureties before any justice, in 40*l.* each, personally to appear and give evidence of the same; then such owner, master, and mariners, or other person so aiding therein, shall not be liable to any of the penalties, but shall be enabled to recover such benefit as is appointed to be allowed by this act on conviction of such offender, id. s. 78. [See ss. 85, 86. ante, pl. 6, 7.; ss. 79—84. pl. 25—31.]

175. No prosecution for any offences, and penalties now due remitted, id. ss. 87, 88. [Exceptions, id. s. 90. EXP.]

176. If any person who shall claim the benefit of this act, shall, after such claim, bring any action, &c. against any officer of the navy, customs, excise, or salt, or other person who has aided such officer, for any act done by them, by reason of any of the offences discharged by this act, such claim shall be deemed to be an absolute release to such officer, from all actions, &c. and such officer may plead the general issue, and recover costs against the persons bringing such action, id. s. 89.

177. In case any action, suit, or information is commenced on account of the seizure of any ship, vessel, or boat, waggon, cart, carriage, horse, or other beast of burden, or of any sheep, &c. as illegally carried or exported, or intended to be exported, or for any matter done by virtue of this act, such action shall be commenced within 6 months, and shall be laid in the proper county; and the person sued may plead the general issue; and if the jury find for the defendant, &c. he shall recover treble costs; and in case any information is commenced and brought to trial on account of any seizure, wherein a verdict shall be found for the claimer thereof, and it appears to the judge or court, that there was a probable cause of seizure, the judge or court shall certify on the record that there was a probable cause for seizure; in such case the defendant shall not be entitled to costs, nor shall the seizer be liable to any action, indictment, or prosecution, on account thereof; and in case any action, indictment, or other prosecution is commenced and brought to trial against any person, wherein a verdict shall be given against the defendant, if the court or judge shall certify on the record that there was a probable cause for seizure, then the plaintiff, besides the ship or goods seized, or the value thereof, shall not be entitled to above 2*d.* damages, nor to any costs, nor shall the defendant in such prosecution be fined above 1*s.* id. s. 91.

178. So MUCH OF 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. (viz. comm. semb. ss. 3—5.) which remained unrepealed by 28 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. (see that act, s. 20. pl. 119.) and so much of 28 G. 3. c. 38. as requires that notice shall be given, or entry made by the owner or owners of wool shorn, or housed, or laid up, or lodged, within 10 miles of the sea side, or as requires any certificate of any wool, or number of fleeces shorn or housed, or removed or disposed of, or as requires notice or bond to be given, or entry made, or any permit to be taken out, or licensed certificate, or other instrument, before the removal of any wool, or as requires any certificate to be taken from any officer; or as prohibits any persons residing near the sea from selling or buying wool, without having entered into bond, or as subjects to forfeiture wool carried towards the sea side, unless it has been entered, or as subjects wool first found within 10 miles of the sea to forfeiture, if afterwards lodged within 15 miles of the sea, or as subjects any wool, or horses, or carriages carrying the same, between sun-set and sun-rise, to any forfeiture, is repealed, 54 G. 3. c. 78.

Exceptions to the Prohibition of Export of the above Articles.

179. Any 3 commissioners of customs in Eng. may grant their licence to remain in force one month from the date, for exportation from any one port of G. B., into the port of Douglas, or Ramsey, in the Isle of Man, but to no other, any number of live sheep, not exceeding 100, in the whole in any one year, which sheep shall be exported accordingly under the like regulations and forfeitures, so far as they are applicable, as the export of wool, is by 28 G.3. c.58., allowed to the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, 38 G.3. c.63. s.9. [Like power for exportation from Whitehaven, Liverpool or Bristol, by licence to be in force 3 months, of not exceeding 100 sheep to the same ports of the Isle of Man, given 45 G.3. c.99. s.8. And also for exportation from Liverpool or Whitehaven, by licence to be in force for one month, of 500 sheep to the same ports of the Isle of Man, 51 G.3. c.50. NOTE. For the regulations of export of wool, from Eng., or Scot., to Ire.; viz. the giving bond for its due export; licence from board of customs, &c. see 48 G.3. c.44. The export of 5000 lbs. weight of worsted, or woollen yarn, from the port of London, annually to Lower Canada, was allowed to H. M. by advice of his privy council by 47 G.3. S.1. c.9.; and was EXT. to 20,000 lbs. by 52 G.3. c.55. So fullers earth, fulling and tobacco pipe clays, may be exported to any place in possession of H. M., so long as it is allowed to be exported to the sugar plantations, under 17 G.3. c.43. s.4. See 28 G.3. c.58. s.10. 47 G.3. S.1. c.49. pl.110.]

180. All the provisions of 28 G.3. c.58. [viz. those contained in ss.39. 41. and 45.] as to carrying coastwise the last above mentioned articles, are REP., and the same when so carried are now subject to all the regulations imposed by 32 G.3. c.50. on goods prohibited to be exported from G. B., 57 G.3. c.88. ss.1, 2.

181. To ENABLE WOOLCOMBERS TO EXERCISE TRADES in any town or place in G. B., 55 G.3. c.124.

182. Woolcombers and their wives and children, may set up that or any other trade, in any town, or place, in this kingdom, and shall not be removeable to their last places of settlement, till chargeable to their new place of residence, &c. id. s.1. [The same regulations are here provided in favour of woolcombers, as those enacted for woollen manufacturers in general, by 49 G.3. c.109. ss.5—8. pl.185.]

183. To REPEAL (ss.1—2.) AND AMEND SEVERAL ACTS respecting the woollen manufacture, and for allowing persons employed in any branch thereof, to set up trade in any part of G. B., 49 G.3. c.109. [For the repeals by ss.1—2. see this tit. STATUTES Rep. & Exp.]

184. Nothing herein shall avoid contracts of apprenticeship, in any part of the woollen manufacture; but no such apprenticeship is requisite in order to exercise the trade as a master or journeyman, id. s.3. But this act shall revive no act repealed by any act herein repealed, id. s.4.

185. Persons who have served an apprenticeship to any branch of the woollen manufacture, or who by law are entitled to exercise the same, and their wives, and families, may set up and exercise that or any other trade, in any town, or place in G. B., nor shall be removeable from thence to their last settlement, till they become actually chargeable to such place, and if impleaded in any court soever for using any of the said trades, then, on proving their legal apprenticeship, or that they are wives or children of persons entitled as above, they shall on the general issue be found "not guilty," with double costs to be paid them by the plaintiff, or prosecutor, if the verdict is against him, or if he discontinues or is nonsuit, id. s.5.

186. Such persons may be summoned and sworn by any 2 or more justices of the county, town, or place, where they, their wives, or families, may set up trade, as to the place of their last legal settlement, and an attested copy of such affidavit shall be given to them, and shall be evidence of their last settlement, at any general or quarter sessions, id. s.6.

187. Where such persons are summoned a second time, they need not swear again, but may leave a copy of such attested copy if required, id. s.7.

188. This act shall not prejudice the privileges of the universities of Oxford, or Cambridge, or give liberty to any person to set up as a vintner, &c. there, without leave of the chancellor, id. s.8. Nor shall extend to the city of London, or to alter the laws and customs of apprentices there, id. s.9.

WORKS, PUBLIC.

1. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF THE CONDUCT OF THE office of works, and the expenditure thereof, 54 G.3. c.157. [Sections 6—12. of 22 G.3. c.82. (see that act, KING, &c. pl.72.) are REP. by 54 G.3. c.157. s.1.]

2. H. M. may appoint a surveyor-general of H. M.'s works, and public buildings, out of whatever funds their expence is to be defrayed; who shall have 1500*l.* per ann. salary, and be disabled from sitting in parliament during the holding his said office, 54 G.3. c.157. s.2. [But see tit. KING.]

3. Any 3 or more commissioners of treasury, from time to time, may nominate and appoint a fit and proper person, being an architect by profession, to be assistant-surveyor and cashier in the said office, and also to nominate and appoint any number of persons, not exceeding 3, and being architects by profession, under the denomination of "architects attached to the office of works," who shall be subject to the orders and directions of the said surveyor-general, in preparing plans, estimates, working drawings, and reports, and also in making surveys, inspecting workmen, and superintending the execution of contracts, at all times, and at such of the royal palaces, or other public buildings, as the said surveyor may appoint, and grant to the said assistant surveyor and cashier such salary, and to the said attached architects such salary and commission, as to them the said commissioners of the treasury may seem proper, 54 G.3. c.157. s.3.

4. They may abolish any of the offices at present existing in the office of works, which appear to them inexpedient to continue, and may appoint such officers and clerks in the office of such surveyor-general, with such salaries as to them seem expedient, id. s.4. And in case they deem it expedient to abolish any offices at present existing in the office of works, they may make such provision by way of retired allowance for every person whose office may be so abolished, as they shall deem just and reasonable, till such person is otherwise provided for, id. s.5.

5. The assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the officers and clerks employed in the said office of works, (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall not be in any manner engaged in any business as architects or builders, other than under the provision of this act, and the orders of the said surveyor-general: nor shall they become contractors, either openly or secretly, for execution of any public buildings, or works of any description, carried on under control, or superintendence of the said surveyor-general; provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the attached architects in the office of works, or the clerks of the works, or labourers, in trust, or any of them, from carrying on their private business as architects, &c. id. s.6.

6. Neither the surveyor-general, nor the assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the attached architects, or any other of the officers and clerks employed in the said office of works, shall take, or receive any fee, perquisite, or gratification whatever, in respect of any business done in the said office, or connected therewith, other than the salaries, or commission to which they may be entitled under this act, or under authority of treasury, id. s.7.

7. If any of the said officers and clerks so employed, except the said attached architects and clerks of the works, and labourers in trusts,) shall be in any manner engaged in business as architects, or builders, other than under the provisions of this act, and the orders of the said surveyor-general, or if the said assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the officers and clerks employed in the said office of works, shall become contractors, either openly or covertly, for the execution of any public buildings, or works of any description, carried on under the control or superintendence of the said surveyor-general, or if the said surveyor-general, or the said assistant surveyor and cashier, or any of the said attached architects, or any other of the officers or clerks, so employed as above, shall take any fee, perquisite, or gratification, in respect of business done in the said office, or connected therewith, other than the salary or commission to which he may be entitled under this act, or the authority of the treasury, and such taking or receiving is proved to the satisfaction of the treasury, for the time being, every such person shall be deprived of his situation in the said office of works, id. s.8.

8. The treasury shall, as soon as conveniently may be after passing this act, prepare a full and complete code of instructions for the conduct of the whole business of the office of works, and for the regulation and control of its whole expenditure, in all its branches and departments, conformably to the true intent and meaning of 22 G.3. c.82. and shall transmit the same to the surveyor-general of the office, signed by any 3 or more commissioners of treasury, for the guidance of the said surveyor-general, and his assistant, and his attached architects, and of all the other officers and clerks employed in the said office, in the performance and exercise of their several and respective duties therein, and the said commissioners shall cause a copy of the said code of instructions to be laid before parliament, within 21 days after their signature thereof, if parliament be then sitting, but if not, then within 21 days after its next meeting; and the treasury may from time to time alter, vary, and change such code of instructions, or issue any additional instructions, for the conduct of the business of the office of works, and the regulation of the expenditure thereof, in such manner as the good of H. M.'s service may, from time to time, appear to them to require, always laying before parliament, as above directed, with regard to the original code, a copy of such new instructions, id. s.9.

WRECK.

1. WHAT SHALL BE ADJUDGED WRECK OF THE SEA, AND WHAT not, 3 E.1. (West. Prim.) c.4.

2. Where a man, a dog, or a cat, escape quick out of the ship, such ships, or any thing within them, shall not be adjudged wreck; but the goods shall be saved and kept by view of the sheriff, coroner, or H. M.'s bailiff, and delivered into the hands of such as are of the town; so that if any sue for those goods, and after prove that they were his, or perished in his keeping, within a year and a day, they shall be restored; and if not, they shall remain to H. M., and be seized by the sheriffs, coroners, and bailiffs, and delivered to them of the town, to answer before the justices of the wreck belonging to H. M.; and where wreck belongeth to another, he shall have it in like manner; and he that otherwise doth, and is thereof attainted, shall be awarded to prison, and make fine at H. M.'s will, and shall yield damages also; and if a bailiff do it, and be disallowed by his lord, and the lord will pretend any title thereto, the bailiff shall answer, if he have whereof; and if he have not, the lord shall deliver his bailiff's body to H. M., 3 Ed. (West. Prim.) c. 4.

3. CONCERNING WRECK OF THE SEA, WHERESOEVER IT IS FOUND, if any lay hands on it, he shall be attached by sufficient pledges, and the price of the wreck valued, and delivered to the towns, 4 Ed. 1. S. 2. [See rest of this statute, CORONER, pl. 3—12.]

4. FOR PRESERVING ALL SUCH SHIPS AND GOODS THEREOF, which shall happen to be forced on shore or stranded on the coasts of this kingdom, or any other of H. M.'s dominions, 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. (PUBLIC clause, id. s. 6.) [MADE PERP. 4 G. 1. c. 12. s. 1. AMD., id. s. 2.]

5. The sheriffs, justices of peace of every county or county of a city or town, and all mayors, bailiffs, and other head officers of corporations and port towns near the sea, and all constables, headboroughs, and officers of the customs therein, shall, on application made to them on behalf of any commander of a ship, being in danger of being stranded, or being stranded, command the constables of the ports nearest the coasts where such ship shall be in danger, to summon as many men as shall be thought necessary, to the assistance, and for preservation of such ship and cargo; and if there shall be any ship belonging to H. M., or her subjects, riding near the place, the officers of the customs, and constables, are required to demand of the superior officers of such ship, assistance by their boats, and such hands as they can conveniently spare for the same purpose; and in case such superior officer of such ship neglect to give such assistance, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered by the superior officer of the ship in distress, with costs, by action of debt or information in any of H. M.'s courts of record, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 1.

6. The collectors of the customs, and the commanding officer of any ships, and all others who shall act in the preserving of any such ship in distress, or her cargo, shall, within 30 days, be paid a reasonable reward by the commander or owners of such ship in distress, or by the merchant whose ship or goods shall be saved; and in default thereof, the ship or goods shall remain in the custody of such officer of the customs, or his deputy, until such charges be paid, and until the said officer of the customs, and the master or other officer of the ship, and all others so employed, shall be reasonably gratified, or security given for that purpose, to the satisfaction of the parties. And in case after such salvage, the commander, mariners, or owners of such ship so saved, or merchant whose goods shall be saved, shall disagree with the officer of the customs, or his deputy, touching the monies deserved by any of the persons employed, the commander of such ship so saved, or the owner of the goods, or the merchant interested, and also the officer of the customs, may nominate 3 of the neighbouring justices of peace, who shall adjust the quantum of gratuities to be paid to the several persons, and such adjustments shall be binding on all parties, and shall be recoverable in an action at law in any of H. M.'s courts of record; and in case no person appears to make claim to the goods saved, the chief officer of the customs of the nearest port shall apply to 3 of the nearest justices of peace, who shall put him or some other responsible person in possession of the goods, such justices taking an account of the goods, to be signed by the officer of the customs; and if the goods shall not be claimed within 12 months, public sale shall be made thereof, (and if perishable goods, forthwith to be sold) and after charges deducted, the residue of the monies, with an account of the whole, shall be transmitted to H. M.'s exchequer, there to remain for the benefit of the owner, who upon affidavit or other proof of his property, to the satisfaction of one of the barons, shall, upon his order receive the same, id. s. 2. [Goods saved from stranded ships; after paying salvage and charges, are liable to customs, 5 G. 1. c. 11. s. 13. For proceedings where salvage under this act is not paid or secured, see 26 G. 2. c. 19. s. 7.; regulations extended, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 21., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 19. pl. 65., and see 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 32. pl. 84.]

7. If any person besides those empowered by the officer of the customs, and the constables, shall enter or endeavour to enter on board any such ship in distress, without the leave of the commander, or of the officer of the customs, or constable, or in case any person shall molest them in the saving of the ship or goods, or shall endeavour to hinder the saving of such ship or goods, or shall deface the marks of any such goods, before the same be taken down in a book, by the commander and the first officer of the customs, such person shall, within 20 days, make double satisfaction, at discretion of the 2 next justices of peace, or in default thereof, shall by them be sent to the next house of correction, where he shall be employed in hard labour for 12 months; and any commander or superior officer of the ship in distress, or the officer of the customs, or constables on board the ship, may repel by force any such persons as shall, without consent as aforesaid, press on board the said ship in distress, and thereby molest them in the preservation of the ship, 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 3.

8. In case any goods shall be found upon any person, that were stolen or carried off from any such ship in distress, he, on whom such goods shall be found, shall, on demand, deliver the same to the owner, or to such person authorized by the owner to receive the same, or shall be liable to pay treble the value, to be recovered by such owner in an action, 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 4.

9. Every person who shall make or be assisting in the making a hole in any ship so in distress, or steal any pump, or shall be aiding in the stealing such pump, or shall wilfully do any thing tending to the immediate loss of such ship, shall be guilty of felony without clergy, id. s. 5.

10. If any action be prosecuted for any thing done in pursuance of this act, all persons so sued may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if plaintiff in such suit is nonsuit, or discontinues, or has a verdict or judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall recover full costs, id. s. 6.

11. If any officer of the customs shall, by fraud or wilful neglect, abuse the trust hereby reposed in him, and is convicted thereof, he shall forfeit treble damages to the party grieved, to be recovered in any court of record, and shall be incapable of the same or any other employment relating to the customs, id. s. 7.

12. This act shall be read four times in the year in all churches and chapels of every seaport town, and upon the sea coast, upon the Sundays next before Michaelmas-day, Christmas-day, Lady-day, and Midsummer-day, in the morning, after prayers, and before sermon, id. s. 8.

13. This act shall not prejudice H. M., or any grantee of the crown, or any lord of a manor, or other person, in relation to any right to wreck, or goods that are flotsam, jetsam, or lagan, id. s. 9.

14. The statute 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. shall not affect the ancient jurisdiction of the admiralty, or Cinque Ports, but shall be put in execution within the jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, by the proper officers of the admiralty court, 4 G. 1. c. 12. s. 2.

15. FOR MORE EQUAL PAYING, AND BETTER COLLECTING CERTAIN small sums for relief of shipwrecked mariners and distressed persons, H. M.'s subjects in the [kingdom of Portugal, 8 G. 1. c. 17.] [or in the ports of Cadiz, and Port St. Mary's, in the kingdom of Spain, 9 G. 2. c. 25.] and for other uses usually contributed to by the merchants trading to [Portugal, 8 G. 1. c. 17.] [and to those ports in Spain, 9 G. 2. c. 25.] 8 G. 1. c. 17. and 9 G. 2. c. 25. [See note to next pl.]

16. FOR COLLECTING AT THE PORT OF Leghorn, certain small sums of money, to which the merchants trading there have usually contributed for relief of shipwrecked mariners, captures, and other distressed persons, H. M.'s subjects, and for other charitable and public uses, 10 G. 2. c. 14. [The titles of the three last statutes seem sufficient in this place.]

17. FOR ENFORCING THE LAWS AGAINST PERSONS WHO SHALL steal or detain shipwrecked goods, and for relief of persons suffering losses thereby, 26 G. 2. c. 19.

18. Every person who shall plunder, steal, take away, or destroy any goods or effects from or belonging to any ship or vessel of H. M.'s subjects, or others, being in distress, wrecked, lost, stranded, or cast on shore, in any of his dominions (whether any living creature be on board such vessel or not) or any of the furniture, tackle, apparel, provision, or part of such vessel, or beat or wound with intent to kill, or otherwise wilfully obstruct the escape of any person endeavouring to save his life from such ship, or the wreck thereof, or put out any false light with intention to bring any ship into danger, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and being convicted, shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 1.

19. When goods or effects of small value are stranded, lost, or cast on shore, and are stolen without circumstances of cruelty or violence, any person may prosecute for such offence, by way of indictment for petit larceny, and the offenders being convicted shall suffer as in cases of petit larceny, id. s. 2.

20. Any justice of peace, on information on oath, of any part of the cargo or effects belonging to any ship lost or stranded upon or near the coast aforesaid, being unlawfully carried away or concealed in any house or place, or of some reasonable suspicion thereof, may issue his warrant for searching such house or place, as in other cases of stolen goods, and if the same are found therein, or in the custody of any person not legally authorized or entitled to keep the same, and the owner or occupier of such house or place, or the person in whose custody the same are found, shall not, on demand, deliver the same to the owner, or to the person authorized to demand the same, or shall not give a good account to the satisfaction of the justice how he became possessed thereof, such justice upon proof of such refusal, shall commit the offender to the common gaol for 6 months, or till he has paid treble the value of the goods so unlawfully detained, to such owner, or to the person authorized to receive the same, id. s. 3.

21. Every person who shall offer to sale any goods or effects belonging to any vessel lost, stranded, or cast on shore, and unlawfully taken away, or suspected so to have been; the person to whom the same are so offered for sale, or any officer of the customs or excise, or any constable, or other peace officer, shall stop and seize the said goods and effects, and shall carry the same, or give notice of such seizure to some justice of peace; and if the person who offered the said goods to sale, or some other person on his behalf, shall not appear before the said justice within 10 days next after such seizure, and make out to his satisfaction, that the property of the said goods is in him or in the person by whom he was employed to sell the same, the said goods shall, by order of the justice, be forthwith delivered over to or for the use of the rightful owner, upon payment of a reasonable reward for such seizure (to be ascertained by the justice) to the seizer, and such justice shall commit the person who so offered the said goods to sale, to the common gaol for 6 months, or till he have paid such lawful owner, or to the person authorized to receive the same, treble the value of the goods so unlawfully offered to sale as above, 26 G. 2. c. 19. s. 4.

22. In case any person not employed by the master, mariners, or owners or other persons lawfully authorized in the salvage of any vessel, or her cargo or provision, in the absence of persons so employed or authorized, shall save any such ship or effects, and cause them to be carried for the benefit of the owners into port, or to any near adjoining custom-house, or other place of safe custody, giving notice thereof to some justice of peace, magistrate or custom-house or excise officer, or shall discover to any such magistrate or officer where any such effects are wrongfully bought, sold, or concealed, such person shall be entitled to a reasonable reward, to be paid by the masters or owners of such vessels or goods, and to be adjusted, in case of disagreement, in like manner as the salvage is to be adjusted and paid by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6., or in the manner hereinafter prescribed, id. s. 5.

23. The justice of peace, mayor, bailiff, collector of the customs, or chief constable nearest to the place where any ship or goods shall be stranded or cast away, shall forthwith give public notice for a meeting to be held of the sheriff or his deputy, the justices of peace, mayors, or other chief magistrates of towns corporate, coroners, and commissioners of the land-tax, or any 5 or more of them, who shall give aid in the execution of this act, and of 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and employ proper persons for saving ships in distress, and such ships and effects as are stranded or cast away, and also examine persons upon oath concerning the same, or the salvage thereof, and adjust the quantum of such salvage, and distribute the same among the persons concerned therein, in case of disagreement; and every such sheriff, justice of peace, mayor, chief magistrate, coroner, lord of a manor, under-sheriff, or commissioner of land-tax, acting at such meeting, shall be paid 4s. per day for his expences out of the effects saved, by their care or direction, id. s. 6.

24. If the charges and rewards for salvage directed to be paid by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and by this act, be not paid, or sufficient security given for the same within 40 days, the officer of the customs concerned in such salvage, may borrow money sufficient to pay such charges and rewards, or any part thereof then unpaid, or not secured as above, by or upon one or more bills of sale, under his hand and seal, of the ship or cargo saved, or such part thereof as is sufficient, redeemable upon payment of the principal sum so borrowed, and interest after the rate of 4 per cent. per ann., id. s. 7.

25—27. If oath be made before any magistrate lawfully empowered to take the same of any such plunder or theft, and the examination in writing thereupon taken is delivered to the clerk of the peace of the county or division wherein such fact is committed, or to his deputy, or if oath be made before any such magistrate, of the breaking any ship contrary to 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 3. pl. 7.; and the examination in writing thereupon taken is delivered to such clerk of the peace or his deputy, then such clerk of the peace shall cause the offender to be prosecuted for the same, either in the county where the fact is committed, or in any county next adjoining, in which adjoining county any indictment may be laid by any other prosecutor; and if the fact is committed in Wa., then the prosecution shall be carried on in the next adjoining English county, and the necessary charges of such prosecutions by the clerk of the peace shall be paid by the treasurer of the county or division where the fact is committed, to such amount as the justices of peace in their sessions shall order; and if such clerk of the peace neglects to carry on such prosecution, he shall forfeit 100*l.* for every such offence to any person who shall sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, in which no essoins, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 8.

28. The commissioners of the land-tax, the deputy sheriff, the coroner, and the officers of excise in each county, riding, and division, shall be proper officers for putting in execution this act and the 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. with those in that act, s. 1. pl. 5. named for that purpose, id. s. 9.

29. The lord warden and deputy-warden of the cinque ports, and the lieutenant of Dover Castle, and the judge official, and commissary of the court of admiralty of the cinque ports, 2 ancient towns, and the members thereof, and every of them, and every other person appointed by the lord warden pursuant to 3 G. 1. c. 13. s. 6. [now REP. see PILOTAGE, STATS. Rep., &c. pl. 1.] shall be the persons to put in execution, within the jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, 2 ancient towns and their members, all the powers by this act, and by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and 4 G. 1. c. 12. given, 26 G. 2. c. 19. s. 10.

30. If any sheriff or his deputy, justice of peace, mayor, or other magistrate, lord of a manor, commissioner of land-tax, chief or petty constable, or other peace officer, or any custom-house or excise officer, or other person lawfully authorized, be assaulted, beaten, and wounded, for the exercise of his duty, in the salvage of any ship in distress, or of any ship or goods stranded, wrecked, or cast on shore, or lying under water, in any of H. M.'s dominions, any person so assaulting, beating, and wounding, shall, on conviction, by indictment at the assizes, or general gaol delivery, or at the general or quarter sessions for the county or division where such offence is committed, be transported for 7 years to some of H. M.'s colonies in America, and be subject to such punishment in case of return before that time, as other persons under sentence of transportation, id. s. 11.

31. Any justice of peace, in case of need, and in absence of the high sheriff, may take sufficient power of the county, to repress all unjust violence, and enforce the execution of this act, id. s. 12.

32. All persons so assembled, to save any ship or goods, shall conform in the first place to the orders of the master, or other officers or owners, or other persons employed by them; and for want of their presence or directions, to the orders of the persons authorized by this act, or by the 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 1. pl. 5. in the following subordination, as any of them happen to be present, viz. in the first place, to the orders of any officer of customs, then of any officer of excise, then of the sheriff or his deputy, then of any justice of peace, then of the mayor or chief magistrate of any corporation, then of the coroner, then of any commissioners of the land-tax, then of any chief constable, then of any petty constable, or other peace officers; and any person acting wilfully contrary to such orders, shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*, to be levied by warrant of one justice; and in case of non-payment, shall be committed to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 13.

33. This act shall not prejudice H. M. or any grantee of the crown, or any lord of manor, or other person, in any right to any wreck, or goods which are flotsam, jetsam, or lagan, id. s. 14.

34. The officer of the customs who acts in preserving any ship in distress, or the cargo, shall, as soon as may be, cause all persons belonging to, and others who can give any account of the ship or cargo, to be examined on oath before some justice, as to the name or description of the ship, and the names of the master or chief officer and owners thereof, and of the cargo, and of the ports from or to which she was bound, and the occasion of her distress; which examination such justice shall take in writing, and shall deliver a copy thereof, together with a copy of the account of the goods, to the said officer of customs; who shall forthwith transmit the same to the secretary of the admiralty; who shall publish in the next London Gazette so much thereof as is necessary for the information of persons interested, id. s. 15.

35. The 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. and the 4 G. 1. c. 12. pl. 4. shall remain in force, save only so far as altered by this act, id. s. 16.

36. Nothing in this act extends to Scot., id. s. 18.

37. FOR CHARGING FOREIGN LIQUORS AND TOBACCO DERELICT jetsam, flotsam, lagan, or wreck brought or coming into G. B. with the duties payable on importation of the same, 52 G. 3. c. 159.

38. All liquors and tobacco derelict jetsam, flotsam, lagan, or wreck brought or coming into this kingdom, shall be liable to pay the same duties, and entitled to the same drawbacks and allowances to which liquors and tobacco of the like kind regularly imported are by any law in force liable or entitled, id. s. 1.

39. Every person bringing into this kingdom, or finding or discovering on the coasts thereof any foreign liquors or tobacco derelict jetsam, flotsam, lagan, or wreck, for which any customs or excise duty is imposed, shall, within 24 hours next after he has so brought, found, or discovered such liquors or tobacco, if the same are found on land, or within 24 hours next after the same have been landed, if found at sea, give notice thereof to the next custom-house or excise office, or to some neighbouring officer of customs or excise, specifying the place where such liquors are then deposited, and the proper officers shall thereupon forthwith take a particular account of the kinds and quantities of such liquors, &c.; and shall demand of the person in whose possession the same may be, or who have found or brought the same to land, the full customs or excise duties due in respect thereof; and if such duties are not on such demand paid by such persons, the said officers shall cause such liquors, &c. to be safely lodged in a warehouse to be kept therein under H. M.'s lock, till the duties are paid, or the liquors, &c. sold in manner hereinafter mentioned, id. s. 2.

40. Every person who shall bring into this kingdom, or find or discover on the coasts thereof, any such foreign liquors or tobacco derelict, &c. on which any customs or excise duty is by law imposed, and shall not give notice thereof as above, shall forfeit 100*l.* for every such offence, id. ibid.

41. Every person who shall remove, open, or alter in quantity or quality, or cause to be so removed, &c. or aid, or assist in removing, &c. any such liquors or tobacco, or break, sever, or destroy, or cause to be broken, &c. or assist in the breaking, &c. any of the cases or packages containing any such liquors or tobacco, before such liquors, &c. are by them deposited in a warehouse as aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit 100*l.*; and all such liquors, &c. so removed, opened, or altered in quantity or quality, together with the casks and other packages respectively containing the same, shall be forfeited, and the same respectively may be seized by any officer of customs or excise; provided always, that if the duties on such liquors, &c. are not paid within 18 months next after the said liquors, &c. are deposited in such warehouse, the commissioners of customs or excise shall sell and dispose of such liquors, &c. or any part thereof, for the satisfying the duties payable in respect of such liquors, &c. and also the expences of conveying such liquors, &c. to such warehouse, and of the keeping and sale of such liquors and tobacco, rendering the overplus (if any) of the monies arising by the said sale after payment of the said expences to the person by law entitled to the same; and if upon such liquors, &c. being put up to sale, no person shall offer or bid for the same as much or more money than the duties payable in respect thereof, together with the warehouse rent and expences taken together would amount to, then the said commissioners shall permit the person by law entitled to the same to dispose thereof for exportation, only subject to the usual regulations in such cases; or if such person or persons shall refuse so to do, then to sell and dispose of such liquors, &c. for exportation, or to destroy the same, as such commissioners may deem most expedient; but nothing hereinbefore contained shall prevent any such liquors, &c. as the said commissioners may deem necessary for that purpose, from being sold duty free for payment of the salvage expences incurred in respect thereof, id. s. 2.

42. The lord of the manor on which such liquors or tobacco are found having by law just claim thereto, or where no such lord exists, then the person bringing into this kingdom, or finding or discovering on the coasts thereof any such foreign liquors, &c. may retain the same in his own custody for a year and day, computed from such bringing, finding, or discovering thereof, on his entering into bond to H.M., his heirs, and successors, with 2 sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the proper officer of customs or excise, in treble the value of such liquors, &c. for due payment of the duties in respect thereof at the end of such year and day, or in default of such payment, shall restore such liquors, &c. at the end of such year and day to the proper officer of customs or excise, in the same state and condition as the same were in at the time of such bringing, finding, &c. thereof, id. s. 3.

43. Every person, who shall assault, oppose, molest, or hinder any such officer in the due execution of this act, or of any of the powers thereby given to any such officer, &c. shall forfeit 200*l.* for every offence, id. s. 4.

44. All penalties hereby imposed, and sued for, or prosecuted under order or permission of the commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot., or by any officer of customs, may be recovered and disposed of in such manner as any penalties incurred, or goods forfeited for any offence against the laws of customs may now be legally sued for, &c.; and the officer of the customs concerned in any such seizures or prosecutions shall receive such share of the produce arising from the said seizures as he is now by law entitled to upon prosecution of seizures for unlawful importation, and to such share of the produce arising from any such penalty or composition paid for any offence against this act, as they are now by any law or regulation entitled to upon prosecutions for pecuniary penalties, id. s. 5.

45. All penalties imposed and sued for by order of the commissioners of excise in Eng. or Scot. respectively, or by any officer of excise, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such means, as any penalty may be sued for, &c. by any law of excise, or by action of debt, &c. or information in any of H.M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or in exchequer in Scot. respectively, and one moiety of every such penalty shall be to H.M., and the other to him who shall inform, discover, or sue for the same, id. s. 6.

46. FOR PREVENTING FRAUDS AND DEPREDACTIONS COMMITTED ON merchants, ship owners, and underwriters by boatmen and others, [on the coasts, and in the harbours, bays, and rivers of Eng., Wa., and Ber., see s. 1.], AND ALSO FOR REMEDYING CERTAIN DEFECTS relative to the adjustment of Salvage in Eng., under 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6. 49 G. 3. c. 122. [which is CON. 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1. and AMD. 53 G. 5. c. 87. ss. 2—8., and both these acts incorporated in and AMD. by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. PUBLIC clauses, 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 33., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 39.]

47. All pilots, boatmen, hovellers, or other persons, taking up any anchors, cables, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, or materials, or any goods, or merchandize, which may have been parted with, cut from, or left by any ship or vessel within any harbours, rivers, or bays, or on any of the coasts of this kingdom, whether such vessel shall be or shall have been in distress or otherwise, and which have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of by any such boatman, &c. shall send a report in writing of the articles so found, and stating the marks, if any, thereon, and also an accurate and particular description of the bearings, distances, and situations, and time when and where the same were so found, to a deputy vice-admiral or his agent, at or near to the port or place where such boatman, &c. shall first arrive with such articles, within 48 hours after his arrival at such port or place, or before he shall leave the port, if he shall quit it before that time shall expire; and shall also, within such period as aforesaid, deliver such articles so found into a proper warehouse, or such other place as the vice-admiral of each county shall appoint for safe custody, until the same are claimed by the owner thereof, or his agent or agents, and the salvage, together with such other expences, as are herein-after directed to be paid in respect of such articles, paid by him, or security given for payment thereof, to the satisfaction of the salvor or salvors thereof; and every such pilot, &c. who shall wilfully and fraudulently keep possession of, or retain, or conceal, or secrete any anchors or cables, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, or materials, or any goods or merchandize, or deface, take out, or obliterate the marks and numbers thereon, or alter the same in any manner, with intent thereby directly or indirectly to prevent the discovery and identification of such articles so found, weighed, &c. and shall not report and deliver the same at some proper warehouse or other place in the manner aforesaid, and within the time herein-before limited, shall forfeit all claim to salvage, and shall, on conviction, be adjudged and deemed guilty of receiving goods, knowing them to have been stolen, and shall suffer like punishment as if the same had been stolen on shore, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 1., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 1.

48. Every deputy vice-admiral or his agent, to whom any such report shall be sent, shall, within 2 days, forward the same, or a true copy thereof, to the secretary of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond in London, and the same shall be placed by the said secretary in some conspicuous situation, for inspection of all persons choosing to inspect and examine the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 2. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 2.; Provided, that no report shall be forwarded by such deputy vice-admiral or his agent to the said corporation, till the articles so to be deposited, in respect of which a report is required to be made as herein-before directed, shall amount in value to 20*l.*, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 2., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 3.

49. Any deputy vice-admiral or his agent may seize and detain any such articles as have not been so reported; upon which seizure he shall deposit the same in the warehouse or other place to be appointed as in s. 1. pl. 47., and shall, within 2 days thereafter, send a report in writing of the articles as seized, and stating the marks (if any) thereon, to the Trinity-house, as directed to be made public in s. 2.; and if he shall not make such report as aforesaid within 2 days after such seizure as aforesaid, he shall, on conviction before any justice of peace or magistrate, on oath of one credible witness, or on confession of the offender, forfeit 20*l.* for every such neglect, together with double the value of the goods so seized, one half of which penalty shall be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township where such offence is committed; and every deputy vice-admiral or his agent, who shall make any such seizure, without previous information being given to him, shall, on the same articles being claimed by and delivered to the owner thereof, or his agent, be entitled to receive such sum of money as shall be equal to one-third of the value thereof, after payment of the duties, and any charges incidental to recovery and preservation of the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 3., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 4.

50. If the owner and deputy vice-admiral or agent so seizing cannot agree on the value of the articles, it shall be ascertained in like manner as in s. 37. pl. 84. directed, with regard to salvage, or shall be referred to decision of the high court of admiralty, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 4. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 5.

51. If such seizure is made in consequence of information given to them, the deputy vice-admiral or agent so seizing shall only receive from the owners or their agents of the articles 1-6th of the value thereof, and one other 1-6th shall be paid to the person giving the information, the value of such articles to be ascertained, as in s. 3. pl. 49., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 5. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 6.

52. If any such articles, so reported and delivered into the warehouse or other place as aforesaid, shall not be claimed within a year and day after such report has been transmitted to the Trinity-house as above, the same shall be sold, and a certificate of such sale delivered to the purchaser thereof, under directions of the admiralty, and the monies arising from sale thereof applied in the manner directed in 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6.; and if seized by the deputy vice-admiral or his agent as aforesaid, then the seizer, and any person who has given the information which led to the seizure (if any was so given), shall be equally entitled to the salvage allowed by the admiralty to the salvors in the case of unclaimed property, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 6. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 7.

53. If the salvors of any such articles, or of any goods so found, weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, and so lodged and reported as aforesaid, and the owners thereof, or agents, cannot agree respecting the amount of salvage to be paid for the same, or the value thereof, as the case may be, then the matter in difference shall be determined by any 3 justices residing near the place where such articles or goods shall be deposited, [who, not in the act] shall begin to proceed in their inquiry, as to such matters in dispute, within 48 hours after such difference is referred to them for their determination thereof; and if they cannot agree respecting the same, they may nominate any 3rd person conversant in maritime affairs, at their option, who shall ascertain the amount of the salvage to be paid, or the value thereof, as the case may be, within 48 hours after he has been so nominated; and the said justices, and such 3rd person so nominated as aforesaid, shall have full power, whenever they see occasion, to examine the parties, or their witnesses, on oath, which oath they are hereby authorized to administer, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 7., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 8.

54. The said justices may decide, in like manner, and within the same time as herein-before directed with regard to salvage, on all claims and demands soever, made by pilots, boatmen, and other persons, for service of any description (except pilotage) rendered by them to any vessel, as well for carrying off from the shore to such vessel any anchors, cables, or other stores from any port of the coast of Eng., Wa., and Ber., or for saving and preserving any goods or merchandize wrecked, stranded, or cast away from any vessel, or for being instrumental in saving the life of any person on board the same, the master or owners, or their agent or agents, being present with such justices; and the latter shall have full power to hear and determine on all cases of services rendered by pilots, boatmen and others, to vessels (except pilotage), whether they are at the time in distress or not, and they shall have like power of examining the parties or their witnesses on oath, as last herein-before directed; and their decision shall be final and conclusive on all parties, except in cases where an appeal is interposed by either party to the high court of admiralty, within 30 days after the award of the justices or such person so appointed, as in last pl., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 8., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 9.

55. In case the parties so claiming to be entitled to salvage, or who are to pay the same, or their agents, are dissatisfied with such award and decision of the justices, or person so to be nominated, as in pl. 53. either of them may respectively, within 10 days after such award is made, but not afterwards, declare to the justices, or such nominee, his desire of obtaining the judgment of the high court of admiralty respecting the said salvage, and thereupon he shall proceed, by taking out a monition within 30 days from the date of the award; in which case, the justices shall deliver to the owners and proprietors, or their agents, any such anchor or cable, goods, or other articles, respecting which any claim for salvage is made on the owners or proprietors thereof, or their agent, giving sufficient bail in the amount of the sum awarded for salvage or compensation, and which shall be taken by a commissioner for taking examinations in prize cases, if there is one in the port or place where such difference shall arise; but if there is no such commissioner there, then the said justices, to whom such difference has been referred, or either of them, or any other justice of peace may take; and after taking, shall certify the same according to the form in the schedule, and transmit the same without delay to the high court of admiralty, together with a true certificate in writing, of the gross value of the whole of the articles respecting which salvage is claimed, and also a copy of such proceedings and awards, on unstamped paper, certified under the hand of such commissioner or justice taking the bail as above, and the same shall be admitted by such court of admiralty as evidence in the cause, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 9., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 10.

SCHEDULE to which this act refers.

'On the — day of — in the year of our Lord —, before me — at — in the county of — [ship's name,] A. B. [here insert the names of the salvors against, and name the stores and other articles (id est) Anchors and cables, &c. as the case may be] certain goods and merchandizes lately found and taken possession of, and belonging to the said ship, whereof — was master, and also against the said — master, and the owners [or if the owners alone appear by themselves or agents, then leave out the master's name] of the said goods and merchandize, in a cause of salvage [master's name] on which day appeared personally — of — and — of — who produced themselves as sureties for the said — the master, and for the owners of the said goods and merchandize, and submitting themselves to the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty of Eng., bound themselves, their heirs, executors, and administrators, for the master and owners of the said goods and merchandize, in the sum of — of lawful money of G. B., unto the said — to answer such salvage and expences, or the value of the goods [as the case may be] as shall be herein-after decreed by the said court, according to the tenor of the act in that case made and provided; and unless they shall so do, they hereby consent that execution shall issue forth against them, their heirs, executors, and administrators, goods and chattels, wherever the same shall be found, to the value of the sum above mentioned.'

This bail was duly taken, acknowledged, and received, at the time and place above written, before me, the undersigned commissioner; and I do believe and consider the persons above mentioned sufficient security for the said sum of —.

56. The persons so to be named by the said justices shall decide on the amount of salvage to be paid, or on the value of the articles, or on the remuneration to be made to persons rendering assistance to vessels, or persons as aforesaid, may demand and receive from the owners of the articles saved, or of the vessels in behalf of which the services may have been rendered, or their agents, a sum not exceeding 2*l.* 2*s.* which fee shall be paid by the latter after he has made his award or decision, and on delivery of the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 10., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 11.

57. Every person who shall wilfully cut away, cast adrift, remove, alter, deface, sink or destroy, or shall do or commit any act with intent and design to cut away, &c. or in any other way to injure or conceal, any buoy, buoy rope or mark belonging to any vessel, or which may be attached to any anchor or cable, belonging to any vessel whatever, whether in distress or otherwise, shall, on conviction of such offence, be deemed guilty of felony, and may be transported for any term not exceeding 7 years, or in mitigation of such punishment to be imprisoned for any number of years, at discretion of the court in which the conviction is made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 11., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 12.

58. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully, and with intent to defraud and injure the true owner thereof, or any person interested therein as aforesaid purchase or receive any anchors, cables, or goods or merchandize taken up, weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, whether having belonged to any vessel in distress or otherwise, or having been preserved from any wreck, if the directions herein-before contained with regard to such articles have not been previously complied with, such persons shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, as if they had been stolen on shore, and suffer the like punishment as for a misdemeanor at common law, or be liable to be transported for 7 years, at discretion of the court before which he is tried, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 12., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 13.

59. In case the master, mate, or crew of any vessel bound to parts beyond the seas, shall find and take on board her any anchor, cable, goods or merchandize, or shall receive the same on board from any other person who has found the same, knowing the same to have been so found, the master, mate, or other person in command of such vessel, shall make a true entry in the log book of such ship, of the description of the articles so found or taken on board, stating the marks (if any) thereon, and the bearings and distances, and other minute description, and the time when and where the same were found and taken on board; and shall also at the first possible opportunity, transmit a report in writing, containing a true copy of such entry to the Trinity House, and on the return of such vessel to any port in Eng., Wa., or Ber. he shall deliver the same articles into the possession of a deputy vice-admiral or his agent, in or nearest to such port at which he shall first arrive, and within 24 hours after his arrival, with the like report as before directed; which deputy, &c. shall transmit such report to the Trinity House, to be placed by them for inspection, as in s. 2. pl. 48. and if the same is not claimed by the owners, or their agent, within a year and a day after such report is transmitted, the same shall be sold according to law with regard to unclaimed property; and in default thereof, or if the master of such vessel shall dispose of such anchor, &c. to any person soever, or shall not on his first return to any port within Eng., Wa., or Ber., report and deliver the same according to this act, he shall for every such offence forfeit all claim to salvage, and on conviction before any justice or magistrate on oath of one credible witness, or on confession of the offender, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 100*l.* nor less than 30*l.* one-half of which penalty shall be paid to the informer, and the other to the president and governors, for the relief and support of maimed and disabled seamen, and of the widows and children of such as are killed, slain, or drowned in the merchants service, under 20 G. 2. c. 38. tit. SEAMEN, pl. 62. and shall also pay double the value of such articles to the owner thereof, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 13., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 14.

60. The deputy vice-admiral, or his agent, who makes the report required by s. 1. pl. 47. to the Trinity House, may receive from the owners of the articles in respect of which the report is made, or if the same are not claimed, then out of the produce of their sale the sum of 1*l.* 1*s.* for each report; and the secretary or other proper officer of the Trinity House may receive in like manner the sum of 1*l.* 1*s.* for each report so to be received by the said corporation, to be made public by them as in s. 2. pl. 48. which sum shall be paid to the said deputy, &c. before delivery of the goods, and accounted for by him to the Trinity House, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 14., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 15.

61. Every pilot, hoveller, boatman, or master of a vessel, who shall convey to any foreign port any anchor or cable which may have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of by them, or purchased by them of other persons, knowing them to have been so weighed, &c. without being so reported, and shall there sell and dispose of the same, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for not exceeding 7 years, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 15., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 16.

62. All persons who shall trade or deal in buying and selling anchors, cables, sails, or old junk, old iron, or marine stores of any kind or description, shall have their names, with the words "Dealer in Marine Stores," painted distinctly in letters of not less than 6 inches in length, upon the front of all their storehouses, warehouses, and other deposits, for such goods; and in default of so doing, shall, on conviction before any justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates of any jurisdiction where such storehouse, &c. is, on oath of one credible witness, or on confession of the offender, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.*, one-half to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township where the offence is committed; and no such dealers or traders shall cut up any cable, or part of a cable, exceeding 5 fathoms in length, or uncant, untwine, or unlay the same into junk or paper stuff on any pretence, without first obtaining a permit from some justice or magistrate residing near the residence of such dealer, which permit shall not be granted, unless affidavit is made that the cable so intended to be cut up had been bonâ fide purchased by the party so intending to cut up the same, and without any knowledge or suspicion on his part, that the same had been dishonestly come by; and in which shall also be specified the particular quality and description of such cable, and the name of the seller thereof, which affidavit shall be recited at length in the permit thereupon granted, on pain of forfeiting for the first offence any sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.* and for every second or further offence, not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 20*l.* to be recovered before any justice of peace; one-half thereof to go to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish in which such offence is committed, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 16., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 17.

63. All dealers in such marine stores shall keep a book fairly written, in which entries shall be from time to time regularly made, of all old marine stores by them from time to time bought, containing a true account and description of the times when so bought by them, and of the names and abodes of the sellers, and before any person who shall obtain such permit for cutting up any such cable (as herein-before, pl. 62. required), shall proceed to cut up the same by virtue thereof, there shall be published, by the space of one week at least before cutting up the same, one or more advertisements in some public newspaper printed nearest to the storehouse, &c. where the articles are deposited, notifying that such party had obtained such permit, for the purpose of cutting up such cable, and of the kind and quality therein described, and also specifying the place where such articles are deposited; whereupon every person who has just cause to suspect that such articles are the property of such person, and has verified upon oath the fact of such his suspicion before any justice or magistrate residing near the said storehouse, &c. by warrant for that purpose thereupon granted, may require of such dealer, who has so advertised, and is so sworn to be suspected as aforesaid, the production and examination of the book of entries hereby required by him to be kept, and inspect and examine the cables described in such permit; and in case such dealer, when so thereunto required shall neglect or refuse to produce to the person named in such warrant, as the person on whose oath the same have been obtained, the book containing his entries, or shall neglect to keep such book in which the above entries shall be made, or to permit such inspection or examination as aforesaid, or shall, after obtaining such permit for cutting up, and before the cutting up any such cable, neglect to publish such one or more advertisements relative thereto, as before required, the offender in all or any of the above particulars shall forfeit and pay, for his first offence, any sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.*, and for every second or further offence, any sum not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 20*l.*, one-half of which penalty shall, on conviction before any justice or magistrate resident as aforesaid, be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township in which such offences are committed; and in case any of the penalties by this act imposed are not paid, with the charges incident to the conviction, immediately thereon, the same may be levied by warrant under hand and seal of such justice or magistrate, on the goods and chattels of any such offender; and in case no sufficient distress is found, he shall be committed by the latter to gaol, in case of a first offence for 6, and in case of a second or further offence, for 12 calendar months, unless the said penalty and the charges are sooner paid, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 17., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 18.

64. All manufacturers of anchors and kedge anchors, shall place their names, together with a progressive number, and also the weight of the anchor, in legible characters on the crown, and also on the shank under the stock of each anchor, which they shall manufacture; and shall also place their names, together with a number, and the weight of the kedge anchor upon the crown, and also on the shank near the stock of every kedge anchor which they shall manufacture; and every manufacturer who neglects to place such name, number, or weight as herein-before directed, shall, on conviction before any justice or magistrate, on oath of one credible witness, or on the confession of the offender, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, one-half to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish or township in which the offence is committed, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 18., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 19.

65. Every justice of peace before whom any person is convicted of any offence against these acts, may cause the conviction to be drawn up as follows; and no certiorari, or other process for removal of any such conviction, or any proceedings thereon, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, shall be granted, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 19., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 20.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —, A. B. is convicted before me [or us] — one [or two, as the case may be,] of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the — [here specify the offence, and the time and place when and where committed, as the case may be,] contrary to an act passed in the 2d year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled [here insert the title of this act.] Given under my hand and seal [or, our hands and seals,] the day and year first above written.'

66. Any person so convicted of any offence against this act, may, within 3 calendar months next after such conviction, appeal to the general quarter sessions for the county, city, or place where the matter of appeal arises, first giving 10 days notice of such appeal to the persons appealed against, and of the matter thereof, and entering into a recognizance before some justice of the peace for such county, city, or place, with 2 sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and for abiding the determination of the court therein; which quarter sessions shall, on due proof of such notice having been given and recognizance entered into, hear and determine the matter of such appeal, and may either confirm or quash the conviction, and award such costs to either party as to them shall seem just, which decision therein shall be final; and no proceeding had in pursuance of this act shall be quashed for want of form only, or removed by certiorari, or any other process soever, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or elsewhere, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 20., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 21.

67. The inhabitants of any parish, township, or place shall be competent witnesses for proving the commission of any offence against these acts within the limits of such parish, &c. notwithstanding the penalties thereby incurred, or any part thereof, is given or applicable to the poor of such parish, &c., or otherwise for the benefit or use, or in aid or in exoneration of such parish, &c. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 21. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 22.

68. All felonies, misdemeanors, and other offences under these acts, may be laid to be committed, and shall be tried in any city or county (being a county) where any such article, matter, or thing, in relation to which such offence has been committed, has been found in the possession of the person committing the offence; or if sold in foreign parts, then in the county or place in which the person selling the same shall reside, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 22. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 23.

69. Nothing in these acts shall extend to the limits in 48 G. 3. c. 150. and 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. pl. 86. specified; nor affect the provisions of 48 G. 3. c. 104.; 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 23., 49 G. 3. c. 122. ss. 24—25. [But 48 G. 3. c. 104. is REP. and EXP. See PILOTAGE, STATS. exp., &c. pl. 4.]

70. Nothing herein shall extend to the taking away or abridging, in any manner whatever, the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty of Eng., or of the admiralty courts of the Cinque Ports, two ancient towns, and their members, of Great Yarmouth, in Norfolk, of Dunwich, in Suffolk, or of Southampton, in Hants, or of Southwold, in Suffolk, or of Lynn Regis, in Norfolk; but the said courts respectively, and the judges thereof for the time being, may have, use, exercise and enjoy jurisdiction over all such matters, rights, and offences as they have heretofore had, &c. as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if these acts had not been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 24. 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 26.

71. Neither this act nor any thing herein contained shall deprive or prejudice the rights of H. M. his heirs or successors, or any claiming under them, or any patentee or grantee of the crown, or any lords, &c. of manors soever, but such respective rights shall be enjoyed in as ample a manner in every respect as if these acts had never been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 25., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 27.

72. No lord of any manor, or other person who may be entitled to or claim to be entitled to wreck of the sea, or to any goods found jet-sam, flotsam, or lagan, shall be entitled to appropriate such wreck or goods to his own use, or otherwise to dispose thereof, until he has caused a report thereof in writing to be given to the deputy vice-admiral of that part of the coast where the same shall have been stranded, wrecked, or found, or to his agent; or if there is no such deputy vice-admiral or agent residing within the distance of 50 miles, then to the Trinity House; which report shall contain an accurate and particular description of the wreck or goods found, and of the place or places and time or times where and when found, and of any marks thereon, and of such other particulars as may better enable the owners thereof to recover the same, and also of the place or places where the same are deposited and may be found and examined by any person claiming any right to such wreck or goods, nor until the full expiration of a year and a day after the delivery of such notice, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and the deputy vice-admiral or agent aforesaid shall, within 48 hours after receiving such report as aforesaid, transmit a copy thereof to the secretary of the Trinity House, upon pain of forfeiting for any neglect to transmit such account as aforesaid 50*l.*, to any person who will sue for the same; and the said secretary shall cause such account to be placed in some conspicuous situation, for inspection of all persons claiming to examine the same; but nothing herein contained shall repeal or in any manner affect any of the provisions of 52 G. 3. c. 159. pl. 37., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 26., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 2.

73. When any goods found or taken possession of by any lord of a manor, or person entitled to wreck of the sea, or to goods found flot-sam, jetsam, or lagan, or his agent, or servant, or by any vice-admiral, or his deputy or agent, or by any officer or other person soever acting under authority of this act, or of 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. pl. 86., shall be of so perishable a nature, or so much injured or damaged, that they cannot be kept, then such goods shall and may, at request of any of the persons interested therein, or in the saving thereof, with consent and approbation of some justice of peace not interested in the same or in the saving thereof, and in his presence or in that of some person for that purpose specially appointed by him, be sold by public auction or private contract, as such justice may direct by some writing under his hand, which writing shall contain an accurate and particular account of the goods, and marks thereon, or other particulars belonging thereto, and of the times and places of the finding and intended sale thereof; and the money raised by such sale, after defraying the reasonable expences of sale, to be settled by such justice, shall be deposited in the hands of the lord of the manor, or other person, or deputy vice-admiral, who would have received the custody of the goods so sold, to abide and be subject to the claims of all persons, as the goods themselves would be subject if remaining unsold; provided that all persons required to transmit reports to the deputy vice-admiral of the finding any goods, as in pl. 72., shall, in case of any such sale, likewise transmit to him an account of such sale, and of the proceeds thereof; and the latter shall forward such reports to the Trinity House, within the like periods and under the like penalties for any neglect therein, as in cases of any goods found and required to be reported under the provisions of 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. or of these acts, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 27., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 3.

74. The commissioners of customs and excise shall permit all goods, wares, and merchandize saved from any vessel stranded or wrecked on the homeward voyage, to be forwarded to the port of original destination; and also permit goods saved from any vessel stranded or wrecked on their respective outward voyage, to be returned to the port at which the same were shipped; but such commissioners shall take security for due protection of the revenue in respect thereof, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 28.

75. The deputy vice-admiral of the part of the coast where any vessel is stranded or wrecked, or where any wreck of the sea or goods are cast on shore, and his agent, and also the owner or master of any such vessel, and the owners of any such goods, or of any part thereof, and any officer of customs or excise, and other officer, and all persons soever employed or acting in aid of any such deputy vice-admiral, officer, master, or owner, in saving or recovering any such vessel, or the cargo, stores, tackle, or other articles belonging to the same, or preserving the lives of the crew or persons belonging thereto, or of any wreck as aforesaid, may pass and repass with their horses, carts, carriages, or servants, over any lands near to the part of the sea coast where such vessel is so wrecked or stranded, or on which such wreck shall be cast, without interruption or obstruction by the owner or occupier thereof, for the purpose of rendering assistance in saving, recovering, and preserving any such vessel, or goods or stores, or any cables, anchors, spars, masts, cordage, or other tackle or articles belonging to her, or for saving or otherwise assisting in preserving the lives of the crew, or persons on board, or for taking possession of and securing for benefit of the owners thereof, of any wreck or goods, or other things cast or found on shore, or near thereto, provided there is no road by which the parties may pass and repass with as much convenience and expedition as over such lands; and also to place any planks, timber, or any part of the wreck, or any goods or stores removed or saved from any such vessel, or any other wreck or goods as aforesaid, upon any such land for a reasonable time, until they can be removed to some warehouse or place of deposit, making compensation to the occupier of such lands for any damage done by the above means, which compensation shall be a charge upon the wreck or goods in respect whereof the damage may be done, in like manner as salvage; and in case the parties cannot agree as to the amount thereof, then it shall be settled by 2 justices of peace, or of a third person to be named by them, in such manner and within such times as the amount of salvage is directed to be ascertained and settled by 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 32., which is adopted and consolidated with s. 37. of this act, pl. 84., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 29., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 4.

76. If any owner or occupier of any land or premises, over which any person is authorized by these acts to pass and repass, for any of the above purposes, shall interrupt, impede, or hinder any such person from passing over his land or premises with horses, carts, carriages, and servants, for such purposes or any or either of them, by locking his gates or refusing on request to open them, or otherwise, or shall obstruct or hinder the placing any wreck, goods, stores, or other articles upon his land, or shall prevent their remaining there for a reasonable time, until, they can be removed to some warehouse or safe place of public deposit such occupier shall forfeit 100*l.* to any person who will sue for the same, by action of debt, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 30., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 5.

77. Questions in relation to salvage of any vessel, or of any goods, which shall be performed between high and low water mark, shall be within the jurisdiction or cognizance of the high court of admiralty, or of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 31., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 6.

78. In every case in which any damage is done by any foreign vessel to any British vessel, barge, boat, or other craft, or any buoy or beacon, in any harbour, port, river, or creek, and it appears on a summary application made to any judge of any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, or to the judge of the high court of admiralty respectively, that such damage or loss has probably been sustained or arisen by the misconduct or negligence of the master or mariners of such foreign vessel, he may cause such foreign vessel, being in any harbour, &c. to be arrested and detained, till the master, or owner, or consignee, or some agent of either, shall undertake to appear and be defendant in any action brought for such damage, and give such sufficient security, by bail or otherwise, for all costs and damages, if recovered, as shall be ordered by such judge, if upon the trial of such action or suit it appears that such loss or damage has arisen from such negligence or misconduct, and in such action the person giving security shall be made defendant, and shall be stated to be the owner of the foreign vessel doing such damage; and it shall not be necessary in such action to give any other evidence of the liability of such person to the same, than the production of the judge's order, made in relation to such security as above, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 32., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 7.

79. All penalties above 20*l.*, or which by these acts, or by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. are made recoverable by action or suit, shall be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 33., 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 8.

80. Nothing in this statute shall take away, abridge, or prejudice any grant, liberties, franchises, and privileges heretofore granted to and vested in the Trinity House, 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 28. [This provision is not repeated in 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75.]

81. Nor shall any thing in these acts take away, &c. any grant, liberties, franchises, and privileges heretofore granted to and vested in the Trinity House of Hull, or in the commissioners acting under any acts of parliament relating to the adjustment of salvage for anchors, cables, and other ships' materials found in the Humber, or vested in the Trinity Houses of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Scarborough respectively; but they shall hold and enjoy the same as fully to all intents and purposes as if this act had never been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 34., and 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 29.

82. Nor take away any right, property, authority, or jurisdiction of the mayor, or of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, to, in, and on the Thames and Medway, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 35., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 30.

83. Nothing in these acts shall extend to Scot. and Ire., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 36., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 31.

84. All the means which in virtue of 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. exist and may now be by law applied for conclusively adjusting, and recovering the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to the several persons acting or being employed in the salvage of any ship or vessel, or the materials or stores belonging thereto, or goods, in cases where application has been first made pursuant to that act, to officers of the customs, or other the officers in that behalf mentioned, and assistance has been thereupon rendered in pursuance of the provisions of that act, shall be by law applicable in like manner, to all intents and purposes, in cases where the salvors have acted under and by authority of any magistrate, or of the commander or other superior officers, mariners, or owners of any vessel in distress, though no such application has been made to, nor any authority or assistance derived from, any officer of customs, or other the officer or officers in that statute in that behalf mentioned; and thereupon on payment or tender and refusal of the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to the several persons who have acted or been employed in such salvage, or in case such payment or tender cannot be made, on security being given for the true payment thereof, to the satisfaction of the justices who shall have adjusted such quantum or gratuities, no officer of customs, or other person having custody of such vessel, materials, stores, or goods, may any longer retain the custody of the same, or any part thereof, by pretence of any claim or right to compensation or gratuity of such salvage as aforesaid, or for having acted or been employed therein, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 37., 49 G. 3. c. 122. s. 32.

85. The owner or owners, or, if they refuse, the salvors may sell so much of the property saved as is sufficient to defray the salvage adjudged, and all expences attending the same, and any other reasonable expences respecting the property allowed by the high court of admiralty, or by the justices acting in execution of this act; and on production of an order or decree from that court, or of an award made by the above justices, the commissioners of customs and excise shall allow the sale of such goods free from payment of duties: provided that, in all cases in which they think it advisable, they may refer any such award produced to them from the justices acting in execution of the provisions of this act, to the judgment and revision of the high court of admiralty, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 75. s. 38.

86. FOR PREVENTING THE VARIOUS FRAUDS and depredations committed on merchants, ship-owners and underwriters, by boatmen, and others, within the jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports: AND ALSO FOR REMEDYING CERTAIN DEFECTS relative to the adjustment of SALVAGE, under 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 2. pl. 6. 48 G. 3. c. 130. [CON. 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1., and AMD. 53 G. 3. c. 87. ss. 2—8., and both these acts incorporated with and AMD. by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. PUBLIC clauses, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 24., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 22.]

87. "Whereas, 48 G. 3. c. 130. was CON. to the end of the session of parliament of 1821, by 53 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1., and it is expedient that it be continued, except as hereby altered," be it enacted, that the lord warden of the cinque ports for the time being may appoint by instrument under his hand and seal, 3 or more substantial persons in each of the cinque ports' 2 ancient towns, and their members, to adjust and determine any difference relative to salvage, which may arise between the master of any vessel, and the person or persons bringing such cables and anchors ashore, and if any ship or vessel is either forced or cut from her cables and anchors by extremity of weather, or other accident, and leaves the same in any roadstead, or other place, within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports' 2 ancient towns, and their members, and the salvage cannot be adjusted between the persons concerned, the same shall be determined by any 3 or more of the persons so to be appointed as above, within 24 hours after such difference is referred to them for their determination thereof, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding: provided that such commissioners shall immediately after their nomination proceed to elect some proper person, who shall be a notary, or master extraordinary in chancery as their secretary or register, except to the port of Dover, where the register for the time being of the court of admiralty of the Cinque Ports shall be the register, and which secretary or register shall enter in a book kept for that purpose, all the proceedings of such commissioners, and also a copy of the award, which they shall from time to time make; but such election of secretaries or registers shall be subject to the approbation of the existing lord warden, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 1. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 1.

88. The boundaries of the jurisdiction of the lord warden of the Cinque Ports, in regard to any matter or thing contained in these statutes, shall be as follows: from a point to the western end of Seaford, in the county of Sussex, called Red Cliff, including the same: thence passing in a line one mile without the sand or shoal, called the Horse of Willingdon, and continuing the same distance without the ridge and new shoals, and thence in a line within 5 miles of Cape Grisnez, [Crisnes, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 20.] on the coast of France; thence round the shoal called the Overfalls, 2 miles distant from the same, thence in a line without, and the same distance along the eastern side of the Gallopier Sand, till the north end thereof bears west north-west true bearing from the west north-west bearing of the Gallopier, it runs in a direct line across the shoal called the Thwart Middle, till it reaches to the shore under the Maze Tower: from thence, following in a line of the shore up to St. Orsyth, in the county of Essex, and following the course of the shore up [to, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 18. only] the river Coln, to the landing-place nearest Brightlingsea: from thence in a direct line to Shoe Bacon: from thence to the point of Shellness, on the Isle of Shippey: and from thence across the waters to Feversham, and from thence following the line of coast round the north and south Forelands and Beachy-head, till it reaches the said Red Cliff, including all the waters, creeks and havens comprehended between them; but nothing in these acts shall enlarge or abridge the local limits of the ancient jurisdiction, rights, and privileges of the lord high-admiral of Eng., or the lord warden, or admiral of the Cinque Ports, respectively, or their respective representatives; but the same shall remain according to ancient usage, and the above description shall only be deemed applicable to the purposes of these statutes, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 18., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 20.

89. The said commissioners so appointed as above, may decide on all demands made by pilots, hovellers, boatmen, and other persons for services of any sort rendered to any vessel, as well for carrying off from shore to her any anchors, cables, or other stores from any part or port of the coast of Kent, Sussex, Essex, or Isle of Thanet, or from the sea, or any other place to Ramsgate, Dover, or any other harbour, port, or place on the said coasts, within the aforesaid jurisdiction, [viz. of the Cinque Ports, &c. see pl. 88.] or for saving and preserving within that jurisdiction, any goods or merchandize wrecked, stranded, or cast away from any vessel, the master or owners thereof, or their agents being present at the place of sitting of the commissioners; and shall have full power to hear and determine on all cases whatever of services rendered by pilots, boatmen, and others, to shipping within the above jurisdiction, whether in distress or not; and whenever they see occasion, may examine the parties, or their witnesses on oath, which oaths shall be administered by their secretary or register, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 2., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 2.

90. The commissioners and their secretary or register, who shall decide on any of the above demands, may demand and receive of and from the owners of such vessels, or the proprietors of any such goods, against whom any pilot, boatman, or other person shall make any demand for services of any sort rendered to such vessels, or for the sole saving any goods wrecked, stranded, or cast away within the above jurisdiction, and such owners shall pay to them such fee for deciding on such demand as shall be adjudged to them in that behalf by the existing lord warden of the cinque ports; provided that no person appointed commissioner under this act, shall have authority to act in any other port or place than that in which he is resident, or from which his usual place of residence is not distant more than one mile: and before such commissioners shall in any case proceed to act, they shall severally take the following oath before a magistrate or commissioner of K. B. or C. P., or a master extraordinary in chancery, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 3., 48 G. 3. c. 130. ss. 3, 4.

'I A. B. do swear, that I have not, neither will I in any way, directly, or indirectly, take or receive any fee, emolument or reward, from any of the parties whose interests are referred to my decision (except such fee or reward as shall be allowed by the lord warden to be paid to me by the ship owners or proprietors of the cargo, or their agents), and that I will not accept or receive any fee whatever from the persons claiming reward or salvage, but that I will decide, according to the best of my judgment, on the evidence to be brought before me, without favour or affection to either party. So help me God.'

91. In case the parties so claiming to be entitled to salvage, or compensation for services rendered as above, or the parties who are to pay the same, or their agents, are dissatisfied with such award and decision of the commissioners, either of them may, within 8 days after such award made, but not afterwards, declare to the commissioners his desire of obtaining the judgment of some competent court of admiralty, respecting such salvage or compensation, and thereupon such party, or parties shall forthwith be required by the commissioners to declare whether they will proceed in the high court of admiralty of Eng., or in that of the Cinque Ports, and shall so proceed within 20 days from the date of such award by taking out monition against the adverse party; but in such case the commissioners shall permit the ship and cargo, notwithstanding such declaration and proceeding, to depart on her voyage, or to deliver to the owners and proprietors, or their agents, any goods or merchandize, respecting which any claim for salvage shall be made on the owners or proprietors thereof, or their agents, giving good bail in double the amount of the sum awarded, and which bail the said commissioners, or any of them, shall take and certify according to the form in the schedule annexed, and shall transmit the same without delay, to the court of admiralty in which the intention of proceeding shall be so declared, together with a true certificate in writing of the gross value of the whole ship and cargo, or other goods, respecting which salvage is claimed, and also an official copy of such proceeding and awards certified by their secretary or register: and the same shall be admitted by such court of admiralty as evidence in the cause, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 4. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 5.

The SCHEDULE to which this act (s. 4.) refers.

'On the — day of —, in the year of our Lord —, before, &c. at — in the county of —

[Ships' Names.]

[Masters' Names.]

'A. B. [here insert the name of the salvors,] against the said ship —, whereof — was master, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods, wares, and merchandizes on board the same: and also against the said — master, and the owners of the said ship and cargo, [or as the case may be, against certain goods and merchandizes lately laden on board the said ship, whereof — was master; and also against the said — master, and the owners (or if the owners alone appear by themselves or agents, then leave out the master's name) of the said goods and merchandizes,] in a cause of salvage.

'On which day appeared personally W. Z. of —, and Y. Z. of —, who produced themselves as sureties for the said — the master, and for the owners of the said ship and cargo, [or, as the case may be,] for the said — master and owners of the said goods and merchandizes, and submitting themselves to the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty of Eng., [or, the court of admiralty for the cinque ports, as the case may be,] bound themselves, their heirs, executors, and administrators, for the said master and owners of the said ship and cargo, — [or, as the case may be,] for the said — master and owners, or for the owners of the said goods and merchandizes, in the sum of — pounds of lawful money of G. B., unto the said A. B., &c. to answer the salvage and expences of the said ship and cargo, [or, as the case may be,] on the said goods and merchandize, as shall hereafter be decreed by the said court, according to the tenor of the act in that behalf made and provided: and unless they shall so do, they hereby consent that execution shall issue forth against them, their heirs, executors and administrators, goods and chattles, wheresoever the same shall be found, to the value of the sum above mentioned.

This bail was duly taken, acknowledged and received at the time and place above written, before me the undersigned commissioner; and I do hereby further certify, that I do believe and consider the persons above mentioned sufficient security for the sum of — pounds.

92. On appeal so being made to either of such courts of admiralty, the same shall be held to be final, and no ulterior appeal shall be to H. M. in chancery from the sentence of either of such courts, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 5.

93. Every person who shall wilfully cut away, cast adrift, remove, alter, deface, sink, or destroy, or shall commit any act, with intent to cut away, &c., or in any other way injure, or conceal any buoy, buoy-rope, or mark belonging to any vessel, or attached to any anchor or cable belonging to any vessel whatever, within the above jurisdiction, [see pl. 88.] with intent thereby to defraud any person, or body corporate, shall on conviction for such offence be deemed guilty of felony, and liable to be transported for not exceeding 14 years, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 6., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 6.

94. All anchors, cables, buoys, ropes, or other ship's stores or materials, or any goods or merchandizes of any sort whatever, which may have been parted with, cut from, or left by any vessel in the Downs, or elsewhere, within the above jurisdiction whether in distress or otherwise, and which have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of by any pilots, boatmen, hovellers, or other persons, shall be by them delivered, either at Ramsgate, Deal, or Dover, [Harwich, Brightlersea, or Wivenhoe, added by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 7.] six public places of deposit declared by this act for the reception of all such articles, or such other places as shall be declared by the lord-warden, in the same state in which they are found, to the serjeant or serjeants of the admiralty at the cinque ports, or their deputies, or such other person as he shall authorize to receive the same; but if any such articles so found, &c. are not so delivered immediately, or duly reported to such serjeant, &c., on the finding thereof, and are afterwards discovered in the custody of any such pilot, &c. or other person, he shall on conviction be deemed guilty of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to have been stolen, and shall suffer like punishment as if the same had been stolen on shore, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 7. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 7.

95. All merchandize, materials, of any sort, or marine stores of any description, whether belonging to H. M. or to any British subjects or foreigners, which may be preserved from any vessel stranded, deserted by her crew, or wrecked, either on shore or on the Goodwin or any other sand or shoal, or any part of the main land, or any part or place within the above jurisdiction, shall be landed, and delivered at one of the 6 places of deposit belonging to the lord-warden's deputies at Ramsgate or Deal, Dover, [Harwich, Brightlersea, or Wivenhoe, added by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 8.] or such other place as shall be declared such by the lord-warden for that purpose, which ever shall be most convenient or contiguous to the place where the loss occurs: and every person, who having preserved, or taken possession of such merchandize, or marine stores within the above jurisdiction, shall sell, dispose of, or otherwise make away with the same, or shall in any manner conceal, deface, take out, or obliterate the marks or numbers thereon, or alter the same in any manner with intent thereby, directly or indirectly, to prevent the discovery and identity thereof by the owners, shall be guilty of felony, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 8., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 8.

96. Nothing herein shall extend to prevent or restrain the serjeants, deputies, or other officer of the lord warden, from seizing all such anchors, cables, buoys, buoy-ropes, or other ship's stores, or materials, as in s. 7. pl. 94. and likewise all such merchandize and marine stores, as in s. 8. last pl. which they shall find concealed, or attempted to be concealed within the jurisdiction aforesaid, [see pl. 88.] or which he or they shall find in possession of any person who shall be conveying, or in the act of preparing to convey the same out of the said jurisdiction, or from any place where the same have been landed within the same, to any other place within the same, other than to one of the above public places of deposit; but all and singular the above officers may seize the same as well on shore as at sea, within the said jurisdiction, and may take and carry the same to one of the said public places of deposit, any law or custom notwithstanding, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 9., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 9.

97. Every person, within the above jurisdiction, who shall knowingly, and with the intent to defraud and injure the true owners thereof, purchase or receive any anchors, cables, ropes, or other ship's stores or materials of any description, or any merchandize, or lading, which may have been taken up, weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, whether the same have belonged to any vessel in distress, or otherwise, or have been preserved from any wreck within the jurisdiction aforesaid, such person shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, as if the same had been stolen on shore, and suffer like punishment as for a misdemeanor at common law, and be also liable to transportation for 7 years at discretion of the court, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 10., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 10.

98. Whenever anchors, cables, and other marine stores or merchandize, which have been weighed, swept for, or taken possession of, within the jurisdiction aforesaid, are carried away to places out of such jurisdiction, the serjeant or serjeants of the admiralty of the Cinque Ports, deputies, or any other officer of the lord warden, may seize such anchor, cable, or other marine stores, or merchandize, out of the jurisdiction aforesaid, and there take and carry away the same to some one of the above [see pl. 95.] public places of deposit, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 11., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 11. [or place the same in a place of security till proceedings are instituted against the same, either in the high court of admiralty, or in that of the Cinque Ports, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 11. only.]

99. Every pilot, boatman, or other person, within the above jurisdiction, who shall counsel, instruct, direct, advise or procure any master or other person on board any vessel within the above jurisdiction, whether she be at the time in distress or otherwise, to cut such vessel's cable, or buoy rope, or to do any other act whatever, which shall, or may tend to the destruction or wreck of such ship, with intent thereby to prejudice any owner or person, body politic or corporate, that hath underwritten, or shall underwrite any policy or policies of insurance on such vessel, or her freight, or on any goods laden on board her, shall, on conviction be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be liable to not exceeding 14 years transportation, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 12.

100. All dealers in buying and selling anchors, cables, sails, old junk, or paper, stuff, old iron, or marine stores of any kind, within the above jurisdiction, shall have their names, with the words "Dealer in Marine Stores," painted distinctly in letters of not less than 6 inches long on the front of all their store and warehouses, and other depôts for such goods: and in default of so doing, they shall, on conviction before one or more persons appointed to act as magistrates within the limits, in pl. 88. mentioned, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, one half to be paid to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed: and no such dealers shall cut up any cables, or part of the same, or uncant, untwine, or unlay the same, or cordage of any description, into junk or paper stuff, nor any wounding, wounding or, worming, or cable matting on the same, or on rigging, on any pretence soever, without first obtaining a permit from one or more of the lord warden's deputies, which shall not be granted unless affidavit has first been made before some such magistrate as above, and has been delivered to, and left with the person granting such permit in which affidavit there shall be sworn that the cable and cordage so intended to be cut up had been purchased fairly, and without fraud, by the party so intending to cut up the same, and without knowledge or suspicion on his part, that the same had been dishonestly come by, and which affidavit shall also specify the particular quantity and description of such cable, &c., and the name or names of the seller, and shall be recited at length in the permit, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 12., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 13.

101. All dealers in such marine stores, within the limits of the Cinque Ports 2 ancient towns, and their members, shall keep a book, or books, fairly written, in which entries shall be from time to time regularly made of all marine stores from time to time bought by them, containing a true account and description of the times when the same were so respectively bought, and of the names and abodes of the respective sellers thereof, and also that before the party who has obtained such permit for the cutting up any such cable or cordage, as in pl. 100. required to be obtained, shall proceed to cut up the same, by virtue thereof, there shall be published, by the space of one week at least, before the time of cutting up the same, one or more advertisements in some public newspaper, printed within the counties of Kent, Essex, and Sussex, and near to the usual residence or abode of such party, notifying that he had obtained such permit for the purpose of cutting up such quantity of cable or cordage, and of the kind or quality therein described, a true copy of which permit shall be inserted in the advertisement; whereupon every person having just cause to suspect, and having verified on oath the fact of such his suspicion, before any of the persons duly authorized to act as magistrates, within the above limits, by warrant of such magistrate granted to him for that purpose, may require of and from any such dealer, who has so advertised, and is so sworn to be suspected as above, the production and examination of the books of entries hereby required to be kept by him, and to inspect and examine the cables and cordage described in the permit and if any such dealer shall, when so required, neglect or refuse to produce to the person named in such warrant, as the person on whose

Oath the same was obtained, the above book of entries, or shall neglect to keep such a book, or to permit the above inspection and examination, or shall after obtaining such permit for cutting up any cable, &c. and before cutting up the same, neglect to publish such one or more advertisements relative thereto, as herein-before required, he shall forfeit any sum, not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, for the first, and not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 30*l.* for any 2nd or further offence; one half of which penalties shall, on conviction before any of the said magistrates, be paid to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish in which the offence is committed; and any of the above penalties which are not paid with the charges incident to the conviction immediately thereupon, shall be levied by warrant of such magistrate, by distress, on the goods of such offender; and if there is no sufficient distress, then every such offender may be committed to the common gaol, within the above limits, for 6 months, in case of any first, and for a 2nd or further offence for 12 months, unless the penalty and charges be sooner paid, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 13. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 14.

102. The inhabitants of any parish, township, or place, within the above jurisdiction, shall be deemed to be competent witnesses for the purpose of proving the commission of any offence against this act within the limits of such parish, &c. notwithstanding the penalty incurred by such offence, or any part thereof, may be given, or applicable to the poor of such parish, &c. or otherwise for use or in aid or exoneration of such parish, &c., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 14., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 15.

103. The lord warden, and deputy wardens of the cinque ports, the lieutenant of Dover castle, and the judge official and commissary of the court of admiralty of the Cinque Ports, two ancient towns, and the members thereof for the time being, and any other officer specially appointed by the lord warden, and all and every of them may execute within the jurisdiction aforesaid, all the acts, matters, and things in this act contained in like manner, to all intents and purposes, as any magistrate, or magistrates, commissioner, or commissioners, to be appointed under this act, may perform the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 15., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 16.

104. "After recital of the manner of issuing commissions for punishment of offences, under the provisions of 28 H. 8. c. 15. ss. 5, 6. PIRACY, pl. 6, 7. and that no such commission hath been for a long time sent to any place within the Cinque Ports," IT IS ENACTED, that as often as H. M. shall direct, a commission according to the said act, to the admiral or admirals, or his or their lieutenant-deputy, and deputies, H. M. on application of the lord warden of the Cinque Ports, may direct such commission jointly to them, and also to the lord warden of the Cinque Ports, for the time being, and to his deputy, and the commissioners who shall sit by virtue of such commission so jointly addressed, to whatever shire or place in the realm it is limited, shall have full power to enquire into, try, and determine all offences named in that, or in any other act, relating to proceedings under such commission, by the oaths of 12 good and lawful inhabitants in the shire, limited in the said commission, whether committed within the jurisdiction of the lord high-admiral, or in that of the lord warden of the Cinque Ports: and every trial, conviction, judgment, and proceeding, under such commission, shall be as effectual in law, and followed by the same consequences to the offenders, as if it were had by any separate commission issued under the said act, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 16. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 17.

105. Provided that nothing in these acts shall extend to taking away, abridging, prejudicing, or impeaching, in any manner whatever, the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty of Eng., or of that of the court of admiralty of the Cinque Ports, 2 ancient towns, and their members: but those courts respectively, and the judges thereof, for the time being, may exercise jurisdiction over all such matters, as fully as if this act had not been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 16. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 18.

106. Nothing in these acts shall impeach or prejudice any grant, liberties, franchises, and privileges, heretofore granted to and vested in the Trinity-house, but that corporation shall enjoy the same as fully as if this act had never been made, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 17., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 19.

107. The like means which, by 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. pl. 6. subsist, and may be applied for conclusively adjusting and recovering the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to the several persons acting or employed in the salvage of any vessel or goods, in cases where application shall have been first made, pursuant to that statute, to offices of customs, or other the officers therein in that behalf mentioned, and assistance has been thereupon rendered and had in pursuance of the provisions of that statute, shall be by law applicable in like manner, to all intents and purposes, in cases where the salvors have acted under and by the mere authority of the commander, or other superior officers, mariners, or owners of any vessel in distress, though no such application has been made to, nor any authority or assistance derived from any officer of customs, or other officers, in s. 1, 2. pl. 5, 6. mentioned; and on payment, or tender, and refusal of the quantum of monies, or gratuities to be paid to the several persons who have acted, or been employed in such salvage, or in case such payment or tender cannot be made, nor security given for due payment thereof, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, who have adjusted such quantum of gratuities, no officer of customs, or other person having possession or custody of such vessel or goods, shall any longer retain possession of the same or any part thereof, by reason or pretence of any right to compensation or gratuity for such salvage, or for having acted, &c. therein, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 19., 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 21.

108. In all cases where the salvors have acted without application made to, and without authority or assistance derived from any officer of customs, or other officer in 12 A. St. 2. c. 18. s. 1. pl. 5. mentioned, and the superior officers, mariners, or owners of such vessel so saved, or the merchant or other person whose goods are so saved, or their agents, shall disagree with the salvors touching the quantum of the monies or gratuity deserved by any persons so employed as above, the commander of the vessel so saved, or the owner or merchant interested in the goods, or their agents, and such salvors may nominate 3 of the neighbouring justices of peace to adjust the quantum of the monies or gratuities to be paid to such salvors, and if the parties shall not agree in such nomination, then on application of any of the parties to any one neighbouring justice, he shall nominate 2 other like justices, who shall thereupon adjust the quantum of the monies and gratuities to be paid to all and each of such salvors, who shall disagree with such superior officer, &c. touching the quantum of monies or gratuity to be paid to him or them respectively, for his having been employed and acted in such salvage, 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 22.

109. The owners, or if they refuse, the salvors may sell so much of the property saved as will defray the salvage adjudged and all expences attending the same, and such other reasonable charges respecting the said property, as shall be allowed by the high court of admiralty, or by that of the Cinque Ports, or of an award made by the commissioners appointed under this act; the commissioners of customs and excise shall allow such sale free of duty, but in cases where they deem it advisable, may refer any such award to the judgment or revision of the first mentioned court, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 20.

110. Nothing herein shall affect the jurisdiction to be exercised within the Cinque Ports, or that of the high court of admiralty, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 76. s. 21. 48 G. 3. c. 130. s. 23.

WRITS.

1. IN WHAT CASE A WRIT OF ENTRY, sur disseisin in the post, doth lie, 52 (or 54) H. 3. c. 29. [See ACTION REAL.]

2. If those alienations whereon a writ of entry was wont to be granted be made in so many degrees, that by reason thereof the same writ cannot be granted in the usual form, the plaintiff shall have a writ to recover his seisin, without making mention of the degrees to be provided by H. M.'s council, id. ibid.

3. THE CHAMPION'S OATH IN A WRIT OF RIGHT, 3 E. 1. c. 41.

4. The champion of the demandant shall not be compelled to swear that he or his father saw the seisin of his lord, or his ancestor, and that his father commanded him to dereign that right; but the oath shall be kept in all other points, id. ibid. [REP. virtually 59 G. 3. c. 46. s. 2.]

5. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE JUSTICES IN EYRE, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 10. [see the rest of this act, ATTORNEY, pl. 2.]

6. Justices in their circuits shall appoint a time of 15 days, or a month, within which time it shall be proclaimed, that all such as deliver writs, shall deliver them within such time, and when the time cometh the sheriff shall certify to the chief justice in eyre, how many writs he hath, and what, and that no writ be received after that time; and if any be, the process thereupon shall be of none effect, provided a writ abated during the circuit may be amended; also writs of dower, of men having died within the summons of the circuit assizes of darrein presentment, and quare impedit, of churches vacant within the foresaid summons, shall be received at any time before the departure of the justices; also writs of novel disseisin, at what time the disseisin was done, shall be received in the circuits of justices, id. ibid.

7. OF WRITS IN consimili casu, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 24.

8. In cases where a writ is granted out of chancery, for the fact of another, the plaintiffs shall not depart the court without remedy, because the land is transferred from one to another, and that in the register of chancery no writ is found in such case, as of a house, a wall, or a market, but the writ is granted against him who raised the nuisance; for although the house, &c. is transferred to another, the writ shall not be denied; but where in one case a writ is granted, in like case, requiring like remedy, the writ shall be made as before. And if such things levied be transferred from one to another, the writ shall be thus [Quæstus est nobis, A. quod B. & C. levaverant, &c.] 13 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 24. s. 1.

9. In like manner as a parson of a church may recover common of pasture, by writ of novel disseisin, his successor shall recover by a writ of quod permittat, against the disseisor, or his heirs, though a like writ was never granted out of chancery before, 13 Ed. 1. West. Sec. c. 24. s. 2.

10. In like manner as a writ is granted, to try whether land be the free alms of such church or lay fee, so such writ shall be made to try whether it be the free alms of this church, or another church, in case where the free alms of one church is transferred to another church, id. ibid.

11. As often as it happens in chancery, that in one case a writ is found, and in another case falling under like law, and needing like remedy, is found none, the clerks of chancery shall agree in making a writ, or shall adjourn the plaintiff to the next parliament, and write the cases in which they cannot agree, and refer them to the next parliament, and by consent of the learned of the law, a writ shall be made, that there be no failure of justice, id. ibid.

12. No WRIT CONCERNING THE COMMON LAW SHALL BE AWARDED under the petit seal, 28 Ed. 1. c. 6.

13. THAT SHALL BE DONE WITH THEM THAT MAKE FALSE RETURNS to H.M.'s writ, as is ordained by 13 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 39. [See SHERIFF, pl. 1.] with like pain, 28 Ed. 1. c. 16.

14. OF THE RETURN OF WRITS IN LIBERTIES; or by sheriffs, 12 Ed. 2. St. 1. c. 5.

15. For returns delivered to sheriffs, by bailiffs of franchises, an indenture shall be made between the bailiff of the franchise, and the sheriff, by his proper name; and if the sheriff change the return so delivered to him by indenture, and be thereof convict of the suit of the lord, if he hath sustained loss, he shall be punished by H. M. for his false return, and shall yield unto the lord, and to the party, double damages; also sheriffs and other bailiffs that receive H. M.'s writs, shall send their own name with the returns, so that the court may know of whom they took such returns; and if any sheriff or other bailiff leave out his name in his returns, he shall be grievously amerced, id. ibid.

16. AGAINST FALSE RETURNS OF BAILIFFS OF FRANCHISES, a man shall have averment, and recover as well against them as against the sheriff, as well of too little issues returned as in other cases, so that it fall not in prejudice of the lords, nor in blemish of their franchise, and that the estate of holy church be always saved, and that all the punishment fall upon the bailiffs, by punishment of their bodies, if they have not whereof to answer, 1 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 5.

17. AT WHAT TIME OR PLACE OF THE COUNTY A MAN doth deliver any writ to the sheriff, they shall receive the writs, and make a bill, after the form contained in the statute, 13 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 39. [See SHERIFFS, pl. 1.] without taking any thing; and if they refuse to make a bill, other persons that present shall set to their seals; and if the sheriff or under-sheriffs do not return the writs, they shall be punished after the form in the same statute; and the justices of assizes shall have power to inquire thereof at every man's complaint, and to award damages, 2 Ed. 3. c. 5.

18. A juris utrum MAINTAINABLE FOR A PARSON, or vicar, 14 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 17. [The parsons' writ of right, 3 Bla. Comm. 252-3.]

19. Vicars, parsons, and wardens of chapels, and provosts wardens, and chaplains of perpetual chauntries, shall have their writs of juris utrum, of land, tenements, rents, and possessions annexed, or given perpetually in alms to vicarages, chapels, or chauntries, and recover by other writs in their case, as far forth as parsons churches or prebends, id. ibid.

20. No WRIT SHALL BE ABATED BY EXCEPTION OF cognizance of villenage, if demandant or plaintiff will aver that he who alleged the exception was free the day of the writ purchased, 37 Ed. 3. c. 17.

21. No WRIT OF habeas corpus, or certiorari, shall be granted, to remove any prisoner out of gaol, or to remove any recognizance, except they be signed by the chief justice, or, in his absence, by one of the justices of court, for which they are awarded, upon pain, that the writer of such writs not so signed, shall forfeit to king and queen 5*l.*, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 13. s. 7.

22. TO PREVENT PERJURY, SUBORNATION OF PERJURY, and unnecessary expences at law, 43 El. c. 5. and recital in s. 1. [CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22. and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

23. No writ of habeas corpus, or other writ to be sued out of any court of record at Westminster, to remove any action, suit, or cause depending in any court within any city or town corporate, or elsewhere, having jurisdiction to hold plea in any action, &c. shall be received or allowed by the judge, or officers of the court, wherein or to whom such writ is delivered, (but they may proceed in such cause, as if no such writ were sued forth,) except such writ be so delivered before the jury which is to try such cause between the plaintiff and the party suing such writ, have appeared, and one of such jury sworn, 43 El. c. 5. s. 2.

24. IN ALL ACTIONS OF DEBT AND ALL OTHER PERSONAL actions, and in all actions of ejectione firmæ, for lands, or tenements, which shall hereafter be depending by original writ, in any court of record at Westminster, after issue joined therein to be tried by a jury, and also after judgment had in either of such courts, in any such action, there shall not need to be 15 days between the teste day and day of return of any writ of ven. fac., habeas corpora juratorum, or distringas juratorum, or fi. fa., or ca. sa., and the want of such days shall not be error, 13 C. 2. St. 2. c. 2. s. 6.

25. This act shall not extend to any writ of ca. sa., whereon an exigent after judgment is to be awarded, nor to any ca. sa. against the defendant, in order to charge the bail, id. s. 7.

26. Nothing herein shall extend to any action popular, nor to any action which is brought on any penal statute, (except debt, for not setting out tithes,) nor to any indictment, presentment, inquisition, information, or appeal, id. s. 11. [See the rest of this act, viz. ss. 1-4. ARREST, pl. 6-10.; s. 5. PRISON AND PRISONER, pl. 24.; ss. 8-10. EXECUTIONS, pl. 9.]

ADDENDA.

ACTION REAL.

13. (a) IN SUMMONSES AND ATTACHMENTS IN PLEA of land, the summons and attachments from henceforth shall contain the term of 15 days full at the least, according to the common law, if it be not in attachment for taking assizes in the king's presence, or of pleas before justices in eyre during the eyre, 28 Ed. 1. c. 15.

ALEHOUSES.

45. (a) NO PERSON, BEING A COMMON BREWER OF ALE OR BEER, or innkeeper, distiller, or other seller of or dealer in any kind of spirituous liquors, or who is interested in any of such trades or businesses, shall during such time as he is such brewer, &c. be capable to act as a justice of peace in any matter which shall any way concern the execution of the statutes relating to distillers or makers of low wines and spirits, or the duty thereon, or to the granting licences to the retailers of spirituous liquors, 24 G. 2. c. 40. s. 22.

45. (b) TO DISQUALIFY CERTAIN PERSONS FROM GRANTING ALE and beer licences, 26 G. 2. c. 13. s. 12. [AMD. 39 G. 3. c. 86. s. 3.]

45. (c) No justice of peace, being a common brewer of ale or beer, innkeeper, or distiller, or other seller of or dealer in ale or any kind of spirituous liquors, or interested in any of such trades or businesses, shall be capable to grant any licence to any person for selling ale, beer, or other liquors by retail; and licences granted by them shall be void, 26 G. 2. c. 13. s. 12.

45. (d) In case it shall happen that in any city, town, or place, any of the corporate justices or magistrates shall not be capable of acting in granting ale and beer licences, by reason that they are sellers of or dealers in foreign spirits, any justice acting for the county at large in which such city, &c. is situate or next adjoining thereto, shall, at the request in writing of the chief magistrate of such city, &c. act as a justice within such city, &c. for the purpose of granting licences to sell ale, beer, or other liquors by retail, in such corporate city, &c. instead of the magistrates thereof so disqualified; and all justices so required to act shall exercise all the powers, &c. of a magistrate within such city in granting such licences, and shall for such purposes be deemed a magistrate thereof; but shall have no other power therein, 39 G. 3. c. 86. s. 3.

ATTAINT.

1. (a) "To prevent perjuries of jurors by reason of the long delays in attainments before justices:" NO ESSOIN OF H. M.'s SERVICE OR PROTECTION shall be from henceforth allowed in such juries no more than in assize of novel disseisin, [5 days by the year, to be given before the justices of C. P. in the said juries at least, semb. superseded by 25 H. 8. c. 5. s. 5. 40. pl. 19.] and nisi prius shall be as well given in such writs as in other, 5 Ed. 3. c. 6.

BREAD.

11. TO PROHIBIT UNTIL 1st Oct. 1821, AND FROM THENCE to the end of the six weeks next after the commencement of the then next session of parliament, any person or persons from selling any bread which shall not have been baked 24 hours, 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 17. [Exp. and REP., and bakers who have sold bread contrary thereto indemnified, 42 G. 3. c. 4.]

CORN.

8. TO AUTHORIZE H. M. FROM TIME TO TIME TO PROHIBIT the exportation of provisions or food, 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 2.

9. H. M. by order in council may prohibit for a time, in such order limited either generally or particularly and by name, or description, the exportation from the kingdom of all or any sort of provision or victual, or any article used as food, under such restrictions as he shall think fit; and in like manner recal such order in whole or in part, or make such alteration therein as he deems fit, id. s. 1.

10. All provision, &c. included in such order which is afterwards exported or laden on board any ship, &c. to be exported, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs; and all persons offending herein shall forfeit treble the value of such provisions, and such ship, &c. with all her tackle, &c. shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs, id. s. 2.

11. All penalties and forfeitures herein contained may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of as penalties incurred on any goods or ships forfeited for any offence against the customs laws may be; and the seizing officer shall receive such share of such seizures and of such pecuniary penalties as he is now entitled to, id. s. 3.

12. This act and such orders shall not extend to prohibit the exportation of so much of any such provisions, &c. as shall be necessary for the use of any ship's crew on a voyage out and home, and for the live stock on board of such ship; or for victualling H. M.'s ships or vessels; or any of H. M.'s forces, forts, and garrisons; or to prohibit the exportation [of such provisions, &c. these words are omitted in the act,] to the British forts, castles, or factories in Africa, or for the use of British ships trading on such coast; or to prohibit any person from shipping any provisions, &c. to be carried coastwise, having such coast sufferance, cocquet, or coast despatch for such purpose, and on such security being given for the landing, &c. the same, as may be required by any law for carrying provisions coastwise, 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 2. s. 4.

13. This act shall not prevent evidence from being received by the commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot. in case any vessel is under seizure for having provision on board contrary to H. M.'s order, or in any information or suit brought for the forfeiture of such vessel on account of such provisions, &c. being on board, in order to show from the small quantity of such provision that the same was on board without the knowledge either of the owner or master, or other person having the charge of such ship, and without any wilful neglect on their part; and in every case where such proof is made, the ship shall not be forfeited, id. s. 5.

14. The 32 G. 3. c. 80. and all acts now in force for regulating the coast trade, shall be applied in execution of this act, except where hereby or by such order of H. M. expressly altered, id. s. 6.

15. Copies of such orders as shall be made by H. M. in council, if made during the sitting of parliament, shall be laid before parliament within 3 days after issued; and if made when parliament is not sitting, then within 14 days after the meeting of parliament, id. s. 7.

CORPORATION.

8. (a) The [three oaths and declaration, viz. the corporation oaths and declaration in 13 C. 2. St. 2. c. 1. ss. 5, 6. REP. by 5 G. 1. c. 6. s. 2. and the two] oaths of allegiance and supremacy shall be from time to time administered and tendered to such person or persons who by this act are to take the same (see s. 12. pl. 11.) by such person or persons respectively who by the charters or usages of any city, corporation, borough, cinque port, and its members, or other port town, ought to administer the oath for due executing any office, [of magistracy or any place or trust, or other employment concerning the government thereof, s. 4. EXP.] and in default of such persons, by 2 justices of peace of such city, &c. if such there be, or otherwise by 2 justices of the county where such city, &c. is, 13 C. 2. St. 2. c. 1. s. 10.

8. (b) The said justices of peace and other persons hereby authorized to administer the said oaths respectively, shall cause memorandums or entries to be made of all oaths so taken before them, and deliver the same once in a year to the town-clerk or other register or clerk of every such city, &c. who shall cause the same to be fairly entered into the books or register belonging to the said city, &c., id. s. 11.

EAST INDIA COMPANY.

363. (a) After 25th May, 1815, it shall not be lawful for the E. I. C., or for the court of directors thereof, with the sanction of the court of proprietors, to charge the Co.'s funds with the payment of any gratuity to any officer civil or military, or other person, exceeding 600*l.* unless the grant or resolution for that purpose has been approved and confirmed by the board of control; and copies of all warrants or instruments granting any salary, pension, or gratuity, shall be submitted to both houses of parliament within one month after such grant, if parliament be then sitting, or if not, within one month after their next meeting, 55 G. 3. c. 64.

35. (a) EVERY PERSON who shall forge or counterfeit the handwriting of any person in the superscription of any letter or packet to be sent by the post, in order to avoid the payment of postage [or shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or procure to be forged, &c. the date upon such superscription, or shall write and send by the post, or cause to be written, &c. any letter, &c. the superscription or cover whereof shall be forged, &c. in order to avoid the payment of postage, knowing the same to be forged, &c., on conviction, 42 G. 3. c. 63. s. 14.] shall be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years, 4 G. 3. c. 24. s. 8., 42 G. 3. c. 63. s. 14.

GREENWICH HOSPITAL.

45. (a) "Whereas it is expedient that the payment of bills for out pensions heretofore by 56 G. 3. c. 101. s. 5. directed to be made by the clerk to the treasurer of the navy should be authorized to be made by the deputies of the treasurer of Greenwich hospital;" BE IT ENACTED, that from and after 3d June, 1818, all bills drawn by the paymaster of pensions at Greenwich hospital or under his authority, for payment of out-pensions, may be directed to and paid by any deputy or deputies to the treasurer thereof; and all the penalties, provisions, and regulations now in force with respect to such payment of pensions, when made or directed to be made by the said clerks of the navy treasurer, shall be applied to the payments of pensions, directed to be made by the deputy or deputies of the hospital treasurer as fully as if herein re-enacted, 58 G. 3. c. 64. s. 7. [See the rest of this statute, tit. PRIZE, pages 1295—1302. pl. 10. 18. 56—61. and the schedules, pl. 105.]

45. (b) After 3d June 1818, the certificates on all bills drawn by the treasurer or deputy-treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or by the paymaster of pensions for the payment of any prize or bounty money, grant, pension, or other allowance of money in favour of any person residing at any port or place at which a deputy of the said hospital shall have been or shall be appointed, shall be attested by such deputy and by no other person, id. s. 8.

45. (c) It shall be lawful for every licensed agent to send a list of all orders which he may have received or shall hereafter receive from non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines to the agent appointed for distribution of any prize or prizes, bounty-money, grant, or other allowances of money; which orders, if deposited at Greenwich hospital, shall not be revocable after distribution of the money to which they relate has commenced; and such distributing agent shall not, after receiving any list as aforesaid, pay the non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines named therein, or any of them, the share or shares due to any of them respectively, but shall pay the same over with the unclaimed and forfeited shares to Greenwich hospital, to be refunded by the treasurer to the non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines entitled thereto, or the payers named in the orders respectively, in like manner as unclaimed shares are directed to be paid and refunded; and the distributing agents shall, on requisition of the clerk of the cheque of the hospital, deliver to the latter any order deposited in their hands by licensed agents, to be kept at the said hospital; and such distributing agent shall receive from the said clerk of the cheque a receipt for and

IRELAND, (ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.)

1. FOR PREVENTING and removing all doubts concerning the exclusive rights of the [parliament, and, virtually expired since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Act of Union] courts of Ire. in matters of [legislation and] judicature, and for preventing any writ of error or appeal from any courts in Ire. from being received, heard and adjudged in any courts in G. B., 23 G. 3. c. 28.

2. The right claimed by the people of Ire. [to be bound only by laws enacted by H. M. and the parliament of that kingdom in all cases, EXP. since Act of Union] and to have all suits of law or or equity instituted in Ire. decided in H. M.'s courts therein finally and without appeal, is hereby declared, established, and ascertained for ever, and shall at no time be questioned or questionable, id. s. 1.

3. No writ of error or appeal shall be received or adjudged, or other proceeding had, by or in any courts in this kingdom in any suit at law or equity instituted in any court in Ire., and if had shall be void, id. s. 2.

4. ALL LAWS in force at the time of the union with Ire., and all courts of civil and ecclesiastical jurisdiction in the respective kingdoms shall remain as by law established, subject to alteration by parliament; provided that all writs of error and appeals which before the union might be finally decided by the house of lords of either kingdom, shall be so decided in that of U. K.; and after that event there shall remain in Ire. an instance court of admiralty for determination of causes civil and maritime only, the appeal from which shall be to H. M.'s delegates in his court of chancery of Ire., and all laws in force in either kingdom contrary to any act passed for effectuating these articles are, after the union, repealed, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 8. (s. 1.)

OFFENCE AND OFFENDER.

JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl. 60—83.]

1. (b) All offences of conjurations, witchcraft, and dealing with evil spirits, murder, manslaughter, felonious burning of houses and corn, burglary, robbing of houses by day, robbery, theft, buggery with man or beast, and rape, committed by any of H. M.'s natural born subjects of Eng. or its dominions within Scot., and the accessories of and to the same, shall be enquired of and determined by the justices of assise or commissioners of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery, being natural born subjects of Eng. by lawful men of the counties of Cumberland, Northumberland, Westmoreland, or any of them, at the election of such justices, &c., as if such offences had been committed therein. On which trials the party arraigned may produce and examine witnesses on oath for his justification, 4 J. 1. c. 1. s. 26.

1. (c) Justices of peace of such counties may, on complaint made, bind over by recognizance in a convenient sum taken to H. M.'s use, as well the prosecutor as the witnesses he shall desire to produce, (so as such witnesses be paid their charges), to prosecute and give evidence, id. s. 27.

1. (d) Every accessory to any such offences committed in Scot. offending in Eng. shall be proceeded withal, indicted, tried, judged, and executed, though the principal is not convicted or attainted; and no such offender shall be allowed the benefit of his clergy, nor admitted to peremptory challenge above 5, and every indictment for any such offences so committed, shall be judged good in law though the words contra pacem coronam et dignitatem nostram be omitted, id. s. 28.

1. (e) No sheriff, under-sheriff, or other minister to whom it appertains, shall return any juror to try any such offence so committed except such juror has 5*l.* per annum freehold in the county where the trial is had, on pain to forfeit for each juror so returned 40*l.*; one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in any court at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c.; and the offender may challenge any juror passing on his life for want of such freehold, 4*J.* 1. c. 1. s. 29.

1. (f) No natural born subject of Eng. shall, for any of such offences committed in Scot. or for being accessory to the same, forfeit any lands, &c. either free or copy, or customary, nor shall his blood be corrupted, nor his wife lose her dower; but nevertheless he shall forfeit to H. M. his goods and chattels, id. s. 30.

1. (g) "Recital that a like act is to be made in Scot." therefore, on complaint made by any subject of Eng. to any of the justices of assize, commissioners of oyer and terminer, or justice of peace, being natural born subjects of Eng. of any such offence committed by such subjects of Scot. within Eng., in case where the offender is returned into Scot., such justice, &c. shall bind over by recognizance as well the said party prosecutor as any witnesses he desires, as in s. 27. pl. 1. (c), aforesaid, wherein if default is made and proved by certificate or otherwise before the lord treasurer, chancellor, and barons of the exchequer, or any of them, in the exchequer-chamber, and a decree is made that such recognizance is forfeited, then the court of exchequer shall proceed to levy the debt as if the recognizance was adjudged forfeited by due course of law, id. ss. 31, 32.

1. (h) Every subject of Scot. either party grieved or witness, who shall prosecute in such cases within Eng. and thereby have occasion to repair hither, either voluntarily or on such recognizance, shall have and enjoy privilege from arrests concerning all causes, as well capital as others, committed before they so came into Eng. (except treason or murder) so long as they shall be necessarily going, coming, or abiding within Eng. for such prosecution, id. s. 33.

1. (i) Every such offence so committed shall be laid in the indictment to be committed within the realm of Scot., according to the truth, and not in the county where trial is had, id. s. 34.

1. (k) Provided that if any Scotch subject is proceeded against and tried in Scot. on the prosecution of the party grieved, and on evidence in open court for any offence committed in Eng., he shall not be proceeded against in Eng. for the same offence; but he shall plead his former acquittal, conviction, &c. within Scot.; and thereupon proceedings shall be stayed, until the court is informed of the truth thereof by certificate from Scot. or otherwise; and if true, the party shall be forthwith discharged, id. s. 35.

1. (l) No Englishman shall be sent out of Eng. for trial in Scot. for offences committed in Scot., id. s. 36. [But see next pl.]

1. (m.) If any person shall commit any offence within Scot., which by the law of Eng. is adjudged petty treason, murder, manslaughter, felonious burning of houses and corn, burglary, robbery of houses by day, robbery, theft or rape, and shall fly into Eng., and is apprehended within the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Westmoreland, or any parts of the same, or within any places lying on the north side of the river Tyne, commonly called Bedlingtonshire, Norhamshire and Islandshire, the town and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, and the town of Berwick upon Tweed; the justices of assize, or one of them, the justices of gaol delivery, or four of them, the justices of peace, or four of them at quarter sessions, may, on examination of the offence by warrant under hand and seal, send all such offenders into Scot. for trial, 7*J.* 1. c. 1. ss. 1—3.

1. (n.) Continuance of act, s. 4. Execution of act suspended until a similar law is made in Scot. for sending Scotchmen committing offences in Eng. and flying into Scot., back again into Eng. for trial, id. s. 5. [both EXP.]

1. (o.) At all such trials for such offences so committed, the jurors, or the greater part of them (who are to be of a better condition than usual, see s. 29. pl. 1. (e), shall, in their discretion and consciences, upon their oaths, receive only such good and lawful witnesses on their oaths, either for or against the party as shall not appear to them, or the greater part of them, to be unworthy witnesses, either in regard of their hatred and malice, or their favour and affection, either to the prosecutor or the party arraigned, or of their former evil life, 4*J.* 1. c. 1. s. 37.

1. (p) Such offenders, if peers of the realm, shall be tried by their peers, as in cases of treason or felony, id. s. 38.

PARLIAMENT.

159. (a) Nothing in 20*G.* 3. c. 17. or 22*G.* 3. c. 31. shall prevent any person from voting at any such election of a knight or knights of the shire, or of a burgess or burgesses for Cricklade, for or in respect of any messuages, lands, or tenements, which have been charged or assessed for 6 calendar months next before such election, towards some aid granted or to be granted to H. M., his heirs, &c. by a land-tax in the name of a tenant or tenants actually occupying the same at the time of such assessment being made, although the name of the person so claiming to vote, or the person or persons by or through whom such person so claiming to vote derives his title, or of the predecessor of such person, shall not be inserted in the assessment, according to the form thereof to 20*G.* 3. c. 17. (pl. 162.) annexed, 30*G.* 3. c. 35. s. 2.

195. (a) No MEMBER OF THE house of commons shall be capable of being a commissioner or farmer of the customs, or of holding or enjoying in his own name or in trust for him any place or employment touching the farming collecting, or managing the customs, 12&13*W.* 3. c. 10. s. 89.

195. (b) If any such member enjoy or execute such place or employment, he is declared incapable of sitting or voting in such parliament, id. s. 90.

195. (c) No commissioner, collector, or other person concerned in collecting or managing the customs, shall by word, message, writing, or in other manner, endeavour to persuade any elector to give or dissuade him from giving his vote for the choice of any knight of the shire, citizen, or burgess; and every offender therein shall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish, to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster; and every person convicted on such suit shall become disabled of ever bearing any office relating to the customs, or other place of trust under H. M., id. s. 91.

POOR.

2. (a) TO PREVENT DISPUTES TOUCHING THE PARISHES or places where improved wastes and drained and improved marsh lands shall be charged to parochial rates, 17*G.* 2. c. 37.

2. (b) Where there shall be any dispute or uncertainty in what parish or place waste and barren lands, and lands formerly fen or marsh ground, or covered with water heretofore improved or drained, or hereafter to be improved, &c. lie, and ought to be rated, every occupier of such lands, or of houses built thereon, tenements, tythes arising therefrom, mines therein, and saleable underwoods therein growing, shall be rated to the relief of the poor, and to all other parochial rates within such parish and place lying nearest to such lands, in like manner and subject to the same regulations as all other lands within such parish, &c.; and if any dispute arise touching what parish, &c. such lands ought to be rated in, the justices of the peace for the county, riding, liberty or division where such lands lie, may, at their next general quarter-sessions, after notice given to the officers of the several parishes, &c. abutting on such lands, and to all other persons interested therein, determine the same on appeal of any person interested, and at such sessions cause such lands or hereditaments to be allotted to and equally assessed in such parish, &c. as they see just; and such determination and allotment shall be final as to the parish, &c. in which such lands, &c. shall be rated; and the said lands, &c. shall be rated to the relief of the poor, and to all other parochial rates within such parish, &c. only, to which they are so allotted, id. s. 1.

2. (c) Nothing in this act, nor any allotment to be made by the justices at the general quarter sessions in pursuance thereof, shall affect or determine the boundaries of any parish, &c. to any purpose other than for the rating such lands, &c. to the relief of the poor and other parochial rates, id. s. 2. [Nothing herein shall avoid or alter 16&17*C.* 2. c. 11. s. 17. for draining Deeping Fen, id. s. 3.]

6. FOR ENABLING THE WIVES AND FAMILIES of soldiers embarked on foreign service to return home, 51 G. 3. c. 106. [AMD. and EXT. to the wives, &c. of soldiers dying or employed on foreign service, 52 G. 3. c. 120., both acts REP. 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 1.]

7. FOR ENABLING THE WIVES AND FAMILIES of soldiers embarked in Ire. for foreign service to return to their homes, 52 G. 3. c. 27. [REP. 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 1.]

73. TO CONSOLIDATE AND AMEND the provisions of several acts for enabling wives and families of soldiers to return to their homes, G. 3. c. 92. [see 43 G. 3. c. 61. tit. VAGRANT, pl. 76—80. But see the system of passing vagrants abolished, and for what time, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64., VAGRANT, pl. 45.]

74. The 51 G. 3. c. 106. and 52 G. 3. c. 27. 120. shall be REP. id. s. 1. The secretary at war in G. B., or the chief secretary, or in his absence the under secretary for the military department in Ire. shall issue passes to be filled up by any magistrate or justice under this act, for granting allowances to enable the wives, widows, and children, of soldiers, in certain cases herein specified, and in any other case in which such secretaries respectively think it expedient, to return home; and may make such regulations in relation to the issuing and filling up of such passes, and the certificates and vouchers on which the same are to be issued, and the allowances advanced, as such secretaries respectively think fit, id. s. 2.

72. The commanding officer of every regiment, battalion, corps, or detachment about to embark for foreign service, and the commanding officer of every regiment, &c. in which any soldier shall die on service, leaving widows or children destitute of the means of returning home, shall cause a return to be made out of the wives, widows, and children of the soldiers of such regiment, &c. who are desirous to return home, and are unable to do so without assistance under this act, stating the several places of residence to which such wives, &c. are desirous to go, whether in G. B. or Ire., and shall give to each such wife, &c. a duplicate of the part that applies to her and her children, certifying thereon that the person to whom such duplicate is given is the widow or wife, or reputed wife, and the child or children of a soldier in his regiment, &c. and distinctly stating that such certificate does not entitle such wife, &c. to any allowance, and that no payment shall be made thereon; but that such certificate is only given for the purpose of identifying such wife, &c. before the magistrate or justice, and enabling him to fill up such pass as shall be allowed by such secretaries; and every such commanding officer shall transmit all such returns or duplicate copies thereof as relate to any wives or widows of soldiers desirous to return to their homes in G. B., to the secretary at war in London; and of such as return to Ire., to the chief secretary of the military department in Dublin; and when any such wives, &c. have to go through any part of G. B. and Ire. in returning home, then to both of such secretaries, 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 3.

76. Each wife or widow to whom any such duplicate is delivered, shall take it to some justice or magistrate, who shall fill up and sign such an engraved form of pass, bearing H. M.'s arms, and signed by the secretary at war, or any officer in his department, and sealed with his official seal in G. B.; or a like form signed by such chief or under-secretary for the military department in Dublin, or some officer in his department, and sealed with his official seal if in Ire.; as shall be transmitted to such magistrate, &c. on application by him made to them; and such magistrate, &c. shall fill up the blanks in the pass, and certify the same, and make out a route in the proper column for such wife, &c. specifying the place to which such woman is going, and her route; and shall deliver such pass to her in exchange for such duplicate, in order that she may receive an allowance not exceeding 1*d.* for herself, and 1*d.* for each child, id. s. 4.

77. On production of any such pass to any overseer of the poor if in Eng. or any treasurer of the kirk-session if in Scot., or postmaster if in Ire., of any place through which such woman shall proceed according to the route specified in such pass, he shall, out of the money in his hands applicable to the poor-rates if an overseer or treasurer, or out of any public money if a postmaster, pay her an allowance not exceeding the rate per mile in such pass specified, for the number of miles to the next city, town, or place to which she is going, not exceeding 18 miles; and he shall indorse on such pass the money so paid, and take a receipt of the woman signed by her or with her mark, specifying the regiment, &c. to which her husband belongs, or if a widow did belong, so as the description in the receipt may correspond with that in the pass, id. s. 5.

78. The sums so advanced by such overseer or treasurer shall, on production and delivery of such receipt to the collector of excise of the district within which such overseer, &c. acts, be repaid for the use of the poor by such collector, out of any public money in his hands, and all sums so repaid, and all sums advanced by any postmaster in Ire., shall be allowed in their accounts, and such overseer, &c. shall give such collector a receipt for such repayment, and the receipt of such overseer, &c. and that of the woman, shall be taken as cash in payment of the excise duties by such collectors, and the woman's receipt shall be taken as cash in payment of the post office duties in Ire. by such postmaster, and be allowed in their accounts; and all monies so advanced in G. B. shall be repaid by the general agent, or any other person appointed for such purpose by the secretary at war in London, to such person as the commissioners of excise in Eng. and Scot. shall authorize to draw for or receive the same on account of the duties; and sums so advanced in Ire. shall be repaid by the general agent or other person appointed for that purpose, by the chief secretary, or in his absence the under-secretary, for the military department in Ire. to the receiver-general of H. M.'s post office in Ire., 58 G. 3. c. 92. s. 6.

79. In the city of Dublin every such woman shall in every instance apply to the agent of the regiment in Dublin, to which she belongs, and not to the postmaster, and such agent shall advance such money and indorse and subscribe such certificate as above, and shall be allowed such sum in his accounts; and such indorsement shall be as valid as if done by such postmaster, id. s. 7.

80. If by sickness or accident any such woman or child has been left at any place of embarkation, or at the last quarters of any regiments, &c. or at any place on the march from such last quarters, to any place of embarkation, and the regulations of this act for giving any such allowances have not been performed, and any such woman or child has been omitted in any such return, then the officer commanding where such woman and child have been left, shall make out such return as hereby prescribed of such woman and child, and transmit it to the war office at London or Dublin, and give such woman such duplicate, and transmit such further return as may be necessary under any special circumstances of the case to the secretary at war in London, or chief-secretary, &c. in Dublin, as the case requires; and such return and duplicate shall be of the same effect as if done as herein before directed, id. s. 8.

81. Every such soldier's wife or widow shall, at the last place of receiving any allowance under this act, antecedent to her arrival at home, or the port or place of embarkation, deliver up the pass so given her to the person so advancing such allowance; and the overseer or treasurer paying such allowance in G. B. shall deliver such pass to the excise collector, and every pass so delivered up shall, if in G. B., be transmitted by such collector to the secretary at war in London, and if in Ire. be transmitted by the postmaster to the under-secretary of the military department in Dublin, id. s. 9.

82. If contrary winds or want of a vessel, or if by sickness or other unavoidable cause, such woman is detained more than one night, at any place from the signing of the pass by the magistrate, &c. to her arrival at the port of embarkation or at home, whether in G. B. or Ire., then such woman may apply to any justice who shall examine into the facts on oath, and if satisfied of the truth thereof, shall give such woman an order to receive from the overseer of the poor or treasurer of kirk-session, or person acting as postmaster, as the case requires, if on her journey, and if at her port of embarkation, then from the district paymaster, the sum of 1*s.* per day for the maintenance of herself, and 6*d.* per day for that of each child specified in the pass; and such payment shall be made her so long as she is unavoidably detained, and such order, with such woman's receipt, and the certificate of some magistrate or justice of such detention, and the period thereof, shall be a sufficient voucher for every such payment, and sums so paid shall be duly vouched and discharged as in s. 6. pl. 72. (f) directed, id. s. 10.

83. All wives and widows of soldiers having any such passes, and not complying with the regulations of this act, shall be liable to be treated as vagrants, and may be passed as such to their homes in Eng., Ire., and Scot., as if no pass had been given, id. s. 11. [But see passes abolished, and for what time, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 64. s. 1. VAGRANT, pl. 45.]

(as the case shall be) of the parish, chapelry, or perpetual curacy (as the case shall be) of in the county of under the jurisdiction of the ordinary, having produced to us the said ordinary, and patron of the said church and living, a certificate under the hand of a skilful and experienced workman, or surveyor, of the state and condition of the buildings upon the glebe belonging to the said church, chapelry, or perpetual curacy (as the case shall be), and of the value of the timber and other materials thereupon, fit to be sold, or employed about such buildings; and also a plan, made by the said of the work proposed to be done by new buildings and repairs upon the said glebe, and an estimate of the expence attending the same, after applying the said materials, or the money to arise from the sale thereof, in such buildings and repairs; and also a particular account in writing, signed by the said A. B., of the annual profits of such living, and of the rents, stipends, taxes, and other outgoings annually issuing thereout, verified upon oath, pursuant to the directions of an act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, to promote the residence of the parochial clergy, by making provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing houses, and other necessary buildings and tenements, for the use of their benefices; and having considered such certificate, plan, and account: Now, we do approve thereof; and do consent, that such buildings and repairs shall be made as therein specified; and that the said A. B. do borrow and take up at interest the sum of being the estimate of the expences, after deducting the value of the timber and other materials thought proper to be sold, and which appears to us, from the said account, a sum not exceeding two years neat income and produce of the said living; which money is to be paid to (a person nominated by us and the said A. B.) and applied according to the direction of the said act.

FORM of the MORTGAGE. (See s. 1. pl. 35.)

THIS indenture, made the day of in the year of the reign of his majesty and in the year of our Lord between the reverend rector, or vicar, &c. of the parish church, curacy or chapelry of in the county of and the diocese of the bishop of of the one part; and of the other part. Whereas the said pursuant to the directions of an act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, intituled An act to promote the residence of the parochial clergy, by making provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing houses, and other necessary buildings and tenements, for the use of their benefices, hath obtained the consent of the ordinary of the said diocese, and the patron of the said church and living, to borrow and take up at interest the sum of to be laid out and expended in building, rebuilding or repairing (as the case shall be) the parsonage house, and other necessary offices, upon the glebe belonging to the said church, chapel, or curacy, as appears by an instrument, signed by the said ordinary and patron, hereunto annexed: And whereas the said hath agreed to lend and advance the sum of upon a mortgage of the glebe, tythes, rents and other profits and emoluments of the said living, pursuant to the direction and the true intent and meaning of the said act: Now this indenture witnesseth, that the said in consideration of the sum of five shillings to him in hand paid, and of the sum of paid at or before the sealing and delivery hereof, into the hands of (a person or persons (as the case shall be) nominated by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent to receive the same, pursuant to the direction of the said act (which nomination is also hereunto annexed), and which receipt of the said sum of the said have or hath acknowledged by an indorsement on the back of this deed), hath granted, bargained, sold, and demised, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, and demise unto the said his executors, administrators, and assigns, all the glebe lands, tythes, rents, moduses, compositions for tythe, salaries, stipends, fees, gratuities, and other emoluments and profits whatsoever, arising, coming, growing, renewing, or payable to the rector, vicar, or incumbent (as the case shall be) of the said living in respect thereof, with all and every their rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to have, hold, receive, take, and enjoy the said premises, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the said his executors, administrators, and assigns, from henceforth, for and during the term of years, fully to be complete and ended, in as full, ample, and beneficial manner, and with such remedies and powers for obtaining and recovering the same, and every part thereof, to all intents and purposes, as the said his successors, rectors, vicars, &c. (as the case shall be) of the said church, could or might, or ought to have held, enjoyed, received, taken, or recovered the same, if these presents had not been made:

In cases where the mortgage by this act directed is to be made by the ordinary and patron alone, without the incumbent, this covenant and proviso are to be omitted, and the form is to be varied in such other respects as shall be necessary.

[And the said A. B. for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, doth hereby covenant, promise, and agree, to and with the said his executors, administrators, and assigns, That he the said A. B. during the time he shall continue rector, vicar, &c. of the said parish and parish church, shall and will well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, unto the said his executors, administrators, or assigns, interest for the said sum of or so much thereof as shall remain due at the end of every year, to be computed from the day of the date of these presents, after the rate of per centum per annum, by yearly payments, the first of the said payments to begin and be made on the day of next; and also, at the several times before mentioned for payment of the interest as aforesaid, shall and will well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, the sum of five pounds per centum per annum of the principal which remained due at the beginning of the year in which every such payment is to be paid, in case the said A. B. shall be resident upon the said living for the time mentioned in, and according to the true intent and meaning of the said act; and in case the said A. B. shall not reside upon the said living during the time mentioned in, and according to the true intent and meaning of the said act, he shall pay, or cause to be paid, the sum of ten pounds per centum per annum of the said principal money, by such yearly payments as aforesaid, instead of the said sum of five pounds per centum per annum, and shall and will continue such respective payments of the said interest, and on account of the said principal money, so long as he shall continue rector, vicar, &c. (as the case shall be) of the said parish and parish church, unless all the said principal money and interest for the same shall be sooner paid and discharged. Provided always, and these presents are upon this condition, That if the said A. B. and his successors shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, the said principal money and interest for the same, in manner and at the times aforesaid, according to the true intent and meaning of the said act, and of these presents, and also all costs and charges which shall have been occasioned by the nonpayment thereof, these presents, and every thing herein contained, shall cease and be void. Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the said A. B. and his successors, peaceably and quietly to hold, occupy, possess, and enjoy all and singular the said glebe lands, tythes, rents, moduses, composition for tythes, stipends, fees, gratuities, and other emoluments and profits whatsoever, arising or to arise from or in respect of the said living, until default shall be made by him or them respectively in the payment of the interest and principal, or some part thereof, at the times and in the manner aforesaid. In witness, &c.

NOMINATION of a Clergyman by the Bishop, to settle any Dispute about the Proportion of the Payments within the Year in which any Avoidance shall happen. (See s. 7. pl. 42.)

FORM of the DEED of Sale, or Exchange of Lands or Tythes belonging to the Living or Benefice. (See s. 11. pl. 46.)

THIS indenture made the day of in the year of the reign of his majesty king George the and in the year of our Lord between A. B. ordinary of the rectory (vicarage, chapelry, or perpetual cure, as the case shall be) of in the county of C. D. of patron of the said rectory, &c. and the reverend E. F. clerk, incumbent of the said rectory, &c. of the one part, and G. H. of of the other part. Whereas, in the execution of an act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, intituled An act, &c. [here set forth the title of the act] it hath been found convenient to purchase (or exchange, as the case shall be) certain lands, &c. (describe particularly the lands purchased) lying near and convenient to the parsonage house belonging to the said rectory, &c. (or if the house be lately purchased) [lying near a certain messuage, house or tenement, and buildings, lately purchased for the habitation of the minister of the said rectory, &c. under the powers of the said act] and it hath been found most convenient, and agreed by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, that the glebe lands (or tythes, as the case shall be) herein-after described, belonging to the said rectory, &c. shall be sold, to raise the sum of being the purchase money for the said lands herein-before described (or exchanged, if the same is to be done by exchange, in order to make an equivalent for such lands), and a contract hath been made with the said G. H. for the absolute sale, at the price or sum of (or exchange, as the case shall be) of part of the glebe land (or of the tythes, as the case shall be) belonging to the said rectory, &c. herein-after mentioned; that is to say, (here describe the particulars of the land or tythes proposed to be sold or exchanged) which contract is hereby ratified and confirmed by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent: Now this indenture witnesseth, that the said A. B. C. D. and E. F. in order to carry the said contract into execution, and to fulfil the purposes of the said recited act, in pursuance of the powers thereby to them given, and in consideration of the sum of the receipt whereof is acknowledged on the back of this deed; which sum hath been paid and applied in the purchase of the lands herein-before described; have, and each of them hath granted, bargained, and sold (and exchanged, if the same be by exchange), and by these presents do, and each of them doth grant, bargain, sell (and exchange, if by exchange) unto the said G. H. and his heirs and assigns, all, &c. (here describe the lands or tithes, as the case shall be), with their and every of their rights, privileges, and appurtenances, to hold to and to the use of the said G. H. his heirs and assigns for ever. (If done by exchange, add the following words) [in exchange for certain lands which belonged to the said G. H. and are, by indentures of equal date herewith, exchanged and conveyed to the said C. D. in trust, for the sole use and benefit of the said E. F. and his successors, rectors, vicars, &c. (as the case shall be) of the said living or benefice for the time being, for ever.] And the said A. B. C. D. and E. F. do hereby severally covenant for themselves, their several executors and administrators, to and with the said G. H. his heirs and assigns, that they, nor any of them, have or hath done any act whereby the said lands (or tythes, as the case shall be) can or may be incumbered; and that the said G. H. his heirs and assigns, shall and may, from time to time, for ever hereafter, peaceably and quietly hold and enjoy the said glebe lands or tythes (as the case shall be) according to the true intent and meaning of the said act, without any lett, hindrance or interruption of or from them or any of them. In witness, &c.

FORM of the DEED of Purchase or Exchange of Buildings or Lands to be annexed to the Living or Benefice. (See s. 10. pl. 45.)

THIS indenture, made the day of in the year of the reign of his majesty king and in the year of our Lord between A. B. of of the one part, C. D. ordinary of the rectory, vicarage, chapelry, or perpetual cure (as the case shall be) of in the county of of E. F. of patron of the said rectory, &c. and the reverend G. H. clerk, incumbent of the said rectory, &c. of the other part. Whereas there is no parsonage house belonging to the said rectory, &c. [or, the parsonage house belonging to the said rectory, &c. is become so ruinous and decayed (or so mean) that it is not fit for the habitation of the minister of the said rectory, &c.] and one year's neat income or produce of the said living or benefice will not be sufficient to rebuild or repair the said house, with the necessary offices belonging thereto: And whereas a certain messuage, house, or tenement, with the buildings thereunto belonging, situate in the property of the said A. B. and lying within the distance of yards from the church (or chapel, as the case shall be) of the said rectory, &c. appears to the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, proper and convenient for the habitation and use of the minister of the said rectory, &c. [and more commodious than the present house and buildings upon the glebe of the said rectory, &c. in cases where there are any]; and a contract hath been made, by the direction and with the approbation and consent of the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, with the said A. B. which is hereby ratified and confirmed by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, for the absolute purchase of the said messuage, house or tenement, and buildings, for the price or sum of pursuant to the directions of an act, passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, intituled An act &c. (set forth the title of the act:)

This to be inserted when the lands are purchased from the same person who sells the house and buildings.

[And whereas a contract has likewise been made with the said A. B. by the like direction, approbation, and consent, which is hereby likewise ratified and confirmed by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, for the absolute purchase of the inheritance of a certain yard, garden, orchard, and piece or parcel of land (describing them particularly, as the case shall be) lying near or convenient to the said messuage, house, tenement and buildings, containing, by admeasurement, for the price or sum of which have been agreed by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, to be raised by the sale (or exchange) of certain lands (or tythes, as the case shall be) belonging to the said rectory, &c. herein-after described, pursuant to the powers given by the said act; viz. (here give a full description of the lands so agreed to be sold); (if the equivalent is to be by exchange, then after the word incumbent, last-mentioned, insert [and the said A. B. to be exchanged for [certain lands or tythes, &c. as above.]])

Now this indenture witnesseth, that the said A. B. for and in consideration of the said several sums of and to him in hand paid for the purchases aforesaid (if both the buildings and lands are purchased for money), (but if the equivalent for the land is to be by exchange, then) [in consideration of the said sum of for the purchase of the said messuage, house or tenement, and buildings, and in consideration of the land (or tythes, as the case shall be) so agreed to be exchanged as aforesaid, and intended to be conveyed to him the said A. B. by the said ordinary, patron and incumbent, by indenture of equal date herewith] the receipt of which said sum (or sums of money, as the case shall be) [and acknowledgment of the said exchange] (if the equivalent for the land is to be by exchange) the said A. B. hath admitted by an indorsement on the back of this deed, hath granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents doth grant, bargain and sell (if by exchange) [hath granted, bargained, sold and exchanged with and] unto the said E. F. and his heirs, all, &c. (here insert a full description of the buildings or lands so intended to be conveyed, with their and every of their rights, privileges and appurtenances) to hold to the said E. F. and his heirs, in trust, for the sole use and benefit of the said G. H. and his successors, rectors, vicars, &c. (as the case shall be) of the said living or benefice for the time being for ever: And the said A. B. for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, doth covenant and agree to and with the said E. F. and his heirs, that he hath good right to convey the said messuage, house or tenement, and buildings, lands, &c. (as the case shall be), and that he will warrant the same, for the uses and purposes aforesaid, for ever, free from all claims, charges and incumbrances whatsoever, by, from, or under him, or any of his ancestors. In witness, &c.

No. 3. (See s. 4. pl. 38.)

FORM of AGREEMENT, at the Public Meeting, for two or more Parishes, Townships, or Places, to unite in adopting the Provisions of the Act, made in the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third, for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor.

It is agreed at a public meeting duly held this day of at in the county of pursuant to the directions of the said act, That the parish [or township] of [as the case shall be] shall, from henceforth, in conjunction with the parishes or townships of and [as the case shall be] adopt in all respects the provisions, rules, orders, and regulations, and comply with all the requisites prescribed by the said act for parishes uniting for those purposes; and that a convenient workhouse, and other buildings and necessary conveniences, shall be immediately provided at or near and properly fitted up and accommodated for the purposes mentioned in the said act: And we recommend to the consideration of the justices of the limit wherein such workhouse will be situate, A. B., C. D., and E. F., as fit and proper persons qualified for guardians of the poor; and G. H., I. K., and L. M., as fit persons to be governors of the poor house for the said parish [or township, as the case shall be]; and do agree to allow the person who shall be appointed guardian a salary of per annum for his trouble in executing that office; and to the person who shall be appointed governor of the poor house a salary of for his trouble in executing that office.

No. 4. (See s. 4. pl. 38.; s. 19. pl. 57.)

FORM of AGREEMENT for uniting the Parishes [or Townships, as the case shall be] of A., B., C., and D., for the Purpose of providing a House or Houses, and the better maintaining and employing their Poor, pursuant to the Statute of the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third.

It is agreed, this day of by and between the guardians of the poor of the parishes of and and of the townships of and in the county of (which maintain their own poor separate and distinct from the other parts of their respective parishes) whose names are hereunto subscribed, pursuant to the opinion of two third parts in number and value as aforesaid, of the owners or occupiers of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, assessed to the poor's rates within such respective parishes and townships, at meetings duly held for that purpose, qualified according to the directions of the act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, and with the approbation of A. B. and C. D. two justices of the peace, according to the directions of the said act, That the said respective parishes and townships shall be united, for the better maintaining and employing their poor; and that a convenient house or houses, with proper buildings and accommodations thereto, and with land fit for gardens, orchards, and the keeping of a cow or cows, shall be built [purchased or hired, as shall be found most suitable], at or near for the reception and accommodation of the poor, as soon as conveniently may be, and if hired, the same shall be rented upon such terms as shall be agreed upon between the guardians of the poor of the said several parishes and townships, or the major part of them, and the person or persons owning or being authorized to let such buildings, lands, and premises; but no such agreement shall be made for a longer term than twenty-one years, unless the guardian or guardians shall have an option to vacate it at the end of that term, on giving twelve months notice in writing of his or their intentions so to do, nor for a shorter term than three years: and such houses shall be fitted up and made convenient for the purposes aforesaid, at the expence of the landlords [or tenants, as shall be agreed between them]: That the rents of the said houses, the expences of fitting up, making additions or alterations [where they shall be agreed to be paid by the tenants], and of the furniture thereof, and also the utensils and materials to be used for the purpose of employing the poor, and the wages and allowances to be paid to the governor of the house, shall be paid by the said several guardians in their due proportions, according to the amount of the money raised by the poor's rates for their several parishes and townships, in respect of their poor, on a medium of three years preceding such agreement; and that such proportion shall be ascertained by and whom we have nominated for that purpose, and shall be paid by the guardians of the poor of the said respective parishes and townships, to the person who shall be authorized to receive the same, within seven days after the same shall be so ascertained; and that the money earned by the labour of such poor shall be brought to the credit of that account at the end of every year: That the expences of victuals, beer, and firing for the poor and the governor [and for the assistants, when any shall be found necessary] in every such house or houses, with all other small incidental expences, shall be proportioned, at the end of every month, according to the number of poor which shall be sent from each of the said respective parishes, townships, and places, and for the time they shall have resided there within such month: That the guardians of the poor of any of the said parishes, townships, or places, shall be at liberty to withdraw from this agreement at the end of the first three years, or any succeeding three years, on giving twelve months notice of such their intention, if it shall be so determined by three fourth parts of the owners or occupiers of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, assessed to the poor's rates, and qualified as aforesaid, at a public meeting, summoned by due notice as aforesaid, specifying the occasion of such meeting; and in such case they shall receive one half of their due proportion, to be ascertained by the persons above named, or such other persons as the parties shall agree upon for that purpose, of the value of the furniture, stock, utensils, and implements, then remaining at such poor house, after paying their proportion of the rent, and of the salaries to the governor and other officers, to the end of the then growing year: And that the guardians of the poor of each parish, township, and place shall provide suitable and convenient clothing for the poor, to be sent to the said house or houses from their respective parishes, townships, or places, and charge the expences thereof in their accounts. And we recommend to the justices of the limit where such house is to be situated, A. B., C. D., and E. F., as persons duly qualified for the office of visitor of the said poor house, and I. K., L. M., and N. O., as persons duly qualified for the office of governor of the said poor house.

We A. B. and C. D., the justices of peace mentioned in the } within written agreement, do hereby give our approbation to } the parishes and places herein named being united for the } purposes of the act within mentioned. }

MODE of adjusting the First Account mentioned in the Act respecting Utensils, Materials, Furniture, Rent, et cetera.

LET it be supposed that the parishes or townships of A., B., C., and D., have agreed to be united under the authority of the act; and that E. and F. are the persons named in the agreement as arbitrators, or referees, to settle and adjust the proportions which each parish or place is to pay.

It will be necessary for E. and F. at their first meeting, to call upon the officers of every such parish, township or place, for their assessments and accounts, in order to see what they have paid to their poor on a medium of three years preceding the agreement; who are required by the act to produce them, under a penalty for refusal.

When the arbitrators have got these materials, it will be necessary to separate and deduct every matter which does not relate to the poor; for instance, money paid to the county rates, or for the expences of the constable, headborough or militia, which are all now included in the poor's rates; and, as some of these parishes may have had expences occasioned by litigations about settlements and removals, and others may not, they should exclude all such expences in the account.

When the accounts have been so inspected and examined, and the proper deductions made, they may be supposed to appear:

That A. has paid for the first of the three years	-	-	-	65	7	6
for the second year	-	-	-	87	2	0
for the third year	-	-	-	105	0	0
Making together	-	-	-	257	9	6

A third part of which sum (being A. 's medium) will be	-	-	-	85	16	6
Let B. 's payments be calculated in the same manner, which may be supposed to amount, on the medium of three years, to	-	-	-	110	0	0
C. 's do. to	-	-	-	97	0	0
D. 's do. to	-	-	-	140	0	0

The total amount of the annual payments will be 432 16 6

Suppose the month's expences paid by the several parishes under the above heads, according to the directions of the act, should amount to 300*l.* the question will be, If 432*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.* (the total medium of all the parishes) required 300*l.*, what will 85*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.* require? When that shall be worked by the rule of three, multiplying the third number by the second, and dividing it, when so multiplied, by the first, the answer will be,

That A. 's proportion amounts to	-	-	-	59	9	5
B. 's proportion, when worked in the same manner, will be	-	-	-	76	5	0
C. 's do.	-	-	-	67	4	7
D. 's do.	-	-	-	97	1	0

Making together the whole sum expended 300 0 0

When those medium sums shall be settled and proportioned at their first meeting, there will be no occasion to repeat that trouble afterwards, as the first sum will be the same on all future calculations; and to prevent trouble in adjusting the proportions at every monthly meeting, at every poorhouse, soon after the first medium proportion shall be so ascertained, there shall be a table fixed, calculating the proportions of each parish, township or place, to any given sum, from the smallest to the greatest, that is likely to be expended in that district within the month; which will make every account clear and easy to the meanest understanding, and will be liquidated in an instant.

No. 16. (See s. 24. pl. 64.)

MODE of adjusting the Second Account mentioned in the Act, respecting the Victuals, Beer, Firing, and other Necessaries.

As soon as the agreement is made for uniting several parishes, &c. the guardians shall meet and consider what will be a proper weekly sum to be paid into the hands of the treasurer for every person admitted into the poor house, estimating it as near as they can to the probable expence of maintaining them; the guardians should pay to the treasurer, at every monthly meeting, what shall be due for every such person, upon that calculation, for the time he has been kept there in the month preceding; and, in order to avoid fractions, if any person shall have been there four days, or more, in any of the weeks, it should be considered as a full week, and if less than four days, no charge shall be made for it: That, in order to avoid difficulties in adjusting the account, a table should be provided, in like manner as before, and fixed up in the house, with proper columns for the number of persons, the number of weeks, and the total amount, according to the weekly sum so agreed upon; by which that account will likewise be settled without the least trouble or difficulty.

RULES, ORDERS, BYE-LAWS and REGULATIONS, to be observed and enforced at every POOR HOUSE to be provided and established under the Authority of the Act of the Twenty-second Year of King George the Third. (EXTENDED to all Poor Houses, 49 G. 3. c. 124. s. 5. pl. 90.)

First. THAT the several persons who shall be sent to any such poor house, who are capable of doing any work, shall be employed by the governor in some labour which may be best suited to their strength and capacity.

Second. That the governor shall take particular care to keep the said house, and the several apartments therein, and also the several persons who shall inhabit the same, clean and wholesome; and for that purpose he shall employ such of the said poor persons who shall be sent thither, whom he shall think most able and best qualified for the offices, to assist him therein, and also in the providing and dressing victuals for the use of such poor persons; and if any such poor person shall refuse or neglect to perform the work or labour in which he or she shall be so employed, or shall be directed to do by the governor, every such person shall be punished by confinement or alteration of diet, in such manner as the governor shall direct; and for a second offence of the like sort, complaint thereof shall be made to some justice of the peace for the limit, who, on conviction, shall commit such person to the house of correction for any time not exceeding two calendar months nor less than one calendar month.

Third. That the apartments in the house or houses to be provided as aforesaid, shall be adapted so as to accommodate the poor who shall be sent thither in the best manner they are capable.—That the governor shall place in the best apartments such poor persons who, having been creditable housekeepers, are reduced by misfortune, in preference to those who are become poor by vice and idleness; and that separate apartments shall be provided for the reception of the sick and distempered poor, and an apothecary or surgeon to be sent for to attend them when there shall appear necessity for it, at the expence of the parish or place to which such poor persons belong.

Fourth. That such poor persons who are able to work, shall be called up by ring of bell, and set to work by six in the morning from Lady Day to Michaelmas, and by eight from Michaelmas to Lady Day: and continue until four in the afternoon from Michaelmas to Lady Day, and from Lady Day to Michaelmas till six in the afternoon (meal times and times for reasonable recreation excepted); and if any such poor person shall refuse or neglect to do such work as shall be allotted him or her, or wilfully spoil the same, or depart from such house without leave from the governor, or shall be guilty of any disorder or disobedience to these rules and orders, the governor shall reprove such person for the same, and punish him or her by confinement or alteration of diet, as the said governor shall think fit; and if such person shall be guilty of the like offence a second time, the governor shall complain thereof to the visitor of such house, who is hereby authorized to order the punishment of confinement to be increased to such degree as he shall think fit.

Fifth. That the governor shall enter in a book to be kept by him, an account of the household goods, linen, furniture and utensils, provided for the said house; and also an account of the materials bought for manufacture, and of the goods manufactured there; which shall be laid before the guardians at their monthly meeting, and before the visitor whenever he comes to such house.

Sixth. That the governor shall visit the several persons maintained in such house or houses, and their apartments, once at least in every day; and shall take care that there is no waste of fire, candles, or provisions; and shall see that the fires and candles are put out at the hours fixed for such persons going to bed, which shall be at eight of the clock between Michaelmas and Lady Day, and nine between Lady Day and Michaelmas.

Seventh. That when any person shall die in the house, the governor shall take care that the body of such person be immediately removed into some separate apartment, and be decently buried as soon as conveniently may be; and also take care of the cloaths and goods of such person, and deliver them to the guardian of the poor of the parish or place to which such person did belong, who is to pay the charges of the funeral of such poor person.

Eighth. That no poor person be permitted to go out of the poor house, nor any person permitted to come into such house or houses, except the persons maintained and employed there, without the permission of the governor; and that no spirituous liquors be permitted to be drank in such house or houses; and that no other liquor shall be brought thither, without the permission of the said governor.

Ninth. That the rules, orders and bye-laws shall be publicly read by the governor to all the poor persons kept in such house or houses, once at least in every month.

Tenth. That all the poor persons able to go to church, shall attend divine service every Sunday.

Eleventh. That the governor shall dismiss from the poor house or workhouse, every person who shall, in the opinion of the guardian or guardians, be thought improper to continue longer there, and upon an order from him or them for that purpose.

F. as the case may be*], that he (or she) the said _____ his (or her) said apprentice, in the art and mystery of a chimney-sweeper, which he (or she) now useth, shall and will teach and instruct, or cause to be taught and instructed, in the best manner that he (or she) can, and shall and will provide and allow unto the said apprentice, during all the said term, competent and sufficient meat, drink, washing, lodging, apparel, and all other things necessary for the said apprentice: And that the said executors, administrators, or assigns, shall not nor will assign over this present indenture, or the apprentice to be bound thereby, without the consent and approbation, in writing, of two or more such justices of the peace, to be signified according to the form of the approbation hereunder written. And whereas, from the nature of the business or employment of a chimney sweeper, it is necessary for the boys employed in climbing to have a dress particularly suited to that purpose, which dress is only fit for that part of the occupation; the said _____ doth hereby also covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said churchwardens and overseers of the poor [or the said E. F. as the case may be] to find and allow such suitable dress for the said apprentice, as often as need or occasion shall be and require, and provide for and deliver to the said apprentice, once in every year at least, during the term aforesaid, over and above the said dress proper for climbing, one whole and complete suit of clothing, with suitable linen, stockings, hats, and shoes: And further, that the said _____ shall and will, at least once in every week, cause the said apprentice to be thoroughly washed and cleansed from soot and dirt, and shall and will require the said apprentice to attend the public worship of God on the Sabbath day, and permit and allow him to receive the benefit of any other religious instruction; and that the said apprentice shall not wear his sweeping dress on that day: And that the said _____ shall not nor will compel or oblige the said apprentice to call the streets or any other places, before seven of the clock in the morning, nor after twelve of the clock at noon, between Michaelmas and Lady Day, nor before five of the clock in the morning, nor after twelve of the clock at noon, between Lady Day and Michaelmas: And that the said shall not, nor will at any time during the said term, let out his (or her) said apprentice for hire by the day, night, or otherwise, to any other person or persons exercising or using the said trade, nor shall the said or any person or persons whomsoever by his (or her) directions, require or force him the said apprentice to climb or go up any chimney which shall be actually on fire, nor make use of any violent or improper means to force him to climb or go up any such chimney; but shall in all things treat his (or her) said apprentice with as much humanity and care as the nature of the employment of a chimney sweeper will admit of. In witness, &c.
